NOTICE

APRIL 22, 1938.

To C. W. POORE, JAY POORE, AND FORREST POORE, doing business as McCook Livestock Exchange, McCook, Nebr.

Whereas, Section 301 of Title III of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate and foreign commerce in livestock, livestock products, dairy products, poultry, poultry products, and eggs, and for other purposes", approved August 15, 1921, provides in part that, when used in said Act, the term "stockyard owner" means any person engaged in the business of conducting or operating a stockyard; and Section 302 of said Act provides as follows:

(a) When used in this title the term "stockyard" means any place, establishment, or facility commonly known as stockyards, conducted or operated for compensation or profit as a public market, consisting of pens, or other inclosures, and their appurtenances, in which live cattle, sheep, swine, horses, mules, or goats are received, held, or kept for sale or shipment in commerce. This title shall not apply to a stockyard of which the area normally available for handling livestock, exclusive of runs, alleys, or passage ways, is less than twenty thousand square feet.

(b) The Secretary shall from time to time ascertain, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, the stockyards which come within the foregoing definition, and shall give notice thereof to the stockyard owners concerned, and give public notice thereof by posting copies of such notice in the stockyard, and in such other manner as he may determine. After the giving of such notice to the stockyard owner and to the public, the stock yard shall remain subject to the provisions of this title until like notice is given by the Secretary that such stockyard no longer comes within the foregoing definition:

And, whereas the McCook Livestock Exchange, at McCook, Nebraska, was posted on the 4th day of December, 1937, as coming within the foregoing definition;

And, whereas after an inquiry it has been ascertained by me as Secretary of Agriculture of the United States that the area now operated as a public stockyard by the McCook Livestock Exchange is less than the minimum specified in the Packers and Stockyards Act and is, therefore, no longer required to be designated and posted under said Act:

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the McCook Livestock Exchange, McCook, Nebraska, no longer comes within the foregoing definition and the provisions of Title III of said Act.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

CHANNEL ISLANDS NATIONAL MONUMENT—CALIFORNIA

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS certain public islands lying off the coast of Southern California contain fossils of Pleistocene elephants and ancient trees, and furnish noteworthy examples of ancient volcanism, deposition, and active sea erosion, and have situated thereon various other objects of geological and scientific interest; and

WHEREAS it appears that it would be in the public interest to reserve such lands as a national monument, to be known as the Channel Islands National Monument:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 2 of the act of June 8, 1906, ch. 3060, 34 Stat. 225 (U. S. C., title 16, sec. 431), do proclaim that, subject to all valid existing rights, the following-described lands in California are hereby reserved from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws and set apart as the Channel Islands National Monument:

All of that part of the Anacapa Island Lighthouse Reservation, a group of three islets known as Anacapa Island, approximate area 700 acres, reserved by Executive Order of September 11, 1854, except the following described parcels of land:

Parcel I. All of the land comprising the east islet of the group lying eastward of West Longitude 119°22'38" (North American Datum 1927) comprising 106.88 acres more or less.

Parcel II. All of the land comprising the middle islet lying between West Longitude 119°23'21" and 119°23'30" and south of Latitude 34°00'14" North comprising 7.68 acres more or less.

Parcel III. All of the land comprising the west islet lying westward of West Longitude 119°26'10" comprising 46.72 acres more or less.

Parcel IV. The entire area of Cat Rock, which lies off the southern extremity of the west islet comprising .5 acre more or less.

The area reserved for the national monument on Anacapa Island contains 538.22 acres more or less.

All of Santa Barbara Island, area 638.72 acres, reserved for lighthouse purposes by Executive Order of August 24, 1905, excepting the following-described parcels of land:

Parcel I. Beginning at a point in the high water line at the northwesterly side of the island which bears 258° 50' true azimuth from north, a distance of 525 feet more or less from the center of Santa Barbara Island North End Light tower; thence 110° true azimuth from north a distance of 1000 feet more or less to the intersection with the high water line at the northeasterly side of the island; thence along the high water line around the northerly point of the island to the point of beginning comprising 16 acres more or less.

Parcel II. Beginning at a point in the high water line at the southwesterly side of the island which bears 223° true azimuth from north a distance of 300 feet more or less from the center of Santa Barbara Island South End Light tower; thence 90° true azimuth from north a distance of 800 feet to a point; thence 330°30' true azimuth from north a distance of 2150 feet to a point; thence 270° true azimuth from north a distance of 800 feet more or less to the intersection with the high water line at the westerly side of the island; thence southerly along the high water line to the point of beginning comprising 40.96 acres more or less.

The area reserved for the national monument on Santa Barbara Island contains 581.76 acres more or less.

The reservation made by this proclamation supersedes as to any of the above-described lands affected thereby the withdrawal made by Executive Orders of September 11, 1854, January 26, 1867, and August 24, 1905. However, the lands excepted in the above descriptions shall remain under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Lighthouses of the Department of Commerce, as provided by the Executive orders referred to. The Bureau of Lighthouses of the Department of Commerce shall have the right of ingress and egress as to any part of Santa Barbara Island for the purpose of transporting all necessary equipment for servicing the established lights.

Warning is hereby expressly given to all unauthorized persons not to appropriate, injure, destroy, or remove any feature of this monument, and not to locate or settle upon any of the lands thereof.

The Director of the National Park Service, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, shall have the supervision, management, and control of this monument as provided in the act of Congress entitled "An act to establish a National Park Service, and for other purposes," approved August 25, 1916, 39 Stat. 535 (U. S. C., title 16, secs. 1 and 2), and acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

PREPARED AND PROPOSED BY THE NORTHWEST COOPERATIVE SALES ASSOCIATION AND UPON WHICH SAID ASSOCIATION HAS REQUESTED THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE TO HOLD A HEARING UNDER THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING AGREEMENT ACT OF 1937

Whereas, the Northwest Cooperative Sales Association has requested the Secretary to hold a public hearing on a marketing agreement and order, prepared and proposed by such association and designed to regulate such handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement or the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, with respect to such handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk; and

Whereas, under said act notice of and opportunity for a hearing are required prior to the execution of a marketing agreement or the issuance of an order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice;

Now, therefore, pursuant to said act and said General Regulations, notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at the Hotel Waldorf, 310 Summit Street, Toledo, Ohio, on May 10, 1938, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., on the aforementioned marketing agreement and order, prepared and proposed by the aforementioned association and designed to regulate such handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk.

At this public hearing, representatives of the Secretary will receive factual evidence (1) as to whether marketing conditions for such handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk are so disorderly as to necessitate regulation in order that the declared policy of the act may be effectuated, and (2) as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement or order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement or order provide, among other things, for: (a) selection of a market administrator, (b) classification of milk, (c) minimum prices, (d) reports of handlers, (e) payments to producers through the use of individual handler pools, (f) deductions from payments to producers for marketing services by the market administrator, and (g) expenses of administration.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of milk in the aforesaid area which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

REVISED RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE MOVEMENT OF PLANTS AND PLANT PRODUCTS INTO AND OUT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Introductory Note

The supply of the last revised edition of the plant regulations relating to the District of Columbia having become exhausted, advantage is taken of the necessity for a reprint, of simplifying the form and wording of the regulations without material change in shipping requirements. The definition of nursery stock as stated in paragraph (a) of regulation

1 is clarified. The list of domestic plant quarantines formerly published in the appendix is eliminated, since up-to-date copies of such quarantines are always available from this Bureau.

SUMMARY

Shipments Into the District of Columbia

Woody plants and foreign seeds.—A valid nursery-inspection certificate of the State, Territory, or country of origin must be attached to the outside of each container of woody plants or parts thereof capable of propagation (except domestic-grown seeds and fruit pits), shipped into the District of Columbia, and the container must be marked to show the nature of the contents. Such certification and marking are also required for foreign-grown seeds of woody plants, of palms, of Vicia (vetch, etc.), and of Lathyrus (sweet peas, etc.).

Herbaceous plants.—The container of each shipment of herbaceous perennials (including strawberry plants), bulbs, and roots, consigned to the District of Columbia must be marked to show the nature of the contents. (Herbaceous plants from foreign countries must meet the certification and marking requirements of Federal plant quarantine No. 37.)

Shipments Out of the District of Columbia

A certificate or permit issued by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine must be attached to the outside of each shipment of woody or herbaceous plants, bulbs, roots, foreign-grown seeds of woody plants, of palms, of Vicia (vetch, etc.), and of Lathyrus (sweet peas, etc.) consigned from the District of Columbia to points outside. Each shipment is also subject to the restrictions of any Federal plant quarantine or order applicable thereto. To arrange for inspection, apply at the Plant Inspection House of this Bureau, Twelfth Street and Constitution Avenue NW. (District 6350, branch 4495), Washington, D. C.

Acting Chief, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

REVISED RULES AND REGULATIONS

[Approved April 27, 1938; effective April 30, 1938]

I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, as required by the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), as amended, do order that no plants or plant products shall be moved into or out of the District of Columbia except in compliance with the rules and regulations supplemental hereto which are hereby promulgated: Provided, That certain plants or plant products may be exempted from these rules and regulations by administrative instructions issued by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine when, in his judgment, such articles are considered innocuous as carriers of dangerous plant pests.

Regulation 1.—Definitions

For the purpose of these regulations, the following words, names, and terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Nursery stock.—All trees, shrubs, and plants having a persistent woody stem, and parts thereof capable of propagation, except fruit pits and seeds, provided that foreign-grown seeds of woody plants, of palms, of Vicia (vetch, etc.), and of Lathyrus (sweet peas, etc.), are defined as nursery stock.

This term includes fibrous-rotted perennials, such as strawberry plants and phlox; bulbs, such as narcissus and crocus; corms, such as gladiolus; tubers, such as dahlia; fleshy roots, such as peony; rhizomes, such as iris; and such greenhouse-grown plants as ferns, geraniums, orchids, etc.

(c) Annual plants.—Plants grown from seed for bloom or food the same season and living only 1 year. This term includes such plants as cabbage, tomato, and aster.

(d) Inspector.—Plant quarantine inspector of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Regulation 2.—Unrestricted articles

No requirements as to certification or labeling are placed by these regulations[1] on the entry into or movement out of the District of Columbia of (1) annual plants, cut flowers, or decorative plant material (such as branches and Christmas trees); (2) seeds, except certain foreign-grown seeds as defined in paragraph (a) of regulation 1; nor of (3) other plants and plant products not included in the definitions in paragraphs (a) and (b) of regulation 1. The requirements as to delivery of plant materials are stated in paragraphs (c) and (d) of regulation 3.

SHIPMENTS INTO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Regulation 3.—Requirements relating to nursery stock and other plants and plant products

(a) Certification and marking of nursery stock.—No nursery stock as defined in regulation 1 shall be moved into the District of Columbia unless a valid certificate signed by the State nursery or horticultural inspector of the State or Territory or country from which the stock is shipped is attached to the outside of each package or other container. Each package or other container shall in addition be plainly marked with the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee and with a statement showing the nature of the contents.

(b) Marking of herbaceous perennials, bulbs, or roots.—No herbaceous perennial plants, bulbs, or roots, as defined in regulation 1, shall be moved into the District of Columbia unless the container thereof is plainly marked with the names and addresses of the consignor and consignee and with a statement showing the nature of the contents.[2]

(c) Delivery of plants and plant products.—No nursery stock, herbaceous plants, bulbs, or roots, originating outside of the District of Columbia shall be delivered to the consignee in the District of Columbia by a common carrier or other person until such delivery is authorized by an inspector of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(d) All nursery stock and herbaceous perennial plants, bulbs, and roots, annual plants, decorative plant material, and other plants and plant products, whether restricted or unrestricted, addressed to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., shall be delivered only at the Plant Inspection House of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine (Twelfth Street and Constitution Avenue NW.).

Regulation 4.—Shipments which fail to comply with regulations

Plants and plant products shipped into the District of Columbia, which are found to be infected or infested with any plant pest or disease, or which have not been moved in full compliance with these regulations, may be disposed of as authorized in the Plant Quarantine Act.

[1] Compliance with any special plant quarantine or restrictive order which may be applicable thereto is required. Information relative to such restrictions may be obtained from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

[2] Herbaceous plants of foreign origin must be marked in accordance with the provisions of Federal Quarantine No. 37 (Nursery stock, plants, and seeds).

SHIPMENTS OUT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Regulation 5.—Certification of Nursery Stock and Herbaceous Perennial Plants, Bulbs, and Roots

(a) No nursery stock, or herbaceous perennial plants, bulbs, or roots, as defined in regulation 1, shall be moved out of the District of Columbia unless a certificate or permit has been issued therefor by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. Each package or other container of such plants, bulbs, or roots shall have such a certificate or permit attached to the outside thereof.

(b) A certificate or permit may be issued for the movement out of the District of Columbia of the nursery stock covered by this regulation, when it has been examined by an inspector and found apparently free from dangerous plant diseases and insects and when such shipment is found to comply in full with all Federal quarantine regulations.

(c) Nursery stock, herbaceous perennial plants, bulbs, or roots, to be shipped out of the District of Columbia must be presented at the Plant Inspection House of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine (Twelfth Street and Constitution Avenue NW.) for inspection at the time of shipment unless otherwise authorized by an inspector.

When large shipments are contemplated, arrangements may be made for inspection at other places by telephoning District 6350, branch 4495, or writing the Bureau.

Application for inspection of articles the movement of which is restricted by quarantine regulations or other restrictive orders shall be made at a season of the year sufficiently in advance of the contemplated date of shipment to provide for compliance with regulations.

(d) No common carrier or other person shall accept for shipment or remove from the District of Columbia any nursery stock, herbaceous perennial plants, bulbs, or roots, unless the required certificate or permit has been issued and is securely attached to the outside of each container.

These revised rules and regulations shall be effective on and after April 30, 1938, and shall supersede the rules and regulations governing the movement of plants and plant products into and out of the District of Columbia, promulgated April 29, 1931.

Done at the city of Washington this 27 day of April 1938.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE ISSUANCE OF, AND TRANSACTIONS AND OPERATIONS IN, COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION SECURITIES

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Commodity Credit Corporation by the Act approved March 8, 1938 (Public No. 442, 75th Congress), the following regulations governing Commodity Credit Corporation bonds, notes, debentures, and other similar obligations (hereinafter referred to as securities) are hereby promulgated.

1. Authority for issue.—Section 4 of the Act approved March 8, 1938 (Public No. 442, 75th Congress) reads, in part, as follows:

"With the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Commodity Credit Corporation is authorized to issue and have outstanding at any one time, bonds, notes, debentures, and other similar obligations in an aggregate amount not exceeding $500,000,000. Such obligations shall be in such forms and denominations, shall have such maturities, shall bear such rates of interest, shall be subject to such terms and conditions, and shall be issued in such manner and sold at such prices as may be prescribed by the Commodity Credit Corporation, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Such obligations shall be fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to interest and principal by the United States, and such guaranty shall be expressed on the face thereof, and such obligations shall be lawful investments and may be accepted as security for all fiduciary, trust, and public funds the investment or deposit of which shall be under the authority or control of the United States or any officer or officers thereof. In the event that the Commodity Credit Corporation shall be unable to pay upon demand, when due, the principal of, or interest on, such obligations, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to the holder the amount thereof which is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and thereupon to the extent of the amount so paid the Secretary of the Treasury shall succeed to all the rights of the holders of such obligations."

2. Form of securities.—The securities of the Corporation shall be in such forms and denominations, shall have such maturities, shall bear such rates of interest, shall be issued in such manner and sold at such prices as may be prescribed by the Commodity Credit Corporation, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, in the issuing circular for each particular series. The text of the securities of each particular series shall be prescribed by the Corporation, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Corporation may from time to time issue interim certificates temporarily in lieu of definitive securities, in such form and in such manner as the Corporation, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may determine. The securities shall be executed in the name of the Commodity Credit Corporation and authenticated by the facsimile signature of its President. The seal of the Corporation shall be affixed, attested by the Secretary of the Commodity Credit Corporation by facsimile signature. The principal and interest shall be payable, when due, at the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., or at any Federal Reserve bank, or at such other agency or agencies as the Secretary of the Treasury at the request of the Corporation may from time to time designate for that purpose. A coupon security shall be payable to bearer and shall have attached interest coupons likewise payable to bearer representing interest payable semi-annually, such coupons being signed by the Commodity Credit Corporation by facsimile signature of its President. A registered security and interest thereon shall be payable to the registered owner, whose name is inscribed thereon, or his or its registered assigns.

3. Transactions and operations.—The statutes of the United States and the general regulations of the United States Treasury Department, now or hereafter in force, governing the issue, transfer, exchange, purchase, redemption, payment, and retirement of United States Treasury bonds, the payment of interest thereon, and relief on account of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement thereof, so far as applicable, are hereby adopted as the regulations of the Commodity Credit Corporation for similar transactions and operations in securities of the Corporation.

4. Administration.—The United States Treasury Department will act as agent for the Commodity Credit Corporation in connection with the issue, transfer, exchange, purchase, redemption, payment, and retirement of securities of the Corporation, the payment of interest thereon, and the issue of duplicates, or payment, of lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, or defaced securities. The Secretary of the Treasury or the Acting Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and empowered on behalf of the Commodity Credit Corporation, to administer the regulations governing such transactions and operations, to do all things necessary to conduct all such transactions and operations, and to delegate such authority at his discretion to other officers, employees, and agents of the United States Treasury Department. The Secretary, the Under Secretary, or any Assistant Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to waive any such regulations on behalf of the Commodity Credit Corporation at his discretion in any particular case where a similar regulation of the Treasury Department with respect to United States Treasury bonds or interest thereon would be waived.

5. Amendments.—The Commodity Credit Corporation reserves the right at any time or from time to time, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to revoke or amend these regulations or to prescribe and issue supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing securities of the Corporation or interest thereon, or any transactions or operations therein.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 3386]

IN THE MATTER OF MASTER LOCK COMPANY

COMPLAINT

The Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that the Master Lock Company, hereinafter called Respondent, since June 19, 1936, has been and is now violating the provisions of Section 2 (a) of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914, (Public No. 212, the Clayton Act), as amended by Section 1 of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to amend Section 2 of the Act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes,' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., title 15, sec. 13), and for other purposes," approved June 19, 1936, (Public No. 692, the Robinson-Patman Act), hereby issues this its complaint against respondent and states its charges with respect thereto as follows, to-wit:

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Wisconsin and has its principal office and place of business at 926 W. Juneau Avenue in the city of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

PAR. 2. At all times since June 19, 1936, respondent has been and is now engaged in the business of manufacturing, selling and distributing padlocks. In the course and conduct of its said business, the respondent has been and is now manufacturing such locks at its place of business in the State of Wisconsin and has been and is now selling, shipping, and distributing such locks in commerce from its said place of business in the State of Wisconsin to various purchasers of said commodity located in the several states of the United States and in the District of Columbia. At all times since June 19, 1936, there has been and is now between respondent and purchasers of said commodity a course of trade and commerce in said commodity in and between the State of Wisconsin and the several other States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

PAR. 3. The said respondent in the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid has been and is now in direct active competition with other persons, partnerships and corporations similarly engaged in selling, shipping and distributing padlocks. Some of such other corporations are Yale & Towne Manufacturing Company of Stamford, Connecticut and The Corbin Co., Inc., American Steel & Wire Co., The H. L. Judd Co. and Norwalk Lock Company, all located in New York, New York.

PAR. 4. Since June 19, 1936, in the course and conduct of its business described in Paragraph Two hereof and while engaged in trade and commerce between the State of Wisconsin and the other States of the United States and the District of Columbia, the respondent has been and is now discriminating in price between purchasers of said commodity of like grade and quality sold and shipped in commerce, as aforesaid, by respondent to said purchasers and by them purchased from respondent in commerce for resale within the several States of the United States and the District of Columbia in that the respondent has been and is now allowing to some of said purchasers a larger discount from uniform prices at which said commodity was and is sold to them by respondent than the discount which respondent has been and is now allowing to other purchasers competitively engaged with those receiving the larger discount; additionally, respondent, in the course of such commerce, has been and is now allowing to some of said purchasers an additional allowance of an amount equal to freight payments from factory to purchaser on such purchases and not granting such allowance to purchasers competing with those receiving such freight allowances.

PAR. 5. The said respondent, in the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, has been and is now selling to the following customers among others located in Chicago, Illinois: E. J. Ewert & Company, Inc., Johnson Brothers Hardware Company, Clark Barlow Hardware Company, Rehm Hardware Company, Stebbins Hardware Company, United Hardware Company, Butler Brothers and Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Company. Customers of respondent are all granted a 50% discount from a uniform price list. Two of respondent's largest customers, Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Company and Butler Brothers, are granted a further allowance of 5% which their competitors do not receive.

PAR. 6. Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Company are, in addition to the two preceding discounts, granted an allowance equal to the freight on their purchases from respondent. The aforesaid customers of respondent are competitively engaged among themselves in the jobbing of locks in the City of Chicago and elsewhere. Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Company and Butler Brothers actively compete with those who do not receive freight allowances or the additional 5% discount referred to. Respondent represents that all padlock prices are quoted f. o. b. Milwaukee. By letter dated July 9, 1936, the respondent advised one of its jobbing customers in Chicago, namely W. D. Allen Manufacturing Company, as follows:

"This will acknowledge your debit memorandum of July 8th for $1.49 covering freight on the June 29th shipment.

"We believe this memorandum was sent to us by mistake inasmuch as all Master Padlock prices are quoted f. o. b. Milwaukee, as you will recall, and we are therefore returning the debit to you with this letter, together with the freight bill."

PAR. 7. On January 8, 1938, respondent, in the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, sold and shipped to Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Company a bill of goods and granted discounts as indicated by the following invoice:

PAR. 8. The said respondent, in the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, has been and is now selling to the following customers among others located in New York City, New York: Worth Hardware Company, Inc., William L. Blumberg Company, Inc., Underhill-Clinch & Company, William Goldenblum & Company, Inc., Masbach Hardware Company and Butler Brothers New York branch. These customers are all competitively engaged with each other in the jobbing of locks. Respondent has been and is now selling to all customers at a uniform list price less 50% and additionally, its largest customer in New York City, Masbach Hardware Company, and Butler Brothers are allowed a further 5% discount on goods of like grade and quality, which 5% their competitors do not receive.

PAR. 9. The said respondent, in the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, has been and is now selling padlocks to Shapleigh Hardware Company of St. Louis, Missouri. The said Shapleigh Hardware Company purchases padlocks from respondent at the uniform list price less 50% and an additional discount of 5% and an allowance equal to the freight charges from factory on its purchases from respondent. Respondent has been and is now likewise selling to numerous other customers located in St. Louis, Missouri and elsewhere, which customers are engaged in commerce in the jobbing of padlocks and in the course and conduct of such business are in direct active competition with the Shapleigh Hardware Company and do not receive freight allowances or the additional 5% discount heretofore referred to.

PAR. 10. The said respondent, in the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, has been and is now selling to numerous customers competitively engaged in commerce with another of its large customers, namely Belknap Hardware & Manufacturing Company of Louisville, Kentucky. Such customers of respondent are engaged in the jobbing of padlocks in the City of Louisville and elsewhere and are in direct active competition in commerce with Belknap Hardware & Manufacturing Company and do not receive the additional allowance of 5% heretofore referred to. On May 21, 1937 respondent sold to and shipped for Belknap Hardware & Manufacturing Company to Thomasville, Georgia, a bill of goods and granted discounts as indicated by the following invoice:

PAR. 11. Respondent in its sales in commerce, as aforesaid, generally pursues a policy of granting the additional 5% discount and freight allowance referred to above to customers whose cumulative annual purchases amount to in excess of $10,000 a year. However, in connection with such policy, it grants and allows the 5% discount to Butler Brothers of Chicago, Illinois, which maintain branches in Chicago, Illinois, Boston, Massachusetts, New York, New York, Minneapolis, Minnesota and San Francisco, California. No single branch purchases amount to $10,000 during a year. Generally the individual jobbers named herein who do not receive the 5% purchase in an amount between $3,000 and $5,000 a year.

PAR. 12. The effect of the discriminations in price of 5% and freight allowances may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in the line of commerce in which the respondent is engaged and in the line of commerce in which its customers are engaged, or to injure, destroy or prevent competition with respondent or those customers of respondent receiving the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either of them.

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 22nd day of April, A. D. 1938, now issues this its complaint against said respondent.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given you, Master Lock Company, respondent herein, that the 27th day of May, A. D. 1938, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violation of the law charged in the complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. * * * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided or failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further hearing or notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint, and to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent findings of fact and an order to cease and desist.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the charges set forth in the complaint and not to contest the proceeding the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of the complaint to be true. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

ADOPTION OF RULE 9C-4

Acting pursuant to the authority conferred upon it by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and particularly sections 9 (c) and 20 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary and appropriate, and not detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers, the Securities and Exchange Commission hereby adopts a rule which shall be known as Rule 9C-4 and shall read as follows:

RULE 9C-4. Applications for approval of investment programs for current funds of registered holding companies or subsidiaries

(a) Any registered holding company or any subsidiary company thereof (hereinafter referred to as the acquirer), may use current funds to purchase for cash any security, if the Commission shall have entered an order pursuant to paragraph (e) of this rule approving an investment program providing for the purchase of such security, and if such acquisition conforms to the conditions specified in such order and in the subsequent paragraphs of this rule, Section 9 (a) of the Act shall not apply to any such acquisition.

(b) No security may be acquired pursuant to this rule unless an active market exists for such security other than one made by the acquirer, or by any person acting for the acquirer, or by any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the acquirer.

(c) No security may in any event be acquired pursuant to this rule if such security is:

(1) A security of which the issuer is an investment trust or an investment company; or

(2) A security of which the issuer is a holding company unless such issuer is also a public utility company and at least 50 percent of the aggregate gross revenues of the issuer and all subsidiaries of the issuer is derived from the operations of the issuer as a public utility company; or

(3) A security issued or assumed by the acquirer or by any predecessor of the acquirer or by a company which is, or will by virtue of such acquisition become an associate company, or an affiliate, of the acquirer.

Such order shall contain such limitations upon the duration of the exemption herein provided, and shall embody such other terms and conditions (including requirements as to reporting such acquisitions) as appear to the Commission to be necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers, or to prevent the circumvention of any of the provisions of the Act or any rules, regulations or orders thereunder.

(d) An application for approval of an investment program under this rule shall comply with the provisions of Rule 2 as to number of copies, form and execution and shall also:

(1) State the source and amount of current funds which the acquirer seeks to qualify for the purposes of such investment program;

(2) Describe in detail the investment program, including any limitations as to the types of issuing companies and securities, or as to the amount or percent of the total outstanding securities of any specified class to be acquired;

(3) If the proposed investment program may involve the purchase of:

(A) Any securities issued by any registered holding company or subsidiary company thereof, or any company as to which an application has been filed which the Commission has not acted upon, for an order declaring it not to be such a subsidiary company; or

(B) Any securities issued by any public utility company of which the acquirer owns, or upon completion of the proposed acquisition will own, more than 1 percent of the total outstanding voting securities; specify the name of any such issuing company and the maximum amount of each class of securities which may be acquired; and

(4) State such further facts as will enable the Commission to find that the conditions specified in paragraph (e) hereof are satisfied.

(e) The Commission, after hearing on such application, will approve such investment program, or any part thereof, if the Commission finds that:

(1) The funds to be invested are not necessary or appropriate for working capital, for the retirement of indebtedness or of any outstanding securities of the acquirer, or for any other purpose pertinent to its business, having due regard to the course which the acquirer may be expected to pursue to comply with section 11 (b) of the Act or to cease to be a holding company; and

(2) The acquisition of such securities will not be detrimental to carrying out the provisions of section 11, will not tend towards interlocking relations or the concentration of control of public utility companies of a kind or to an extent detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers, or will be in any other respect detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers.

(f) Any person making any acquisition pursuant to the provisions of this rule shall file a report within 30 days (or such earlier period as the Commission may in its order prescribe) after obtaining an order of the Commission pursuant to the provisions of this rule and every 30 days thereafter while such order is in effect. Such report shall specify all acquisitions and sales of securities by the acquirer subsequent to the last filing of an application or report pursuant to this rule, the cost or sale prices thereof, and indicate as to each such transaction the reason why applicant deems such transaction consistent with the provisions of the Act and the terms and conditions of any rule or order of the Commission, and such other matters as the Commission may in its order prescribe.

(g) If the Commission at any time shall find that any acquirer has violated, is violating, or is about to violate any provision of the Act or any rule or regulation thereunder, or any term or condition of an order pursuant to paragraph (d) of this rule, the Commission shall revoke such order. Pending any inquiry to determine whether any such order shall be revoked, the Commission may summarily suspend such order.

THE PANAMA CANAL.

[Circular No. 731]

RULES GOVERNING CASH RELIEF FOR DISABLED EMPLOYEES ENTITLED TO BENEFITS OF ACT OF CONGRESS OF JULY 8, 1937

BALBOA HEIGHTS, C. Z., March 29, 1938.

1. Under the authority vested in the Governor of The Panama Canal by Executive Order of March 12, 1938 (No. 7837), the following rules will govern in the administration of disability relief payments under the Act of Congress of July 8, 1937 (50 Stat. 478), effective immediately.

2. Disability Relief Board.—A Disability Relief Board consisting of the Comptroller as Chairman, the Executive Secretary, the Chief Health Officer, and the Chief Personnel Officer, is hereby established to act in an advisory capacity to the Governor on disability cases or other matters referred to it.

3. Applications for Disability Relief.—Payment of disability relief is, by the terms of the law, limited to employees disabled by age or disease for further useful work. All applications by employees or recommendations by heads of departments for disability relief for an employee will be forwarded to the Division of Personnel Administration on the form prescribed by the Governor. The application will be initiated by the employee or the head of his department. The application form will cover, in course of development, physical examination, and opinion of medical authorities, record of service, list of dependents, economic status and earning power of the employee and of his family, photographs of applicant (front and side views) with identification of same by a responsible employee, recommendation of the head of employee's department based on the employee's physical condition and the possibility of his further service in useful work, and recommendation of the Disability Relief Board to the Governor. Where the applicant lives in the Canal Zone or vicinity, the investigation of economic status and family conditions will include a visit at applicant's home by an inspector who will personally see and question the applicant and members of his family.

4. Former employees whose services have been terminated due to disability since July 8, 1934, and who come within the provisions of the Act of July 8, 1937, may make application for disability pay to the Division of Personnel Administration and in such cases the report will be developed as prescribed in paragraph 3. The Division of Personnel Administration will complete the prescribed form in so far as practicable, including the report on the applicant's economic status, to be made, if practicable, when the applicant is not a resident of the Isthmus, by a consular representative of the United States Government.

5. Physical examinations of applicants shall be made by District Physicians or other medical officers acceptable to the Chief Health Officer, and their findings shall be reviewed by the Chief Health Officer before transmittal to the Division of Personnel Administration. When the physical examination is made, the examining officer will check identification from the photographs of applicant.

6. When the applicant appears to be entitled to relief, the Disability Relief Board will recommend to the Governor the amount of monthly cash relief which the applicant should be paid as indicated by the employee's years of service and the conditions affecting his need.

7. Rate of Payment.—The basis for arriving at the amount of payments will be as follows:

(a) Monthly cash relief shall be computed at $1.00 per month per year of allowable service as determined by these regulations, (not to exceed $25.00 per month), subject to reduction if the economic status of the beneficiary does not warrant the maximum cash relief allowable.

(b) If, subsequently, acceptable evidence of additional service should be presented, or the economic status of the beneficiary should change substantially, change may be made in the amount of disability relief pay.

8. Computation of service for establishing years of allowable service will be governed by the following rules:

(a) A year of service will consist of 12 months of service computed as hereinafter provided.

(b) A month of service will be credited for each calendar month in which the employee served a minimum of 15 days, 100 hours, or for deckhands, 7½ Canal trips, or performed service at task rates amounting to a minimum of $22.50. (Service performed by inmates of Corozal Hospital or Farm or Palo Seco Leper Colony will not be counted.)

(c) If total service in any calendar month is less than that stated in paragraph (b) above, such periods may be added to those in any subsequent month or months in which service also is less than stated in paragraph (b) above, until the total equals or exceeds the service required to credit a month, when one month will be credited for such fractions.

(d) Service rendered within one calendar month will in no case be credited as more than one month.

(e) Recorded absences on account of sickness, authorized leave of absence, or furloughs of 30 days or less, will be credited as service.

(f) Other absences will not be credited as service, except that in tracing service of persons whose service has been approximately continuous for a year or more, absences or breaks of service of 30 days or less will be counted as continuous service.

(g) In tracing service where records are incomplete, or the employee has used different names or different check numbers, not identifiable as belonging to the applicant, the burden of proof of service will rest on the employee and credit may be allowed only on the basis of records or other proofs satisfactory to the Governor.

9. Payments, how made.—Monthly cash payments for beneficiaries residing in the Canal Zone or vicinity thereof will be made by the Paymaster at his offices at Balboa Heights or Cristobal. Beneficiaries who reside elsewhere or are unable to appear in person will be required to submit a claim on a prescribed form which must be signed before a public officer of the United States or of the country in which they reside and must be received in the Comptroller's Office before payment is forwarded by the Paymaster.

10. Payment of cash relief shall be made by calendar months, the initial month to be fixed by the Disability Relief Board subject to the Governor's approval and the legal limitations of the Act.

11. Designation of payee upon death of beneficiary.—An applicant for cash relief shall be required to designate a person to whom shall be paid any amount which may be due to the applicant at the time of his death, under the Act of July 8, 1937. The designation of such person is to be approved by the Governor. The applicant for disability relief may subsequently, either before or after becoming a beneficiary of the Act of July 8, 1937, request a change in the person designated to receive any unpaid amounts due the beneficiary at the time of his death, subject to the approval of the Governor.

12. Employees with Cases Pending.—Employees in service who are recommended for disability relief by the heads of their departments will be continued in service at their usual rates of pay, if able to perform some work, pending final action on their cases. The present authorized rates of $15.00 to $35.00 per month for superannuated employees are continued in effect, however, for application under the following condition:

(a) If the employee's ability to render service is less than normally required for his job, and if the physical examination does not show that he is disabled by age or disease, his employment may be continued if needed and his pay reduced to a lower rate or to one of the superannuated rates, only in case there is assurance that he will give necessary service commensurate with his pay.

13. The above regulations applying to Panama Canal employees will apply hereafter also to Panama Railroad employees.

C. S. RIDLEY,
Governor, The Panama Canal,
President, Panama Railroad Company.

IMPORT TAX ON CERTAIN COAL AND ALLIED FUELS

The Collector of Customs, New York, N. Y.

SIR: Under date of March 7, 1938, the Bureau received from the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, Philadelphia, Penna., The Pittston Company, Dunmore, Penna., Lehigh Navigation Coal Company, Philadelphia, Penna., Glen Alden Coal Company, Scranton, Penna., and Susquehanna Collieries Company, Philadelphia, Penna., domestic producers of anthracite coal of all sizes, grades, and classifications, by their attorneys, McLanahan, Merritt & Ingraham, 40 Wall Street, New York, N. Y., a request for information as to the classification and rate of duty assessed on coal, including anthracite coal of all sizes, grades, and classifications, imported into the United States from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

On March 8 the attorneys were advised that coal, including anthracite coal, of all sizes, grades, and classifications, produced in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and imported into the United States therefrom is admitted free of regular customs duties under paragraph 1650 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1201, par. 1650), and that the import tax provided for in section 601 (c) (5) of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended (U. S. C., title 26, Foot-note at end of chap. 20), is not applied to such coal because (1) section 601 (a) of that act provides that the tax shall not be applied in contravention of treaties of the United States and (2) an executive agreement (treaty) between the United States and the Soviet Union effective August 6, 1937, obligates the United States for one year to give most-favored-nation customs treatment to coal produced in the Soviet Union unless existing law of the United States precludes such treatment, and (3) coal from certain other countries is being admitted free of the said import tax.

The producers herein named, through their attorneys, acting under the provisions of section 516 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1516), take exception to the present classification of Soviet Union coal on the ground that the balance of trade in coal and coal products between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics for the calendar year 1937 was favorable to the Soviet Union and unfavorable to the United States; that the agreement with that Union is not a treaty within section 601 (a), supra; that assuming, for the sake of argument, that the agreement obligates the United States to admit Soviet Union coal free of duty despite the balance of trade adverse to the United States, the agreement is not self-executing; and that if said section 601 (a) is construed to provide for such a treaty that section is unconstitutional.

After careful consideration of the question in 1937 the Department held that in view of the provisions of the commercial agreement entered into between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, in which agreement the Government of the United States undertakes to accord to the commerce of the Soviet Union unconditional most-favored-nation treatment, with certain special provisions in respect to coal, coke manufactured therefrom, and coal or coke briquets, coal and allied fuels produced in the Soviet Union and imported into the United States directly or indirectly therefrom were entitled to entry for consumption or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption on or after August 6, 1937, and prior to January 1, 1938, without payment of the import tax imposed by section 601 (c) (5), supra. Note (1937) T. D. 49118. The Department has reaffirmed this classification and the period has been extended from January 1 to August 5, 1938. Note (1938) T. D. 49444.

Notice is hereby given, in compliance with the provisions of section 516 (b), supra, that the import tax on coal and allied fuels of the character described, if imported or withdrawn from warehouse after the expiration of 30 days after the date of the publication of this letter in the weekly Treasury Decisions, will be subject to the decision of the United States Customs Court, in the event that a protest is filed under the provisions of that section.

Very truly yours,

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPERATION OF THE DRAWBRIDGES CROSSING ALL NAVIGABLE WATERWAYS OF THE UNITED STATES WITHIN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Paragraph 8 of the Rules and Regulations to govern the operation of the drawbridges crossing all navigable waterways of the United States within the State of California approved March 4, 1936, is hereby amended by inserting the following subparagraph after the subtitle "Sacramento River Below Chico Landing" on page 4, of the Rules and Regulations, to govern the operation of the bridge of the Sacramento Northern Railway across the Sacramento River at Meridian:

SACRAMENTO NORTHERN BRIDGE AT MERIDIAN

Notice to bridge operators.—Owners desiring to pass their vessels by this bridge are requested to notify the Sacramento Northern Railway, or its representative in the vicinity, of intention to pass at least six hours in advance of the time they desire to have the bridge opened. When such notices are given, prompt opening of the bridge upon proper signal will be insisted upon. Vessels making trips past Meridian without first giving notice to the bridge operator, as above stated, may expect delay at the bridge, but the bridge operator shall, under such circumstances, use every reasonable means to expedite the opening of the draw. A sign giving instructions as to where and how the bridge operator can be reached shall be posted in a conspicuous place on each side of the bridge.

During periods of flood stage, the owner of the bridge will keep an operator in constant attendance at the bridge who will open the bridge promptly upon signal from a vessel of its intention to pass through the draw.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS ON PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK IN NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MILK MARKETING AREA

PREPARED AND PROPOSED BY METROPOLITAN COOPERATIVE MILK PRODUCERS' BARGAINING AGENCY AND UPON WHICH SAID AGENCY HAS REQUESTED THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE TO HOLD HEARINGS UNDER THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING AGREEMENT ACT OF 1937

Whereas, the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers' Bargaining Agency has requested the Secretary to hold public hearings on a marketing agreement and order, prepared and proposed by such agency and designed to regulate such handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement or the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as re-enacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, with respect to such handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk; and

Whereas, under said act notice of and opportunity for a hearing are required prior to the execution of a marketing agreement or the issuance of an order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice;

Now, therefore, pursuant to said act and said General Regulations, notice is hereby given of public hearings to be held as set forth below on the aforementioned marketing agreement and order, prepared and proposed by the aforementioned agency and designed to regulate such handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk.

These public hearings will be held on the dates and at the places and times following:

Chancellor's Hall, Albany, N. Y., at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., May 16, 1938;

State Armory, Malone, N. Y., at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., May 17, 1938;

Lincoln Auditorium, Syracuse, N. Y., at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., May 18, 1938;

State Armory, Elmira, N. Y., at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., May 19, 1938;

Room 652, State Office Building, 80 Centre Street, New York City, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., May 20, 1938.

At these public hearings, which will be held jointly with the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets of the State of New York, representatives of the Secretary will receive factual evidence (1) as to whether marketing conditions for such handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk are so disorderly as to necessitate regulation in order that the declared policy of the act may be effectuated, and (2) as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement or order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement or order provide, among other things, for: (a) selection of a market administrator, (b) classification of milk, (c) minimum prices, (d) reports of handlers, (e) payments to producers through the use of a market-wide equalization pool, and (f) expenses of administration.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement or order may be inspected in or procured from Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Application of Rates

Item No. 5. Commodity Rates Applicable to Intermediate Points

Subject to the provisions of Notes 1, 2, 3 and 4 below, to any point of destination to which a commodity rate on a given article from a given point of origin and via a given route is not named in this tariff, which point is intermediate to a point to which a commodity rate on said article is published in this tariff via a route thrpugh the intermediate point over which such commodity rate applies from the same point of origin, apply to such intermediate point from such point of origin and via such route the commodity rate in this tariff on said article to the next point beyond to which a commodity rate is published herein on that article from the same point of origin via the same route.

NOTE 1.—When by reason of branch or diverging lines, there are two or more "next beyond" points, apply the rate to the next point beyond (in this tariff) which on that article from the same point of origin via the same route results in the lowest charge.

NOTE 2.—If the intermediate point is located between two points to which commodity rates on the same article via the same route are published in this tariff, apply via that route to the intermediate point the rate to the next point in either direction which results in the higher charge. In applying this note, if there are two or more next beyond points due to branch or diverging lines, eliminate all such next beyond points except the point to which the lowest charge is applicable.

NOTE 3.—If the class rate on the same article via the same route to the intermediate point produces a lower charge than would result from applying the commodity rate under this rule, such commodity rate will not apply.

NOTE 4.—If there is in any other tariff a commodity rate on the same article to the intermediate destination point applicable over the same route from the same point of origin the provisions of this rule are not applicable to such intermediate destination point.

That the leases granted under this act shall be conditioned upon the payment by the lessee of such royalty as may be fixed in the lease, which shall not be less than one-tenth in amount or value of the production, and the payment in advance of a rental of not less than $1 per acre per annum during the continuance of the lease. The rental paid for any one year to be credited against the royalties as they accrue for that year. Leases shall be for a period of twenty years, with the preferential right in the lessee to renew the same for successive periods of ten years each upon such reasonable terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior unless otherwise provided by law at the time of expiration of any such period; said leases shall be irrevocable except for the breach of the terms and conditions of the same, and may be forfeited and canceled by an appropriate proceeding in the United States District Court for the District of Wyoming whenever the lessee fails to comply with their terms and conditions.

To carry out the provisions of existing law as quoted above the following regulations governing the leasing of lands within the ceded portion of the Wind River Indian Reservation, in Wyoming, for oil and gas mining purposes, are hereby prescribed:

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 1. The term "superintendent" herein refers to the superintendent or other officer of the Indian Service or of the Government who may have jurisdiction over the Shoshone or Wind River Reservation.

The term "supervisor" herein refers to a representative of the Secretary of the Interior, under direction of the Director of the United States Geological Survey, authorized and empowered to supervise and direct operations under oil and gas mining leases, to furnish scientific and technical information and advice, to ascertain and record the amount and value of production, and to determine and record rentals and royalties due and paid.

HOW TO ACQUIRE LEASES

SEC. 2. Applications for leases.—Applications for leases should be made to the superintendent.

SEC. 3. Leases to citizens of the United States except Government employees.—Leases will be made only to persons who are citizens of the United States or have declared their intention to become so, or corporations which are organized under the laws of the United States or one of the States or Territories: Provided, That no lease, assignment thereof, or interest therein will be approved to any employee or employees of the United States Government, whether connected with the Indian Service or otherwise, and no employee of the Interior Department shall be permitted to acquire any interest in such leases by ownership of stock in corporations having leases or in any other manner.

SEC. 4. Lease sales.—At such times, and in such manner, as the Secretary of the Interior may direct, the superintendent shall publish, in such manner as he may deem appropriate, notices, at least 15 days prior to the sale, that leases of specific tracts, each of which shall be in a compact body, will be offered to the highest responsible bidder. The successful bidder must deposit with the superintendent, on the day of the sale, a certified check or bank draft on a solvent bank in an amount equal to 20 percent of the bonus bid and of the first year's rental as a guaranty of good faith. The balance of the bonus and of the first year's rental shall be paid and the lease in completed form shall be filed with the superintendent within 20 days after the lease is forwarded to the lessee for execution, unless such period shall have been extended by the superintendent for good and sufficient reason. If the successful bidder fails to complete the lease or pay the full consideration within said period or extension thereof, or if the lease is disapproved through no fault of the lessor or of the Department, the amount of bonus and rental deposited will be forfeited as liquidated damages, for the use and benefit of the lessor.

The right is reserved by the Secretary of the Interior, to reject any and all bids and to disapprove and reject, prior to approval, any lease made on an accepted bid; and should any bid be rejected or lease disapproved after the bonus and rental deposit is made by the bidder, such deposit shall be returned immediately. The successful bidder or bidders shall pay the costs of publishing and distributing the notices of the sale of leases.

SEC. 5. Term of leases.—Leases shall be for a period of 20 years, with the preferential right in the lessee to renew the same for successive periods of ten years each upon such reasonable terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior unless otherwise provided by law at the expiration of any such period.

SEC. 6. Corporations and corporate information.—If the applicant for a lease is a corporation, it shall file evidence of authority of its officers to execute papers; and with its first application it shall also file a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, and, if foreign to the State in which the lands are located, evidence showing compliance with the corporation laws thereof. Statements of changes in officers and stockholders shall be furnished by a corporation lessee to the superintendent January 1 of each year, and at such other times as may be requested.

Whenever deemed advisable in any case the superintendent may require a corporation applicant or lessee to file:

(I) List of officers, principal stockholders, and directors, with post-office addresses and number of shares held by each.

(II) A sworn statement of the proper officer showing:

(a) The total number of shares of the capital stock actually issued and the amount of cash paid into the treasury on each share sold; or, if paid in property, the kind, quantity, and value of the same paid per share.

(b) Of the stock sold, how much remains unpaid and subject to assessment.

(c) The amount of cash the company has in its treasury and elsewhere.

(d) The property, exclusive of cash, owned by the company and its value.

(e) The total indebtedness of the company and the nature of its obligations.

(f) Whether the applicant or any person controlling, controlled by or under common control with the applicant has filed any registration statement, application for registration, prospectus or offering sheet with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or said Commission's rules and regulations under said Acts; if so, under what provision of said Acts or rules and regulations, and what disposition of any such statement, application, prospectus or offering sheet has been made.

SEC. 7. Additional information from applicant.—The superintendent may, either before or after approval of a lease, call for any additional information desired to carry out these regulations. If a lessee shall fail to furnish the papers necessary to put his lease and bond in proper form for consideration, the superintendent shall forward such lease for disapproval.

SEC. 8. Bonds.—Lessee shall furnish with each lease, a bond (form 5–154b) with personal sureties or with an acceptable company authorized to act as sole surety. Such bond shall be in amount as follows: For less than 80 acres, $1,000; for 80 acres and less than 120 acres, $1,500; for 120 acres and not more than 160 acres, $2,000; and for each additional 40 acres or part thereof, above 160 acres, $500: Provided, That a lessee may file one bond (form 5–154f) in the sum of $15,000, covering all leases of a particular class up to 10,240 acres, to which he is or may become a party. The right is reserved at any time before or after approval of the lease to increase the amount of a bond above the sum named, in any case where the Secretary of the Interior deems it proper to do so. Bonds with personal sureties will be accepted only where the sureties deposit collateral, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, equal in value to the full amount of the bond and consisting of any public debt obligation of the United States, guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States. In lieu of other bonds, lessees may execute their own surety contracts upon deposit, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, of Government bonds, equal in value to the full amount of the bond, as collateral (form 5–154a). The bond forms herein mentioned are those prescribed for use in leasing allotted Indian lands and may be used as herein provided with appropriate alterations.

SEC. 9. Acreage limitation; leases on noncontiguous tracts.—No person, firm, or corporation will be allowed to lease for oil and gas more than 10,240 acres in the aggregate. The land contained in the lease shall be described by legal subdivisions, and leases may be executed to cover only adjoining or contiguous subdivisions. In case a lessee is a successful bidder for two or more tracts of land which are not contiguous, separate leases shall be executed.

SEC. 10. Minerals other than oil and gas.—Unreserved, unwithdrawn, and unallotted lands which have not been leased for oil and gas under the act of August 21, 1916, and which are not chiefly valuable therefor, are subject to mineral application of mineral entry, for minerals other than oil and gas, under the supervision of the General Land Office.

SEC. 11. General Land Office to be furnished copy of lease.—The General Land Office shall be furnished with a copy of each lease signed by the Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 12. Mineral reserves in nonmineral entries.—Where lands have been leased under authority of said act of August 21, 1916, and nonmineral entry is subsequently lawfully made for such lands with a view to obtaining a restricted patent therefor, all such subsequently allowed nonmineral entries shall be with the mineral reservation prescribed by the act of July 17, 1914, (38 Stat. 509).

SEC. 13. Vested rights to be respected.—All drilling and other oil and natural gas developments and mining operations, work, and improvements, and all other acts and things necessary to be done, in connection with the exploration for mining and production of oil and natural gas from the leased premises, under the terms and conditions of a lease shall be performed with due regard to the rights, statutory and otherwise, of others, if any, who may have or who may acquire a lawful claim or estate to the leased premises, separate and distinct from the oil and gas or other mineral therein contained. See act of July 17, 1914.

GOVERNMENT RESERVES RIGHT TO PURCHASE OIL AND GAS

SEC. 14. In time of war or other public emergency any of the executive departments of the United States Government shall have the option to purchase at the posted market price on the date of sale all or any part of the minerals produced under any lease.

RENTS AND ROYALTIES

SEC. 15. Manner of payment.—All payments due the lessor shall be made to the superintendent for the benefit of the Shoshone Indian Tribe, in accordance with the Act of August 21, 1916 (39 Stat. 519); and no credit will be given any lessee for payments made otherwise. Payments of rentals and royalties except the first year's rental, which shall be paid to the superintendent as prescribed in section 4 of these regulations, shall be transmitted to the superintendent through the supervisor. All such payments shall be accompanied by a statement, in triplicate, by the lessee, showing the specific items of royalty or rental that the remittance is intended to cover, and payment of royalties on production shall be made not later than the last day of the calendar month following the production for which such payment is to be made.

SEC. 16. Crediting advance annual payments.—In the event of discovery of minerals in paying quantities all advance rents and advance royalties shall be allowed as credit on stipulated royalties as they accrue for the year for which such advance payments have been made. No refund of any such advance payment made under any lease will be allowed in the event the royalty on production for the year is not sufficient to equal such advance payment; nor will any part of the moneys so paid be refunded to the lessee because of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease.

SEC. 17. Rates of rents and royalties.—The lessee shall pay, beginning with the date of execution of leases by the Secretary of the Interior, a rental of $1.25 per acre per annum in advance during the continuance thereof, together with a royalty of 12½ percent of the value or amount of all oil, gas, and/or natural gasoline, and/or all other hydrocarbon substances produced and saved from the land leased, save and except oil and/or gas used by the lessee for development and operation purposes on the lease, which oil or gas shall be royalty free. During the period of supervision, "value" for the purposes of the lease may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be calculated on the basis of the highest price paid or offered (whether calculated on the basis of short or actual volume) at the time of production for the major portion of the oil of the same gravity, and gas, and/or natural gasoline, and/or all other hydrocarbon substances produced and sold from the field where the leased lands are situated, and the actual volume of the marketable product less the content of foreign substances as determined by the supervisor. The actual amount realized by the lessee from the sale of said products may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be deemed mere evidence of or conclusive evidence of such value. When paid in value, such royalties shall be due and payable monthly at such time as the lease provides; when royalty on oil produced is paid in kind, such royalty oil shall be delivered in tanks provided by the lessee on the premises where produced without cost to the lessor unless otherwise agreed to by the parties thereto, at such time as may be required by the lessor. The lessee shall not be required to hold such royalty oil in storage longer than 30 days after the end of the calendar month in which said oil is produced. The lessee shall be in no manner responsible or held liable for loss or destruction of such oil by causes beyond his control.

The proceeds from all leases shall be taken up in the accounts of the superintendent for appropriate deposit for the benefit of the Indians.

SEC. 18. Free use of gas by lessor.—If the leased premises produce gas in excess of the lessee's requirements for the development and operation of said premises, then the lessor may use sufficient gas, free of charge, for any desired school or other buildings belonging to the tribe, by making his own connections to a regulator installed, connected to the well and maintained by the lessee, and the lessee shall not be required to pay royalty on gas so used. The use of such gas shall be at the lessor's risk at all times.

SEC. 19. Division orders.—Lessees may make arrangements with the purchasers of oil for the payment of the royalties on production to the superintendent by such purchasers, but such arrangement, if made, shall not operate to relieve a lessee from responsibility should the purchaser fail or refuse to pay such royalties when due. Where lessees avail themselves of this privilege, division orders permitting the pipeline companies or other purchasers of the oil to withhold the royalty interest shall be executed and forwarded to the supervisor for approval, as pipeline companies are not permitted to accept or run oil from leased Indian lands until after the approval of a division order showing that the lessee has a lease regularly approved and in effect. When the lessee company runs its own oil, it shall execute an intra-company division order and forward it to the supervisor for his consideration. The right is reserved for the supervisor to cancel a division order at any time or require the pipe line company to discontinue to run the oil of any lessee who fails to operate the lease properly or otherwise violates the provisions of the lease, of these regulations, or of the operating regulations.

When oil is taken by authority of a division order, the lessee or his representatives shall be actually present when the oil is gauged and records are made of the temperature, gravity and impurities. The lessee will be held responsible for the correctness and the correct recording and reporting of all the foregoing measurements, which, except lowest gauge, shall be made at the time the oil is turned into the pipe line. Failure of the lessee to perform properly these duties will subject the division order to revocation.

OPERATIONS

SEC. 20. Permission to start operations.—No operations will be permitted on any lease before it is executed by the Secretary of the Interior.

Written permission must be secured from the supervisor or his representative before any operations are started on the leased premises. After such permission is secured the operations must be in accordance with the operating regulations promulgated by the Secretary of the Interior. Copies of these regulations may be secured from either the supervisor or the superintendent, and no operations should be attempted without a study of the operating regulations.

SEC. 21. Restrictions on operations.—All leases issued under the provisions of these regulations shall be subject to imposition by the Secretary of the Interior of such restrictions as to time or times for the drilling of wells and as to the production of any well or wells as in his judgment may be necessary or proper for the protection of the natural resources of the leased land and in the interest of the lessor. In the exercise of his judgment the Secretary of the Interior may take into consideration, among other things, the Federal laws, State laws, regulations by competent Federal or State authorities, lawful agreements among operators regulating either drilling or production, or both, and any regulatory action desired by tribal authorities.

All leases issued pursuant to these regulations shall be subject to a cooperative or unit development plan affecting the leased lands if and when required by the Secretary of the Interior, but no lease shall participate in any cooperative or unit plan without prior approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 22. Diligence, and prevention of waste.—The lessee shall exercise diligence in drilling and operating wells for oil and gas on the leased lands while such products can be secured in paying quantities; carry on all operations in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with approved methods and practice, having due regard for the prevention of waste of oil or gas developed on the land, or the entrance of water through wells drilled by the lessee to the productive sands or oil or gas-bearing strata to the destruction or injury of the oil or gas deposits, the preservation and conservation of the property for future productive operations, and to the health and safety of workmen and employees; plug securely all wells before abandoning the same and to shut off effectually all water from the oil or gas-bearing strata; not drill any well within 200 feet of any house or barn on the premises without the lessor's written consent; carry out at his expense all reasonable orders and requirements of the supervisor relative to prevention of waste, and preservation of the property and the health and safety of workmen; bury all pipelines crossing tillable lands below plow depth unless other arrangements therefor are made with the superintendent; pay all damages to crops, buildings, and other improvements on the premises occasioned by the lessee's operations: Provided, That the lessee shall not be held responsible for delays or casualties occasioned by causes beyond his control.

SEC. 23. Wells.—The lessee shall agree (1) to drill and produce all wells necessary to offset or protect the leased land from drainage by wells on adjoining lands not the property of the lessor, or in lieu thereof, compensate the lessor in full each month for the estimated loss of royalty through drainage: Provided, That during the period of supervision by the Secretary of the Interior, the necessity for offset wells shall be determined by the supervisor and payment in lieu of drilling and producing shall be with the consent of, and in an amount determined by the Secretary of the Interior; (2) at the election of the lessee to drill and produce other wells: Provided, That the right to drill and produce such other wells shall be subject to any system of well spacing or production allotments authorized and approved under applicable law or regulations, approved by the Secretary of the Interior and affecting the field or area in which the leased lands are situated; and (3) if the lessee elects not to drill and produce such other wells for any period the Secretary of the Interior may, within ten days after due notice in writing, either require the drilling and production of such wells to the number necessary, in his opinion, to insure reasonable diligence in the development and operation of the property, or may in lieu of such additional diligent drilling and production require the payment on and after the first anniversary date of the lease of not to exceed $1 per acre per annum, which sum shall be in addition to any rental or royalty herein specified.

SEC. 24. Penalties.—Failure of the lessee to comply with any provisions of the lease, of the operating regulations, of these regulations, orders of the superintendent or his representative, or of the orders of the supervisor or his representative, shall subject the lessee to a penalty of not more than $500 per day for each day the terms of the lease, the regulations, or such orders are violated: Provided, That the lessee shall be entitled to notice, and hearing within 30 days after such notice, with respect to the terms of the lease, regulations, or orders violated, which hearing shall be held by the supervisor, whose findings shall be conclusive unless an appeal be taken to the Secretary of the Interior within 30 days after notice of the supervisor's decision, and the decision of the Secretary of the Interior upon appeal shall be conclusive.

SEC. 25. Inspection of premises; books and accounts.—Lessees shall agree to allow the lessor and his agents or any authorized representative of the Interior Department to enter, from time to time, upon and into all parts of the leased premises for the purposes of inspection, and shall further agree to keep a full and correct account of all operations and make reports thereof, as required by the applicable regulations of the Department; and their books and records, showing manner of operations and persons interested, shall be open at all times for examination of such officers of the Department as shall be instructed in writing by the Secretary of the Interior or authorized by regulations, to make such examination.

ASSIGNMENTS

SEC. 26. Leases, or any interest therein, may be assigned or transferred only with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and to procure such approval the assignee must be qualified to hold such lease under existing rules and regulations, and shall furnish a satisfactory bond for the faithful performance of the covenants and conditions thereof. No lease or any interest therein, or the use of such lease, shall be assigned, sublet, or transferred directly or indirectly, by working or drilling contract, or otherwise, without the consent of the Secretary of the Interior. Assignments of leases shall be filed with the superintendent within 20 days after the date of execution.

STIPULATIONS

SEC. 27. The lessee under any lease heretofore executed may by stipulation (form 5–1541), with the consent of the lessor, make such lease subject to all the terms, conditions, and provisions contained in the lease form currently in use. Stipulations shall be filed with the superintendent within 20 days after the date of execution.

CANCELLATIONS

SEC. 28. Leases shall be irrevocable except for breach of the terms and conditions of the same and may be forfeited and cancelled by an appropriate proceeding in the United States District Court for the District of Wyoming whenever the lessee fails to comply with their terms and conditions; however, on the following conditions, the lessee may, on approval of the Secretary of the Interior, surrender a lease or any part of it:

(a) That he make application for cancellation to the superintendent having jurisdiction over the land.

(b) That he pay a surrender fee of one dollar at the time the application is made.

(c) That he pay all royalties and rentals due to the date of such application.

(d) That he make a satisfactory showing that full provision has been made for conservation and protection of the property and that all wells, drilled on the portion of the lease surrendered, have been properly abandoned.

(e) If the lease has been recorded, that he file, with his application, a recorded release of the acreage covered by the application.

(f) If the application is for the cancellation of the entire lease or the entire undivided portion, that he surrender the lease: Provided, That where the application is made by an assignee to whom no copy of the lease was delivered, he will be required to surrender only his copy of the assignment.

(g) If the lease (or portion being surrendered or cancelled) is owned in undivided interests by more than one party, then all parties shall join in the application for cancellation.

(h) That all required fees and papers must be in the mail or received on or before the date upon which rents and royalties become due, in order for the lessee and his surety to be relieved from liability for the payment of such royalties and rentals.

(i) In the event oil or gas is being drained from the leased premises by wells not covered by the lease; the lease, or any part of it, may be surrendered, only on such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may determine to be reasonable and equitable.

accompanied at the time of filing by a fee of $5 in accordance with the act of February 14, 1920 (41 Stat. 408–415) as amended March 1, 1933 (47 Stat. 1417), such fee to be refunded if the lease, sublease or assignment is disapproved.

FORMS

SEC. 30. All necessary forms, including leases, bonds, and assignments, may be obtained from the superintendent at a cost of ten cents each.

Moneys received from the sale of forms should be deposited as Miscellaneous Receipts to the credit of Receipt Account 145060 "Sale of Forms" unless the expense of printing the forms was paid from tribal moneys, in which event the receipts from the sale of the forms should be deposited to the credit of the tribe.

EFFECTIVE DATE

SEC. 31. These regulations shall be effective when approved by the Secretary of the Interior; shall supersede all prior regulations affecting the leasing of oil and gas lands on the ceded portion of the Wind River Reservation, and shall be subject to change or alteration at any time by the Secretary of the Interior.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Docket No. A-73 O-73]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED AMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED AMENDED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING IN INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE, AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS OR AFFECTS SUCH COMMERCE, OF FRESH LETTUCE, PEAS, CELERY, AND CAULIFLOWER GROWN IN WESTERN WASHINGTON

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement, a proposed order, or proposed amendments thereto, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of an amended marketing agreement and the issuance of an amended order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling in interstate and foreign commerce, and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of fresh lettuce, peas, celery, and cauliflower grown in Western Washington, which is that part of the State of Washington lying west of the summit of the Cascade Mountains;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations, notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed amended marketing agreement and proposed amended order regulating the handling of fresh lettuce, peas, celery, and cauliflower grown in Western Washington in Room 207, Exchange Building, Seattle, Washington, on May 10, 1938, at 10:00 a. m.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which the proposed amended marketing agreement and proposed amended order should contain.

The proposed amended marketing agreement and the proposed amended order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of the handling in interstate and foreign commerce, and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of fresh celery in addition to lettuce, peas, and cauliflower grown in Western Washington now subject to regulation under the existing marketing agreement and order. Among other things, the proposed amended marketing agreement and proposed amended order provide for: (a) the establishment of a single Control Committee instead of the two existing supervisory committees, (b) regulation of shipment by period proration, (c) regulation of shipments by grades and sizes, (d) grading and inspection, and (e) expenses of administration, and other matters relating to the handling of fresh lettuce, peas, celery, and cauliflower grown in Western Washington.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of fresh lettuce, peas, celery, and cauliflower grown in Western Washington which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the proposed amended marketing agreement and proposed amended order may be inspected in or procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

B. E. P. Q.—473 [Approved Apr. 30, 1938, effective May 2, 1938]

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS

FUMIGATION OF POTATOES BY METHYL BROMIDE AS A CONDITION OF CERTIFICATION OF POTATOES MOVING BY REFRIGERATOR CAR FROM THE AREA LISTED IN REGULATION 5 OF QUARANTINE NO. 48

Regulation 5, Sec. B, paragraph (6) of the Japanese beetle quarantine (No. 48) authorizes the issuance of certificates for the interstate movement of potatoes via refrigerator car from the area listed in that regulation to points outside the regulated areas between June 15 and October 15 when the potatoes have been fumigated in the car, when deemed necessary in the judgment of the inspector and when the doors and hatches of the car have been tightly closed or adequately screened under the supervision of an inspector.

Treatment Authorized

The treatment described herein has been found to be effective against the Japanese beetle and such treatment is authorized as a basis for certification of potatoes moving to points outside the regulated areas between June 15 and October 15 via refrigerator car when such treatment is carried out under the supervision of an inspector and in a manner satisfactory to him.

Treatment Method

Fumigation of potatoes in dry refrigerator cars with methyl bromide at a dosage of 2 pounds per 1,000 cubic feet of space, including the space occupied by the potatoes and bunkers of the cars, for a period of 2 hours during which time the car shall remain tightly closed with the plugs in place in the ventilator hatches. The temperature within the car when fumigated shall be not less than 70° F. Provision shall be made for circulating the mixture of air and fumigant in the car for as long a time as is deemed necessary by the inspector. At the end of the fumigation period the hatches shall be opened, the plugs removed, screens placed in the hatch openings, and the car shipped under standard ventilation.

In authorizing the movement of potatoes fumigated according to the requirements stated above, it is to be understood that no liability shall attach either to the United States Department of Agriculture or to any of its employees in the event of injury.

Caution.—Methyl bromide is a gas at ordinary temperatures. It is colorless and practically odorless in concentration used for the fumigation of potatoes. It is a poison, and the operator should use an approved gas mask when exposed to the gas at concentrations used in fumigation, and when opening the hatches for ventilating the cars. The car should not be entered until it is well aerated.

Acting Chief,

Share tenant means a person other than an owner or sharecropper who is operating a farm and is entitled to receive a portion of the wheat crop produced thereon or the proceeds thereof. If a share tenant sublets a farm to another person and both such persons are entitled to share in the wheat crop produced thereon, or in the proceeds thereof, both shall be deemed share tenants.

Sharecropper means a person who works a farm under the general supervision of another person and is entitled to receive for his labor a share of the wheat crop produced thereon or the proceeds thereof.

Harvesting means any severance of mature wheat.

Harvesting as grain means any severance of mature wheat for the purpose of using the same for grain, whether threshed or not.

County means a county or any other area designated by the Corporation for the purpose of administering the wheat crop insurance program.

County committee means the committee of farmers designated by the Corporation to assist in the local administration of the wheat crop insurance program.

Noon means noon of standard time at the place where the farm is located.

PART 2. PERSONS WHO MAY APPLY FOR INSURANCE

SEC. 20. Who may apply for insurance.—Any person who has an interest as owner or operator in a wheat crop to be seeded on a farm may apply for a policy covering his interest in such crop. Separate policies will be issued to landlords and operators.

Applications for insurance shall be accepted only with respect to farms upon which soil conservation and other good farming practices are being followed. Any person who, having obtained a policy, exceeds the wheat acreage allotment established under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, for the farm for the crop year covered by the policy to such an extent that no wheat payment with respect to such farm is earned for such year, shall not be eligible to obtain insurance with respect to such farm for the following year.

PART 3. DETERMINATION OF ADJUSTED AVERAGE YIELD

SEC. 30. Determination of average yield for the farm for the base period where reliable records are available for at least 4 years of such period.—(a) For each year of the base period for which reliable and applicable records relating to wheat acreage and production on the farm are available, the county committee shall determine from such records the yield of wheat per seeded acre. Such records shall include the applicant's production, threshing, and sales records, and records for the farm on file with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

(b) For each year of the base period for which reliable and applicable records relating to wheat acreage and production on the farm are not available, or in which no wheat was seeded on the farm, the county committee shall determine by appraisal a yield of wheat per seeded acre on the basis of reliable records relating to wheat yields on the farm for other similar years of the base period and to wheat yields in such year on similar farms in the county which were farmed in similar manner.

(c) The average yield of wheat per seeded acre on the farm for the base period shall be the simple average of the yields of wheat per seeded acre on the farm for the 6 years in the base period.

SEC. 31. Determination of average yield for the farm for the base period where reliable records are available for less than 4 years of such period.—Where reliable and applicable records relating to wheat acreage and production on the farm are available for less than 4 years of the base period, the county committee shall determine by appraisal the average yield of wheat per seeded acre on the farm for the base period on the basis of yields on the farm in years for which records are available, average yields of wheat per seeded acre on similar farms in the county which were farmed in similar manner, and the average yield for the county for such period. The county average yield for the base period will be determined by the Corporation on the basis of sample farms in the county selected for actuarial purposes.

SEC. 32. Acreage of wheat seeded in base period.—In determining the yield of wheat per seeded acre on the farm for each year of the base period, or the average yield for the farm for the base period, as the case may be, the acreage seeded to wheat shall include: (1) all acres seeded to wheat with the intention of harvesting the same as grain, (2) all acres of volunteer or self-seeded wheat harvested as grain, and (3) all acres of wheat seeded for purposes other than harvest as grain on which the wheat was allowed to ripen and was harvested or otherwise used. Acres reseeded to wheat shall be counted only once.

SEC. 33. Wheat production in the base period.—In determining the yield of wheat per seeded acre on the farm for each year during the base period, or the average yield for the farm for the base period, as the case may be, total production shall include: (1) all wheat harvested, or otherwise used after ripening, from acres seeded to wheat with the intention of harvesting the same for grain, (2) all wheat harvested as grain from volunteer or self-seeded acreage, (3) all wheat which was allowed to ripen and was harvested, or was otherwise used, from acres seeded for purposes other than for harvest as grain; but shall not include wheat destroyed by causes insured against after maturity but before threshing or before noon of the first day of October if threshing was not completed on that date.

SEC. 34. Determination of adjusted average yield for the farm.—(a) The adjusted average yield for the farm shall be determined by applying the adjustment figure for the county in which the farm is located to the average yield for the farm for the base period. The adjustment figure for the county shall represent the difference between (1) the average yield of wheat per acre for the county as reported by the Department for the 10-year period 1926–35, both inclusive, and (2) the average yield of wheat per acre for the 6-year period 1930–35, both inclusive, on sample farms in the county selected by the Corporation for actuarial purposes. If the average yield for the county for such 10-year period is greater than the average yield on such sample farms, then the adjustment figure for the county shall be added to the average yield for the farm for the base period. If the average yield for the county for such 10-year period is less than the average yield on such sample farms, then the adjustment figure for the county shall be subtracted from the average yield for the farm for the base period.

[1] The terms "owner" and "operator" shall not include any person whose interest in a wheat crop exists by virtue of a creditor relationship, or any person whose interest exists on account of a lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or any other legal process.

(b) In counties where wheat is grown on both irrigated and nonirrigated land, adjustment figures for irrigated and nonirrigated farms, respectively, will be determined so as to result in adjusted average yields for such farms which the Corporation determines will be fair and just.

PART 4. DETERMINATION OF TOTAL INSURED PRODUCTION

SEC. 40. Total insured production for the farm.—The total insured production for the farm for the crop year shall be computed by multiplying the proposed acreage of wheat to be seeded for harvest as grain in such year by the adjusted average yield and the insured percentage for the policy.

SEC. 41. Adjustment of total insured production for the farm.—If the acreage actually seeded for harvest as grain is less than the proposed acreage, the total insured production shall be adjusted to the basis of the acreage actually seeded. If the acreage actually seeded for harvest as grain is greater than the proposed acreage, the total insured production shall not be adjusted except upon proper application and approval of the Corporation and upon payment of an additional premium to the Corporation.

SEC. 42. Maximum total insured production for the farm in drought areas.—In areas designated by the Corporation as drought areas, any application for insurance in which the proposed acreage to be seeded to wheat for harvest as grain is in excess of the average annual acreage seed to wheat for harvest as grain on the farm during the base period shall be rejected.

SEC. 43. Total insured production for the policy.—The total insured production for the policy shall be calculated by multiplying the total insured production for the farm by the percentage specified in the policy as representing the insured's interest in the insured crop.

PART 5. DETERMINATION OF PREMIUM

SEC. 50. Determination of the average loss cost per acre for the base period for farms for which a yield of wheat per acre for each year of the base period is determined.—(a) Loss cost per acre for each year in the base period: For any farm for which the county committee has determined a yield of wheat per acre for each year of the base period, the Corporation shall compute the loss cost per acre for each year of the base period. Such loss cost shall be the amount by which the yield of wheat for such year is less than the product of the average yield of wheat for the farm for the base period and the insured percentage.

(b) Average loss cost for the base period: The average loss cost per acre for the farm for the base period shall be the simple average of the loss costs per acre for the farm for the 6 years of the base period.

SEC. 51. Determination of average loss cost per acre for the base period for farms for which the average yield for the base period is appraised.—For any farm for which an average yield for the base period is appraised, the Corporation shall appraise the average loss cost per acre for the base period on the basis of the average loss costs per acre for similar farms in the county which were farmed in similar manner and the average loss cost per acre for the county for such period, taking into consideration losses in yields of wheat on the farm in years of the base period for which information is available.

SEC. 52. Determination of the adjusted average loss cost per acre for the farm.—The adjusted average loss cost per acre for the farm shall be determined by applying the loss cost adjustment figure for the county in which the farm is located to the average loss cost per acre for the farm for the base period. The loss cost adjustment figure for the county shall represent the difference between (1) the average loss cost per acre for the years 1930–35, both inclusive, for sample farms in the county selected by the Corporation for actuarial purposes and (2) the adjusted average loss cost per acre for the county. If the adjusted average loss cost per acre for the county is greater than the average loss cost per acre for such sample farms for the 6-year period, then the loss cost adjustment figure for the county shall be added to the average lost cost per acre for the farm for the base period. If the adjusted average loss cost per acre for the county is less than the average loss cost per acre on such sample farms for the 6-year period, then the loss cost adjustment figure for the county shall be subtracted from the average loss cost per acre for the farm for the base period.

SEC. 53. Adjusted average loss cost per acre for the county.—The adjusted average loss cost per acre for the county shall be the average of the loss costs per acre during the base period for sample farms in the county selected by the Corporation for actuarial purposes converted to the basis of the 10-year period 1926–35, both inclusive.

SEC. 54. Premium rate per acre.—The premium rate per acre for the farm shall be the simple average of (1) the adjusted average loss cost per acre for the farm and (2) the adjusted average loss cost per acre for the county in which the farm is located: Provided, however, That the premium rate for an insured percentage of 75 percent shall not be less than five-tenths of a bushel per acre, and for an insured percentage of 50 percent shall not be less than three-tenths of a bushel per acre.

SEC. 55. Premium for the farm.—The premium for the farm shall be equal to the number of acres used in computing the total insured production for the farm multiplied by the premium rate per acre for the farm.

SEC. 56. Premium for the policy.—The premium for the policy shall be the premium for the farm multiplied by the percentage specified in the policy as representing the insured's interest in the insured crop.

PART 6. TIME AND MANNER OF PAYMENT OF PREMIUM

SEC. 60. Time and place of payment of premium.—Premiums shall be payable at the office of the county committee for the county in which the farm is located. Premiums may be paid either in wheat or the cash equivalent thereof at the option of the insured and shall be payable on or before the due date specified in the premium notice.

SEC. 61. Payment of premium in wheat.—When premiums are paid in wheat such payments shall be made by the delivery of a negotiable warehouse receipt representing the quantity, class, and grade of wheat specified in the premium notice. Warehouse receipts shall be accepted only when issued by a warehouse designated in the premium notice. When premiums are paid in a grade of wheat other than that specified in the premium notice, the quantity of wheat deliverable in payment of premiums, determined in accordance with the applicable conversion factors established by the Corporation, shall be designated in the premium notice. In no event shall premiums be paid with wheat of a lower grade than No. 3 or with wheat not classified as of a straight or unqualified grade. Warehouse receipts will be accepted in payment of premiums only if there are no warehousing charges or other liens outstanding against the wheat represented thereby at the time they are delivered at the office of the county committee for the county in which the farm is located. Premiums shall not be regarded as paid until the warehouse receipts used in payment of such premiums are accepted by a representative of the Corporation duly authorized for that purpose.

If for any reason whatsoever it appears at any time that the transfer of the warehouse receipt to the Corporation did not convey to it complete and unencumbered title to the receipt and the wheat represented thereby, or if at any time the Corporation's title to such receipt or wheat is drawn into question by any person, then, unless the stipulated premium is paid on demand by the Corporation, the policy shall at the option of the Corporation become void, and in case any payments have been made thereunder they shall be refunded to the Corporation.

SEC. 62. Payment of premium in cash equivalent.—Payment of premiums in cash equivalent shall be made in cash, check, money order, or bank draft. Checks and drafts will be accepted subject to collection. The cash equivalent of any premium shall be determined by multiplying the number of bushels of wheat of the class and grade specified in the premium notice by the basic market price of such wheat at a basic market designated by the Corporation for the area in which the farm is located less an amount per bushel, fixed by the Corporation, representing freight and other usual charges in connection with the movement and handling of wheat between the local delivery point and the specified basic market.

PART 7. DETERMINATION OF LOSS

SEC. 70. Time of loss.—Loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the time of the completing of threshing of the insured crop (unless combined and sacked in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred 120 hours thereafter) or noon of the first day of October, whichever occurs first, unless there is a total or substantially total destruction of the insured crop at an earlier time in either of which events the loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the time of such total or substantially total destruction, as the case may be. A wheat crop shall be deemed to have been substantially totally destroyed if it has been damaged to such an extent as to make it impracticable further to care for such crop.

SEC. 71. Amount of loss.—(a) The amount of loss for which indemnity will be paid under the policy shall be the amount by which the total production of wheat on the farm (with due allowance for losses in production by reason of causes not insured against) multiplied by the percentage stated in the policy as representing the insured's interest in the insured crop is less than the total insured production for the policy. Total production for the farm for the purpose of determining the amount of loss shall include:

(1) all wheat harvested or otherwise used or disposed of from acres seeded to wheat with the intention of harvesting the same for grain;

(2) all wheat harvested as grain from volunteer or self-seeded acreage;

(3) all wheat harvested as grain from wheat acreage seeded for purposes other than harvest as grain;

but not wheat destroyed by causes insured against before threshing, (or within 120 hours after threshing if combined and sacked) before removal from the farm, or before noon of October 1, whichever occurs first.

(b) With respect to any acreage which the insured has failed to reseed to wheat in areas and under circumstances where the Corporation determines that it is customary to reseed, or any acreage upon which wheat has been destroyed or the yield reduced by reason of causes not insured against, the production therefrom per acre shall be conclusively presumed to be equal to the adjusted average yield for the farm or the actual yield, whichever is higher.

(c) With respect to any acreage seeded to wheat with the intention of harvesting the same for grain upon which wheat, before maturity, is pastured off, cut for hay, or used for soil conservation, the production therefrom per acre shall be conclusively presumed to be equal to the adjusted average yield for the farm multiplied by the insured percentage.

(d) With respect to any portion of a crop in which the insured's interest is terminated, whether by voluntary transfer or process of law, before the crop is harvested, the production therefrom per acre shall be conclusively presumed to be equal to the adjusted average yield for the farm or the actual yield, whichever is higher.

SEC. 72. Appeal.—If the insured and the adjuster fail to agree as to the amount of loss, the insured may not later than the first day of December next following harvest, appeal for readjustment of the loss to the branch office of the Corporation for the area in which the farm is located.

PART 8. MANNER OF PAYMENT OF INDEMNITY

SEC. 80. Manner of payment of indemnity.—The indemnity under any policy for which the Corporation may be liable shall be paid in wheat or the cash equivalent thereof. The insured may indicate in his proof of loss whether he wishes the indemnity to be paid in wheat or in cash, but the Corporation reserves the right to make payment in a form other than that indicated by the insured.

SEC. 81. Payment of indemnity in cash.—Where an indemnity is to be paid in cash, the amount thereof shall be computed by multiplying the amount of loss, in terms of wheat of the class and grade specified for the payment of premiums in the county where the farm is located, by the current basic market price of such wheat at a basic market designated by the Corporation for the area in which the farm is located, less an amount per bushel, fixed by the Corporation, to cover freight and other usual charges in connection with the movement and handling of wheat between the local delivery point and the specified basic market. The current basic market price for any class or grade of wheat at any such designated basic market shall be the basic market price for such wheat for the day when ascertainment of the amount of loss is made by agreement between the insured and the adjuster, subject to the approval of the proof of loss for payment by a duly authorized officer of the Corporation.

SEC. 82. Payment of indemnity in wheat.—Where an indemnity is to be paid in wheat, it shall be paid in the form of a warehouse receipt representing wheat of the class and grade specified for the payment of premiums in the county where the farm is located, or its equivalent in wheat of another class or grade (except wheat of a lower grade than No. 3, or wheat not classified as of a straight or unqualified grade) determined in accordance with conversion factors fixed by the Corporation.

(a) If the warehouse receipt represents wheat stored at the local delivery point designated for the payment of premiums of wheat, it shall be for a quantity of wheat equal to the amount of loss.

(b) If the warehouse receipt represents wheat stored at the basic market designated by the Corporation for the area in which the farm is located, it shall represent the amount of loss less an amount of wheat fixed by the Corporation equivalent at the current basic market price to freight and other usual charges in connection with the movement and handling between the local delivery point and the specified basic market of a quantity of wheat equal to the amount of loss.

(c) If the warehouse receipt represents wheat stored at any other point or market, it shall be for a quantity of wheat equal to a number of bushels computed by dividing the amount of the indemnity that would be paid if the indemnity were to be paid in cash by the current market price for such wheat at such other point or market.

The current market prices to be applied under this section, including the determination of the amount of indemnity in cash, shall be such prices for the day when the proof of loss is approved for payment by the Corporation.

SEC. 83. Determinations of the corporation to be final.—The determinations of the Corporation as to the conversion factors to be used in fixing the equivalent of wheat of one class and grade in wheat of another class or grade, the amount of deductions representing freight and other usual charges in connection with the movement and handling of wheat, and the current market prices for any class or grade of wheat shall be final and conclusive, and shall be binding upon the insured.

PART 9. REFUND OF PREMIUM

SEC. 90. Computation of refunds of premiums.—Any refund of premiums (whether made pursuant to the provisions of the contract or required by law) shall be made only in the cash equivalent of the quantity of wheat to be refunded less an amount, fixed by the Corporation, of not exceeding one-twentieth of 1 cent per day per bushel to cover storage and handling expenses in storage. The period for which such deduction shall be computed shall commence with and include the day following the day on which the premium was delivered at the office of the county committee for the county in which the farm is located and shall end with and include the day upon which application for refund is received by the Corporation at its branch office for the area in which the farm covered by the policy is located. The cash equivalent of any refund shall be determined in accordance with the rules provided by these regulations for the conversion of indemnities into their cash equivalents, except that the current basic market price to be applied under this section shall be such price for the day when payment of the refund is approved by the Corporation. No refund shall be made if the amount thereof is less than $1.

SEC. 91. Refund of excess premium.—In any case where the total insured production is adjusted in accordance with the provisions of section 41 of these regulations, the premiums allocable to the acreage equal to the difference between the acreage used in adjusting such total insured production and the acreage specified in the policy as proposed to be seeded shall be refunded.

SEC. 92. Death, disappearance, or incompetency of the insured.—In any case where an insured who is entitled to a refund of premiums has died, become incompetent, has disappeared, or has ceased to act as a fiduciary, such refund will be made to his legal representative or successor or, if no legal representative of his estate or successor has been appointed or is otherwise legally qualified, to the persons beneficially entitled to such refund upon the conditions and in the manner provided in part 10 of these regulations.

SEC. 93. Assignment of claims for refunds: creditors.—The provisions of sections 106 (a) and 107 of these regulations shall apply to all claims for refunds.

PART 10. CHANGE OF INSURED'S INTEREST

SEC. 100. Termination of interest.—Except as is otherwise provided in these regulations, if at the time of loss the insured's interest in the crop covered by the policy has been terminated, whether by death, voluntary action, or process of law, no indemnity shall be payable under the policy. The insured's interest shall not be deemed to have been terminated by virtue of the imposition of a lien, whether by voluntary action or process of law, upon the insured crop, or by the appointment of a receiver or moratorium officer with respect to such crop, the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, or proceedings for the foreclosure of a lien. The insured shall be deemed to have an interest in the crop so long as he has any right of redemption therein or so long as the continued existence of the crop will be of direct financial benefit to him.

SEC. 101. Diverse interest.—Subject to the provisions of section 100, if at the time of loss it appears that one or more other persons are joint tenants, tenants in common, or tenants in partnership with the insured with respect to the insured's interest in the crop as stated in the policy, or that the insured has contracted to sell his interest in the insured crop or any portion thereof, or has contracted to sell the farm covered by the policy or any portion thereof, but the sale has not been completed, such other persons, if and insofar as their interests in the crop covered by the policy are not otherwise insured by them or on their behalf against such loss, shall be entitled to the benefit of the policy as their interests may appear. However, the loss may be adjusted with the insured, and payment of any indemnity may be made to the insured in behalf of all persons interested in such crop, whether or not the insured has been authorized to receive such payment by such other persons, and such payment shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to such loss under the policy.

SEC. 102. Death, incompetency, or disappearance of the insured.—(a) Death.—(1) Before loss with administration: If the insured dies, before the time of loss, and his interest in the crop forms part of his estate, payment of any indemnity under the policy will be made to the duly appointed representative of his estate.

(2) After loss with administration: If the insured dies after the time of loss, payment of any indemnity on account of such loss under the policy will be made to the duly appointed representative of his estate.

(3) Before loss without administration: If the insured dies before the time of loss and no legal representative of his estate is appointed or is otherwise legally qualified, payment of any indemnity under the policy may be made after the expiration of 30 days from the date of death to any one or more of the persons beneficially entitled to share in the insured's interest in the crop as stated in the policy in behalf of all the persons so entitled. Payment will be made under the provisions of this subsection only if the amount of the indemnity is less than 500 bushels and upon the submission of proof satisfactory to the Corporation that the insured's interest in the crop covered by the policy is part of his estate.

(4) After loss without administration: If the insured dies after the time of loss and no legal representative of his estate is appointed or is otherwise legally qualified, then, subject to the conditions outlined in subsection (a) (3) of this section 102, payment of any indemnity under the policy on account of such loss may be made after expiration of 30 days from the date of death to any one or more of the persons beneficially entitled to share in the insured's interest in the crop as stated in the policy in behalf of all the persons so entitled.

(b) Incompetency.—(1) Before loss: If, before the time of loss, the insured is judicially declared incompetent to manage his affairs, or his incompetency is otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Corporation, and his interest in the crop covered by the policy remains part of his estate, payment of any indemnity under the policy will be made to the guardian, or other legally constituted representative of his estate appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction, or who is otherwise legally qualified. In such case if no guardian or other legal representative of the insured's estate is appointed, or is otherwise legally qualified, and the amount of the indemnity is less than 500 bushels, payment of any indemnity under the policy may be made to a member of his family standing in the position of a voluntary guardian upon presentation of proof satisfactory to the Corporation that the indemnity is required and is to be used for the purchase of necessities for the incompetent, or for his wife or minor children or other persons dependent upon him for support. If the insured's interest in the crop covered by the policy is terminated by reason of his incompetency, any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured who succeeds to such interest, but no other person, shall be entitled to the benefit of the policy.

(2) After loss: If, after the time of loss, the insured is judicially declared incompetent to manage his affairs, or his incompetency is otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Corporation, payment of any indemnity under the policy will be made to the guardian or other legally constituted representative of his estate appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction or who is otherwise legally qualified. If there be no such guardian or other legal representative, and the amount of the indemnity is less than 500 bushels, payment of any indemnity under the policy may be made to a member of the insured's family standing in a position of voluntary guardian upon presentation of proof satisfactory to the Corporation that the indemnity is required and is to be used for the purchase of necessities for the incompetent, or for his wife or minor children or other persons dependent upon him for support.

(c) Disappearance.—(1) Before loss: If, before the time of loss, the insured disappears and such insured's interest in the crop covered by the policy is not terminated thereby, any indemnity payable under the policy will be paid to the conservator or other legally qualified representative of his estate. If there be no such conservator or other legal representative, and the amount of the indemnity is less than 500 bushels, payment of the indemnity may be made to any member of the insured's family upon the presentation of proof satisfactory to the Corporation that the proceeds of such indemnity are required and are to be used for the purchase of necessities for the insured's wife or minor children or other persons dependent upon him for support. If the insured's interest in the crop is terminated by reason of his disappearance any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured who succeeds to his interest in the crop, but no other person, shall be entitled to the benefit of the policy.

(2) After loss: If, after the time of loss, the insured disappears, payment of any indemnity under the policy will be paid to the conservator or other legally constituted representative of his estate, but if there be no such conservator or other legal representative, and the amount of the indemnity is less than 500 bushels, payment of the indemnity may be made to a member of the insured's family upon presentation of proof satisfactory to the Corporation that the proceeds of such indemnity are required and are to be used for the purchase of necessities for the insured's wife or minor children or other persons dependent upon him for support.

(3) Definition of disappearance: An insured shall be deemed to have disappeared within the meaning of these regulations if he leaves the farm covered by the policy, does not make his whereabouts known to the Corporation, and fails to make claim for indemnity within 90 days after the time of loss.

SEC. 103. Fiduciaries.—Any policy issued in the name of a fiduciary who is no longer acting as such will be reissued in the name of, or any indemnity payable thereunder will be paid to, a succeeding fiduciary upon appropriate application and proof satisfactory to the Corporation of his incumbency. In the event that there is no succeeding fiduciary, the policy will be reissued in the name of, or payment of any indemnity payable thereunder shall be made to, the persons beneficially entitled to the interest in the insured crop covered by the policy to the extent of their respective interests upon proper application and proof of the facts: Provided, however, That the loss may be adjusted with any one or more of the persons so entitled, and payment may be made to such person or persons in behalf of all the persons so entitled, whether or not the person to whom payment is made has been authorized to receive such payment by the other persons so entitled, and such payment shall constitute a complete discharge of the obligation of the Corporation with respect to the loss for which the indemnity is paid.

SEC. 104. Payment conditioned upon compliance with provisions of the policy.—Payment of any indemnity under the policy, whether to the named insured or any other person determined by the Corporation to be entitled to such indemnity in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, will be made only upon full compliance with all the provisions of the policy including the warranties and provisions relating to notice and proof of loss.

SEC. 105. Determination of person to whom indemnity shall be paid.—In any case where the insured has died, become incompetent, has disappeared, or has ceased to act as a fiduciary, payment in accordance with the provisions of these regulations will be made only after the facts have been established to the satisfaction of the Corporation. The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made to a person other than the named insured and of the person to whom such payment shall be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of any indemnity in accordance with an adjustment made with such person shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid, and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

SEC. 106. Limitation on transfer.—(a) General: Except as is otherwise provided in these regulations neither the policy nor any claim for indemnity thereunder, or any part or share thereof, or any interest therein, shall be transferable, nor shall any pledge of the policy be recognized. Notwithstanding any assignment, power of attorney, order, or other authority for receiving payment of any claim for indemnity under the policy, any indemnity payable in accordance with the provisions of the policy shall be paid only to persons entitled to the benefit of the policy as provided in the policy and these regulations.

(b) Assignment to secure loans: A policy may be assigned, with the approval of the Corporation, as collateral security for a loan made for the payment of the premium or the care of the insured crop. Upon recognition of such assignment by endorsement in writing added to the policy signed by the manager and countersigned by a duly authorized representative of the Corporation, any indemnity payable under the policy will be paid only in cash to the assignee and such other persons as may be entitled to such indemnity as their interests may appear, or by joint check: Provided, however, (1) That the assignee's interest shall not exceed the amount of the advance plus a reasonable amount for interest, discount, and other charges, and (2) That payment of any indemnity nevertheless will be subject to all conditions and provisions of the policy. The Corporation's approval of an assignment shall not create in the assignee any right other than that derived from the assignor.

(c) Assignment of the policy with transfer of crop: An assignment of the policy before the time of loss will be recognized only in connection with the voluntary transfer by the insured of his entire interest in an insured crop before the crop is cut. Approval of any assignment shall be evidenced by endorsement in writing added to the policy, signed by the manager and countersigned by a duly authorized representative of the Corporation. The Corporation shall in no case be bound to accept notice of any assignment of the policy, and nothing herein contained shall give any right against the Corporation to any person other than the insured, except to an assignee approved by the Corporation. A transfer made in order to forestall loss of the property covered by the policy by operation of law shall not be regarded as a voluntary transfer within the meaning of these regulations.

SEC. 107. Creditors.—An interest existing by virtue of a debt, lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or any other legal process shall not be considered an interest in an insured crop within the meaning of these regulations.

Any indemnity payable under a policy shall be paid to the insured or other persons entitled to the benefits of the policy under the provisions of the policy and these regulations, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, execution, lien, mortgage, foreclosure, order, decree, or similar process of law, equity, or bankruptcy directed against the insured or such other persons, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such persons, nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity or the proceeds thereof nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered or entered therein. No officer, agent, or employee of the Corporation shall pay, or cause to be paid, to any person other than the insured or other persons entitled to the benefits of the policy any indemnity payable in accordance with the provisions of the policy because of any such process, order, or decree. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the policy from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

PART 11. DESIGNATION AND LOCATION OF FARM

SEC. 110. General.—No policy shall be issued to cover more than a single farm. Farm land shall be considered a single farm if it is operated as a unit and the owner and operator each has an undivided interest in all the wheat produced thereon.

SEC. 111. Designation of farm.—(a) For the purposes of the wheat crop insurance program a farm shall mean:

(1) a single tract of farm land under one ownership[2] and operation, which is operated as a unit, whether or not the owner is the operator; or

(2) separate tracts of farm land under one ownership[2] and operation, which are operated as a unit, whether or not the owner is the operator (except as provided in subsections (d) and (e) of this section); or

(3) separate tracts of farm land under one ownership[2] and jointly operated by two or more operators, whether or not one or more of the operators is also the owner.

(b) Where tracts of farm land are owned by different owners,[2] each such tract shall be considered a separate farm whether or not such tracts are contiguous or operated by the same operator.

[2] For definition of owner see footnote 1.

(c) Where tracts of farm land under the same ownership[1] are operated by two or more operators independently, each separate tract shall be considered a separate farm.

(d) Any field-rented tract which, together with any other land, constitutes a farming unit with respect to the rotation of crops, shall be considered a separate farm, but the farming unit shall be used as the basis for determining yields and premium rates.

(e) Where tracts of farm land are under the same ownership[1] but one or more of such tracts are rented by the owner from another for cash or for a fixed commodity rent, each such rented tract shall be considered a separate farm.

SEC. 112. Where different types of operations are carried out on the same farm.—Where farm land which would otherwise be designated as a single farm is operated as a single unit, but a portion of the land is irrigated land and the remaining portion is dry land, then the irrigated portions and dry-land portions of such land may, in the discretion of the Corporation, be considered separate farms.

SEC. 113. Location of the farm.—Where a farm is located partly in two or more adjoining counties in the same State or in different States the farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the farmstead or principal dwelling is located or, in the absence of a farmstead or principal dwelling, in the county in which the major portion of the farm is located.

PART 12. MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 120. Gender and plural meaning of terms.—Any term used in the masculine or in the singular shall also be construed or applied in the feminine or neuter gender, or in the plural person, wherever the context or application of such term so requires.

SEC. 121. Fractional units in acres or yields.—Fractions of acres and yields shall be expressed to the nearest tenth of an acre or tenth of a bushel. Fractions representing five one-hundredths or less shall be dropped and fractions representing more than five one-hundredths shall be considered as a whole tenth.

SEC. 122. Review of determinations of county committees.—All determinations by county committees shall be subject to review and approval by duly authorized representative of the Corporation.

Adopted by the board of directors on April 26, 1938.

AMENDMENT OF FORM E-1

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced today that it has repealed Form D-2. Since the publication of Form E-1 the use of Form D-2 has been limited to the registration of guarantees of, or assumption of liability on, securities previously registered on Form D-2. An amendment to Form E-1 repeals a provision of that form giving registrants an option to use Form D-2 rather than Form E-1 in the cases referred to in the preceding sentence.

The text of the Commission's action follows.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, particularly Sections 7 and 19 (a) thereof, and deeming such action necessary to carry out the provisions of the Act and necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, hereby takes the following action:

1. Form D-2 as presently in effect is repealed.

2. The Rules and Instructions accompanying Form E-1 are amended by deleting paragraph (c) of Rule 6 under the caption "Rules as to the Use of Form E-1," and changing the designation of paragraph (d) of that rule to paragraph (c).

IN THE MATTER OF THE TWIN STATE GAS & ELECTRIC COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application pursuant to section 5 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by The Twin State Gas & Electric Company for an order declaring that it has ceased to be a holding company, since its only subsidiary, The Berwick and Salmon Falls Electric Company was sold to an associate company;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter be held on May 17, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue N. W., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. IN THE MATTER OF SAN FRANCISCO CURB EXCHANGE

ORDER GRANTING SAID EXCHANGE PERMISSION TO WITHDRAW ITS REGISTRATION AS A NATIONAL SECURITIES EXCHANGE PURSUANT TO SECTION 6 (F) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

The San Francisco Curb Exchange having been granted registration as a national securities exchange; and

Said Exchange having made application under Section 6 (f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, for permission to withdraw its registration as a national securities exchange upon the grounds that:

(1) The Exchange was formed primarily for the purpose of providing a market for unlisted stocks, and that this field has been materially restricted during the past four years with a gradual reduction in the number of issues traded in on the Exchange on an unlisted trading basis;

(2) Approximately 78% of its membership are members of or affiliated with member firms of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, and therefore are subject to needless expense in the maintenance of the Exchange inasmuch as the facilities of the San Francisco Stock Exchange are ample to provide for the volume of trading experienced in the region of such Exchanges during the past several years; and

(3) Under conditions now existing it is believed that the dissolution of the San Francisco Curb Exchange and absorption by the San Francisco Stock Exchange of trading privileges of the San Francisco Curb Exchange will result in the continuance of market facilities in the region of such Exchanges on an improved basis and will stimulate the growth of the San Francisco Stock Exchange as a regional exchange to the ultimate benefit of the general public and industry in such territory; and

It appearing to the Commission that such application should be granted,

It is ordered, That the San Francisco Curb Exchange be and is hereby permitted to withdraw its registration as a national securities exchange, effective as of April 30, 1938.

Special regulations.—The operation of certain bridges across waterways infrequently used by water traffic are governed by special regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, in lieu of the general regulations referred to above. Such special regulations do not require the constant attendance of bridge tenders, but provide that a notice be conspicuously posted on the bridge stating exactly how the bridge tender or representative of the owner may be reached.

During periods of critical velocity, operation of and navigation through the Southern Pacific Railroad Bridge across the Atchafalaya River (Berwick Bay) at Morgan City, Louisiana, is subject to special regulations.

4. Locks.—a. Authority.—The locking of all vessels and rafts and their movements while in a lock, or in the approaches thereto, shall be under the direction of the lockmaster. The term "lockmaster" as used in these regulations, shall mean the lock official present who is in charge of the operation of the lock.

b. Sound signals.—Vessels desiring lockage in either direction shall give notice to the lockmaster at not more than three-quarters of a mile nor less than one-quarter of a mile from the lock, by three distinct blasts of a horn or whistle each of five seconds duration, with intervals of five seconds. When the lock is ready for entrance, the lockmaster will indicate permission to enter by one short blast of a horn or whistle. Permission to leave the locks will be indicted by one long blast.

Four or more short blasts in rapid succession will be given to attract attention to some danger or unusual condition, and cause all parties to ascertain its nature and avoid possible accident.

Five blasts of a horn or whistle is a fire or distress call. One long and one short blast is a call signal for employees.

c. Visual signals.—

(1) Signal lights.—Signal lights will be displayed from sunset to sunrise as follows:

One green light to indicate that the lock is in operation and open to approaching navigation.
One red light to indicate that lock is in operation, but not open to approaching navigation.
Two green lights to indicate that both gates are open and lock is open for through navigation.
Two red lights to indicate that the lock is not in operation and is not open to navigation.

At certain locks where navigation over the dam is possible during high water, an additional light signal will be displayed as follows:

One purple light, visible both upstream and downstream, to indicate that navigation over the dam is possible.
If no purple light is displayed, navigation over the dam is not possible.

(2) Signal balls.—During daylight hours, balls of color and number similar to the light signals prescribed for use after dark, will be displayed from a mast on the lock wall or other convenient location.

d. Precedence at locks.—Ordinarily, vessels or rafts arriving at the lock shall take precedence in order of their arrival, but in all cases, vessels belonging to the United States or employed on public work shall have precedence over all others; passenger vessels shall have precedence over freight vessels, individual vessels over tows or rafts. Small vessels will not be granted separate lockage when larger vessels are awaiting lockage, and they will be required to lock through with other vessels. When two vessels approach the lock from opposite directions at approximately the same time, preference will ordinarily be given to the one for which the lock is prepared. In all cases, the order of actual entry shall be determined by the lockmaster.

e. Entrance to and exit from locks.—No vessel or raft shall enter or leave the locks before being signalled to do so. While waiting their turns, vessels or rafts must not obstruct traffic and must remain at a safe distance from the lock. They shall take position in rear of any vessels or rafts that may precede them, and there arrange the tow for locking in sections if necessary. Masters and pilots of vessels or in charge of rafts shall cause no undue delay in entering or leaving the lock, and will be held to a strict accountability that the approaches are not at any time unnecessarily obstructed by parts of a tow awaiting lockage or already passed through. They shall provide sufficient men to move through the lock promptly without damage to the structures. Vessels or tows that fail to enter the locks with reasonable promptness after being signalled to do so will lose their turn.

f. Lockage of vessels.—Vessels shall enter and leave the locks carefully at slow speed, shall be provided with suitable lines and fenders, shall always use fenders to protect the walls and gates, and when locking at night shall be provided with suitable lights and use them as directed.

Vessels which do not draw at least three inches less than the depth on miter sills or breast walls, or which have projections or sharp corners liable to damage gates or walls, shall not enter a lock or approaches.

No vessel having chains or lines either hanging over the sides or ends, or dragging on the bottom, for steering or other purposes, will be permitted to pass a lock or dam.

Power vessels shall accompany tows through the locks when so directed by the lockmaster.

No vessels whose cargo projects beyond its sides will be admitted to lockage.

Vessels in a sinking condition shall not enter a lock or approaches.

The passing of coal from flats or barges to steamers while in the locks is prohibited.

The lockmaster may refuse to lock vessels which, in his judgment, fail to comply with these rules.

g. Lockage of rafts.—Rafts shall be locked through in sections as directed by the lockmaster. No raft will be locked that is not constructed in accordance with the requirements stated in section 6 hereafter. The party in charge of a raft desiring lockage shall register with the lockmaster immediately upon arriving at the lock and receive instructions for locking.

h. Number of lockages.—Tows or rafts locking in sections will generally be allowed only two consecutive lockages if other traffic is waiting for lockage, but may be allowed more in special cases. If tows or rafts are waiting above and below a lock for lockage, sections will be locked both ways alternately whenever practicable. When there are two or more tows or rafts awaiting lockage in the same direction, no part of one shall pass the lock until the whole of the one preceding it shall have passed.

i. Mooring.—Vessels and rafts when in the lock shall be moored where directed by the lockmaster by bow, stern and spring lines to the snubbing posts or hooks provided for that purpose, and lines shall not be let go until signal is given for vessel or raft to leave. Tying boats to the lock ladders is prohibited.

The mooring of vessels or rafts near the approaches to locks except while waiting for lockage, or at other places in the pools where such mooring interferes with general navigation of the stream, is prohibited.

j. Maneuvering locks.—The lock gates, valves, and accessories will be moved only under the direction of the lockmaster; but if required, all vessels and rafts using the locks shall furnish ample help on the lock walls for handling lines and maneuvering the various parts of the lock under the direction of the lockmaster.

5. Waterways.—a. Fairway.—A clear channel shall at all times be left open to permit free and unobstructed navigation by all types of vessels and rafts that normally use the various waterways or sections thereof. The District Engineer may specify the width of the fairway required in the various waterways under his charge.

b. Stoppage in waterway—Anchorage or mooring.—No vessels or rafts shall anchor or moor in any of the land cuts or other narrow parts of the waterway, except in case of emergency. Whenever it becomes necessary for a vessel or raft to stop in any such portions of the waterway, it shall be securely fastened to one bank and as close to the bank as possible. This shall be done only at such a place and under such conditions as will not obstruct or prevent the passage of other vessels or craft. Stoppages shall be only for such periods as may be necessary.

No vessel or raft will be allowed to use any portion of the fairway as a mooring place except temporarily as authorized above without the written permission from the District Engineer.

When tied up, all vessels shall be moored by bow and stern lines. Rafts and tows shall be secured at sufficiently close intervals to insure their not being drawn away from the bank by winds, currents or the suction of passing vessels. Tow lines shall be shortened so that the different parts of the tow shall be as close together as possible. In narrow sections, no vessel or raft shall be tied abreast of another.

Lights shall be displayed in accordance with provisions of the Federal Pilot Rules.

No vessel, even if fastened to the bank as above prescribed, shall be left without a sufficient crew to care for it properly.

Vessels will not be permitted to load or unload in any of the land cuts except at a regular established landing or wharf without written permission secured in advance from the District Engineer.

No vessel, regardless of size, shall anchor in a dredged channel or narrow portion of a waterway for the purpose of fishing, if navigation is obstructed thereby.

Except in cases of emergency, the dropping of anchors, weights, or other ground tackle, within areas occupied by submarine cable or pipe crossings, is prohibited. Such crossings will ordinarily be marked by signboards on each bank of the shore or indicated on coast charts.

c. Speed.—Excessive speeding in narrow sections is prohibited. Official signs indicating limiting speeds through critical sections shall be strictly obeyed.

Upon approaching and passing through a bridge, all vessels and rafts, regardless of size, shall decrease their speed sufficiently to insure that no damage will be done to the bridge or its fenders.

A vessel, upon approaching another vessel in motion or tied up, a wharf or other structure, works under construction, plant engaged in river and harbor improvement, levees withstanding flood waters, buildings submerged or partially submerged by high waters, or any other manner of structure or improvement likely to be damaged by collision, suction or wave action, shall reduce its speed sufficiently to prevent any damage.

d. Size, assembly, and handling of tows.—Tows longer than 750 feet or exceeding 45 feet in width, or of a width more than one half the minimum width of channel over which they are to move, will not be allowed in channels of widths of 100 feet or less except by special permission of the District Engineer.

All vessels drawing tows not equipped with rudders shall use two tow lines and shorten them to the greatest possible extent so as to have full control at all times. The various parts of a tow shall be securely assembled with the individual units connected by lines as short as practicable. If necessary, as in the case of lengthy or cumbersome tows or other tows in restricted channels, the District Engineer may require the installation of a rudder, drag or other approved steering device on the tow in order to avoid obstructing navigation or damaging the property of others, including aids to navigation maintained by the United States or under its authorization, by collision or otherwise.

No tow shall be drawn by a vessel that has insufficient power or crew to permit ready maneuverability and safe handling.

Tows desiring to pass a bridge shall approach the opening along the axis of the channel so as to pass through without danger of striking the bridge or fenders. No vessel or tow shall navigate through a drawbridge until the movable span is fully opened.

e. Projections from vessels.—No vessel carrying a deck load which overhangs or projects over the side of said vessel, or whose rigging projects over the side of the vessel so as to endanger passing vessels, wharves or other property, will enter or pass through any of the narrow parts of the waterway.

f. Meeting and passing.—Vessels, on meeting or overtaking, shall give the proper signals and pass in accordance with Federal Pilot Rules. Rafts shall give to vessels the side demanded by proper signal. All vessels approaching dredges, or other plant engaged on improvements to a waterway, shall give the signal for passing and slow down sufficiently to stop if so ordered or if no answering signal is received. On receiving the answering signal, they shall then proceed to pass at a speed sufficiently slow to insure safe navigation.

6. Rafts—logging.—Rafts will be permitted to navigate a waterway only if properly and securely assembled. The passage of "bag" or "sack" rafts, "dog" rafts, or of loose logs over any portion of a waterway, is prohibited. Each section of a raft will be secured within itself in such a manner as to prevent the sinking of any log, and so fastened or tied with chains or wire rope that it cannot be separated or bag out so as to materially change its shape. All dogs, chains and other means used in assembling rafts shall be in good condition and of ample size and strength to accomplish their purposes.

No section of a raft will be permitted to be towed over any portion of a waterway unless the logs float sufficiently high in the water to make it evident that the section will not sink en route.

Frequent inspections shall be made by the person in charge of each raft to insure that all fastenings remain secure, and when any one is found to have loosened, it shall be repaired at once. Should any log or section be lost from a raft, the fact must be promptly reported to the District Engineer, giving as definitely as possible the exact point at which the loss occurred. In all cases the owner of the lost log or section will take steps immediately to remove the same from the waterway.

The regulations prescribed in section 5, governing the length and width of tows, shall likewise apply to rafts.

All rafts shall carry sufficient men to enable them to be managed properly, and to keep them from being an obstruction to other craft using the waterway. To permit safe passage in a narrow channel rafts will, if necessary, stop and tie up alongside the bank. Care must be exercised both in towing and mooring rafts to avoid the possibility of damage to aids to navigation maintained by the United States or under its authorization.

When rafts are left for any reason with no one in attendance, they shall be securely tied at each end and at as many intermediate points as may be necessary to keep the timbers from bagging into the stream, and must be moored so as to conform to the shape of the bank. Rafts moored to the bank shall have lights at 500-foot intervals along their entire length. Rafts shall not be moored at prominent projections of the bank, or at critical sections.

Logs may be stored in certain tributary streams provided a clear channel at least one-half the width of the channel be left clear for navigation along the tributary. Such storage spaces shall be protected by booms and, if necessary to maintain an open channel, piling should also be used. Authority for placing these booms and piling shall be obtained by written permit from the District Engineer.

The building, assembling, or breaking up of a raft in a waterway will be permitted only upon special authority obtained from the District Engineer, and under such conditions as he may prescribe.

7. Dumping of refuse or oil in waterway, obstructions.—Attention is invited to the provisions of Sections 13 and 20 of the River and Harbor Act of March 3, 1899, and of Sections 2, 3, and 4 of the Oil Pollution Act of June 7, 1924, appended hereto, which prohibit the depositing of any refuse matter in these waterways or along their banks where liable to be washed into the waters; authorize the immediate removal or destruction of any sunken vessel, craft, raft or other similar obstruction which stops or endangers navigation; and prohibit the discharge of oil from vessels into the coastal navigable waters of the United States.

8. Damage.—Masters and owners of vessels using the waterways are responsible for any damage caused by operations in violation of the provisions of these regulations to canal revetments, lock piers and walls, bridge fenders, and for displacing or damaging of buoys, stakes, spars, range lights or other aids to navigation. Should any part of a revetment, lock, or bridge be damaged, they shall report the fact, and furnish a clear statement of how the damage occurred, to the nearest Government lockmaster or bridge tender, and by mail to the District Engineer, U. S. Engineer Office in local charge of the section of the waterway in which the damage occurred. Should any aid to navigation be damaged, they shall report that fact immediately to the Superintendent of Lighthouses at New Orleans, Louisiana.

9. Trespass on property of the United States.—Trespass on waterway property or injury to the banks, locks, bridges, piers, fences, trees, houses, shops or any other property of the United States pertaining to the waterway, is strictly prohibited. No business, trading, or landing of freight or baggage will be allowed on or over Government piers, bridges or lock walls.

10. Copies of regulations.—Copies of these rules and regulations will be furnished free of charge upon application to the nearest District Engineer.

REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE LEASING OF LANDS IN THE CROW INDIAN RESERVATION, MONTANA, FOR MINING PURPOSES

[Applicable to the leasing and mining of all kinds of minerals upon lands belonging to the Crow Tribe of Indians, Montana, and upon lands on the Crow Reservation, the surface of which has been allotted to members of the Tribe but the minerals reserved to the tribe by Act of Congress]

Section 6 of the Act of June 4, 1920 (41 Stat. 751–753), as amended by the Act of May 26, 1926 (44 Stat. 658), reads:

That any and all minerals, including oil and gas, on any of the lands to be allotted hereunder are reserved for the benefit of the members of the tribe in common and may be leased for mining purposes, with the consent of the tribal council under such rules, regulations, and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, but no lease shall be made for a longer period than ten years, but the lessees may have the right to renewal thereof for a further period of ten years upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and agreed to by said tribal council: Provided, That when any land is leased for mining purposes and development thereunder shall indicate the presence of minerals including oil and gas in paying quantities, the lessee or lessees shall proceed with all reasonable diligence to complete the development under said lease to extract the mineral including oil and gas from the land leased and to bring the product mined or extracted into market as speedily as possible unless the extraction and sale thereof be withheld with the consent of the Crow Tribe of Indians: Provided, however, That allotments hereunder may be made of lands classified as valuable chiefly for coal or other minerals which may be patented as herein provided with a reservation, set forth in the patent, of the coal, oil, gas, or other mineral deposits for the benefit of the Crow Tribe: And provided further, That at the expiration of fifty years from the date of approval of this Act, unless otherwise ordered by Congress, the coal, oil, gas, or other mineral deposits upon or beneath the surface of said allotted lands shall become the property of the individual allottee or his heirs.

To carry this provision of law into effect the following regulations are prescribed:

SEC. 1. Definitions.—The term "superintendent" herein refers to the superintendent or other officer of the Indian Service or of the Government who may have jurisdiction over the Crow Reservation.

The term "supervisor" herein refers to a representative of the Secretary of the Interior, under direction of the Director of the United States Geological Survey, authorized and empowered to supervise and direct operations under oil and gas or other mining leases, to furnish scientific and technical information and advice, to ascertain and record the amount and value of production, and to determine and record rentals and royalties due and paid.

SEC. 2. Employee restrictions.—No lease, assignment thereof, or interest therein will be approved to any employee or employees of the United States Government whether connected with the Indian Service or otherwise, and no employee of the Interior Department shall be permitted to acquire any interest in such leases by ownership of stock in corporations having leases or in any other manner.

SEC. 3. Requests for sales.—No oil and gas lease on the Crow Reservation will be offered until the Crow Tribal Council shall have passed a resolution requesting the Secretary of the Interior to lease the land for mining purposes. Should any person, firm, or corporation desire to have any particular tract of land offered for lease, written request to that effect should be submitted to the superintendent in order that such tract may, if deemed advisable, upon the request of the Crow Tribal Council, be included in the next advertisement of leases.

SEC. 4. Lease sales.—At such times and in such manner as he may deem appropriate, the superintendent will publish notices at least 20 days prior to the sale, that mineral leases on specific tracts, each of which shall be in a compact body, will be offered to the highest responsible bidder. The successful bidder must deposit with the superintendent on the day of the sale a certified check or a bank draft on a solvent bank in an amount equal to twenty percent of the bid and of the first year's rental as a guaranty of good faith. The balance of the bid and of the first year's rental shall be paid and the lease in completed form shall be filed within 20 days after the lease is forwarded, by the superintendent, to the lessee for execution, unless such period has been extended by the superintendent for good and sufficient reason. If the successful bidder fails to complete the lease or to pay the balance of the bonus and of the first year's rental within said period or extension thereof, or if the lease is disapproved through no fault of the lessor or of the Interior Department, the twenty percent of the bonus and of the first year's rental will be forfeited as liquidated damages for the use and benefit of the Crow Tribe.

The right is reserved by the Secretary of the Interior to reject any and all bids and to disapprove and reject prior to approval any lease made on an accepted bid; and should any bid be rejected or lease be disapproved through no fault of the bidder, after the deposit has been made, such deposit shall be immediately returned. Each successful bidder shall pay a prorata cost of the advertising expenses, based on the number of leases purchased.

SEC. 5. Requirements of corporations.—If the applicant for a lease is a corporation, it shall file evidence of authority of its officers to execute papers; and with its first application it shall also file a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, and, if foreign to the State in which the lands are located, evidence showing compliance with the corporation laws thereof.

The superintendent may at his discretion require a corporation applicant or lessee to file:

(I) Lists of officers, principal stockholders, and directors, with post-office addresses and number of shares held by each.

(II) A sworn statement of the proper officer showing:

(a) The total number of shares of the capital stock actually issued and the amount of cash paid into the treasury on each share sold; or, if paid in property, the kind, quantity, and value of the same paid per share.

(b) Of the stock sold, how much remains unpaid and subject to assessment.

(c) The amount of cash the company has in its treasury and elsewhere.

(d) The property, exclusive of cash, owned by the company and its value.

(e) The total indebtedness of the company and the nature of its obligations.

(f) Whether the applicant or any person controlling, controlled by or under common control with the applicant has filed any registration statement, application for registration, prospectus or offering sheet with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or said Commission's rules and regulations under said Acts; if so, under what provision of said Acts or rules and regulations; and what disposition of any such statement, application, prospectus or offering sheet has been made.

(III) Statements of changes in officers and stockholders.

(IV) Affidavits of individual stockholders, setting forth in what corporations or with what persons, firms, or associations such individual stockholders are interested in mining leases on restricted lands within the State, and whether they hold such interests for themselves or in trust.

SEC. 6. Requirements of unincorporated applicants.—Unincorporated applicants shall file such information relative to financial standing and ability to proceed with the development of a lease as the Department of the Interior, through the superintendent of the Crow Indian Agency, may require.

SEC. 7. Bonds.—Lessees shall furnish, with each lease, a bond, form to be furnished by the Department, with personal sureties or an acceptable company authorized to act as sole surety. Such bond shall be in the amount of $1,000 for each 160 acres or part thereof: Provided, That where a lease contains insufficient acreage to require a bond in the sum of $5,000 hereunder, the bond shall be increased to equal $5,000, or a substitute bond satisfactory to the Secretary of the Interior and the Crow Tribe, shall be furnished before drilling is started, such bond to remain in force as long as development or production operations are continued: Provided further, That a lessee may file one bond (Form 5–157f) in the amount of $15,000, covering all leases of a particular class up to 10,240 acres, to which he is or may become a party. The right is reserved at any time before or after approval of a lease, to increase the amount of the bond above the sum named in any case where the Secretary of the Interior deems it proper to do so. Bonds with personal sureties will be accepted only when the sureties deposit with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, collateral consisting of any public debt obligations of the United States, guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States, equal in value to the full amount of the bond. In lieu of other bonds, lessees may execute their own surety contracts upon deposit of Government bonds as collateral (Form 5–154a).

SEC. 8. Additional information.—The superintendent may, either before or after approval of a lease, call for any information necessary to carry out these regulations; failure of the lessee to furnish such information or to furnish the papers to put his lease and bond in proper form, will be deemed sufficient reason for disapproval or cancellation, whichever is appropriate, of the lease.

SEC. 9. Renewals.—Leases shall be made for a period not longer than ten years, but lessees may have the right of renewal thereof for a further period of ten years upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe and, agreed to by the Tribal Council. Applications for renewals of leases shall be made not later than sixty days prior to the date of expiration of the original lease.

SEC. 10. Lease acreage.—Unless special permission is granted by the Secretary of the Interior because of unusual conditions of mining or operation:

(a) No lease on deposits of the nature of lodes or veins containing ores of gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, or other useful metal shall be granted for less than 20 acres or for more than 960 acres.

(b) No lease for beds of placer gold, gypsum, phosphate, asphaltum, iron ores, sand and gravel and rock, or other useful minerals other than coal, oil, and gas, shall be granted for less than 40 acres nor for more than 960 acres.

(c) No lease for beds of coal shall be granted for less than 40 acres nor for more than 2,560 acres.

(d) No individual, corporation, partnership, company, or association shall hold leases for oil and gas mining purposes on lands in the Crow Reservation in excess of 10,240 acres.

SEC. 11. Wells.—The lessee shall agree (1) to drill and produce all wells necessary to offset or protect the leased land from drainage by wells on adjoining lands not the property of the lessor, or in lieu thereof, compensate the lessor in full each month for the estimated loss of royalty through drainage: Provided, That during the period of supervision by the Secretary of the Interior, the necessity for offset wells shall be determined by the oil and gas supervisor and payment in lieu of drilling and producing shall be with the consent of, and in an amount determined by the Secretary of the Interior; (2) at the election of the lessee to drill and produce other wells: Provided, That the right to drill and produce such other wells shall be subject to any system of well spacing or production allotments authorized and approved under applicable law or regulations, approved by the Secretary of the Interior and affecting the field or area in which the leased lands are situated; and (3) if the lessee elects not to drill and produce such other wells for any period the Secretary of the Interior may, within 10 days after due notice in writing, either require the drilling and production of such wells to the number necessary, in his opinion, to insure reasonable diligence in the development and operation of the property, or may in lieu of such additional diligent drilling and production require the payment on and after the first anniversary date of this lease of not to exceed $1 per acre per annum, which sum shall be in addition to any rental or royalty hereinafter specified: Provided, That in the event oil or gas is discovered on the leased premises, the lessee shall proceed with all reasonable diligence to develop said premises and extract the oil or gas therefrom and bring same into the market as speedily as possible, unless the extraction and sale thereof be withheld with the consent of the Crow Indian Tribal Council.

SEC. 12. Diligence and prevention of waste.—The lessee shall exercise reasonable diligence in drilling and operating wells for oil and gas on the lands covered hereby, while such products can be secured in paying quantities; carry on all operations hereunder in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with approved methods and practice, having due regard for the prevention of waste of oil or gas developed on the land, or the entrance of water through wells drilled by the lessee to the productive sands or oil or gas-bearing strata to the destruction or injury of the oil or gas deposits, the preservation and conservation of the property for future productive operations, and to the health and safety of workmen and employees; plug securely all wells before abandoning the same and to shut off effectually all water from the oil or gas-bearing strata; not drill any well within 200 feet of any house or barn on the premises without the lessor's written consent approved by the superintendent; carry out at his expense all reasonable orders and requirements of the oil and gas supervisor relative to prevention of waste, and preservation of the property and the health and safety of workmen; bury all pipe lines crossing tillable lands below plow depth unless other arrangements therefor are made with the superintendent; pay the lessor all damages to crops, buildings, and other improvements of the lessor occasioned by the lessee's operations: Provided, That the lessee shall not be held responsible for delays or casualties occasioned by causes beyond the lessee's control.

SEC. 13. Payments.—All payments due the lessor shall be made to the superintendent, for the benefit of the lessors, and no credit will be given any lessee for payments made otherwise. Payments of rentals and royalties under oil and gas leases, except the first year's rental which shall be paid to the superintendent as prescribed in section 4 of these regulations, shall be transmitted to the superintendent through the oil and gas supervisor. All such payments shall be accompanied by a statement, in triplicate, by the lessee, showing the specific items of royalty or rental that the remittance is intended to cover, and shall be made at such time or times as the lease provides.

In the event of the discovery of minerals in paying quantities, all advance rental and royalty payments will be allowed as credit on stipulated royalties for the year for which the payment is made. In the event the royalty on production for any year is not sufficient to equal the advance rental and royalties for that year, no refund will be made; nor will any part of the moneys so paid be refunded because of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease, nor shall the lessee be relieved, by reason of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease, from the obligation to pay said advance rental and royalty.

SEC. 14. Royalty rates, oil and gas leases.—The lessee shall pay, beginning with the date of approval of oil and gas leases by the Secretary of the Interior, a rental of $1.25 per acre per annum in advance during the continuance thereof, together with a royalty of 12½ percent of the value or amount of all oil, gas, and/or natural gasoline, and/or all other hydrocarbon substances produced and saved from the land leased, save and except oil, and/or gas used by the lessee for development and operation purposes on the lease, which oil and/or gas shall be royalty free.

SEC. 15. Gas for use of lessor.—If the leased premises produce gas in excess of the lessee's requirements for the development and operation of said premises the lessor may use sufficient gas, free of charge, for any desired school or other building belonging to the tribe, by making his own connections to a regulator installed, connected to the well and maintained by the lessee, and the lessee shall not be required to pay royalty on gas so used. The use of such gas shall be at the lessor's risk at all times.

SEC. 16. Annual payments, statements, and development expenditures on leases other than oil and gas.—Lessees other than oil and gas lessees shall pay on all leases annually in advance for the first calendar year or fraction thereof a rent of 25 cents per acre; for the second and the third years, 50 cents per acre; and for the fourth and each succeeding calendar year, $1 per acre. All sums paid as rental for any one calendar year shall be credited on the first royalties to become due during that year.

On all leases of class (a) referred to in section 10 of these regulations there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the land leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall make an amount not less than $5 per acre.

On all leases of class (b) referred to in section 10 of these regulations there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the land leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall make an amount not less than $100 for each 160 acres or fraction thereof included in the lease.

On all leases of class (c) referred to in section 10 of these regulations there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the land leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall make an amount not less than $10 per acre.

Each lessee shall file with the superintendent an itemized statement in duplicate within 20 days after the close of each calendar year of the amount and character of said expenditure during such year, the statement to be certified under oath by the lessee or his agent having personal knowledge of the facts contained therein.

SEC. 17. Royalties on minerals other than oil and gas.—(a) For substances other than gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, tungsten, coal, asphaltum and allied substances, and oil and gas, the lessee shall pay quarterly a royalty of not less than 10 percent of the value, at the nearest shipping point, of all ores, metals, or minerals marketed.

(b) For gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, and tungsten, the lessee shall pay quarterly a royalty of not less than ten percent, to be computed on the value of bullion as shown by mint returns after deducting forwarding charges to the point of sale, and to be computed on the value of ores and concentrates as shown by reduction returns after deducting freight charges to the point of sale. Duplicate returns shall be filed by the lessee with the superintendent within ten days after the ending of the quarter within which such returns are made: Provided, however, That the lessee shall pay quarterly a royalty of not less than ten percent of the value of ores and concentrates sold at the mine.

(c) For coal the lessee shall pay quarterly a royalty of not less than ten cents per ton of 2,000 pounds of mine run, or coal as taken from the mine, including what is commonly called "slack."

(d) For asphaltum and allied substances the lessee shall pay quarterly a royalty of not less than ten cents per ton of 2,000 pounds on crude material and not less than 60 cents per ton on refined products.

(e) The royalties on all products not otherwise specified in the lease or these regulations shall be based on sworn quarterly reports and shall be paid within 20 days after the close of each quarter.

SEC. 18. Books of sales, receipts, etc., open to inspection.—The lessee shall keep books of account showing the amount of ore shipped or oil or other mineral substance sold or treated, and showing also the amount of money received from the sale of ores, oil, etc. The books of the lessee shall be open to inspection, examination, and verification by any officer of the Interior Department assigned to such duty by the Secretary of the Interior, and it is distinctly understood that the duly authorized agents of the Government shall be permitted freely to make transcripts of all the accounts and other books of lessee.

SEC. 19. Manner of paying royalties.—All royalties or payments due under leases under these regulations shall be made by check or draft drawn on a solvent bank, open for the transaction of business on the day the check or draft is issued, or by other form of suitable exchange, to the order of the superintendent. All such payments except advance rentals for the first year, which, as provided in these regulations, are to be paid to the superintendent at the time the leases are filed, shall be transmitted through the oil and gas supervisor, shall be accompanied by a statement by the lessee, in triplicate, showing the specific terms of rentals or royalty that the remittance is intended to cover and shall be made at such times as the lease provides.

SEC. 20. Division orders.—Lessees may make arrangements with the purchasers of oil for the payment of the royalties to the superintendent by such purchasers, but such arrangement, if made, shall not operate to relieve a lessee from responsibility should the purchaser fail or refuse to pay royalties when due. Where lessees avail themselves of this privilege, division orders permitting the pipe line companies or other purchasers of the oil to withhold the royalty interest shall be executed and forwarded to the oil and gas supervisor for approval, as pipe line companies are not permitted to accept or run oil from leased Indian lands until after the approval of a division order showing that the lessee has a lease regularly approved and in effect. When the lessee company runs it own oil, it shall execute an intra-company division order and forward it to the oil and gas supervisor for his consideration. The right is reserved for the oil and gas supervisor to cancel a division order at any time or require the pipe line company to discontinue to run the oil of any lessee who fails to operate the lease properly or otherwise violates the provisions of the lease, of these regulations, or of the operating regulations.

When oil is taken by authority of a division order, the lessee or his representative shall be actually present when the oil is gauged and records are made of the temperature, gravity, and impurities. The lessee will be held responsible for the correctness and the correct recording and reporting of all of the foregoing measurements; which, except lowest gauge, shall be made at the time the oil is turned into the pipe line. Failure of the lessee to perform properly these duties will subject the division order to revocation.

SEC. 21. Assignments.—(a) Leases hereafter approved, or any interest therein, may be assigned or transferred only with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and to procure such approval the assignee must be qualified to hold such lease under existing rules and regulations, and shall furnish a satisfactory bond for the faithful performance of the covenants and conditions thereof.

(b) No lease or any interest therein or the use of such lease shall be sublet or transferred, directly or indirectly, by working or drilling contract or otherwise, without the consent of the Secretary of the Interior.

(c) Assignments of leases and stipulations modifying the terms of existing leases which stipulations are also subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior shall be filed with the superintendent within 30 days after the date of execution.

SEC. 22. Cancellation.—When, before restrictions are removed, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, the lessee has violated any of the terms and conditions of a lease or of the applicable regulations, the Secretary of the Interior shall have the right at any time after 30 days' notice to the lessee specifying the terms and conditions violated, and after a hearing, if the lessee shall so request within 30 days after issuance of the notice, to declare such lease null and void, and the lessor shall then be entitled and authorized to take immediate possession of the land: Provided, That after restrictions are removed the lessor shall have and be entitled to any available remedy in law or equity for breach of the contract by the lessee.

On the following conditions, the lessee may, on approval of the Secretary of the Interior, surrender a lease or any part of it:

(a) That he make application for cancellation to the superintendent having jurisdiction over the land.

(b) That he pay a surrender fee of $1 at the time the application is made.

(c) That he pay all royalties and rentals due to the date of such application.

(d) That he make a satisfactory showing that full provision has been made for conservation and protection of the property and that all wells, drilled on the portion of the lease surrendered, have been properly abandoned.

(e) If the lease has been recorded, that he file, with his application, a recorded release of the acreage covered by the application.

(f) If the application is for the cancellation of the entire lease or the entire undivided portion, that he surrender the lease: Provided, That where the application is made by an assignee to whom no copy of the lease was delivered, he will be required to surrender only his copy of the assignment.

(g) If the lease (or portion being surrendered or cancelled) is owned in undivided interests by more than one party, than all parties shall join in the application for cancellation.

(h) That all required fees and papers must be in the mail or received on or before the date upon which rents and royalties become due, in order for the lessee and his surety to be relieved from liability for the payment of such royalties and rentals.

(i) If there has been a contest respecting a lease or leases, the approved, the disapproved, or the cancelled parts thereof will be held in the office of the superintendent for five days after the Department's decision has been promulgated, by mail or delivery, and will not be delivered, if within that period a motion for review or reconsideration be filed, until such motion is passed upon by the Department.

(j) In the event oil or gas is being drained from the leased premises by wells not covered by a lease; the lease, or any part of it, may be surrendered; only on such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may determine to be reasonable and equitable.

No part of any advance rental shall be refunded to the lessee nor shall he be relieved, by reason of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease, from the obligation to pay said advance rental when it becomes due.

SEC. 23. Mines to be timbered properly.—In mining operations the lessee shall keep the mine well and sufficiently timbered at all points where necessary, in accordance with good mining practice and in such manner as may be necessary to the proper preservation of the property leased and safety of the workmen.

SEC. 24. Lessee and surety held responsible for return of premises in good condition.—On expiration of the term of a lease, or when a lease is surrendered, the lessee shall deliver to the Government the leased ground with the mine workings in good order and condition, and bondsmen will be held for such delivery in good order and condition, unless relieved by the Secretary of the Interior with the consent of the tribal council. It shall, however, be stipulated that the machinery necessary to operate the mine is the property of the lessee, but that it may be removed by him only after the condition of the property has been ascertained, by inspection by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized agents, to be in satisfactory condition.

SEC. 25. Wasteful operations not permitted.—The Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, cancel any lease if the mining operations are conducted wastefully and without regard to good mining practice.

SEC. 26. Permission to start operations.—No operations will be permitted on any lease before it is approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Written permission must be secured from the supervisor before any operations are started on the leased premises. After such permission is secured the operations must be in accordance with the operating regulations promulgated by the Secretary of the Interior. Copies of these regulations may be secured from either the supervisor or the superintendent and no operations should be attempted without a study of the operating regulations.

SEC. 27. Penalties.—Failure of the lessee to comply with any provision of the lease, of the operating regulations, of these regulations, order of the superintendent or his representative, or of the orders of the supervisor or his representative, shall subject the lease to cancellation by the Secretary of the Interior or the lessee to a penalty of not more than $500 per day for each and every day the terms of the lease, the regulations, or such orders are violated; or to both such penalty and cancellation: Provided, That the lessee shall be entitled to notice and hearing, within 30 days after such notice, with respect to the terms of the lease, regulations, or orders violated, which hearing shall be held by the supervisor, whose findings shall be conclusive unless an appeal be taken to the Secretary of the Interior within 30 days after notice of the supervisor's decision, and the decision of the Secretary of the Interior upon appeal shall be conclusive.

SEC. 28. Fees.—All leases and assignments shall be executed in sextuplicate and when filed with the superintendent shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $5 which is hereby required pursuant to provisions contained in the act of February 14, 1920 (41 Stat. 408–415 as amended by the act of March 1, 1933 (47 Stat. 1417)). This fee will be refunded in case the instrument is disapproved.

SEC. 29. Forms.—Applications, leases, and other papers must be upon forms prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and the superintendent will furnish prospective lessees with such forms at a cost of $1 per set.

Form 5–154a. Bond, personal, supported by Government Securities.
Form 5–157c. Individual bond.
Form 5–157d. Evidence of authority of officers to execute papers.
Form 5–157e. Assignment.
Form 5–157f. Collective bond.
Form 5–157g. Stipulation modifying terms of oil and gas lease.
Form 5–157h. Crow oil and gas mining lease.
Form 5–157i. Crow mining lease other than oil and gas.

The moneys received from the sale of forms should be deposited as Miscellaneous Receipts to the credit of the appropriate Receipt Account.

SEC. 30. Effective date.—These regulations shall become effective and in full force from and after the date of approval, and shall be subject to change or alteration at any time by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That no regulations made after the approval of any lease shall operate to affect the term of lease, rate of royalty, rental, or acreage, unless agreed to by both parties to the lease.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION.

[Docket No. 3391]

IN THE MATTER OF AMERICAN FLANGE & MANUFACTURING COMPANY, INC., A CORPORATION

COMPLAINT

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and pursuant to the provisions of an Act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An Act to Supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes" (the Clayton Act), as amended by "An Act to amend Section 2 of the Act entitled 'An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes' approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C. title 15, sec. 13) and for other purposes" (the Robinson-Patman Act), and by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Trade Commission by the aforesaid acts, the Federal Trade Commission having reason to believe that American Flange & Manufacturing Company, Inc., hereinafter designated as the respondent, has been and is violating the provisions of said Federal Trade Commission Act, and of said Clayton Act, as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act, and it appearing to said Commission that a proceeding by it in respect thereof would be in the public interest, hereby issues its complaint stating its charges in such respects as follows:

CHARGE I

PARAGRAPH 1. Respondent, American Flange & Manufacturing Company, Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Illinois, having its principal office at 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, N. Y., and a factory at Chicago, Illinois.

PAR. 2. Respondent is, and has been during the time herein mentioned, engaged in the business of manufacturing, of offering for sale, selling and distributing receptacle-closure parts for metal containers. Among such receptacle-closure parts, so manufactured and sold by respondent are closure-structures, which are designed to close the holes through which metal containers are filled and emptied. Such closure-structures consist essentially of a threaded metal flange or bushing which is affixed about a hole punched in the container, and a threaded metal plug which fits into the flange and closes the hole. Respondent also manufactures and sells a sealing cap for such closure-structures, which is designed to protect the container against tampering and leakage. Respondent markets its said closure parts under the trade-mark "Tri-Sure".

PAR. 3. Respondent's "Tri-Sure" closure-structures are applied to the metal containers by the use of certain applying dies, upon which respondent claims to hold patents. Respondent licenses the use of such applying dies to its customers who purchase from it closure-structures and who are engaged in the business of manufacturing metal containers. Respondent also sells "Tri-Sure" sealing caps to customers engaged in the filling of metal receptacles. Such sealing caps may be applied to respondent's closure-structure by means of certain sealing tools upon which respondent claims to hold patents. Respondent licenses its customers purchasing such "Tri-Sure" sealing caps to use such sealing tools in applying the caps to the metal containers after such containers have been filled.

PAR. 4. In the course and conduct of its said business, respondent licenses the use of its said allegedly patented dies and tools to purchasers of the receptacle-closure parts who are located in many of the States of the United States and in some foreign countries, and causes its said receptacle-closure parts, when sold, to be transported from the state in which the same are manufactured, being the State of Illinois, to, into and through other states of the United States. Respondent sells said receptacle-closure parts to metal-container manufacturers and metal container fillers in all parts of the United States, and sells and distributes its said products in commerce between and among the various states of the United States. There is and has been at all times herein mentioned a continuous current of trade and commerce in said products across state lines between respondent's factory in the State of Illinois and the various purchasers of such commodities located in other States of the United States. Such products are sold and distributed for use, consumption and resale within the various states of the United States.

PAR. 5. In the course and conduct of its business as aforesaid, respondent is now and during the times herein mentioned has been in substantial competition with other corporations, individuals, partnerships and firms engaged in the business of manufacturing receptacle-closure parts for metal containers, and offering for sale, selling and distributing such products in commerce between and among the various states of the United States and the District of Columbia. Said competitors claim to have the right to so manufacture and sell their products, and claim to have valid patents on such receptacle-closure parts, and on certain dies and tools used in applying the same to metal containers.

PAR. 6. Respondent, in connection with the sale of its "Tri-Sure" closure structures to purchasers who are metal container manufacturers, pursues a policy of inducing and requiring such manufacturer-customers to sign a certain so-called license and service agreement. By the terms of such agreement respondent agrees to furnish to such customers certain sets of "Tri-Sure" applying dies, and licenses the use thereof solely for the purpose of applying "Tri-Sure" closures of metal containers. Respondent in said agreement warrants that it owns certain patents listed therein by number and purports to grant a non-exclusive license to the purchaser of its closures for the use of the same. The patents so enumerated in said agreements include patents under which respondent claims to manufacture its closure structures, parts and sealing caps, as well as patents on applying and sealing devices, and includes also patents which respondent claims to own but which it does not use in the manufacture of any of such parts or devices. Said agreement contains the following provision:

"The Company" (purchaser) "as one of the essential considerations of this agreement hereby acknowledges 'American Flange's' sole right in and ownership of the trademark 'Tri-Sure' for receptacle-closures, parts thereof and applying-dies and sealing tools therefor and hereby agrees not to infringe or contest same, directly or indirectly, nor to employ other than genuine 'Tri-Sure' parts to fill any order calling for "Tri-Sure' closures and also hereby acknowledges for the entire respective term of each said patent, issued or to be issued, the validity thereof and hereby agrees not to infringe or contest same, directly or indirectly."

Said agreement provides further as follows:

"Should 'The Company'" (purchaser) "during any six (6) months period purchase from the 'American Flange' 'Tri-Sure' closures for receptacles amounting to eighty (80) percent or more, of the company's total requirements of closures for receptacles of whatever kind or make for such six (6) months period, and should certify the same in writing, signed by a responsible officer of The Company, 'American Flange' shall then allow a quantity discount equal to ten (10) percent of the prices billed by the said 'American Flange' during such six (6) months period. Should any dispute arise with respect to said certification, then 'American Flange' shall have the option to employ certified public accountants during business hours to examine 'The Company's books in order to ascertain the correctness of such certification.'"

PAR. 7. Respondent has attempted to induce and require each and every one of its purchasers of closure-structures, engaged in the manufacture of metal containers, to sign one of the aforesaid agreements, and a majority of such purchasers have been induced to enter into the same to secure the rebates on price therein provided for. Some of said metal container manufacturers, who purchase "Tri-Sure" closures from respondent, have refused to execute such agreements on the ground that they were unlawful or upon other grounds, and some of such manufacturer customers have signed said agreement with certain modifications. Respondent refuses to give any discount in price or grant any rebate thereon to customers who have not signed said agreement. Said manufacturers of metal containers so purchasing "Tri-Sure" closures from respondent are generally in competition with one-another in the manufacture of metal containers with closure parts attached, and the sale thereof to corporations, partnerships and individuals engaged in the business of filing metal containers.

PAR. 8. Respondent, in connection with its sale of such "Tri-Sure" sealing caps to corporations, partnerships and individuals engaged in the filling of metal containers, pursues a policy of requiring such purchasers of sealing caps to enter into a so-called license and service agreement, which is substantially in the same form as the license and service agreement set forth in Paragraph Six above. Such license and service agreement so imposed upon fillers of metal receptacles lists the same patents as those contained in the agreement set forth in said Paragraph Six, although it does not warrant the ownership thereof in respondent. It also contains the same two provisions as are set out verbatim in said Paragraph Six. Respondent has induced the majority of its filler customers to execute such so-called license and service agreements as a means of securing the rebates on price therein provided for.

PAR. 9. The capacity, tendency and effect of respondent's policy of using said agreements, considered as a whole, has been or may be: To prevent purchasers buying "Tri-Sure" closures and sealing caps from respondent, from purchasing or using other closures and sealing caps sold in competition with respondent's products; to monopolize in respondent the business of manufacturing and selling closure structures and sealing caps for metal containers throughout the United States; to coerce manufacturers of metal containers and fillers of such containers into acknowledging the validity of the patents claimed to be owned by respondent and to prevent such manufacturers and fillers from recognizing the validity or existence of any other patents for the manufacture of similar devices sold in competition with respondent's products; to coerce metal container manufacturers and fillers into acknowledging respondent's asserted sole right and ownership in the trade-mark "Tri-Sure" and to prevent such purchasers from recognizing the existence or validity of other trade-marks on similar competitive products; to restrain, hinder, lessen and injure competition between respondent and competing manufacturers in connection with the manufacture and sale of closure structures and sealing caps for metal containers in the United States; to unreasonably restrain trade in such products; to require metal container manufacturers and fillers under certain conditions to submit to an examination of their books by respondent; and generally to coerce and compel such purchasers of respondent's products to aid and assist respondent in promoting and creating a monopoly under such alleged patents in the manufacture and sale of such products and dies and tools for applying the same to metal containers.

PAR. 10. The policy and practice of respondent in using the above-described agreements and requiring and inducing metal container manufacturers and fillers to execute the same is and was an unfair method of competition within the intent and meaning of the Federal Trade Commission Act prior to its amendment on March 21, 1938, and constitute an unfair method of competition and unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce within the intent and meaning of said Federal Trade Commission Act as amended on March 21, 1938.

CHARGE II

PARAGRAPH 1. Paragraphs One to Nine inclusive of Charge I are hereby incorporated herein as though set forth verbatim.

PAR. 2. Respondent in entering into the above-described agreements and in carrying out the provisions thereof and making sales thereunder has made contracts for the sale of its closures and sealing caps, has made sales of such products, and has fixed a discount from and rebate upon the prices charged therefor, on the condition, agreement and understanding that the purchaser of such products shall not use or deal in the products of competitors, and the effect of such contracts, sales, discounts and rebates has been or may be to substantially lessen competition between respondent and its said competitors and to tend to create a monopoly in respondent in the manufacture and sale of receptacle-closure parts and in the leasing of applying dies and tools for such parts.

PAR. 3. The acts, practices and policies set forth in the preceding paragraph are in violation of Section 3 of the Clayton Act.

CHARGE III

PARAGRAPH 1. Paragraph One to Paragraph Nine inclusive of Charge I are hereby incorporated herein as though fully set forth verbatim.

PAR. 2. Respondent has been making sales of such closure-structures to metal container manufacturers who have executed the above-described so-called license and service agreements and to those who have refused to execute the same.

PAR. 3. Respondent has been making sales of sealing caps for metal containers to fillers of metal containers who have executed the license and service agreements above referred to, and to those who have refused to execute such agreements.

PAR. 4. Since prior to June 19, 1936, respondent has allowed a discount or rebate of ten percent to those of its purchasers who have executed and abided by such so-called license and service agreements, or who have substantially complied therewith, which allowance and discount it has refused to make to other purchasers.

PAR. 5. In the course and conduct of its business as above described, since prior to June 19, 1936, respondent has been and is now discriminating in price between different purchasers of closures and selling caps for metal containers in like grades and qualities so sold by respondent in interstate commerce for use, consumption or resale, by giving and allowing some of its purchasers lower prices than those given or allowed other of its said purchasers, many of whom are actively engaged one with the other in the resale of such products in the United States. Said discriminations are brought about by the practice and policy pursued by respondent of granting a 10 percent discount to all of its purchasers who purchase from respondent 80 percent or more of their total requirements of closure parts for a given six months' period, or who substantially comply with the terms of the aforesaid agreements, which said discount is not allowed to other purchasers.

PAR. 6. The general effect of such discriminations in price, as so made by respondent as above set forth, has been or may be to lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition between respondent and its competitors in the manufacture, sale and distribution of closures and sealing caps for metal containers, and also has been or may be to substantially lessen competition and to injure, destroy and prevent competition in the resale of such closures between and among some of the said favored purchasers of such products so receiving such discriminatory discounts and rebates, and some of the competitive unfavored purchasers not receiving such discriminatory discounts and rebates. The effect of such discriminations in price also has been and may be to tend to create a monopoly in respondent in said line of commerce and to tend to create a monopoly in said favored purchasers receiving such discriminatory price in the resale of such closures so applied to metal containers in the various localities or trade territories in the United States in which such purchasers respectively are engaged in the business of manufacturing metal containers.

PAR. 7. The foregoing alleged acts and practices of said respondent are in violation of Section 2 (a) of the Clayton Act, as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act.

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 28th day of April, A. D. 1938, here issues its complaint against said respondent stating the charges as hereinabove set out.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given you, American Flange and Manufacturing Company, Inc., respondent above named, that the 3rd day of June, A. D. 1938, at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violation of the law charged in the complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule VII) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a short and simple statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

* * * * * * * *

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided or failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further hearing or notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint, and to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent findings of fact and an order to cease and desist.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the charges set forth in the complaint and not to contest the proceeding, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of the complaint to be true. Any such answer shall be deemed to waive a hearing thereon, and to authorize the Commission, without trial and without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to make, enter, issue, and serve upon respondent:

(a) In cases arising under the Federal Trade Commission Act, or under section 3 of the act of Congress approved October 15, 1914, entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes" (the Clayton Act), or under section 2 of the aforesaid Clayton Act as amended by "An act to amend section 2 of the act entitled 'An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes', approved October 15, 1914, as amended (U. S. C., title 15, sec. 13), and for other purposes", approved June 19, 1936 (the Robinson-Patman Act), findings of fact and an order to cease and desist from the violations of law charged in the complaint.

That all lands other than homesteads allotted to members of the Five Civilized Tribes from which restrictions have not been removed may be leased by the allottee if an adult, or by guardian or curator under order of the proper probate court if a minor or incompetent, for a period not to exceed five years, without the privilege of renewal: Provided, That leases of restricted lands for oil, gas, or other mining purposes, leases of restricted homesteads for more than one year, and leases of restricted lands for periods of more than five years may be made, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, under rules and regulations provided by the Secretary of the Interior, and not otherwise: And provided further, That the jurisdiction of the probate courts of the State of Oklahoma over land of minors and incompetents shall be subject to the foregoing provisions, and the term "minor" or "minors," as used in this act, shall include all males under the age of 21 years and all females under the age of 18 years.

SEC. 3. That the rolls of citizenship and of freedmen of the Five Civilized Tribes, approved by the Secretary of the Interior shall be conclusive evidence as to the quantum of Indian blood of any enrolled citizen of freedman of said tribes and of no other persons to determine questions arising under this act and the enrollment records of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes shall hereafter be conclusive evidence as to the age of said citizen or freedman.

That no oil, gas, or other mineral lease entered into by any of said allottees prior to the removal of restrictions requiring the approval of the Secretary of the Interior shall be rendered invalid by this act, but the same shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior as if this act had not been passed: Provided, That the owner or owners of any allotted land from which restrictions are removed by this act, or have been removed by previous acts of Congress, or by the Secretary of the Interior, or may hereafter be removed under and by authority of any act of Congress, shall have the power to cancel and annul any oil, gas, or mineral lease on said land whenever the owner or owners of said land and the owner or owners of the lease thereon agree in writing to terminate said lease and file with the Secretary of the Interior, or his designated agent, a true copy of the agreement in writing canceling said lease, which said agreement shall be executed and acknowledged by the parties thereto in the manner required by the laws of Oklahoma for the execution and acknowledgment of deeds, and the same shall be recorded in the county where the land is situate.

SEC. 11. That all royalties arising on and after July 1, 1908, from mineral leases of allotted Seminole lands heretofore or hereafter made which are subject to the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior shall be paid to the United States Indian Agent, Union Agency, for the benefit of the Indian lessor or his proper representative to whom such royalties shall thereafter belong; and no such lease shall be made after said date except with the allottee or owner of the land: Provided, That the interest of the Seminole Nation in leases or royalties arising thereunder on all allotted lands shall cease on June 30, 1908.

Section 18 of the Act of Congress approved February 14, 1920 (41 Stat. 426), provides in part as follows:

• • • Provided further, That hereafter no undisputed claims to be paid from individual moneys of restricted allottees, or their heirs, or uncontested agricultural and mineral leases (excluding oil and gas leases) made by individual restricted Indian allottees, or their heirs, shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for approval; but all such undisputed claims or uncontested leases (except oil and gas leases) heretofore required to be approved under existing law by the Secretary of the Interior shall hereafter be paid, approved, rejected, or disapproved by the Superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes of Oklahoma: Provided, however, That any party aggrieved by any decision or order of the Superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes of Oklahoma may appeal from the same to the Secretary of the Interior within 30 days from the date of said decision or order.

Section 1 of the Act of Congress approved May 10, 1928 (45 Stat. 495) provides:

That the restrictions against the alienation, lease, mortgage, or other encumbrance of the lands allotted to members of the Five Civilized Tribes in Oklahoma, enrolled as of one-half or more Indian blood, be, and they are hereby, extended for an additional period of twenty-five years commencing on April 26, 1931: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior shall have the authority to remove the restrictions, upon the applications of the Indian owners of the land, and may remove such restrictions, wholly or in part, under such rules and regulations concerning terms of sale and disposal of the proceeds for the benefit of the respective Indians as he may prescribe.

Sections 1 and 8 of the Act of Congress approved January 27, 1933 (47 Stat. 777) provide:

• • • Provided, That where the entire interest in any tract of restricted and tax-exempt land belonging to members of the Five Civilized Tribes is acquired by inheritance, devise, gift, or purchase, with restricted funds, by or for restricted Indians, such lands shall remain restricted and tax-exempt during the life of and as long as held by such restricted Indians, but not longer than April 26, 1956, unless the restrictions are removed in the meantime in the manner provided by law: Provided, further, That such restricted and tax-exempt land held by anyone, acquired as herein provided, shall not exceed one hundred and sixty acres: And provided further, That all minerals including oil and gas produced from said land so acquired shall be subject to all State and Federal taxes as provided in section 3 of the Act approved May 10, 1928 (45 Stat. 495).

SEC. 8. That it shall be the duty of the attorneys provided for under the Act of May 27, 1908 (35 Stat. 312), to appear and represent any restricted member of the Five Civilized Tribes before the county courts of any county in the State of Oklahoma, or before any appellate court thereof, in any matter in which said restricted Indians may have an interest, and no conveyance of any interest in land of any full-blood Indian heir shall be valid unless approved in open court after notice in accordance with the rules of procedure in probate matters adopted by the Supreme Court of Oklahoma in June of 1914, and said attorneys shall have the right to appeal from the decision of any county court approving the sale of any interest in land, to the district court of the district to which the county is a part.

To carry out the provisions of existing law as quoted above the following regulations governing the leasing of lands of members of the Five Civilized Tribes, for mining purposes, are hereby prescribed:

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 1. The term "Superintendent" herein refers to the superintendent or other officer of the Indian Service or of the Government who may be in charge of the Five Civilized Tribes Indian Agency.

The term "Supervisor" herein refers to a representative of the Secretary of the Interior, under direction of the Director of the United States Geological Survey, authorized and empowered to supervise and direct operations under oil and gas or other mining leases, to furnish scientific and technical information and advice, to ascertain and record the amount and value of production, and to determine and record rentals and royalties due and paid.

HOW TO ACQUIRE LEASES

SEC. 2. Applications for leases.—Applications for leases should be made to the superintendent.

SEC. 3. No Government employee shall acquire leases.—No lease, assignment thereof, or interest therein will be approved to any employee or employees of the United States Government, whether connected with the Indian Service or otherwise, and no employee of the Interior Department shall be permitted to acquire any interest in such leases covering restricted Indian lands by ownership of stock in corporations having leases or in any other manner.

SEC. 4. Sales of oil and gas leases.—At such times and in such manner as he may deem appropriate, the superintendent shall publish notices that oil and gas leases on specific tracts, each of which shall be in a compact body, will be offered to the highest responsible bidder: Provided, That where leases have been entered into under order of the proper probate court including leases covering land in which minors or incompetents are interested, the oil and gas inspector of the Five Civilized Tribes Agency shall appraise the bonus value, and the lessee will be required to pay not less than such appraised value. Successful bidders must deposit with the superintendent on the day of sale a certified check or bank draft on a solvent bank in the amount equal to twenty percent of the bonus bid and of the first year's rental, as a guaranty of good faith. The balance of the bonus and of the first year's rental shall be paid and the lease in completed form shall be filed within 20 days after the lease is forwarded, by the superintendent, to the lessee for execution, unless such period has been extended by the superintendent for good and sufficient reason. In cases where any part of the bonus bid for a lease is paid directly to the Indian lessor, upon his signing the lease, the lessee must procure and file with the lease an affidavit of the lessor, sworn to before a United States Commissioner, Indian superintendent, local representative of the Office of the superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes, County or District Judge, Federal Judge or Clerk of a Federal Court, showing the amount of bonus so paid, and the balance thereof must be paid into the Office of the superintendent upon filing the lease. Where possible lessees are requested to take the lessor to the nearest United States Field Clerk who will render all proper assistance in the execution of leases, and before whom the bonus affidavit may be executed in cases where any part of bonus consideration is paid directly to the Indian. Where leases are executed by guardians, under order of court, the affidavit of lessor may be executed before a notary public. In submitting the leases for consideration, the superintendent shall consult with the oil and gas inspector at the Five Civilized Tribes Agency and report upon the adequacy of the bonus offered for each lease. If the successful bidder fails to complete the lease or to pay the full consideration within 20 days or authorized extension thereof, or if the lease is disapproved through no fault of the lessor or the Interior Department, the amount deposited as a guaranty of good faith shall be forfeited for the use and benefit of the Indian lessor. The right is reserved by the Secretary of the Interior to reject any and all bids and to disapprove and reject any lease made on an accepted bid; and should any bid be rejected after deposit is made by the bidder, all amounts deposited with the superintendent will be immediately returned.

SEC. 5. Term of oil and gas lease.—Oil and gas mining leases which require the approval of the Secretary of the Interior may be made for periods of ten years from the date of approval of lease by the Secretary of the Interior and as much longer thereafter as oil and/or gas is produced in paying quantities.

SEC. 6. Leases for minerals other than oil and gas.—Uncontested mining leases for minerals other than oil and gas shall be made on forms prescribed by the Department, for a period of 15 years with the right of renewal on such terms as the superintendent may prescribe, and shall be subject only to approval by the superintendent. See provisions of the Act of February 14, 1920 (41 Stat. 408–426). Any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the superintendent approving, rejecting, or disapproving any such lease may appeal from the same to the Secretary of the Interior within 30 days from the date of such decision or order.

SEC. 7. Approval fee.—A fee of $5 is required upon approval of each lease, sublease, or assignment, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of February 14, 1920 (41 Stat. 408–415) as amended by the Act of March 1, 1933 (47 Stat. 1417; 25 U. S. C. 413). This fee shall be paid at the time of filing the lease, sublease, or assignment, and will be refunded in case the instrument is disapproved.

SEC. 8. Filing of lease deemed constructive notice.—The filing of any lease in the office of the superintendent shall be deemed constructive notice of the existence of such lease. See Act of March 1, 1907 (34 Stat. 1015).

SEC. 9. Noncontiguous tracts.—No lease will be approved covering two or more noncontiguous tracts of land, but in such case a lease must be executed on each separate tract.

SEC. 10. Lessor's signature.—Any Indian who can not write his name will be required to sign all official papers by making a distinct thumbprint which shall be designated as "right" or "left" thumbmark. Such signatures must be witnessed by two persons, one of whom must be a United States Government employee (such as Field Clerk, postmaster, United States Commissioner, etc.).

SEC. 11. Minor lessors.—Where the lessor is a minor, certified copies of letters of guardianship and court orders approving leases must be filed.

SEC. 12. Leases executed by guardians of minors.—Leases executed by guardians of minors under order of court for a period extending beyond the minority of the minor will be approved unless it appears that such action would be prejudicial to the interests of the minor: Provided, That in the event the minor becomes of age within one year from date of execution of lease the consent of the minor to the execution of the lease should be obtained and submitted with the lease for consideration.

SEC. 13. Inherited lands.—Except to prevent loss or waste, leases on undivided inherited lands will not be approved until the heirship determination has been approved. If the heirs to undivided inherited lands are undetermined or can not be located, or if the heirs owning less than one-half interest in the lands refuse to sign a lease and it appears necessary to lease the lands to prevent loss or waste, the superintendent will report the facts to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and ask for instructions. Minor heirs can lease or join adult heirs in leasing only through guardians under order of court. Proof of heirship shall be given upon Form F prescribed. If probate or other court proceedings have established the heirship in any case, or the land has been partitioned, certified copy of final order, judgment, or decree of the court will be accepted in lieu of Form F.

SEC. 14. Corporations and corporate information.—If the applicant for a lease is a corporation, it shall file evidence of authority of its officers to execute papers; and with its first application it shall also file a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, and, if foreign to the State in which the lands are located, evidence showing compliance with the corporation laws thereof. Statements of changes in officers and stockholders shall be furnished by a corporation lessee to the superintendent January 1 of each year, and at such other times as may be requested.

Whenever deemed advisable in any case the superintendent may require a corporation applicant or lessee to file:

(I) List of officers, principal stockholders, and directors, with post-office addresses and number of shares held by each.

(II) A sworn statement of the proper officer showing:

(a) The total number of shares of the capital stock actually issued and the amount of cash paid into the treasury on each share sold; or, if paid in property, the kind, quantity, and value of the same paid per share.

(b) Of the stock sold, how much remains unpaid and subject to assessment.

(c) The amount of cash the company has in its treasury and elsewhere.

(d) The property, exclusive of cash, owned by the company and its value.

(e) The total indebtedness of the company and the nature of its obligations.

(f) Whether the applicant or any person controlling, controlled by or under common control with the applicant has filed any registration statement, application for registration, prospectus or offering sheet with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or said Commission's rules and regulations under said Acts; if so, under what provision of said Acts or rules and regulations, and what disposition of any such statement, application, prospectus or offering sheet has been made.

(III) Affidavits of individual stockholders, setting forth in what corporations, or with what persons, firms, or associations such individual stockholders are interested in mining leases on restricted lands within the State, and whether they hold such interest for themselves or in trust.

SEC. 15. Bonds.—Lessee shall furnish with each lease, a bond (form 5–154b) with personal sureties or with an acceptable company authorized to act as sole surety. Such bond shall be in amount as follows: For less than 80 acres, $1,000; for 80 acres and less than 120 acres, $1,500; for 120 acres and not more than 160 acres, $2,000; and for each additional 40 acres, or part thereof, above 160 acres, $500: Provided, That a lessee may file one bond (form 5–154u) in the sum of $15,000, covering all leases of a particular class up to 10,240 acres, to which he is or may become a party. The right is reserved at any time before or after approval of the lease to increase the amount of a bond above the sum named, in any case where the Secretary of the Interior deems it proper to do so. Bonds with personal sureties will be accepted only where the sureties deposit collateral, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, equal in value to the full amount of the bond and consisting of any public debt obligation of the United States, guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States. In lieu of other bonds, lessees may execute their own surety contracts upon deposit, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, of Government bonds, equal in value to the full amount of the bond, as collateral (form 5–154a).

SEC. 16. Additional information may be requested by superintendent.—The superintendent, or other Government officer having the matter in charge or under investigation, may, at any time, either before or after approval of a lease, call for any additional information desired to carry out the purpose of these regulations, and such information shall be furnished within the time specified in the request therefor. If the lessee fails to furnish the information requested, the lease will be subject to disapproval or cancellation, whichever is appropriate.

GOVERNMENT RESERVES RIGHT TO PURCHASE MINERALS PRODUCED

SEC. 17. In time of war or other public emergency any of the executive departments of the United States Government shall have the option to purchase at the prevailing market price on the date of sale all or any part of the minerals produced under any lease.

RENTS AND ROYALTIES

SEC. 18. Manner of payment of rents and royalties.—All rents and other payments due under leases which have been or may be approved by the Secretary of the Interior shall be paid by check or bank draft on a solvent bank, to the order of the superintendent or to such other person as may be designated by the Secretary of the Interior, for the benefit of the various lessors. Except advance payments for the first year which shall be sent direct to the superintendent at the time of filing the leases, payments of rental and royalty under oil and gas leases shall be transmitted through the supervisor, shall be accompanied by a statement by the lessee, in triplicate, showing the specific items of rental or royalty that the remittance is intended to cover, and shall be made at such time or times as the lease provides. No credit will be given any lessee for rents or royalties paid direct to the lessors or their representatives, while the lands continue under restrictions, and all payments required under departmental leases covering lands from which restrictions have been removed by death or otherwise may be made to the superintendent until 10 days after notice of relinquishment of supervision has been mailed to the lessee by the superintendent.

For leases other than oil and gas, all advance rentals and royalties for the first year shall be paid to the superintendent at the time of filing the lease, and the advance royalty and 20 percent of the first year's rental so paid shall be and become the property of the lessor if the lease be disapproved because of the lessee's failure to meet the requirements of the law or of these regulations or because of any other fault or defect chargeable to the lessee.

SEC. 19. Crediting advance annual payments.—In the event of discovery of minerals in paying quantities all advance rents and advance royalties shall be allowed as credit on stipulated royalties for the year for which such advance payments have been made. No refund of such advance payments made under any lease which may be so credited on stipulated royalties will be allowed in the event the royalty on production is not sufficient to equal such advance payment; nor will any part of the moneys so paid be refunded to the lessee because of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease.

SEC. 20. Disposition of income from leases.—All royalties, rents, or payments accruing under any lease shall be deposited by the superintendent to the credit of the Indian lessor entitled to the same. Such income belonging to any minor or other Indian under local guardianship shall be held by the superintendent or such other officer as may be designated by the Secretary of the Interior to the credit of the guardian (or curator) of such minor or other Indian under local guardianship, and shall be paid to such guardian (or curator) upon voucher executed by him and approved by the judge of the county (probate) court having jurisdiction of the estate of such minor or other Indian under local guardianship (the form of such voucher to be prescribed by the Department), or upon authority of such court in the form of an order satisfactory to said superintendent or other officer in charge of the office of the superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes.

The said superintendent is authorized, however, in his discretion, where considered for the best interest of any adult, minor, or incompetent lessor, or his or her heirs, for whose account royalties, rents, or payments accruing under any lease have been paid to said superintendent to withhold the disbursement of such royalties, rents, or payments, wholly or in part, from any such adult or guardian or curator of any such minor or incompetent, or his or her heirs, until such time or times as the payment thereof is considered best for the benefit of said lessor or his or her heirs; Provided, that in such individual cases or classes of cases as the Secretary of the Interior may direct, the Superintendent shall cause such payments as may be authorized to be made out of the royalties and other individual Indian funds of the restricted Indians, minors, and incompetents, to be paid direct to the Indians, entitled thereto or to be otherwise paid out for their benefit and use, as the Secretary of the Interior may authorize in said cases.

From the individual Indian restricted funds derived as royalties or otherwise, no disbursements in settlement of litigation or in payment of attorney's fees or in the purchase of or investment in real estate or in loans upon real estate shall be made except with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior thereto: Provided, however, That nothing in this Section shall be construed as limiting or affecting the jurisdiction of the Superintendent as authorized by certain provisions of the act of Congress approved February 14, 1920 (14 Stat. L., 408–426).

SEC. 21. Rate of rents on leases other than oil and gas.—On all mineral leases of allotted lands other than oil and gas leases, rental shall be paid annually in advance from the date of approval of the lease, as follows: Fifty cents per acre for the first year, seventy-five cents per acre for the second year, and $1.00 per acre for the third and each succeeding year of the term of the lease.

SEC. 22. Expenditures under leases other than oil and gas.—On all leases on deposits of the nature of lodes and veins containing ores of gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, or other useful metals, there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the lands leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $5 per acre.

On all leases for beds of placer gold, gypsum, asphaltum, phosphate, iron ores, or other useful metals other than coal, oil, and gas, there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements, upon the lands leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $5 per acre.

On all coal leases, there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements, upon the lands leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $10 per acre.

Each lessee shall file with the superintendent an itemized statement in duplicate, within 20 days after the close of each year, of the amount and character of said expenditures during such year; the statement to be certified under oath by the lessee or his agent having personal knowledge of the facts contained therein.

SEC. 23. Rate of royalty for minerals other than oil and gas.—For substances other than gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, tungsten, coal, asphaltum, and allied substances, oil, and gas, the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten percent of the value, at the nearest shipping point, of all ores, metals, or minerals marketed.

For gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, and tungsten, the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten percent, to be computed on the value of bullion as shown by mint returns after deducting forwarding charges to the point of sale, and to be computed on the value of ores and concentrates as shown by reduction returns after deducting freight charges to the point of sale. Duplicate returns shall be filed by the lessee with the superintendent within ten days after the ending of the quarter or other period specified in the lease within which such returns are made: Provided, however, That the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten percent of the value of ores and concentrates sold at the mine.

For coal, the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten cents per ton of 2,000 pounds of mine run, or coal as taken from the mine, including what is commonly called "slack."

For asphaltum and allied substances the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten cents per ton of 2,000 pounds on crude material and of not less than 60 cents per ton on refined substances.

SEC. 24. Rate of rents and royalties on oil and gas leases.—The lessee shall pay, beginning with the date of approval of oil and gas leases by the Secretary of the Interior, a rental of $1.25 per acre per annum in advance during the continuance thereof, together with a royalty of 12½ percent of the value or amount of all oil, gas, and/or natural gasoline, and/or all other hydrocarbon substances produced and saved from the land leased, save and except oil and/or gas used by the lessee for development and operation purposes on the lease, which oil or gas shall be royalty free. During the period of supervision, "value" for the purposes of the lease may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior be calculated on the basis of the highest price paid or offered (whether calculated on the basis of short or actual volume) at the time of production for the major portion of the oil of the same gravity, and gas, and/or natural gasoline, and/or all other hydrocarbon substances produced and sold from the field where the leased lands are situated, and the actual volume of the marketable product less the content of foreign substances as determined by the supervisor. The actual amount realized by the lessee from the sale of said products may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be deemed mere evidence of or conclusive evidence of such value. When paid in value, such royalties shall be due and payable monthly at such time as the lease provides; when royalty on oil produced is paid in kind, such royalty oil shall be delivered in tanks provided by the lessee on the premises where produced without cost to the lessor unless otherwise agreed to by the parties thereto, at such time as may be required by the lessor. The lessee shall not be required to hold such royalty oil in storage longer than 30 days after the end of the calendar month in which said oil is produced. The lessee shall be in no manner responsible or held liable for loss or destruction of such oil in storage by causes beyond his control.

SEC. 25. Free use of gas by lessor.—If the leased premises produce gas in excess of the lessee's requirements for the development and operation of said premises, then the lessor may use sufficient gas, free of charge, for all stoves and inside lights in the principal dwelling house on said premises, by making his own connections to a regulator, connected to the well and maintained by the lessee, and the lessee shall not be required to pay royalty on gas so used. The use of such gas shall be at the lessor's risk at all times.

SEC. 26. Rate of royalty on casinghead gas.—On casinghead gas used or sold for the manufacture of casinghead gasoline the minimum rate of royalty shall be 12⅓ percent of the value of the casinghead gas, which value shall be determined and computed on the basis and in the manner provided in the applicable operating regulations of the Department.

In cases where gas produced and sold has a value for drip gasoline, casinghead gasoline content, and as dry gas from which the casinghead gasoline has been extracted, then the royalties above provided shall be paid on all such values.

SEC. 27. Rate of rental for nonutilized gas wells.—If the gas from a gas producing well is not marketed or utilized, other than for operation of the lease, then for each such well the lessee shall pay such rental as may be determined by the supervisor and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, calculated from the date of the completion of the well. Payment of annual gas rentals shall be made within 30 days from the date such payment becomes due.

SEC. 28. Royalty payments and production reports.—Royalty payments on all oil and gas or other producing leases shall be made at the rates, and at such time, and in the manner prescribed by the terms of the lease.

Quarterly reports shall be made by each lessee on non-producing leases other than oil and gas within 25 days after December 31, March 31, June 30, and September 30, of each year, upon forms provided, showing manner of operations and total production during such quarter. A lessee may include within one sworn statement all leases upon which there is no production or upon which dry holes have been drilled. Reports of oil and gas leases where royalty accounting is done in the field office of the supervisor will be made as required in the operating regulations.

SEC. 29. Division orders.—Leases may make arrangements with the purchasers of oil for the payment of the royalties to the superintendent by such purchasers, but such arrangement, if made, shall not operate to relieve a lessee from responsibility should the purchaser fail or refuse to pay royalties when due. Where lessees avail themselves of this privilege, division orders permitting the pipeline companies or other purchasers of the oil to withhold the royalty interest shall be executed and forwarded to the supervisor for approval, as pipeline companies are not permitted to accept or run oil from leased Indian lands until after the approval of a division order showing that the lessee has a lease regularly approved and in effect. When the lessee company runs its own oil, it shall execute an intra-company division order and forward it to the supervisor for his consideration. The right is reserved for the supervisor to cancel a division order at any time or require the pipeline company to discontinue to run the oil of any lessee who fails to operate the lease properly or otherwise violates the provisions of the lease, of these regulations, or of the operating regulations.

When oil is taken by authority of a division order, the lessee or his representatives shall be actually present when the oil is gauged and records are made of the temperature, gravity, and impurities. The lessee will be held responsible for the correctness and the correct recording and reporting of all the foregoing measurements, which, except lowest gauge, shall be made at the time the oil is turned into the pipe line. Failure of the lessee to perform properly these duties will subject the division order to revocation.

SEC. 30. Permission to start operations.—No operations will be permitted on any lease before it is approved. Written permission must be secured from the supervisor before any operations are started under any oil and gas lease. Operations must be in accordance with the operating regulations promulgated by the Secretary of the Interior. Copies of these regulations may be secured from either the supervisor or the superintendent and no operations should be attempted without a study of the operating regulations.

SEC. 31. Restrictions on operations.—Oil and gas leases issued under the provisions of these regulations shall be subject to imposition by the Secretary of the Interior of such restrictions as to time or times for the drilling of wells and as to the production from any well or wells as in his judgment may be necessary or proper for the protection of the natural resources of the leased land and in the interest of the lessor. In the exercise of his judgment the Secretary of the Interior may take into consideration, among other things, the Federal laws, State laws, regulations by competent Federal or State authorities, lawful agreements among operators regulating either drilling or production, or both.

All such leases shall be subject to any cooperative or unit plan of development affecting the leased lands that may be required by the Secretary of the Interior, but no lease shall be included in any cooperative or unit plan without prior approval of the Secretary of the Interior. If said plan effects a change in the lease terms, the consent of the lessor or lessors must be obtained before the plan is effective.

SEC. 32. Wells.—The lessee shall agree (1) to drill and produce all wells necessary to offset or protect the leased land from drainage by wells on adjoining lands not the property of the lessor, or in lieu thereof, compensate the lessor in full each month for the estimated loss of royalty through drainage: Provided, That during the period of supervision by the Secretary of the Interior, the necessity for offset wells shall be determined by the supervisor and payment in lieu of drilling and producing shall be with the consent of, and in an amount determined by the Secretary of the Interior; (2) at the election of the lessee to drill and produce other wells: Provided, That the right to drill and produce such other wells shall be subject to any system of well spacing or production allotments authorized and approved under applicable law or regulations, approved by the Secretary of the Interior and affecting the field or area in which the leased lands are situated; and (3) if the lessee elects not to drill and produce such other wells for any period the Secretary of the Interior may, within ten days after due notice in writing, either require the drilling and production of such wells to the number necessary, in his opinion, to insure reasonable diligence in the development and operation of the property, or may in lieu of such additional diligent drilling and production require the payment on and after the first anniversary date of the lease of not to exceed $1 per acre per annum, which sum shall be in addition to any rental or royalty herein specified.

SEC. 33. Diligence, and prevention of waste.—The lessee shall exercise diligence in drilling and operating wells for oil and gas on the leased lands while such products can be secured in paying quantities; carry on all operations in a good and workmen-like manner in accordance with approved methods and practice, having due regard for the prevention of waste of oil or gas developed on the land, or the entrance of water through wells drilled by the lessee to the productive sands or oil or gas-bearing strata to the destruction or injury of the oil or gas deposits, the preservation and conservation of the property for future productive operations, and to the health and safety of workmen and employees; plug securely all wells before abandoning the same and to shut off effectually all water from the oil or gas-bearing strata; not drill any well within 200 feet of any house or barn on the premises without the lessor's written consent approved by the superintendent; carry out at his expense all reasonable orders and requirements of the supervisor relative to prevention of waste, and preservation of the property and the health and safety of workmen; bury all pipe lines crossing tillable lands below plow depth unless other agreements therefor are made with the superintendent; pay the lessor all damages to crops, buildings, and other improvements of the lessor occasioned by the lessee's operations: Provided, That the lessee shall not be held responsible for delays or casualties occasioned by causes beyond his control.

SEC. 34. Inspection of leased premises, and books and accounts of lessees.—Lessees shall agree to allow the lessors and their agents or any authorized representative of the Interior Department to enter, from time to time, upon and into all parts of the leased premises for the purpose of inspection, and shall further agree to keep a full and correct account of all operations and make reports thereof, as required by the applicable regulations of the Department; and their books and records, showing manner of operations and persons interested, shall be open at all times for examination by such officers of the Department as shall be instructed in writing by the Secretary of the Interior or authorized by regulations to make such examination.

SEC. 35. Mines to be timbered properly.—In mining operations the lessee shall keep the mine well and sufficiently timbered at all points where necessary, in accordance with good mining practice, and in such manner as may be necessary to the proper preservation of the property leased and safety of workmen.

SEC. 36. Surrender of leased premises in good condition.—On expiration of the term of a lease, or when a lease is surrendered, the lessee shall deliver to the Government the leased ground, with the mine workings in case of leases other than oil and gas, in good order and condition, and the boundsmen will be held for such delivery in good order and condition, unless relieved by the Secretary of the Interior for cause. It shall, however, be stipulated that the machinery necessary to operate any mine is the property of the lessee, but that it may be removed by him only after the condition of the property has been ascertained by inspection by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized agents, to be in satisfactory condition.

SEC. 37. Penalties.—Failure of the lessee to comply with any provisions of the lease, of the operating regulations, of these regulations, orders of the superintendent or his representative, or of the orders of the supervisor or his representative, shall subject the lease to cancellation by the Secretary of the Interior or the lessee to a penalty of not more than $500 per day for each day the terms of the lease, the regulations, or such orders are violated, or to both such penalty and cancellation: Provided, That the lessee shall be entitled to notice and hearing, within 30 days after such notice, with respect to the terms of the lease, regulations, or orders violated, which hearing shall be held by the supervisor, whose findings shall be conclusive unless an appeal be taken to the Secretary of the Interior within 30 days after notice of the supervisor's decision, and the decision of the Secretary of the Interior upon appeal shall be conclusive.

ASSIGNMENTS

SEC. 38. Leases, or any interest therein, may be assigned or transferred only with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and to procure such approval the assignee must be qualified to hold such lease under existing rules and regulations, and shall furnish a satisfactory bond for the faithful performance of the covenants and conditions thereof. No lease or any interest therein, or the use of such lease, shall be assigned, sublet, or transferred, directly or indirectly, by working or drilling contract, or otherwise, without the consent of the Secretary of the Interior. Assignments of leases shall be filed with the superintendent within 20 days after the date of execution.

STIPULATIONS

SEC. 39. The lessee under any lease heretofore approved may by stipulation (Form 5–154i), with the consent of the lessor and the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, make such approved lease subject to all the terms, conditions, and provisions contained in the lease form and regulations currently in use. Stipulations shall be filed with the superintendent within 20 days after the date of execution.

CANCELLATIONS

SEC. 40. When, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, the lessee has violated any of the terms and conditions of a lease or of the applicable regulations, or if mining operations are conducted wastefully and without regard to good mining practice, the Secretary of the Interior shall have the right at any time after 30 days notice to the lessee specifying the terms and conditions violated, and after a hearing, if the lessee shall so request within 30 days after issuance of the notice, to declare such lease null and void, and the lessor shall then be entitled and authorized to take immediate possession of the land.

On the following conditions, the lessee may, on approval of the Secretary of the Interior, surrender a lease or any part of it:

(a) That he make application for cancellation to the superintendent having jurisdiction over the land.

(b) That he pay a surrender fee of one dollar at the time the application is made.

(c) That he pay all royalties and rentals due to the date of such application.

(d) That he make a satisfactory showing that full provision has been made for conservation and protection of the property and that all wells, drilled on the portion of the lease surrendered, have been properly abandoned.

(e) If the lease has been recorded, that he file, with his application, a recorded release of the acreage covered by the application.

(f) If the application is for the cancellation of the entire lease or the entire undivided portion, that he surrender the lease: Provided, That where the application is made by an assignee to whom no copy of the lease was delivered, he will be required to surrender only his copy of the assignment.

(g) If the lease (or portion being surrendered or cancelled) is owned in undivided interests by more than one party, then all parties shall join in the application for cancellation.

(h) That all required fees and papers must be in the mail or received on or before the date upon which rents and royalties become due, in order for the lessee and his surety to be relieved from liability for the payment of such royalties and rentals.

(i) If there has been a contest respecting a lease or leases, the approved, the disapproved, or the cancelled parts thereof will be held in the office of the superintendent for five days after the Department's decision has been promulgated, by mail or delivery, and will not be delivered, if within that period a motion for review and reconsideration be filed, until such motion is passed upon by the Department.

(j) In the event oil or gas is being drained from the leased premises by wells not covered by a lease; the lease, or any part of it, may be surrendered, only on such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may determine to be reasonable and equitable.

No part of any advance rental shall be refunded to the lessee nor shall he be relieved, by reason of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease, from the obligation to pay said advance rental when it becomes due.

For proper method of terminating Departmental leases covering lands from which restrictions have been removed see section 3 of the Act of May 27, 1908 (35 Stat. 312).

REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS

SEC. 41. Leases executed but not approved before restrictions removed from land.—Leases executed before the removal of restrictions against alienation on land from all of which restrictions against alienation shall be removed after such execution, if such leases contain specific provision for approval by the Secretary of the Interior, whether now filed with the Department or presented for consideration hereafter, will be considered and acted upon by this Department as heretofore but only for the purpose of approving or disapproving the instrument.

SEC. 42. Operations after removal of restrictions from leased lands.—Oil and gas leases heretofore approved and leases for other minerals now or hereafter in force on land from all of which restrictions against alienation have been or shall be removed, even if such leases contain provisions authorizing supervision by this Department, shall, after such removal of restrictions against alienation, be operated entirely free from such supervision, and the authority and power delegated to the Secretary of the Interior in said leases shall cease and all payments required to be made to the superintendent shall thereafter be made to the lessor or the then owner of the land, and changes in regulations thereafter made by the Secretary of the Interior shall not apply to such leased land from which said restrictions are removed.

In the event restrictions are removed from a part of the land included in any lease to which this section applies the entire lease shall continue subject to the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior, and all royalties thereunder shall be paid to the superintendent until such time as the lessor and lessee shall furnish the Secretary of the Interior satisfactory information that adequate arrangements have been made to account for the oil, gas, or mineral upon the restricted land separately from that upon the unrestricted. Thereafter the restricted land only shall be subject to the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That the unrestricted portion shall be relieved from such supervision, as in the lease or regulations provided.

SEC. 43. Relinquishment of Government supervision.—All oil and gas leases hereafter executed shall contain the following relinquishment of supervision clause and terms operative after such relinquishment, or other provisions similar in substance:

"Relinquishment of supervision by the Secretary of the Interior.—Should the Secretary of the Interior, at any time during the life of this instrument, relinquish supervision as to all or part of the acreage covered hereby, such relinquishment shall not bind lessee until said Secretary shall have given 30 days' written notice. Until said requirements are fulfilled, lessee shall continue to make all payments due hereunder as heretofore in section 3 (c). After notice of relinquishment has been received by lessee, as herein provided, this lease shall be subject to the following further conditions:

"(a) All rentals and royalties thereafter accruing shall be paid in the following manner: Rentals and royalties shall be paid to lessor or his successors in title, or to a trustee appointed under the provisions of section 9 hereof. Rentals and royalties shall be paid directly to lessor his successors in title, or to said trustee as the case may be.

"(b) If, at the time supervision is relinquished by the Secretary of the Interior, lessee shall have made all payments then due hereunder, and shall have fully performed all obligations on its part to be performed up to the time of such relinquishment, then the bond given to secure the performance hereof, on file in the Indian Office, shall be of no further force or effect.

"(c) Should such relinquishment affect only part of the acreage, then lessee may continue to drill and operate the land covered hereby as an entirety: Provided, That lessee shall pay in the manner prescribed by section 3 (c), for the benefit of lessor such proportion of all rentals and royalties due hereunder as the acreage retained under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior bears to the entire acreage of the lease, the remainder of such rentals and royalties to be paid directly to lessor or his successors in title or said trustee as the case may be, as provided in subdivision (a) of this section.

"Division of fee.—It is covenanted and agreed that should the fee of said land be divided into separate parcels, held by different owners, or should the rental or royalty interests hereunder be so divided in ownership, after the execution of this lease and after the Secretary of the Interior relinquishes supervision hereof, the obligations of lessee hereunder shall not be added to or changed in any manner whatsoever save as specifically provided by the terms of this lease. Notwithstanding such separate ownership, lessee may continue to drill and operate said premises as an entirety: Provided, That each separate owner shall receive such proportion of all rentals and royalties accruing after the vesting of his title as the acreage of the fee, or rental or royalty interest, bears to the entire acreage covered by the lease; or to the entire rental and royalty interest as the case may be: Provided further, That if, at any time after Departmental supervision hereof is relinquished, in whole or in part, there shall be four or more parties entitled to rentals or royalties hereunder, whether said parties are so entitled by virtue of undivided interests or by virtue of ownership of separate parcels of the land covered hereby, lessee at his election may withhold the payment of further rentals or royalties (except as to the portion due the Indian lessor while under restriction), until all of said parties shall agree upon and designate in writing and in a recordable instrument a trustee to receive all payments due hereunder on behalf of said parties and their respective successors in title. Payments to said trustee shall constitute lawful payments hereunder, and the sole risk of an improper or unlawful distribution of said funds by said trustee shall rest upon the parties naming said trustee and their respective successors in title." (The above provisions are copied from oil and gas mining lease form 5–154h, revised April 24, 1935.)

SEC. 44. Division of royalty to separate fee owners.—Should the removal of restrictions affect only part of the acreage covered by a lease containing provisions to the effect that the royalties accruing under the lease, where the fee is divided into separate parcels, shall be paid to each owner in the proportion which his acreage bears to the entire acreage covered by the lease, the lessee or assignee of such unrestricted portion will be required to make the reports required by these regulations and the operating regulations with respect to the beginning of drilling operations, completion of wells, and production the same as if the restrictions had not been removed. In the event the unrestricted portion of the leased premises is producing, the owner of the lease thereon will be required to pay the portion of the royalties due the Indian lessor at the time and in the manner specified by these regulations.

SEC. 45. Restrictions especially continued as to certain lands.—Restricted lands allotted as either homestead or surplus allotments, designated as tax exempt under section 4 of the Act of May 10, 1928, as amended May 24, 1928 (45 Stat. 495–733), the entire interest in which was acquired by inheritance, gift, device, or purchase with restricted funds, by persons of one-half or more Indian blood, after the passage of the Act of January 27, 1933 (47 Stat. 777), continue to be restricted under the provisions of the last mentioned act and oil and gas leases thereof are subject to these regulations and all such leases to be valid must be approved by the Secretary of the Interior. Lands inherited by or devised to full blood Indians prior to the Act of January 27, 1933 are not affected as to restrictions by the provisions of said act and may continue to be leased with the approval of the county court having jurisdiction of the estate of the deceased allottee and without approval of the Secretary of the Interior (54 L. D. 382; 10 Fed. 2, 487). Lands acquired prior to the passage of the Act of January 27, 1933 by Indians of less than full blood, whether such lands were restricted and tax exempt or restricted and taxable, passed to such persons free of all restrictions. Inherited homesteads restricted prior to April 26, 1931, by section 9 of the Act of May 27, 1908 (35 Stat. 312), for the benefit of heirs of one-half or more Indian blood but less than full bloods, born after March 4, 1906, became unrestricted April 26, 1931, or upon the death prior thereto of the heir born subsequent to March 4, 1906, and oil and gas leases thereof are not subject to these regulations nor under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior.

FIELD CLERKS

SEC. 46. Local representatives known officially as "field clerks" are located in the various districts, comprising that part of the State of Oklahoma occupied by the Five Civilized Tribes. Such field clerks shall report to and act under the direction of the superintendent. Any and all counsel and advice desired by allottees concerning deeds, leases, or other instruments or matters relating to lands allotted to them shall be furnished by such field clerks free of charge. Field clerks shall not, during their term of employment, have any personal interest, directly or indirectly, in any transaction concerning leases covering lands of allottees or in the purchase or sale of any such lands regardless of whether the restrictions have or have not been removed. This prohibition, however, shall not apply to lands which such field clerks may have legally acquired before their employment in the Indian Service. Field clerks shall report to the superintendent at the end of each month the work performed during such period and special reports shall be made immediately of any apparently illegal transaction involving the estates or allotments of allottees.

All former regulations governing the leasing of individually owned lands of the Five Civilized Tribes for mining purposes are superseded by these regulations.

The proviso to section 3 of the act of February 28, 1891 (26 Stat. 795), reads:

That where lands are occupied by Indians who have bought and paid for the same, and which lands are not needed for farming or agricultural purposes, and are not desired for individual allotments, the same may be leased by authority of the council speaking for such Indians, for a period not to exceed five years for grazing or farming or ten years for mining purposes, in such quantities and upon such terms and conditions as the agent in charge of such reservation may recommend, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

The act of May 29, 1924 (43 Stat. 244), provides:

That unallotted land on Indian reservations other than lands of the Five Civilized Tribes and the Osage Reservation subject to lease for mining purposes for a period of ten years under the proviso to section 3 of the act of February 28, 1891 (26 Stat. L. 795), may be leased at public auction by the Secretary of the Interior, with the consent of the council speaking for such Indians, for oil and gas mining purposes for a period of not to exceed ten years, and as much longer thereafter as oil or gas shall be found in paying quantities, and the terms of any existing oil and gas mining lease may in like manner be amended by extending the term thereof for as long as oil or gas shall be found in paying quantities.

To carry these provisions of law into effect the following regulations are prescribed:

DEFINITIONS

SEC. 1. The term "superintendent" herein refers to the superintendent or other officer of the Indian Service or of the Government who may have jurisdiction over the lands involved.

The term "supervisor" herein refers to a representative of the Secretary of the Interior, under direction of the United States Geological Survey, authorized and empowered to supervise and direct operations under oil and gas or other mining leases, to furnish scientific and technical information and advice, to ascertain and record the amount and value of production, and to determine and record rentals and royalties due and paid.

HOW TO ACQUIRE LEASES

SEC. 2. Tribal council may authorize leases to be made.—The Tribal Council of any Indian tribe, speaking for such Indians by resolution properly authenticated, may authorize the Secretary of the Interior to advertise the sale of leases for mining purposes on their tribal lands not needed for farming or agricultural purposes. Except where a tribe is authorized to execute its own leases pursuant to tribal constitution or charter adopted and approved pursuant to provisions contained in the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), the act of May 1, 1936 (49 Stat. 1250, or the act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1967), the Secretary of the Interior may thereafter authorize and empower any person to be by him designated to execute for and on behalf of any tribe, and subject to his approval, all leases on such lands for oil and gas or other mining purposes, except metalliferous minerals on unallotted lands of Indian reservations in Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Washington, or Wyoming, which are subject to lease under section 26 of the act of June 30, 1919 (41 Stat. 31), amended March 3, 1921 (41 Stat. 1225–1231), and December 16, 1926 (44 Stat. 922–923).

SEC. 3. Sale of oil and gas leases.—At such times as the Secretary of the Interior may direct, after being authorized by the tribal council, the superintendent shall publish and distribute notices, at least 15 days prior to the sale, that oil and gas leases on specific tracts, each of which shall be in a compact body, will be offered at public auction to the highest responsible bidder. The successful bidder must deposit with the superintendent, on the day of the sale, a certified check or bank draft on a solvent bank in an amount equal to 20 percent of the bonus bid and of the first year's rental as a guaranty of good faith. The balance of the bonus and of the first year's rental shall be paid and the lease in completed form shall be filed with the superintendent within 20 days after the lease is forwarded to the lessee for execution, unless such period shall have been extended by the superintendent for good and sufficient reason. If the successful bidder fails to complete the lease or pay the full consideration within said period or extension thereof, or if the lease is disapproved through no fault of the lessor or of the Department, the amount of bonus and rental deposited will be forfeited, as liquidated damages, for the use and benefit of the Indian lessor.

The right is reserved by the Secretary of the Interior to reject any and all bids and to disapprove and reject prior to approval, any lease made on an accepted bid, and should any bid be rejected or lease disapproved after the bonus and rental deposit is made by the bidder, such deposit shall be returned immediately. The successful bidder or bidders shall pay the costs of publishing and distributing the notices of the sale of leases.

SEC. 4. Government employees can not acquire leases.—No lease, assignment thereof, or interest therein will be approved to any employee or employees of the United States Government whether connected with the Indian Service or otherwise, and no employee of the Interior Department shall be permitted to acquire any interest in any mineral lease covering restricted Indian lands by ownership of stock in corporations having such leases or in any other manner.

SEC. 5. Corporations and corporate information.—If the applicant for a lease is a corporation, it shall file evidence of authority of its officers to execute papers; and with its first application it shall also file a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, and, if foreign to the State in which the lands are located, evidence showing compliance with the corporation laws thereof. Statements of changes in officers and stockholders shall be furnished by a corporation lessee to the superintendent January 1 of each year, and at such other times as may be requested.

Whenever deemed advisable in any case the superintendent may require a corporation applicant or lessee to file:

(I) Lists of officers, principal stockholders, and directors, with post-office addresses and number of shares held by each.

(II) A sworn statement of the proper officer showing:

(a) The total number of shares of the capital stock actually issued and the amount of cash paid into the treasury on each share sold; or, if paid in property, the kind, quantity, and value of the same paid per share.

(b) Of the stock sold, how much remains unpaid and subject to assessment.

(c) The amount of cash the company has in its treasury and elsewhere.

(d) The property, exclusive of cash, owned by the company and its value.

(e) The total indebtedness of the company and the nature of its obligations.

(f) Whether the applicant or any person controlling, controlled by or under common control with the applicant has filed any registration statement, application for registration, prospectus or offering sheet with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or said Commission's rules and regulations under said Acts; if so, under what provision of said Acts or rules and regulations; and what disposition of any such statement, application, prospectus or offering sheet has been made.

(III) Affidavits of individual stockholders, setting forth in what corporations or with what persons, firms, or associations such individual stockholders are interested in mining leases on restricted lands within the State, and whether they hold such interests for themselves or in trust.

SEC. 6. Bond.—Lessees shall furnish with each lease, a bond (form 5–157c) with personal sureties or with an acceptable company authorized to act as sole surety. Such bond shall be in amount as follows: For less than 80 acres, $1,000; for 80 acres and less than 120 acres, $1,500; for 120 acres and not more than 160 acres, $2,000; and for each additional 40 acres, or part thereof, above 160 acres, $500; Provided, That a lessee may file one bond (form 5–157f) in the sum of $15,000, covering all leases of a particular class in any one State up to 10,240 acres, to which he is or may become a party. The right is reserved at any time before or after approval of the lease to increase the amount of a bond above the sum named, in any case where the Secretary of the Interior deems it proper to do so. Bonds with personal sureties will be accepted only where the sureties deposit collateral, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, equal in value to the full amount of the bond and consisting of any public debt obligation of the United States, guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States. In lieu of other bonds, lessees may execute their own surety contracts upon deposit, with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, of Government bonds, equal in value to the full amount of the bond, as collateral (form 5–154a).

SEC. 7. Lessees to furnish additional information.—The superintendent may, either before or after approval of a lease, call for any additional information desired to carry out these regulations. If a lessee shall fail to furnish the papers necessary to put his lease and bond in proper form for consideration, the superintendent shall forward such lease for disapproval.

SEC. 8. Lands to be in compact body.—The area covered by a lease shall be in a reasonably compact body and shall conform to the system of public-land surveys, except that leases covering lode ground may consist of one or more adjoining parallelograms 1,500 feet in length by 600 feet in width, as provided by the United States mining laws. No lease under these regulations shall convey any extralateral rights, and no coal lease shall have a length exceeding one mile along the outcrop.

ACREAGE LIMITATION

SEC. 9. (a) Except in the State of Oklahoma, no individual, corporation, partnership, company, or association shall be permitted to hold under leases for oil and/or gas mining purposes, restricted allotted or unallotted Indian lands in any one State in excess of 10,240 acres in the aggregate: Provided, That any such individual, corporation, partnership, company, or association may hold leases on not to exceed 10,240 acres of tribal lands within that part of the Navajo Reservation lying within the State of New Mexico, irrespective of other holdings in said State: Provided further, That the acreage leased by any officer or director of a company shall be charged against the company, and vice versa, and the acreage shall also be charged in the case of stockholders owning 40 or more percent of the stock. The acreage of companies having common stockholders owning a majority of the stock of each company shall be charged against each other, or in case such companies have one or more common officers or directors. In all other cases each corporation will be considered a separate and distinct entity.

(b) On deposits of the nature of lodes or veins, containing ores of gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, or other useful metals, not more than 640 acres.

(c) For beds of placer gold, gypsum, asphaltum, phosphate, iron ores, or other useful minerals other than coal, oil, and gas, not more than 960 acres.

(d) For coal, not more than 10,240 acres.

TERM OF LEASES

SEC. 10. Oil and gas mining leases shall be made for periods of ten years from the date of approval by the Secretary of the Interior and as much longer as the substances specified in the lease are produced in paying quantities.

Leases for minerals other than oil and gas shall be for a period of ten years.

GOVERNMENT RESERVES RIGHT TO BUY MINERALS PRODUCED

SEC. 11. In time of war or other public emergency all of the executive departments of the United States Government shall have the option to purchase at the posted market price on the date of sale all or any part of the substance or substances produced under any lease.

RENTS AND ROYALTIES

SEC. 12. Manner of payments.—Except where otherwise provided by the terms of leases where the tribes are organized under the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), all rents and other payments due under leases which have been or may be approved by the Secretary of the Interior shall be paid to the superintendent or to such other person as may be designated by the Secretary of the Interior, for the benefit of the lessors. Except advance payments for the first year which shall be sent direct to the superintendent at the time of filing leases, payments of rental and royalty under leases shall be transmitted through the supervisor, shall be accompanied by a statement by the lessee, in triplicate, showing the specific items of rental or royalty that the remittance is intended to cover, and shall be made at such time or times as the lease provides.

In the event of the discovery of minerals in paying quantities all advance payments shall be allowed as credit on stipulated royalties for the year for which such advance payments have been made. No refund will be made under oil, gas, or other mining leases, in the event that royalty from production is not sufficient to equal the advance payment, nor will any part of the moneys so paid be refunded to the lessee because of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease, nor shall the lessee be relieved from the obligation to pay said advance rental annually when it becomes due, by reason of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease.

SEC. 13. Rates of rentals and royalties under oil and gas leases.—The lessee shall pay, beginning with the date of approval of oil and gas leases by the Secretary of the Interior, a rental of $1.25 per acre per annum in advance during the continuance thereof, together with a royalty of 12½ percent of the value or amount of all oil, gas, and/or natural gasoline, and/or all other hydrocarbon substances produced and saved from the land leased, save and except oil, and/or gas used by the lessee for development and operation purposes on the lease, which oil or gas shall be royalty free. During the period of supervision, "value" for the purposes of the lease may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be calculated on the basis of the highest price paid or offered (whether calculated on the basis of short or actual volume) at the time of production for the major portion of the oil of the same gravity, and gas, and/or natural gasoline, and/or all other hydrocarbon substances produced and sold from the field where the leased lands are situated, and the actual volume of the marketable product less the content of foreign substances as determined by the supervisor. The actual amount realized by the lessee from the sale of said products may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be deemed mere evidence of or conclusive evidence of such value. When paid in value, such royalties shall be due and payable monthly on the last day of the calendar month following the calendar month in which produced; when royalty on oil produced is paid in kind, such royalty oil shall be delivered in tanks provided by the lessee on the premises where produced without cost to the lessor unless otherwise agreed to by the parties thereto, at such time as may be required by the lessor. The lessee shall not be required to hold such royalty oil in storage longer than 30 days after the end of the calendar month in which said oil is produced. The lessee shall be in no manner responsible or held liable for loss or destruction of such oil in storage by causes beyond the lessee's control. In determining the value for royalty purposes of products, such as natural gasoline, that are derived from treatment of gas, a reasonable allowance for the cost of manufacture shall be made, such allowance to be two-thirds of the value of the marketable product unless otherwise determined by the Secretary of the Interior on application of the lessee or on his own initiative, and that royalty will be computed on the value of gas or casinghead gas, or on the products thereof (such as residue gas, natural gasoline, propane, butane, etc.), whichever is the greater.

If the leased premises produce gas in excess of the lessee's requirements for the development and operation of said premises, then the lessor may use sufficient gas, free of charge, for any desired school or other buildings belonging to the tribe, by making his own connections to a regulator installed, connected to the well and maintained by the lessee, and the lessee shall not be required to pay royalty on gas so used. The use of such gas shall be at the lessor's risk at all times.

SEC. 14. Annual rentals and expenditures for development on leases other than oil and gas.—Lessees other than oil and gas lessees shall pay on all leases annually in advance for the first calendar year or fraction thereof a rent of 25 cents per acre; for the second and third years, 50 cents per acre; and for the fourth and each succeeding calendar year $1 per acre.

On all leases of class (b) referred to in section 9 of these regulations, there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the land leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $5 per acre.

On all leases of class (c) referred to in section 9 of these regulations, there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the land leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $100 for each 160 acres or fraction thereof included in the lease.

On all leases of class (d) referred to in section 9 of these regulations there shall be expended annually in actual mining operations, development, or improvements upon the land leased, or for the benefit thereof, a sum which, with the annual rental, shall amount to not less than $10 per acre.

Each lessee of a nonproducing lease designated in class (b), (c), or (d) in section 9 of these regulations, shall file with the superintendent an itemized statement in duplicate within 20 days after the close of each calendar year of the amount and character of said expenditure during such year, the statement to be certified under oath by the lessee or his agent having personnal knowledge of the facts contained therein.

SEC. 15. Royalty rates for minerals other than oil and gas.—For substances other than gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, tungsten, coal, asphaltum and allied substances, oil, and gas, the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten percent of the value, at the nearest shipping point, of all ores, metals, or minerals marketed.

For gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc, and tungsten, the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten percent, to be computed on the value of bullion as shown by mint returns after deducting forwarding charges to the point of sale, and to be computed on the value of ores and concentrates as shown by reduction returns after deducting freight charges to the point of sale. Duplicate returns shall be filed by the lessee with the superintendent within ten days after the ending of the quarter or other period specified in the lease within which such returns are made: Provided, however, That the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten percent of the value of ores and concentrates sold at the mine.

For coal the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than ten cents per ton of 2,000 pounds of mine run, or coal as taken from the mine, including what is commonly called "slack."

For asphaltum and allied substances the lessee shall pay quarterly or as otherwise provided in the lease, a royalty of not less than 10 cents per ton of 2,000 pounds on crude material and of not less than 60 cents per ton on refined substances.

SEC. 16. Time of making royalty payments.—Royalty payments under producing oil and gas leases shall be made monthly on or before the last day of the calendar month following the calendar month for which such payment is to be made.

SEC. 17. Division orders.—Lessees may make arrangements with the purchasers of oil for the payment of the royalties to the superintendent by such purchasers, but such arrangement, if made, shall not operate to relieve a lessee from responsibility should the purchaser fail or refuse to pay royalties when due. Where lessees avail themselves of this privilege, division orders permitting the pipe line companies or other purchasers of the oil to withhold the royalty interest shall be executed and forwarded to the supervisor for approval, as pipe line companies are not permitted to accept or run oil from leased Indian lands until after the approval of a division order showing that the lessee has a lease regularly approved and in effect. When the lessee company runs its own oil, it shall execute an intra-company division order and forward it to the supervisor for his consideration. The right is reserved for the supervisor to cancel a division order at any time or require the pipe line company to discontinue to run the oil of any lessee who fails to operate the lease properly or otherwise violates the provisions of the lease, of these regulations, or of the operating regulations.

When oil is taken by authority of a division order, the lessee or his representative shall be actually present when the oil is gauged and records are made of the temperature, gravity, and impurities. The lessee will be held responsible for the correctness and the correct recording and reporting of all of the foregoing measurements; which, except lowest gauge, shall be made at the time the oil is turned into the pipeline. Failure of the lessee to perform properly these duties will subject the division order to revocation.

OPERATIONS

SEC. 18. Inspection of leased premises, and books and accounts of lessee.—Lessees shall agree to allow the lessors and their agents or any authorized representative of the Interior Department to enter, from time to time, upon and into all parts of the leased premises for the purpose of inspection, and shall further agree to keep a full and correct account of all operations and make reports thereof, as required by the regulations of the Department governing operations on public and restricted Indian lands; and their books and records, showing manner of operations and persons interested, shall be open at all times for examination of such officers of the Department as shall be instructed in writing by the Secretary of the Interior or authorized by regulations to make such examination.

SEC. 19. Diligence, and prevention of waste.—The lessee shall exercise diligence in drilling and operating wells for oil and gas on the leased lands while such products can be secured in paying quantities; carry on all operations in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with approved methods and practice, having due regard for the prevention of waste of oil or gas developed on the land, or the entrance of water through wells drilled by the lessee to the productive sands or oil or gas-bearing strata to the destruction or injury of the oil or gas deposits, the preservation and conservation of the property for future productive operations, and to the health and safety of workmen and employees; plug securely all wells before abandoning the same and to shut off effectually all water from the oil or gas-bearing strata; not drill any well within 200 feet of any house or barn on the premises without the lessor's written consent approved by the superintendent; carry out at his expense all reasonable orders and requirements of the supervisor relative to prevention of waste, and preservation of the property and the health and safety of workmen; bury all pipelines crossing tillable lands below plow depth unless other arrangements therefor are made with the superintendent; pay the lessor all damages to crops, buildings, and other improvements of the lessor occasioned by the lessee's operations: Provided, That the lessee shall not be held responsible for delays or casualties occasioned by causes beyond the lessee's control.

SEC. 20. Permission to start operations.—No operations will be permitted on any lease before it is approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Written permission must be secured from the supervisor before any operations are started on the leased premises. After such permission is secured the operations must be in accordance with the operating regulations promulgated by the Secretary of the Interior. Copies of these regulations may be secured from either the supervisor or the superintendent and no operations should be attempted without a study of the operating regulations.

SEC. 21. Restrictions on operations.—Oil and gas leases issued under the provisions of these regulations shall be subject to imposition by the Secretary of the Interior of such restrictions as to time or times for the drilling of wells and as to the production from any well or wells as in his judgment may be necessary or proper for the protection of the natural resources of the leased land and in the interest of the lessor. In the exercise of his judgment the Secretary of the Interior may take into consideration, among other things, the Federal laws, State laws, regulations by competent Federal or State authorities, lawful agreements among operators regulating either drilling or production, or both, and any regulatory action desired by tribal authorities.

All such leases shall be subject to any cooperative or unit development plan affecting the leased lands that may be required by the Secretary of the Interior, but no lease shall be included in any cooperative or unit plan without prior approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and consent of the Indian tribe affected.

SEC. 22. Penalties.—Failure of the lessee to comply with any provisions of the lease, of the operating regulations, of these regulations, order of the superintendent or his representative, or of the orders of the supervisor or his representative, shall subject the lease to cancellation by the Secretary of the Interior or the lessee to a penalty of not more than $500 per day for each and every day the terms of the lease, the regulations, or such orders are violated; or to both such penalty and cancellation: Provided, That the lessee shall be entitled to notice and hearing, within 30 days after such notice, with respect to the terms of the lease, regulations, or orders violated, which hearing shall be held by the supervisor, whose findings shall be conclusive unless an appeal be taken to the Secretary of the Interior within 30 days after notice of the supervisor's decision, and the decision of the Secretary of the Interior upon appeal shall be conclusive.

SEC. 23. Mines to be timbered properly.—In mining operations the lessee shall keep the mine well and sufficiently timbered at all points where necessary, in accordance with good mining practice, and in such manner as may be necessary to the proper preservation of the leased property and safety of the workmen.

SEC. 24. Surrender of leased premises in good condition.—On expiration of the term of a lease, or when a lease is surrendered, the lessee shall deliver to the Government the leased ground with the mine workings in good order and condition, and bondsmen will be held for such delivery in good order and condition, unless relieved by the Secretary of the Interior for cause. It shall, however, be stipulated that the machinery necessary to operate the mine is the property of the lessee, but that it may be removed by him only after the condition of the property has been ascertained by inspection by the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized agents, to be in satisfactory condition.

FEES

SEC. 25. All leases and assignments shall be executed in sextuplet and when filed with the superintendent shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $5 which is hereby required pursuant to provisions contained in the act of February 14, 1920 (41 Stat. 408–415), as amended by the act of March 1, 1933 (47 Stat. 1417; 25 U. S. C. 413). This fee will be refunded in case the instrument is disapproved.

ASSIGNMENTS

SEC. 26. (a) Approved leases or any interest therein may be assigned or transferred only with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior and to procure such approval the assignee must be qualified to hold such lease under existing rules and regulations and shall furnish a satisfactory bond conditioned for the faithful performance of the covenants and conditions thereof: Provided, That in order for such assignment to receive favorable consideration the lessee shall assign either his whole interest or an undivided interest in the whole lease.

(b) No lease or interest therein or the use of such lease shall be assigned, sublet, or transferred, directly or indirectly, by working or drilling contract, or otherwise, without the consent of the Secretary of the Interior.

(c) Assignments of leases, and stipulations modifying the terms of existing leases, which stipulations are also subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, shall be filed with the superintendent within 30 days after the date of execution.

CANCELLATIONS

SEC. 27. When, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, the lessee has violated any of the terms and conditions of a lease or of the applicable regulations, the Secretary of the Interior shall have the right at any time after 30 days notice to the lessee specifying the terms and conditions violated, and after a hearing, if the lessee shall so request within 30 days after issuance of the notice, to declare such lease null and void, and the lessor shall then be entitled and authorized to take immediate possession of the land.

On the following conditions, the lessee may, on approval of the Secretary of the Interior, surrender a lease or any part of it:

(a) That he make application for cancellation to the superintendent having jurisdiction over the land.

(b) That he pay a surrender fee of one dollar at the time the application is made.

(c) That he pay all royalties and rentals due to the date of such application.

(d) That he make a satisfactory showing that full provision has been made for conservation and protection of the property and that all wells, drilled on the portion of the lease surrendered, have been properly abandoned.

(e) If the lease has been recorded, that he file, with his application, a recorded release of the acreage covered by the application.

(f) If the application is for the cancellation of the entire lease or the entire undivided portion, that he surrender the lease: Provided, That where the application is made by an assignee to whom no copy of the lease was delivered, he will be required to surrender only his copy of the assignment.

(g) If the lease (or portion being surrendered or canceled) is owned in undivided interests by more than one party, then all parties shall join in the application for cancellation.

(h) That all required fees and papers must be in the mail or received on or before the date upon which rents and royalties become due, in order for the lessee and his surety to be relieved from liability for the payment of such royalties and rentals.

(i) If there has been a contest respecting a lease or leases, the approved, the disapproved, or the canceled parts thereof will be held in the office of the superintendent for five days after the Department's decision has been promulgated, by mail or delivery, and will not be delivered, if within that period a motion for review and reconsideration be filed, until such motion is passed upon by the Department.

(j) In the event oil or gas is being drained from the leased premises by wells not covered by the lease; the lease, or any part of it, may be surrendered, only on such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may determine to be reasonable and equitable.

No part of any advance rental shall be refunded to the lessee nor shall he be relieved, by reason of any subsequent surrender or cancellation of the lease, from the obligation to pay said advance rental when it becomes due.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF THESE REGULATIONS

SEC. 28. These regulations shall become effective and in full force from and after the date of approval, and shall be subject to change or alteration at any time by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That no regulations made after the approval of any lease shall operate to affect the term of the lease, rate of royalty, rental, or acreage unless agreed to by both parties to the lease. All former regulations governing the leasing of tribal lands for mining purposes are superseded by these regulations.

EXEMPTION OF LEASES MADE BY ORGANIZED TRIBES

SEC. 29. These regulations may be superseded by the provisions of any tribal constitution, by-law or charter issued pursuant to the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), the Alaska Act of May 1, 1936 (49 Stat. 1250), or the Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1967), or by ordinance, resolution or other action authorized under such constitution, by-law or charter. These regulations, in so far as they are not so superseded, shall apply to leases made by organized tribes if the validity of the lease depends upon the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 30. Applications, leases, and other papers must be upon forms prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and the superintendent will furnish prospective lessees with such forms at a cost of ten cents each or $1 per set.

Form 5–154a. Lessee's personal bond supported by Government securities.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Office of the Secretary.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE ENVELOPE INDUSTRY

This matter is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036). At my direction the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, held a hearing on March 1, 1938, in the above entitled matter.

Notices of the hearing were sent to all known members of the industry, to the trade unions whose memberships include employees in the industry, and to all known trade associations and trade publications. Invitation to attend the hearing was extended through the national press to all other interested parties.

At the hearing testimony was presented by the Envelope Manufacturers Association of America, the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union of North America and by several members of the industry.

The Board has reviewed the testimony received at the hearing and on the basis thereof advises me as follows:

The Census of Manufacturers for 1935 indicates that there were at that time 166 establishments in the envelope industry and 9,038 wage earners.

The Envelope Manufacturers Association of America introduced in evidence wage data in the form of a frequency table showing in 5 cent intervals the wages paid to employees in this industry as of a pay roll period in September, 1937. This table resulted from a wage survey made by the Envelope Manufacturers Association of America in October, 1937. The tabulation incorporated wage data for 6,562 employees in 98 envelope manufacturing plants located in 40 cities in 22 states. The data included were received from non-members as well as members of the Envelope Manufacturers Association. The 98 manufacturing plants whose wage data are included in the survey represent 55 per cent of the total number of envelope manufacturing plants in the United States and over 75 per cent of the total output of the industry. These data were supplemented by information received at the hearing from industry members who did not furnish the Envelope Manufacturers Association with data to be included in the survey. The evidence showed a distinct homogeneity of wage structure throughout all states. Wage differentials existed between plants in a state rather than between plants in different states or manufacturing areas.

3,073 workers out of the 6,562 covered in the principal survey fall into wage intervals below 50 cents. Most of these, or 2,654, are tenders of automatic machinery and the wage concentration for this group occupation is between 40 and 45 cents.

The Board recommends that the prevailing minimum wage in the manufacture of envelopes be found to be 42½ cents per hour or $17.00 per week for a week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

I have examined the findings and recommendations of the Board and the record of the hearing, and I am of the opinion that such findings and recommendations are correct and I adopt them as my own.

Therefore, I hereby determine

That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036) for the manufacture or supply of envelopes shall be 42½ cents per hour or $17.00 per week for a week of 40 hours, to be arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

This determination shall be effective and the minimum wage hereby established shall apply to all such contracts awarded on or after May 12, 1938.

FRANCES PERKINS,
Secretary of Labor.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

RULES AND REGULATIONS PRESCRIBED TO GOVERN VESSELS AT LOCALITIES ALONG THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER FROM THE CACHE RIVER, ILLINOIS, TO THE HEAD OF THE PASSES, LOUISIANA, INCLUDING NEW ORLEANS HARBOR, WHERE BANK PROTECTION WORKS HAVE BEEN PROVIDED BY THE UNITED STATES

THE LAW

Section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917, provides as follows:

SEC. 7. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such regulations for the use, administration and navigation of the navigable waters of the United States as in his judgment the public necessity may require for the protection of life and property, or of operations of the United States in channel improvement, covering all matters not specifically delegated by law to some other executive department. Such regulations shall be posted, in conspicuous and appropriate places, for the information of the public; and every person and every corporation which shall violate such regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law, the following rules and regulations are prescribed to govern vessels at localities along the Mississippi River from the Cache River, Illinois, to the Head of the Passes, Louisiana, including New Orleans Harbor, where bank protection works have been or may hereafter be provided by the United States.

1. Except in case of emergency no vessel, boat or other floating craft shall anchor over mattress work. No floating craft other than launches and similar small craft, shall land against banks protected by mattress work or paving except at the regular commercial landings or in emergency. In all cases every precaution to avoid damages to the mattress work and/or paving shall be exercised.

2. The construction of log rafts along mattressed or paved banks or the tying up and landing of log rafts against same must be performed in such a manner as to cause no damage to the mattress work or bank paving.

3. The location of mattress work in New Orleans Harbor is indicated on the accompanying map[1] and by warning signs erected at the ends and center of each reach of mattress work. The location of all pertinent lengths of mattressed bank from Cache River, Illinois, to and including New Orleans Harbor, is given in the list appended hereto. Generally, mattress work extends out into the river 600 feet from the low water line. Information concerning the location of such mattress work as may be provided hereafter may be obtained from the President, Mississippi River Commission, Vicksburg, Mississippi.

4. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof.

Approved April 14, 1938.

REVOCATION OF REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPERATION OF THE NEW CASTLE COUNTY BRIDGE ACROSS THE CHRISTIANA RIVER AT CHRISTIANA, DELAWARE

APRIL 20, 1938.

1. On April 2, 1897, the Secretary of War prescribed regulations to govern the operation of the draws of the highway bridges across the Christiana River, including Churchman's and Christiana Village County bridges (E. D. 18023/13).

2. These drawbridges were recently replaced by fixed bridges constructed pursuant to plans approved by the Department on April 12, 1932, and August 29, 1935, respectively. There is no further need for the regulations approved in 1897 and, accordingly, I recommend that they be revoked.

Major General,
Chief of Engineers.

Recommendation approved April 23, 1938.

REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPERATION OF DRAWBRIDGES ACROSS THE CHRISTIANA RIVER, DELAWARE

THE LAW

The River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894, contains the following section:

SEC. 5. That it shall be the duty of all persons owning, operating and tending the drawbridges now built, or which may hereafter be built across the navigable rivers and other waters of the United States, to open, or cause to be opened, the draws of such bridges under such rules and regulations as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the public interests require to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law. Every such person who shall willfully fail or refuse to open, or cause to be opened, the draw of any such bridge for the passage of a boat or boats, or who shall unreasonably delay the opening of said draw after reasonable signal shall have been given, as provided in such regulations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars nor less than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States: Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the public interests require it, he may make rules and regulations to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided.

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law, the following regulations are prescribed to govern the operation of the drawbridges across the Christiana River, Delaware.

1. The owners of, or agencies controlling, the bridges shall provide the appliances and the personnel necessary for the safe, prompt and efficient opening of the draws at any time during the day or night for the passage of any vessel or other water craft which cannot pass under the closed draws, when the following signal is received:

Three (3) blasts of a whistle or horn.

When the draw of the bridge can be opened immediately, the draw tenders shall reply by:

Two (2) blasts of a whistle or horn.

When the draw of the bridge cannot be opened immediately, or when the bridge is open and is to be closed immediately, the draw tender shall reply by:

One (1) blast of a whistle or horn.

2. Upon hearing or perceiving the prescribed signal, the bridge tender shall immediately clear the draw span and open the draw to its full extent for the passage of the vessel or other craft: Provided, That the draw of a railroad bridge need not be opened when there is a train in the bridge block approaching the bridge with the intention of crossing, nor within 5 minutes of the known time of passage of a scheduled passenger, mail or express train; but in no event, except in case of breakdown of the operating machinery, shall the opening of the draw be delayed more than 5 minutes in the case of a highway bridge, nor more than 10 minutes in the case of a railroad bridge.

3. Vehicles, street cars, locomotives, and trains shall not be stopped on the draw spans, nor shall locomotives or trains be stopped in the bridge blocks of railroad bridges in such manner as to delay the operation of the draws, except in case of urgent necessity, nor shall vessels be moored to the bridge fenders or so maneuvered as to unnecessarily hinder or delay the closing of the draw; but all passages over, through, or under the bridges shall be prompt, to avoid delay to either land or water traffic.

4. The owners of, or agencies controlling, the bridge shall provide and keep in good legible condition two board gauges painted white with black figures not less than 6 inches high, to indicate the headroom clearance under the closed span at all stages of the tide. These gauges shall be so placed on the ends of the draw span fenders that they will be plaintly visible to the navigators approaching the bridge from either direction.

5. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after May 15, 1938, and the regulations approved April 2, 1897 (E. D. 18023/12 and 13), and November 9, 1916 (E. D. 46046/19), heretofore prescribed to govern the operation of these drawbridges are hereby revoked to take effect on that date.

Approved April 27, 1938.

Office of the Secretary.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF THE REDETERMINATION OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE IN THE LEATHER AND SHEEP-LINED JACKETS INDUSTRY

These matters are before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036).

At a public hearing held on January 13, 1938, the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with the Public Contracts Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, took evidence with a view to determining whether contracts subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act for the manufacture of leather and sheep-lined, wool and wool-lined jackets, should be governed by the minimum wage determination of July 28, 1937, In the Matter of the Prevailing Minimum Wages in the Cotton Garment and Allied Industries. The matter of the minimum for wool and wool-lined jackets has been made the subject of another decision this day rendered by me. The pertinent facts as to the notice and hearing have been recited in the other decision and for reasons of convenience will not be repeated here.

It having been determined in the companion decision above referred to that the minimum wages prevailing in the Cotton Garment and Allied Industries are not applicable to the manufacture of leather and sheep-lined jackets, but that a higher minimum prevails in the manufacture of these articles, I have now before me the matter of determining the prevailing minimum wage which shall be applicable to the manufacture of such articles.

The Public Contracts Board, after study of the testimony taken at the above mentioned hearing, advises me as follows:

The Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor conducted a survey as of a busy week in the Fall of 1937, of all manufacturing firms whose principal output was wool or wool-lined, leather or sheep-lined jackets in each state where there were more than 3 such firms. This survey covered 2,217 employees in 48 plants in the principal producing states except California. In conducting the survey, the Women's Bureau found that 13 of the 48 firms kept no records of the number of hours worked by piece workers and it was thus impossible to determine their average hourly earnings.

Based on the earnings of 2,420 employees in 35 firms manufacturing leather and sheep-lined jackets in 8 states, all the producing states but 2, the Women's Bureau report indicates that in the 5 cent interval between 35 and 40 cents there falls 11.3 per cent of the entire group; and that in the 5 cent interval between 40 and 45 cents there falls 10.3 per cent of the entire group; and that in the 5 cent interval between 45 and 50 cents there falls 10.5 per cent of the entire group.

In 1935 California produced $1,474,000 worth of leather and sheep-lined garments out of a national total for the year of $17,000,000. The evidence indicates that the wages paid in California are as high as those in any of the factories in the East. The testimony indicates that the occupational rates in this industry are more uniform than in other garment industries and the necessity for a differential does not appear.

There are few learners in the industry and none has been employed in the performance of government contracts. The necessity for a learner tolerance does not appear. The Board has recommended that it be determined that the prevailing minimum wage is 42.5 cents an hour, or $17.00 per week for a week of 40 hours.

Having examined the findings of the Board, its recommendations, the record of the hearing in this case, I am of the opinion that such findings and recommendations are correct and I adopt them as my own.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036) for the manufacture or supply of leather and sheep-lined jackets shall be 42.5 cents per hour, or $17.00 per week for a week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036) on or after May 13, 1938.

[SEAL] FRANCES PERKINS,
Secretary of Labor.

Dated this 28 day of April, 1938.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF THE EXTENSION OF THE MINIMUM WAGE DETERMINATION FOR THE COTTON GARMENT AND ALLIED INDUSTRIES TO THE MANUFACTURE OF WOOL AND WOOL-LINED JACKETS

These matters are before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036). As directed in my opinion of July 28, 1937, In the Matter of the Determination of the Prevailing Minimum Wages in the Cotton Garment and Allied Industries, the Public Contracts Division of the Department of Labor has caused to be investigated the wages paid to employees engaged in the manufacture of leather and sheep-lined, wool and wool-lined jackets with a view to determining whether contracts subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act for the manufacture of such articles should be governed by the minimum wage determination of July 28, 1937, above referred to, or whether the wages paid to employees engaged in the manufacture of these articles are so dissimilar to those paid to employees engaged in the cotton garment industry that a new and different determination of a prevailing minimum application on contracts for the manufacture of these articles should be made.

The Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with the Public Contracts Act by administrative order dated October 6, 1936, held a public hearing on these matters on January 13, 1938. Invitations to attend this hearing were sent to all known manufacturers of the Cotton Garment Industry as defined in the decision of July 28, 1937, above referred to, and to all known manufacturers of leather and sheep-lined, wool and wool-lined jackets, and to all known trade associations, labor unions and trade publications in the field. Invitations to attend the hearing were extended generally to all interested parties through the national press.

Testimony was presented at the hearing by representatives of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, the United Garment Workers of America, and by a member of the industry.

A survey in leather and sheep-lined, wool and wool-lined jackets made by the Women's Bureau, Department of Labor, was presented as evidence at this hearing. This survey covered all firms whose major products were leather and sheep-lined, wool and wool-lined jackets, in states in which more than three firms were located. Testimony as to the conditions prevailing in states not covered by the survey was presented at the hearing.

The Public Contracts Board, as a result of the testimony taken at the above mentioned hearing, has made findings of the following facts:

The term "mackinaw" as used in the decision of July 28, 1937 above referred to is not used in the industry to define any one particular kind of coat. The articles described by the term vary with the manufacturer who uses it. The term "mackinaw" is used at times to describe windbreakers, lumber jackets, work and other short coats, blanket-lined and similar coats. The manufacture of these last mentioned jackets are all expressly made subject to the minimum wage determination of the decision of July 28, 1937 above referred to. The operations on wool jackets, whether they be windbreakers or lumber jackets, work coats or blanket-lined or similar coats, or woolen jackets of the type referred to at times by individual manufacturers as mackinaws, are all commonly made in the factories of the cotton garment industry. The same employees are used interchangeably in the manufacture of all types of woolen jackets and in the manufacture of various other articles which are the product of the cotton garment industry, and the wages of these employees are at the same level whether they are employed on any of the woolen jackets or on other articles produced by the industry.

Greater skill is required for the making of leather and sheep-lined jackets than in the manufacture of the articles made by the cotton garment industry, including woolen jackets. Leather and sheep-lined jackets are not made in the factories of the cotton garment industry. There is no interchangeability of personnel by the plants manufacturing cotton garments including wool jackets and those manufacturing leather and sheep-lined jackets. The employees in all occupational groups are higher paid than those in the cotton garment industry.

The Board recommends (1) that the manufacture of wool and wool-lined jackets be made subject to the minimum wage determination of the decision of July 28, 1937 In the Matter of the Cotton Garment and Allied Industries, and (2) that the manufacture of leather and sheep-lined coats be not subject to the minimum wage determination last referred to, but that it be determined that there is a different and higher minimum prevailing in the manufacture of these articles.

I have examined the findings and recommendations and the record of the hearing, and I am of the opinion that such findings and recommendations are correct, and I adopt them as my own.

Therefore, I hereby proclaim—

(1) That the minimum wage determination of July 28, 1937 In the Matter of the Cotton Garment and Allied Industries, applies to all wool and wool-lined jackets whether or not such jackets be properly described as windbreakers, lumber jackets, or blanket-lined or similar coats, or as work and other short coats, or by other designation; and

(2) That the minimum wage determination in the matter of the Cotton Garment and Allied Industries shall not apply to the manufacture of leather and sheep-lined jackets, but that a different and higher minimum, this day for reasons of convenience made the subject of a separate determination, shall apply in the manufacture of such articles.

(3) That my determination of July 28, 1937 In the Matter of the Cotton Garment and Allied Industries shall continue in effect as to the wool and wool-lined jackets which were made subject to that determination. My determination that all other types of wool and wool-lined jackets shall be subject to the minimum wage decision of July 28, 1937, in the matter of the Cotton Garment and Allied Industries shall apply to all contracts for such wool and wool-lined jackets awarded on or after May 13, 1938.

Secretary of Labor.

FREE ENTRY OF COAL FROM THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS—DOMESTIC PRODUCER'S COMPLAINT

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Under date of March 3, 1938, the Hudson Coal Company, 26 Liberty St., New York, N. Y., an American producer of anthracite coal of all sizes, grades, and classifications, with its principal office and place of business at Scranton, Penna., presented a request for information as to the classification and rate of duty assessed on coal, including anthracite coal, of all sizes, grades, and classifications imported into the United States from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

On March 8 the Hudson Coal Company was advised that coal, including anthracite coal, of all sizes, grades, and classifications, produced in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and imported into the United States therefrom is admitted free of regular customs duties under paragraph 1650 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1201, par 1650), and that the import tax provided for in section 601 (c) (5) of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended (U. S. C., title 26, Foot-note at end of chap. 20), is not applied to such coal because (1) section 601 (a) of that act provides that the tax shall not be applied in contravention of treaties of the United States, and (2) an executive agreement (treaty) between the United States and the Soviet Union effective August 6, 1937, obligates the United States for one year to give most-favored-nation customs treatment to coal produced in the Soviet Union unless existing law of the United States precludes such treatment, and (3) coal from certain other countries is being admitted free of the said import tax.

The producer herein named, acting under the provisions of section 516 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1516), takes exception to the present classification of Soviet Union coal on the ground that the balance of trade in coal and coal products between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics for the calendar year 1937 was favorable to the Soviet Union and unfavorable to the United States; that the agreement with that Union is not a treaty within section 601 (a), supra; that assuming, for the sake of argument, that the agreement obligates the United States to admit Soviet Union coal free of duty despite the balance of trade adverse to the United States, the agreement is not self-executing; and that if said section 601 (a) is construed to provide for such a treaty that section is unconstitutional.

After careful consideration of the question in 1937 the Department held that in view of the provisions of the commercial agreement entered into between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, in which agreement the Government of the United States undertakes to accord to the commerce of the Soviet Union unconditional most-favored-nation treatment, with certain special provisions in respect to coal, coke manufactured therefrom, and coal or coke briquets, coal and allied fuels produced in the Soviet Union and imported into the United States directly or indirectly therefrom were entitled to entry for consumption or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption on or after August 6, 1937, and prior to January 1, 1938, without payment of the import tax imposed by section 601 (c) (5), supra. Note (1937) T. D. 49118. The Department has reaffirmed this classification and the period has been extended from January 1 to August 5, 1938. Note (1938) T. D. 49444.

Notice is hereby given, in compliance with the provisions of section 516 (b), supra, that the import tax on coal and allied fuels of the character described, if imported or withdrawn from warehouse after the expiration of 30 days after the date of the publication of this letter in the weekly Treasury Decisions, will be subject to the decision of the United States Customs Court, in the event that a protest is filed under the provisions of that section.

[SEAL] J. H. MOYLE,
Commissioner of Customs.

Approved May 2, 1938.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

RESULT OF REFERENDUM ON MARKETING QUOTA FOR BURLEY TOBACCO

BY THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, pursuant to the provisions of Section 312 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended by the Act approved March 26, 1938, Public Law No. 452, 75th Congress, the Secretary of Agriculture conducted a referendum on April 9, 1938, to determine whether farmers who were engaged in production of the 1937 crop of Burley tobacco favor or oppose the establishment, pursuant to said Act, as amended, of a marketing quota for Burley tobacco marketed during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1938:

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Henry A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of, the authority vested in me by said Section 312 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, do hereby proclaim the result of said referendum to be as follows:

154,208 votes, 87.1 percent of the total votes cast, were in favor of such marketing quota;

22,870 votes, 12.9 percent of the total votes cast, were opposed to such marketing quota; and 177,078 were the total votes cast.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

Office of the Secretary.

DECISION OF THE SECRETARY IN THE MATTER OF THE PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES IN THE VITREOUS OR VITRIFIED CHINA INDUSTRY

This matter is before me pursuant to Section 1 (b) of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036). At my direction the Public Contracts Board, created in accordance with Section 4 of the said Act by Administrative Order dated October 6, 1936, held a hearing on December 9, 1937, in the above entitled matter.

Notices of the hearing were sent to all known members of the industry, to labor unions, and to all known trade associations and trade publications in the field. Invitation to attend the hearing was extended through the national press to all other interested parties. At the hearing testimony was presented by the United States Potters Association, the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, and by several members of the industry.

The Board has reviewed the testimony received at the hearing and on the basis thereof advises me as follows:

Although the notice of hearing covered both the vitreous or vitrified and the semi-vitreous or semi-vitrified branches of the industry, these branches are in fact separate and distinct. Each branch produces a product different from the product of the other, in different factories and by different manufacturing operations. Only vitreous or vitrified china is purchased under government contract. By virtue of these facts, the Board's findings are confined to the vitreous or vitrified branch of the industry.

There are approximately 4400 workers in the vitreous or vitrified branch of the china industry and 2314 are employed in plants which have a wage agreement with the union. The union agreement provides a minimum of 42¾ cents for the largest and lowest paid occupational group in the industry. There are 743 workers in this group and while some receive more than 42¾ cents, that hourly rate of pay is actually received by at least 50 percent of the group. The next union wage classification is at 56½ cents per hour. There are 166 workers in this group and most of them receive more than the absolute minimum of 56½ cents.

There are three companies producing vitreous or vitrified china who have not entered into wage agreements with the union. The plants operated by these companies are located in states where there are plants operating under union agreement and in at least one of these non-union plants 42¾ cents an hour is recognized as the minimum wage norm.

The Board recommends that the prevailing minimum wage in the manufacture of vitreous or vitrified china be found to be 42¾ cents per hour, or $17.10 per week for a week of 40 hours.

I have examined the findings and recommendations of the Board, and the record of the hearing, and I am of the opinion that such findings and recommendations are correct and I adopt them as my own.

Therefore, I hereby determine—

That the minimum wage for employees engaged in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036) for the manufacture or supply of vitreous or vitrified china shall be 42¾ cents per hour or $17.10 per week for a week of 40 hours, to be arrived at either upon a time or piece work basis.

This determination shall become effective and shall apply to all contracts awarded subject to the Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036) on or after May 19, 1938.

[SEAL] FRANCES PERKINS,
Secretary of Labor.

Dated this 4 day of May, 1938.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

DETERMINATION WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE, AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS, OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE COMMERCE, OF POTATOES GROWN IN THE STATE OF LOUISIANA AND IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN THE STATES OF TEXAS, MISSISSIPPI, ALABAMA, AND FLORIDA

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the provisions of Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, having reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order with respect to the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Louisiana; and in the counties of Bexar, Medina, Wilson, Atascosa, Wharton, Colorado, Fort Bend, Liberty, and Harris in the State of Texas; the counties of Warren, Hinds, Rankin, Scott, Newton, and Lauderdale, and all counties south thereof, in the State of Mississippi; the counties of Baldwin, Mobile, and Escambia in the State of Alabama; and the counties of Escambia and Santa Rosa in the State of Florida, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the said act, gave notice on the 28th day of March, 1938, notice of hearings, which were held at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on the 5th day of April; San Antonio, Texas, on the 7th day of April; Wharton, Texas, on the 8th day of April; Hattiesburg, Mississippi, on the 8th day of April; and Foley, Alabama, on the 9th day of April, 1938, on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the aforesaid area, at which times and places all interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be heard; and

Whereas, after such hearings and after the tentative approval by the Secretary of Agriculture of a marketing agreement on the 14th day of April, 1938, handlers of more than fifty per centum of the volume of potatoes covered by such proposed order, which are produced within the aforementioned area, refused or failed to sign such marketing agreement relating to potatoes;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Agriuculture, by virtue of the authority vested in him by Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, hereby determines:

1. That the refusal or failure of the said handlers to sign the said marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the above-mentioned act with respect to potatoes grown in the aforementioned area; and

2. That the issuance of the proposed order is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interest of producers of potatoes in the said area; and

3. That the issuance of the proposed order is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers who, during the marketing season of 1937, said season being here and now determined to be a representative period, have been engaged in the aforementioned area in the production for market of potatoes.

In witness whereof, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, have executed this determination and have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 7th day of May, 1938.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Approved:

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT
The President of the United States

Dated May 9, 1938.

[F. R. Doc. 38-1328; Filed, May 10, 1938; 12:46 p. m.]

ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE, AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS, OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE COMMERCE, OF IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN THE STATE OF LOUISIANA; AND IN THE COUNTIES OF ATASCOSA, BEXAR, COLORADO, FORT BEND, HARRIS, LIBERTY, MEDINA, WHARTON AND WILSON IN THE STATE OF TEXAS; THE COUNTIES OF WARREN, HINDS, RANKIN, SCOTT, NEWTON AND LAUDERDALE, AND ALL COUNTIES SOUTH THEREOF, IN THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI; THE COUNTIES OF BALDWIN, ESCAMBIA AND MOBILE IN THE STATE OF ALABAMA; AND THE COUNTIES OF ESCAMBIA AND SANTA ROSA IN THE STATE OF FLORIDA

Whereas, under the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), it is provided that the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") shall, subject to the provisions of the act, issue orders regulating such handling of certain agricultural commodities, including potatoes, as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodities; and

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that the issuance of an order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to the establishment and maintenance of such orderly marketing conditions in interstate commerce for potatoes grown in the State of Louisiana; and in the counties of Atascosa, Bexar, Colorado, Fort Bend, Harris, Liberty, Medina, Wharton and Wilson in the State of Texas; the counties of Warren, Hinds, Rankin, Scott, Newton and Lauderdale, and all counties south thereof, in the State of Mississippi; the counties of Baldwin, Escambia and Mobile in the State of Alabama; and the counties of Escambia and Santa Rosa in the State of Florida, as would establish prices to the producers of such potatoes at a level that would give such potatoes a purchasing power with respect to articles that such producers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such potatoes during the base period, August 1919-July 1929, conducted public hearings at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, April 5, 1938, San Antonio, Texas, April 7, 1938, Wharton, Texas, April 8, 1938, Hattiesburg, Mississippi, April 8, 1938, and Foley, Alabama, April 9, 1938, pursuant to due notice given to all interested parties on March 28, 1938, on a proposed order regulating such handling of such potatoes as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects such commerce in the said potatoes, at which hearings all interested persons in attendance were offered due opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed order; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearings and the record thereof:

(1) That at the time of the hearings the prices received by the producers of such potatoes were at a level that gave such potatoes a purchasing power with respect to articles that such producers buy appreciably below the purchasing power of such potatoes during the base period;

(2) That the regulation of shipments by grades and sizes of the potatoes covered by this order, as prescribed herein, will serve to prevent marked fluctuations in prices to the producers thereof, and will establish and maintain a more stabilized market for such potatoes, tending to establish prices to such producers at a level that will give such potatoes a purchasing power with respect to articles that such producers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such potatoes during the base period;

(3) That this order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area and to the smallest regional marketing area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and that the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of such regional production and marketing areas would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) That the pro rata contribution of handlers to the expenses of the administrative agency herein created, as provided in this order, is fair and equitable; and

(5) That this order and all the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to such potatoes by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will establish prices to producers thereof at a level that will give such potatoes a purchasing power with respect to articles that such producers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such potatoes in the base period and by protecting the interest of the consumer by (a) approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and by (b) authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the level which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds that after the said hearings and after the tentative approval by the Secretary on April 14, 1938, of a marketing agreement which regulates the handling of such potatoes in the same manner as this order, upon which hearings were held on April 5, April 7, April 8 and April 9, 1938, handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping the potatoes covered by this order) who handled more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of potatoes covered by this order, and marketed during the 1937 season in the current of interstate commerce, refused or failed to sign the said marketing agreement with the Secretary; and

Whereas, the Secretary determined on the 7th day of May 1938, said determination being approved by the President of the United States on the 9th day of May 1938, that such refusal or failure to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the aforesaid declared policy of the act and that the issuance of this order is the only practical means, pursuant to such policy, of advancing the interests of producers of such potatoes, and is approved or favored by over two-thirds of the producers who, during the 1937 marketing season, said season being herewith determined to be a representative period, have been engaged in the production for market of such potatoes; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds that this order regulates the handling of such potatoes in the same manner as the aforesaid tentatively approved marketing agreement, and that it is made applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement;

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary, acting under the authority vested in him by the act, that such handling of the said potatoes as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such potatoes, from and after the date hereinafter specified, shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order.

ARTICLE I—DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1.—As used herein, the following terms have the following meanings:

1. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States;

2. "Act" means Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937;

6. "Producer" means any person who produces potatoes for sale;

7. "Handler" means any person who ships or otherwise handles potatoes, or permits another person to ship or otherwise handle potatoes in the name of such first person, but does not include a producer who transports potatoes to the customary grading or loading point nearest the place of production of such potatoes; and

8. "Area" means and includes the following geographical area:

All of the parishes in the State of Louisiana;

The counties of Atascosa, Bexar, Colorado, Fort Bend, Harris, Liberty, Medina, Wharton, and Wilson, in the State of Texas;

The counties of Warren, Hinds, Rankin, Scott, Newton and Lauderdale, and all counties south thereof, in the State of Mississippi;

The counties of Baldwin, Escambia and Mobile in the State of Alabama; and

The counties of Escambia and Santa Rosa in the State of Florida.

ARTICLE II—GENERAL CULL REGULATIONS

SECTION 1. Limitation of shipments.—No handler shall ship or handle in the current of interstate commerce, or so as directly to burden, obstruct or affect interstate commerce, any lot of potatoes which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2, as defined in the "United States Standards for Potatoes," issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, effective September 15, 1936, except (1) that a mixture of varieties may be shipped; (2) that under no circumstances shall the size be less than 1½ inches in diameter with the standard tolerance for undersize of 5 percent by weight; and (3) that potatoes not grading U. S. No. 2 because of serious damage by dirt may be shipped if such potatoes otherwise meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade.

ARTICLE III—GRADING AND INSPECTION

SECTION 1. Certification.—No handler shall ship or handle any potatoes unless they are inspected by an authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service and a certificate is issued showing the information necessary to determine whether such potatoes conform with the requirements of article II and of the regulations, if any, issued pursuant to article IV hereof.

ARTICLE IV—GRADE AND SIZE REGULATIONS

SECTION 1. Establishment of regulations.—Whenever the Secretary shall find, on the basis of a recommendation of the area committee and other available information, that to limit further the shipment of potatoes would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall, during any specified period, limit the shipments of potatoes grown in the area or any part thereof, to potatoes of specified grades or sizes or qualities or combinations thereof, and any such limitation may specify tolerances for particular defects in quality and may apply to any or all varieties: Provided, That the Secretary shall not limit the shipment of potatoes which are at least 1⅞ inches in diameter and otherwise grade U. S. No. 1, as defined in the aforesaid "United States Standards for Potatoes." No regulation issued pursuant hereto shall become effective within less than 48 hours after issuance thereof by the Secretary.

SEC. 2. Percentage exemptions.—1. In the event that shipments of potatoes are limited pursuant to this article, the area committee shall determine, from time to time, for those parts of the area subject to the limitation, the percentage which the quantity of potatoes available for shipment under such limitation during the regulation period is of the total quantity of potatoes which would otherwise be available for shipment during such period in the absence of such regulation and shall immediately announce the results of such determination. The Secretary shall have the right to change or modify any such determinations of percentages.

2. If any producer furnishes evidence to the area committee that the limitation of shipments, as provided for in this article, during any period will not permit the shipment of a percentage of his potatoes during such period equal to the percentage determined pursuant to paragraph 1 hereof, the said committee shall issue, upon the request of such producer, an exemption certificate which will permit the shipment of such a quantity of his potatoes as will make the percentage of his potatoes that may be shipped equal to the percentage determined for that part of the area in which such producer's potatoes are grown. Any action taken by the area committee with respect to exemptions shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to review the same and to direct the said committee to take such other or further action in the matter as the Secretary may deem necessary.

SEC. 3. Other exemptions.—Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to authorize any limitation of the right to ship potatoes (1) for consumption to charitable institutions or distribution by relief agencies; (2) which are officially certified for seed purposes by the respective official state seed potato certification agencies; and (3) for canning or for manufacture into alcohol, starch, flour or vinegar, or for any other manufacturing purpose approved by the Secretary, or for feed for livestock and which are in due course so canned, manufactured or so used for livestock feed. The area committee may recommend and the Secretary may prescribe adequate safeguards to prevent potatoes shipped for such purposes from being introduced into the commercial channels of trade contrary to the provisions hereof.

BOULDER DAM RECREATIONAL AREA

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE OPERATION OF PRIVATELY OWNED BOATS AND THE USE OF LANDING FACILITIES ON LAKE MEAD AND TRIBUTARY WATERS

Under the authority of the Act of August 9, 1937 (30 Stat. 564, 607), and the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535), and the Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388, 390) as amended, and the Act of December 21, 1928 (45 Stat. 1057), the following regulations are made and published this 29th day of April, 1938, to govern the operation of privately owned boats and the use of landing facilities on the waters impounded by Boulder Dam, known as "Lake Mead", and the waters tributary thereto, within the Boulder Canyon Reservation:

1. No privately owned boat, raft, or other floating structure shall be placed or operated upon any waters within the Boulder Canyon Reservation without a permit from the supervisor of the Boulder Dam Recreational Area. Permits good for the calendar year will be issued by the supervisor upon payment of fees according to the following schedule:

Permit for rowboat or canoe not motor-powered or equipped with sails	$1.00
Permit for motor or sailboat with an overall length of 15 feet or less	2.00
Permit for motor or sailboat with an overall length of more than 15 feet and not more than 20 feet	3.00
Permit for motor or sailboat with an overall length of more than 20 feet and not more than 25 feet	4.00
Permit for motor or sailboat with an overall length of more than 25 feet	5.00
Permit for houseboat, regardless of size, not motorpowered	5.00

Boats equipped or used with outboard motors shall be considered motorboats, within the meaning of the above provisions.

Each permit shall be carried in the boat for which it is issued, whenever any person is aboard, and shall be exhibited upon the request of any officer or employee of the United States. A permit may be transferred with the boat for which it is issued, upon notice to the supervisor.

2. Where mooring or landing facilities are installed by the National Park Service, or by operators under contract with the Secretary of the Interior, no boats shall be moored or landed in the vicinity except at such moorings or landings. In areas where such facilities are not available, moorings or landings may be made only at places designated by the supervisor or his representative. The supervisor may designate special mooring places for houseboats, and no houseboat shall be moved from the designated mooring place without the permission of the supervisor.

3. No landing float or pier shall be installed without a permit from the supervisor and with his express consent. Miners or others who desire to install such floats or piers shall make application to the supervisor, who may issue revocable permits for the installation of temporary floats or piers, without charge to holders of boat permits.

4. The operator of any private boat leaving the landing area for an extended trip shall register in a book provided for the purpose at the operator's landing, stating the proposed destination and intended date of return.

5. Except in emergencies, no private boat shall be permitted to leave the landing area during such times as the small craft storm warning signal is flown at the operator's landing.

6. No boat shall approach within 200 feet of Boulder Dam at any time.

7. No privately owned boat shall be operated within any water area zoned and marked as migratory bird rest areas or for related wildlife uses.

8. No bottles, cans, garbage, rubbish, or refuse of any kind shall be placed in the waters of the lake.

9. The carrying of firearms upon any landing or in any boat is prohibited.

10. No person who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs shall operate a boat of any kind upon the waters of the lake.

The violation of any of the above regulations by the owner or operator of any boat shall be considered sufficient ground for revocation of the permit issued for such boat and the permit for any landing float or pier installed by the owner or operator. Upon revocation and notice to the permittee, such boat, landing float, or pier shall be removed from the Boulder Canyon Reservation within 48 hours after the issuance of the notice of revocation, failing which the supervisor may remove such boat at the expense of the permittee, and remove or destroy such landing float or pier.

The above regulations shall not apply to any boats operated for official use by any agency of the United States or of the States of Arizona or Nevada.

Nothing in these regulations shall relieve any boat or the owner or operator thereof from the obligation to comply with the laws of the United States and the regulations of the Department of Commerce relating to the licensing, equipment, and navigation of boats.

Approved April 29, 1938.

(b) An applicant for a certificate of service for a rating other than as able seaman or qualified member of the engine department shall take oath before one of the local inspectors or other officer authorized to give such oath that he will faithfully and honestly perform all the duties required of him by law and carry out all lawful orders of his superior officers on shipboard.

(c) Every person employed on any merchant vessel of the United States of 100 tons gross and upward, except those navigating rivers exclusively and the smaller inland lakes, below the rank of licensed officer, shall have a certificate of service issued by a board of local inspectors.

(d) When the application is submitted for a continuous discharge book or certificate of identification, and one certificate of service, the seaman shall furnish four (4) unmounted dull finish photographs of passport type (1½ x 2 inches) taken within 1 year. The photograph shall show the full face at least 1 inch in height, and shall show the head uncovered.

(f) The applicant shall produce with his application discharges or affidavits as documentary evidence of his service, indicating the names of the vessels on which he has had service, in what capacity, and on what waters.

(g) Applicants holding old form able seaman or lifeboat man certificates issued prior to the enactment of Public No. 808, 74th Congress, shall surrender such certificates when making application for a new form certificate.

(h) All applicants for certificates of service or efficiency shall appear in person before a board of local inspectors or their assistant inspectors.

Such applications shall be accompanied by Form 719–f listing the names, continuous discharge book or certificate of identification numbers, and/or certificates of service and efficiency numbers as shown on each application. At ports where a large number of books and certificates are issued, the applications together with Form 719–f shall be forwarded to the Bureau daily, but at ports where the volume is small they may be sent in weekly. The copy of the application shall be retained in the local office.

(k) An applicant claiming to be a citizen of the United States shall furnish satisfactory evidence of such citizenship to the issuing officer. AMENDMENTS TO "ADMEASUREMENT OF VESSELS, 1925"

By virtue of the authority contained in Sec. 4, 28 Stat. 743 (46 U. S. C. 79), the regulations interpreting laws relating to Admeasurement of Vessels, fourth edition, dated January 2, 1925, are hereby amended as follows:

To Article 28, upon page 25 there is added a footnote reading as follows:

Under current practice to provide greater comforts and conveniences both in service and efficiency for the crew, there appears to be an increasing tendency towards the installation of nondeductible lockers of less than 2 tons each, for medicine, linen, mops, dishes, electric switch boards, etc., on passageways which otherwise serve deductible and/or exemptible spaces.

Such lockers, though not deductible, shall not invalidate the deduction of a passageway which affords the only access to them and is otherwise entitled to deduction, provided the medicine is for the free use of the crew, the linen assigned to them and used for their accommodation, the mops in daily use in connection with the cleaning of crew spaces, galley, mess room, etc., the dishes distributed at meal time for the use of the crew and the electric switch boards used for lighting crew spaces and engine room.

Further, such nondeductible spaces as a ship's office serving the customary dual function of administering payroll and other accounts to the crew as well as the cargo manifests, spare rooms certified for but not regularly used by the crew, though usually fulfilling a well-defined need when the nature of the trade of a vessel requires the frequent presence on board of a pilot and/or Customs Officer, and/or a reserve engineer, and/or a company official or employee, etc., shall also not invalidate the deduction of the passageway which also serves as sole access to their location.

All doubtful cases not covered above and including instances where a nondeductible space can be reached otherwise than by a recognized deductible passageway shall be referred to the Bureau for its approval before final action is taken.

To footnote 14, upon page 17, the following amplification is added:

(1) On small motor boats, a house reasonable in size, containing the propelling machinery heading or used exclusively for light and air over such machinery, is exempted in its entirety as light and air.

(2) A compartment of reasonable size bulkheaded off and in a house serving other purposes is similarly treated.

(3) When propelling machinery heading and/or light and air space, not bulkheaded off, is in a house serving other purposes, the actual length and breadth of the engine plus 2 feet each side and each end for working space, if such space is available, projecting up into the house becomes the length and breadth of exempted light and air, exclusive of such part as may be decked over and available for other purposes. The breadth of light and air shall not exceed one-half the greatest outside breadth of hull taken at one-half length of engine space.

(4) If bunks, galley, supplies, etc., are located in the hull abreast the engine and under a house open to same, as described above in paragraph 3, working space may be allowed around the engine though it extends into working room at galley, or as the case may be. The breadth so found shall be the breadth of light and air in the house above to a maximum of one-half outside breadth of vessel as above described.

To paragraph (e) of Article 20, upon page 17, and to the paragraph of Article 29 upon page 27, entitled Washrooms and Bathrooms, there is added the following footnote:

(1) A bathroom is a compartment or a room containing (1) a bath tub, or (2) a bath tub and a "water closet," or (3) a shower bath or showers without a "water closet." The term "water closet" as used in this paragraph refers only to hoppers, devices for purposes of defecation, with or without flushing equipment also sometimes known as toilets.

(2) A bathroom, intended for the exclusive use of one or more of the crew, is to be included in the gross tonnage regardless of its location; and, being crew space, may be deducted from the gross tonnage when computing the net tonnage.

(3) Any room or compartment, if of reasonable size, fitted with hopper or hoppers, is, for admeasurement purposes, a water closet. This definition includes a room or a compartment designated as a toilet, fitted with urinal or urinals, shower bath or shower baths, in addition to the hopper or hoppers.

(4) A private water closet is defined as one intended to serve not more than one member of the crew, whose stateroom or bedroom affords the only means of entrance thereto. Other water closets are considered to be public water closets for admeasurement purposes.

(5) A private water closet is treated as part of the room served by it.

(6) A public water closet situated below the upper deck to the hull is to be included in the gross tonnage and deducted therefrom in computing the net tonnage only if designated for the exclusive use of the crew and certified as W. C. When on or above the upper deck to the hull, such public water closet is exempted from inclusion in tonnage irrespective of whether used by the crew and/or passengers.

(7) No deduction is permissible unless the space in question is properly certified. (See Art. 29, first sentence, "Measurement of Vessels, 1925").

Paragraph (c) of Article 21, upon page 18, is amended to read as follows:

(c) A single opening at one side of a bulkhead of the size prescribed above (3' x 4') is not considered sufficient to entitle the space thus partitioned off to exemption, unless, in addition, there are a number of freeing ports and scuppers fitted on each side of the space claimed. However, if the opening is at least 4 feet wide and 5 feet high, or its equivalent, with a coaming not in excess of 2 feet in height, freeing ports and scuppers are not required. An equivalent opening is considered to be one of at least 20 square feet in the clear, resulting from a breadth in excess of 4 feet and a height of not less than 3 feet. In such cases the owner's application for exemption and also a sketch of the space drawn to scale must be forwarded to the Director of the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, for examination, and exemption must not be allowed without the Bureau's approval.

Paragraph (e) of Article 21, upon page 22, is amended to read as follows:

(e) There must be means of draining the open shelter deck space or spaces by having on each side of the space directly under the tonnage opening in the shelter deck at least one freeing port with an open area of not less than 2 square feet located as indicated in (c) above and a suitable number of scuppers not less than 3½ inches in diameter distributed throughout the shelter deck space. In lieu of the foregoing means of drainage, a scupper at least 5 inches in diameter with an overboard discharge and provided with a screw down nonreturn valve, geared to the shelter deck, may be fitted on each side of the upper deck in way of the permanent deck opening. Any additional scuppers required or permitted by the load line regulations may be provided.

To Article 47, upon page 37, there is added the following footnote:

Instructions to Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

For the use of passenger ships in foreign ports, you will issue to each such vessel admeasured in your district a "Special Appendix to Certificate of Registry of American Passenger Vessels" (Form 1265–A), showing the tonnage of passenger spaces on a deck not a deck to the hull and exempted from her register tonnage.

The same requirement applies to vessels operating from your district not previously furnished such an appendix.

At the end of each quarter, kindly report to this Bureau the official number and name of every vessel to which such appendix has been issued during that period.

To Article 37, the following new paragraph (i) is added:

(i) Frequently the portion of the engine above the cockpit floor of certain motor passenger boats is boxed-in and the space around the boxing used entirely by passengers. The operation of the engine of such a vessel, when under way, is provided for by contrivances in her pilot house by which direct attendance upon the engine for this purpose is avoided. Such attendance upon the engine is needed only for fueling its tanks, adding water to its battery, changing oil in its crank and gear cases, etc. These services are performed before the vessel starts out on her day's run. Under the foregoing conditions, the boxed-in portion of the engine is considered to be all of the space above the cockpit floor that is available for the installation and operation of the engine in that part of the vessel. This part and the engine space below the cockpit floor constitute the basis for the propelling power deduction of the vessel. In the case of a wholly boxed-in engine in the hold of a motor vessel with the space around the boxing used entirely by passengers or for the stowage of freight, stores, etc., the boxed-in space is considered as the basis for the vessel's propelling power deduction. Of course, there may be spaces outside of the boxing, such as those for the shaft, engine auxiliaries, etc., that may be taken as increments to the basis, whether founded on the whole or on the partial boxing of the engine. The restriction of the engine space, as above outlined, invalidate, generally, the allowance for "light and air" of any part of the closed-in house, if any, over the engine in the hold. In other words, as no part of such a house, except the portion of it, if any, that would be included in the boxing that might extend above the upper deck line, is used solely for housing the engine or affording light and air to it, none of it, under the terms of Article 35, Measurement of Vessels, 1925, is entitled to exemption from measurement for tonnage.

Article 26, upon page 24, is amended by the addition of the following:

An open vessel is one without a deck or with a partial deck or a total of partial decks which is less in length than one-half her tonnage length.

Further, a vessel having an incomplete or discontinued deck of any length and one with a single full length deck which, in either case, lies more than one-sixth of the midship depth below the line of the upper edge of the upper strake to the usual point in the hold for taking the register depth, shall, for admeasurement purposes, be deemed an open vessel.

Non-administrative expenses shall be submitted to the proper Regional Office for reimbursement and administrative expenses shall be submitted to the Home Office for reimbursement.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

[FCA 91]

APPROVAL OF SPECIAL INTEREST RATES ON CERTAIN FEDERAL LAND BANK LOANS

Whereas, the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended [12 U. S. C. § 771 (Second)], provides that, except with the approval of the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration, the interest rate on first mortgage loans made by Federal land banks through national farm loan associations may not exceed by more than 1 per centum per annum the interest rate in the last series of farm loan bonds issued by the land bank making the loan; and

Whereas, the same Act [12 U. S. C. § 723 (b)] provides that the interest rate on direct loans made at any time by any Federal land bank shall be one-half of 1 per centum per annum in excess of the interest rate charged to borrowers on mortgage loans made at such time by the bank through national farm loan associations; and

Whereas, § 25 (b) of the Farm Credit Act of 1937 provides that the interest rate on loans made thereunder through national farm loan associations, the capital stock of which is impaired, shall be one-fourth of 1 per centum per annum less than the interest rate provided at such time for direct loans, subject to being later reduced one-fourth of 1 per centum per annum pursuant to subsection "Second" of said § 25 (b); and

Whereas, to provide toward the extra cost to the bank during the term of Federal land bank loans secured by mortgages on certain properties, it is desired to approve an interest rate one-half of 1 per centum per annum in excess of that which would be chargeable under the foregoing provisions of law except for such approval;

Now, therefore, for Federal land bank loans secured by first mortgages on the following farm property in the continental United States:

(A) Land that is employed primarily in the production of naval stores as defined by § 2 of the Naval Stores Act [7 U. S. C. § 92];

(B) Land used for the raising of livestock, in estimating the earning power and in establishing the value of which leases or permits for the use of other lands were taken into consideration and were a factor in determining the amount of the loan; and

(C) A farm property, a substantial part of the earnings from which is from orchard crops;

Approval is hereby given to the following interest rates:

(1) For loans through national farm loan associations, 1 and one-half per centum per annum in excess of the interest rate in the last series of consolidated Federal farm loan bonds, such interest rate not to exceed 6 per centum per annum;

(2) For direct loans, one-half of 1 per centum per annum in excess of the interest rate approved for loans through national farm loan associations under (1) preceding; and

(3) For loans under § 25 (b) of the Farm Credit Act of 1937 through national farm loan associations, the capital stock of which is impaired, one-fourth of 1 per centum per annum less than the interest rate approved for direct loans under (2) preceding.

Farm Credit Administration Order No. 188, dated May 13, 1937, is hereby revoked.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

RULES AND REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE USE, ADMINISTRATION AND NAVIGATION OF ALL WATERWAYS TRIBUTARY TO THE ATLANTIC OCEAN SOUTH OF CHESAPEAKE BAY AND ALL WATERWAYS TRIBUTARY TO THE GULF OF MEXICO EAST AND SOUTH OF ST. MARKS, FLORIDA

THE LAW

Section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 provides as follows:

SEC. 7. * * * That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such regulations for the use, administration, and navigation of the navigable waters of the United States as in his judgment the public necessity may require for the protection of life and property, or of operations of the United States in channel improvement, covering all matters not specifically delegated by law to some other executive department. Such regulations shall be posted in conspicuous and appropriate places, for the information of the public; and every person and every corporation which shall violate such regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law the following regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the use, administration and navigation of all waterways tributary to the Atlantic Ocean south of Chesapeake Bay and all waterways tributary to the Gulf of Mexico east and south of St. Marks, Florida. The regulations apply to the following:

Waterways.—All navigable waters of the United States, natural or artificial, including bays, lakes, sounds, rivers, creeks, intracoastal waterways, as well as canals and channels of all types, which are tributary to or connected by other waterways with the Atlantic Ocean south of Chesapeake Bay or with the Gulf of Mexico east and south of St. Marks, Florida.

Locks.—All Government owned or operated locks and hurricane gate chambers and appurtenant structures in any of the above-described waterways.

United States property.—All river and harbor lands owned by the United States in or along the above-described waterways, including lock sites and all structures thereon, other sites for Government structures and for the accommodation and use of employees of the United States, and rights of way and spoil disposal areas to the extent of Federal interest therein.

Vessels and rafts.—The term "vessel" as used herein includes all floating things moved over these waterways other than rafts.

1. Authority of district engineers.—The use, administration and navigation of these waterways, Federal locks and hurricane gate chambers shall be under the direction of the officers of the Corps of Engineers, United States Army, detailed in charge of the respective sections, and their authorized assistants. The cities in which the U. S. District Engineers are located are as follows:

U. S. District Engineer, Norfolk, Virginia,
U. S. District Engineer, Wilmington, North Carolina,
U. S. District Engineer, Charleston, South Carolina,
U. S. District Engineer, Savannah, Georgia,
U. S. District Engineer, Jacksonville, Florida.

2. Commercial statistics.—a. As required by Section 11 of the River and Harbor Act of September 22, 1922, owners, agents, masters and clerks of vessels plying upon the above-described waterways shall submit a report on such activities for statistical purposes which must contain the following information:

Name of vessel.
Name and address of owner or operator.
Type of vessel—steam, motor, sail, barge, or other type.
Net registered tonnage—if not registered, approximate net tonnage.
Maximum draft at time of passage.
Number of passengers.
Cargo—by commodities, expressed in short tons, or other units by which such commodities are customarily measured, giving origin and destination.

b. All persons rafting and towing logs shall submit a report of their activities containing such information as may be called for by the District Engineer concerned.

c. The report should be presented to the lockmaster of the Federally operated locks for each trip made. Where no Federally operated lock is passed, they shall be mailed promptly to the District Engineer. On written request, persons or corporations making frequent use of these waterways may be granted permission to submit monthly statements in lieu of reports by trips. Reports may be submitted on forms furnished free of charge by the District Engineer.

3. Bridges.—a. General.—As required by law, and general regulations to govern the operation of drawbridges crossing all navigable waterways of the United States discharging their waters into the Atlantic Ocean south of and including Chesapeake Bay and the Gulf of Mexico, excepting the Mississippi River and its tributaries, prescribed by the Secretary of War, all corporations or persons owning, operating and tending drawbridges shall provide the same with the necessary tenders and the proper mechanical appliances for the safe, prompt and efficient opening of the draw for the passage of vessels and other water craft. The owner shall keep the operating machinery of the draw in serviceable condition, and shall have the draw opened and closed at intervals frequent enough to make certain that the machinery is kept in proper condition for satisfactory operation. Bridges and fender systems shall be constructed and maintained so as to afford at all times reasonably free, easy and unobstructed navigation of the draw opening or the draw span. Any accident or damage to the bridge, the fenders or the operating mechanism, shall be promptly reported to the District Engineer, giving the cause and the probable period required for repairs. All bridges will be lighted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Department of Commerce, Lighthouse Service.

b. Signals for drawbridges.—The signals for vessels desiring to pass bridges shall be those prescribed in the general regulations referred to above.

c. Passage through drawbridges.—Trains, wagons, and other vehicles shall not be stopped on a drawbridge for the purpose of delaying its opening, nor shall water craft or vessels be so manipulated as to hinder or delay the operation of a draw span, but all passage over, through, or under a drawbridge shall be prompt, to prevent unnecessary delay to either land or water traffic.

4. Locks.—a. Authority.—The locking of all vessels and rafts and their movements while in a lock, or in the approaches thereto, shall be under the direction of the lockmaster. The term "lockmaster" as used in these regulations, shall mean the lock official present who is in charge of the operation of the lock.

b. Signals.—Vessels desiring lockage in either direction shall give notice to the lockmaster at not more than three-quarters of a mile nor less than one-quarter of a mile from the lock, by two long and two short blasts of a whistle. When the lock is available, a green light, semaphore or flag will be displayed; when not available, a red light, semaphore or flag will be displayed. No vessels or rafts shall approach within 300 feet of any lock entrance unless signalled to do so by the lockmaster.

c. Precedence at locks.—Ordinarily, vessels or rafts arriving at the lock shall take precedence in order of their arrival, but in all cases, vessels belonging to the United States or employed on public work shall have precedence over all others; passenger vessels shall have precedence over freight vessels, individual vessels over tows or rafts. Small vessels will not be granted separate lockage when larger vessels are awaiting lockage, and they will be required to lock through with other vessels. When two vessels approach the lock from opposite directions at approximately the same time, preference will ordinarily be given to the one for which the lock is prepared. In all cases, the order of actual entry shall be determined by the lockmaster.

d. Entrance to and exit from locks.—No vessel or raft shall enter or leave the locks before being signalled to do so. While waiting their turns, vessels or rafts must not obstruct traffic and must remain at a safe distance from the lock. They shall take position in rear of any vessels or rafts that may precede them, and there arrange the tow for locking in sections if necessary. Masters and pilots of vessels or in charge of rafts shall cause no undue delay in entering or leaving the lock, and will be held to a strict accountability that the approaches are not at any time unnecessarily obstructed by parts of a tow awaiting lockage or already passed through. They shall provide sufficient men to move through the lock promptly without damage to the structures. Vessels or tows that fail to enter the locks with reasonable promptness after being signalled to do so will lose their turn.

e. Lockage of vessels.—Vessels must enter and leave the locks carefully at slow speed, must be provided with suitable lines and fenders, must always use fenders to protect the walls and gates, and when locking at night must be provided with suitable lights and use them as directed.

Vessels which do not draw at least six inches less than the depth on miter sills or breast walls, or which have projections or sharp corners liable to damage gates or walls, shall not enter a lock or approaches.

No vessel having chains or lines either hanging over the sides or ends, or dragging on the bottom, for steering or other purposes, will be permitted to pass a lock or dam.

Power vessels must accompany tows through the locks when so directed by the lockmaster.

No vessel whose cargo projects beyond its sides will be admitted to lockage.

Vessels in a sinking condition shall not enter a lock or approaches.

The passing of coal from flats or barges to steamers while in locks is prohibited.

Where special regulations for safeguarding human life and property are desirable for special situations, the same may be indicated by printed signs, and in such cases such signs will have the same force as other parts of these regulations.

The lockmaster may refuse to lock vessels which, in his judgment, fail to comply with these rules.

f. Lockage of rafts.—Rafts shall be locked through in sections as directed by the lockmaster. No raft will be locked that is not constructed in accordance with the requirements stated in section 6 hereafter. The party in charge of a raft desiring lockage shall register with the lockmaster immediately upon arriving at the lock and receive instructions for locking.

g. Number of lockages.—Tows or rafts locking in sections will generally be allowed only two consecutive lockages if one or more single vessels are waiting for lockage, but may be allowed more in special cases. If tows or rafts are waiting above and below a lock for lockage, sections will be locked both ways alternately whenever practicable. When there are two or more tows or rafts awaiting lockage in the same direction, no part of one shall pass the lock until the whole of the one preceding it shall have passed.

h. Mooring.—Vessels and rafts when in the lock shall be moored where directed by the lockmaster by bow, stern and spring lines to the snubbing posts or hooks provided for that purpose, and lines shall not be let go until signal is given for vessel or raft to leave. Tying boats to the lock ladders is prohibited.

The mooring of vessels or rafts near the approaches to locks except while waiting for lockage, or at other places in the pools where such mooring interferes with general navigation of the waterway is prohibited.

i. Maneuvering locks.—The lock gates, valves, and accessories will be moved only under the direction of the lockmaster; but if required, all vessels and rafts using the locks must furnish ample help on the lock walls for handling lines and maneuvering the various parts of the lock under the direction of the lockmaster.

5. Waterways.—a. Fairway.—A clear channel shall at all times be left open to permit free and unobstructed navigation by all types of vessels and rafts that normally use the various waterways or sections thereof. The District Engineer may specify the width of the fairway required in the various waterways under his charge.

b. Stoppage in waterway—anchorage or mooring.—No vessels or rafts shall anchor or moor in any of the land cuts or other narrow parts of the waterway, except in case of an emergency. Whenever it becomes necessary for a vessel or raft to stop in any such portions of the waterway it shall be securely fastened to one bank and as close to the bank as possible. This shall be done only at such a place and under such conditions as will not obstruct or prevent the passage of other vessels or craft. Stoppages shall be only for such periods as may be necessary.

No vessel or raft will be allowed to use any portion of the fairway as a mooring place except temporarily as authorized above without the written permission from the District Engineer.

When tied up, all vessels must be moored by bow and stern lines. Rafts and tows shall be secured at sufficiently close intervals to insure their not being drawn away from the bank by winds, currents or the suction of passing vessels. Tow lines shall be shortened so that the different parts of the tow shall be as close together as possible. In narrow sections, no vessel or raft shall be tied abreast of another.

Lights shall be displayed in accordance with provisions of the Federal Pilot Rules.

No vessel, even if fastened to the bank as above prescribed, shall be left without a sufficient crew to care for it properly.

Vessels will not be permitted to load or unload in any of the land cuts except at a regular established landing or wharf without written permission secured in advance from the District Engineer.

No vessel, regardless of size, shall anchor in a dredged channel or narrow portion of a waterway for the purpose of fishing, if navigation is obstructed thereby.

Except in cases of emergency the dropping of anchors, weights, or other ground tackle, within areas occupied by submarine cable or pipe crossings, is prohibited. Such crossings will ordinarily be marked by signboards on each bank of the shore or indicated on coast charts.

c. Speed.—Vessels shall proceed at a speed which will not endanger other vessels or structures and will not interfere with any work in progress incident to maintaining, improving, surveying or marking the channel.

Official signs indicating limiting speeds through critical portions of the waterways shall be strictly obeyed.

Vessels approaching and passing through a bridge shall so govern their speed as to insure passage through the bridge without damage to the bridge or its fenders.

A vessel being overtaken by another shall slacken speed sufficiently to permit the passage to be effected with safety to both vessels.

d. Assembly and handling of tows.—All vessels drawing tows not equipped with rudders shall use two tow lines or a bridle and shorten them to the greatest possible extent so as to have full control at all times. The various parts of a tow shall be securely assembled with the individual units connected by lines as short as practicable. If necessary, as in the case of lengthy or cumbersome tows or other tows in restricted channels, the District Engineer may require the installation of a rudder, drag or other approved steering device on the tow in order to avoid obstructing navigation or damaging the property of others, including aids to navigation maintained by the United States or under its authorization, by collision or otherwise.

No tow shall be drawn by a vessel that has insufficient power or crew to permit ready maneuverability and safe handling.

Tows desiring to pass a bridge shall approach the opening along the axis of the channel so as to pass through without danger of striking the bridge or its fenders. No vessel or tow shall navigate through a drawbridge until the movable span is fully opened.

In the event that it is evident to the master of a towing vessel that a tow cannot be safely handled through a bridge, it will be brought to anchor and the towed vessels will be taken through the bridge in small units, or singly if necessary, or the tow will wait until navigation conditions have improved to such an extent that the tow can pass through the bridge without damage.

e. Projections from vessels.—No vessel carrying a deck load which overhangs or projects over the side of said vessel, or whose rigging projects over the side of the vessel so as to endanger passing vessels, wharves or other property, will enter or pass through any of the narrow parts of the waterway.

f. Meeting and passing.—Vessels, on meeting or overtaking, shall give the proper signals and pass in accordance with Federal Pilot Rules. Rafts shall give to vessels the side demanded by proper signal. All vessels approaching dredges, or other plant engaged on improvements to a waterway, shall give the signal for passing and slow down sufficiently to stop if so ordered or if no answering signal is received. On receiving the answering signal, they shall then proceed to pass at a speed sufficiently slow to insure safe navigation.

6. Rafts—logging.—Rafts will be permitted to navigate a waterway only if properly and securely assembled. The passage of "bag" or "sack" rafts, "dog" rafts, or of loose logs over any portion of a waterway, is prohibited. Each section of a raft will be secured within itself in such a manner as to prevent the sinking of any log, and so fastened or tied with chains or wire rope that it cannot be separated or bag out so as to materially change its shape. All dogs, chains and other means used in assembling rafts shall be in good condition and of ample size and strength to accomplish their purposes.

No section of a raft will be permitted to be towed over any portion of a waterway unless the logs float sufficiently high in the water to make it evident that the section will not sink en route.

Frequent inspections will be made by the person in charge of each raft to insure that all fastenings remain secure, and when any one is found to have loosened, it shall be repaired at once. Should any log or section be lost from a raft, the fact must be promptly reported to the District Engineer, giving as definitely as possible the exact point at which the loss occurred. In all cases the owner of the lost log or section will take steps immediately to remove the same from the waterway.

The length and width of rafts shall not exceed such maximum dimensions as may be prescribed by the District Engineer.

All rafts shall carry sufficient men to enable them to be managed properly, and to keep them from being an obstruction to other craft using the waterway. To permit safe passage in a narrow channel rafts will, if necessary, stop and tie up alongside the bank. Care must be exercised both in towing and mooring rafts to avoid the possibility of damage to aids to navigation maintained by the United States or under its authorization.

When rafts are left for any reason with no one in attendance, they must be securely tied at each end and at as many intermediate points as may be necessary to keep the timbers from bagging into the stream, and must be moored so as to conform to the shape of the bank. Rafts moored to the bank shall have lights at 500-foot intervals along their entire length. Rafts must not be moored at prominent projects of the bank, or at critical sections.

Logs may be stored in certain tributary streams provided a clear channel at least one-half the width of the channel be left clear for navigation along the tributary. Such storage spaces must be protected by booms and, if necessary to maintain an open channel, piling should also be used. Authority for placing these booms and piling must be obtained by written permit from the District Engineer.

The building, assembling, or breaking up of a raft in a waterway will be permitted only upon special authority obtained from the District Engineer, and under such conditions as he may prescribe.

7. Dumping of refuse or oil in waterway, obstructions.—Attention is invited to the provisions of Sections 13 and 20 of the River and Harbor Act of March 3, 1899, and of Sections 2, 3, and 4 of the Oil Pollution Act of June 7, 1924, appended hereto, which prohibit the depositing of any refuse matter in these waterways or along their banks where liable to be washed into the waters; authorize the immediate removal or destruction of any sunken vessel, craft, raft, or other similar obstruction, which stops or endangers navigation; and prohibit the discharge of oil from vessels into the coastal navigable waters of the United States.

8. Damage.—Masters and owners of vessels using the waterways are responsible for any damage caused by their operations to canal revetments, lock piers and walls, bridges, hurricane gate chambers, spillways, or approaches thereto, or other Government structures, and for displacing or damaging of buoys, stakes, spars, range lights or other aids to navigation. Should any part of a revetment, lock, bridge, hurricane gate chamber, spillway or approach thereto, be damaged, they shall report the fact, and furnish a clear statement of how the damage occurred, to the nearest Government lockmaster or bridge tender, and by mail to the District Engineer, U. S. Engineer Office, in local charge of the waterway in which the damage occurred. Should any aid to navigation be damaged, they shall report that fact immediately to the Superintendent of Lighthouses at Norfolk, Virginia, if north of New River Inlet, North Carolina; to the Superintendent of Lighthouses at Charleston, South Carolina, if between New River Inlet, North Carolina, and St. Lucie Inlet, Florida; to the Superintendent of Lighthouses at Key West, Florida, if between St. Lucie Inlet and Suwanee River, Florida; and to the Superintendent of Lighthouses, New Orleans, Louisiana, if between Suwanee River and St. Marks, Florida.

9. Trespass on property of the United States.—Trespass on waterway property or injury to the banks, locks, bridges, piers, fences, trees, houses, shops or any other property of the United States pertaining to the waterway, is strictly prohibited. No business, trading or landing of freight or baggage will be allowed on or over Government piers, bridges, or lock walls.

10. Copies of regulations.—Copies of these rules and regulations will be furnished free of charge upon application to the nearest District Engineer.

11. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after June 15, 1938, and shall supersede the following regulations:

Inland Waterway from Norfolk, Va., to Cape Fear River, N. C., and the Waterway from Norfolk, Va., to the Sounds of North Carolina, Including the Dismal Swamp.—Use, administration and navigation—Regulations prescribed May 31, 1933 (E. D. 7241 (Norfolk-Beaufort Inland Waterway)—1/2).

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE DEPOSIT OF INDIAN FUNDS IN BANKS

MARCH 2, 1938.

AUTHORITY FOR DEPOSIT

SECTION 1. Indian moneys, individual or tribal, may be deposited in banks under authority of the acts of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 855), as amended (48 Stat. 648); May 25, 1918, (40 Stat. 591); and February 27, 1925 (43 Stat. 1008).

BANKS DEFINED

SEC. 2. For the purpose of these regulations, the word "banks" shall include state and national banks, and savings banks and trust companies doing a banking business.

APPLICATION

SEC. 3. Any bank desiring to qualify for deposits of Indian funds shall transmit to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs (or to the proper Superintendent if a call for bids has been issued) an application accompanied by a report in the form prescribed by the Comptroller of the Currency (or the State Banking Department) showing fully the condition of the bank on a day not more than one month prior to the date of such application. In making application, banks must state the maximum amount desired and the minimum that will be accepted, the rate of interest that will be paid, and the type of security that will be furnished. The following statement must be incorporated in the letter of application: This bank agrees that if designated a depositary, it will comply with the regulations of the Interior Department governing the deposit of Indian funds in banks and with such instructions as may from time to time be issued by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

QUALIFICATION

SEC. 4. In the selection of a bank to serve as a depositary, the following points will be given consideration:

1. Location with respect to the nearest Agency.
2. Financial condition.
3. Rate of interest and security offered.

SEC. 5. No bank will be considered for designation unless it has been in successful operation for one year and has accumulated a surplus equal to 10 per cent of the capital stock. This will not apply to banks offering United States bonds or notes as security.

SECURITY

SEC. 6. Under the acts of Congress cited herein, deposits of Indian funds are required to be secured by surety bonds (corporate or individual) or by bonds or notes of the United States. The following securities are classed as United States obligations: Panama Canal Loan Bonds, Treasury Bonds, and Treasury Notes. Bonds on which surety companies or individuals appear as sureties must be executed in triplicate on forms prescribed for the purpose, and each copy must be accompanied by a transcript of a resolution by the board of directors of the bank, authorizing the proper officers to execute the instrument. The bonds must be executed for a stipulated term of not less than 180 days. Such bonds, however, are continuing in nature and will remain in force beyond the stipulated period until canceled in accordance with the provisions contained therein.

SEC. 7. Whenever a bank receives notice from any source that its surety bond is to be canceled, it shall immediately arrange to submit substitute security which must reach the Indian Office and be approved ten days before the effective date of the cancellation notice. Any bank failing to furnish other security in accordance with the foregoing shall relinquish its deposit with accrued interest not later than the date of the tenth day preceding the effective date of the cancellation notice.

SEC. 8. Corporate Sureties.—Only those companies holding certificates of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury to write bonds on which the United States is obligee are acceptable as sureties.

SEC. 9. Individual Sureties.—Each person appearing as surety on a personal surety bond must qualify in an amount equal to twice the penalty of the bond. At least four individuals must act as sureties on each bond. Officers and directors of a bank furnishing a personal surety bond will not be accepted as sureties, nor will any person who is a bonded officer of the United States or a married woman.

SEC. 10. Collateral Security.—Banks pledging United States bonds or notes as security shall execute a deposit agreement on forms prescribed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and shall furnish a resolution of authority by the board of directors, authorizing the sale, assignment, or transfer of the collateral. The bonds or notes shall be either deposited with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs who will place them with the Treasurer of the United States for safekeeping, or sent direct to the Division of Securities, Office of the United States Treasurer, Treasury Department, to be held subject to the order of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. In either case, receipt for the collateral will issue from the Indian Office. Registered bonds must be assigned in blank before shipment, and a resolution by board of directors, authorizing the assignment, must be filed with the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, on Treasury Department Form PD 1009 or Form PD 1010. All correspondence relating to the deposit, withdrawal, substitution, or exchange of securities shall be addressed to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

DEPOSITS

SEC. 11. Each bank that has been designated as a depositary, and has filed proper bond will be given a deposit in an amount equal to 95 per cent of the penalty of the bond, unless it has been selected to carry an active checking account in which case the deposit will be limited to 90 per cent of the security. Upon receipt of the deposit from the disbursing agent, the bank shall immediately credit it to an account which must be opened under his name and official title. The deposit shall be subject to withdrawal in accordance with the terms of the depositary's surety bond or its deposit agreement.

SEC. 12. Time certificates of deposit, running for definite periods during which deposits are not subject to check, are not acceptable. The terms of any such instruments issued contrary to these regulations will be considered void and of no effect.

PAYMENT OF INTEREST

SEC. 13. Except as to depositaries for funds of the Osage and Five Civilized Tribes Agencies, each bank carrying a deposit shall credit interest thereon at the agreed rate to the account of the disbursing agent at the close of June 30, and December 31 of each year. Banks carrying deposits in the names of the disbursing agents of the Five Civilized Tribes and Osage Agencies shall credit interest to their accounts at the close of April 30 and October 31 of each year. Within five days after the close of the interest period, the amount credited to the account of a disbursing agent shall be remitted to him by draft unless he has previously arranged to withdraw it by check. Any bank delinquent in the payment of interest shall be liable for interest on the overdue amount.

SEC. 14. In the event that a deposit or any part thereof is withdrawn during an interest period by reason of the cancellation of a bond, interest which has accrued on the amount so withdrawn shall immediately be credited and promptly remitted to the disbursing agent by draft unless included in his check or covered by separate check.

REPORTS

Statement of Disbursing Account (Form 5-308)

SEC. 15. Each depositary for Indian funds shall furnish monthly statements of receipts and paid checks on Form 5-308 (and Form 5-308a, if extra space is needed.) Paid checks will be listed thereon in numerical order, showing for each check its date, number, and amount. These statements will be prepared in triplicate for each disbursing officer having funds to his official credit. A duplicate copy will be forwarded to the disbursing officer in charge of the unit for reconciliation within ten days after the close of the month. The disbursing officer will make a prompt comparison with his records, and after adjusting any errors found with the bank, the latter will immediately forward the original statement and paid checks directly to the General Accounting Office, Audit Division, Washington, D. C. The triplicate copy of the statement will be retained in the bank's files.

SEC. 16. In no case will the depositary send the paid checks to the disbursing officer nor should the statement and checks be sent to or routed through the Indian Office.

SEC. 17. Statements will be required of both time and checking depositaries so long as any balance of Indian moneys remain on deposit and must be furnished for fractional parts of a month whenever a change of disbursing officers takes place or a new bond (disbursing agent's) becomes effective before the end of a month.

SEC. 18. Depositaries should apply to disbursing officers for a supply of the necessary forms.

Statement of Deposits (Form 5-302)

SEC. 19. Each bank having a deposit not actively checked against shall submit semiannually, within five days after the close of June 30, and December 31, of each year, to the officer in whose name the deposit is carried, a statement in duplicate on Form 5-302. After comparing the statement with his records, the officer will forward the original to the Indian Office if it is found correct.

SEC. 20. Banks carrying active checking accounts shall submit the statements within five days after the close of each month.

SEC. 21. Depositaries should apply to the Indian Office for Form 5-302.

REPORT OF CONDITION

SEC. 22. When called for by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, a report of financial condition shall be submitted by each depositary. A copy of the report made to the Comptroller of the Currency (or the State Banking Department) will suffice if not more than one month has elapsed since such report. If a longer period has elapsed, current figures shall be given, but in the same form. No printed forms are provided by the Department for the submission of the reports.

CHECKS

SEC. 23. Each bank designated as a depositary shall furnish the disbursing agent, without charge, an adequate supply of blank checks.

SEC. 24. Checks to be supplied by banks carrying active checking accounts must be printed in accordance with instructions from disbursing agents.

MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 25. No bank in which Indian funds are deposited shall charge or receive any exchange or other fees or compensation on account of the cashing or collection of any checks or drafts or the performance of any other service for disbursing agents.

SEC. 26. Depositaries shall render such statements and give such information as properly accredited inspecting and administrative officers may request.

SEC. 27. Any bank which shall fail to comply with these regulations shall be liable to be disqualified.

SEC. 28. These regulations shall become effective upon the date of approval and shall supersede regulations on the same subject approved February 17, 1931.

ALLOTTING THE DIRECT-CONSUMPTION PORTION OF THE 1938 SUGAR QUOTA FOR PUERTO RICO

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ORDER

Notice is hereby given of a proposed order, set forth below, of the Secretary of Agriculture revising the allotments made in Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10, issued April 19, 1938, allotting that portion of the 1938 Puerto Rican sugar quota for shipment to the continental United States which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar. The proposed order is based on evidence presented to the Secretary of Agriculture at the hearings held in Washington, D. C. on January 14, 1938, and May 3, 1938.

Objections to the proposed order should be filed with the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., on or before 4.30 P. M. May 24, 1938.

H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

PROPOSED DECISION AND ORDER OF SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

General Sugar Quota Regulations, Series 5, No. 1, issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on December 20, 1937, pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), provide that the 1938 Puerto Rican sugar quota for shipment to the continental United States may be filled by shipments of direct-consumption sugar not in excess of 126,033 short tons, raw value.

Under the provisions of section 205 (a) of the act, the Secretary is required to allot a quota whenever he finds that the allotment is necessary (1) to assure an orderly and adequate flow of sugar or liquid sugar in the channels of interstate commerce, (2) to prevent the disorderly marketing of sugar or liquid sugar, (3) to maintain a continuous and stable supply of sugar or liquid sugar, or (4) to afford all interested persons an equitable opportunity to market sugar or liquid sugar within the quota for any area. Section 205 (a) also provides that such allotment shall be made after such hearing and upon such notice as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe. On December 31, 1937, the Secretary, pursuant to General Sugar Regulations, Series 2, No. 2, issued a notice of a public hearing to be held in Washington, D. C., on January 14, 1938, for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable him to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the Puerto Rican sugar quotas among interested persons and such other evidence as might be pertinent to the exercise of the powers vested in the Secretary under section 205 (a) of the act.

Section 205 (a) of the act requires a preliminary finding of the Secretary as a condition precedent to the calling of a hearing. The notice of Hearing and Designation of Presiding Officers issued by the Secretary on December 31, 1937, provided in part as follows:

"Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1937 (Public, No. 414, 75th Congress) and on the basis of the information now before me, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby find that the allotment of the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for shipment to the continental United States (including the portion which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar, pursuant to section 207 (b) of said act) and the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for local consumption, established pursuant to section 202 and 203, respectively, of the said act is necessary to prevent disorderly marketing and importation of such sugar * * *."

The preliminary finding was based upon information which the Secretary had to the effect that Puerto Rican processors were in a position to manufacture and make available for market a potential supply of approximately 400,000 short tons of direct-consumption sugar during the calendar year 1938.

The hearing was held at Washington, D. C., on the date specified in the notice. The evidence presented at the hearing indicated that the preliminary finding of the Secretary should be confirmed. Such evidence indicated a plant capacity of 401,500 short tons for all processors in Puerto Rico. The total amount of such sugar which may be shipped to continental United States under the act is limited to 126,033 short tons. Under these conditions, it was deemed probable that, without allotment of the direct-consumption portion of the quota, more raw sugar would be processed into direct-consumption sugar than could be shipped to the continental United States during any calendar year. This, it was concluded, would result in disorderly marketing of sugar.

On March 30, 1938, the Secretary issued Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 9, allotting that portion of the 1938 Puerto Rican sugar quota for shipment to the continental United States which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar. On April 19, 1938, the Secretary issued Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10, which superseded the order of March 30, 1938, and which contains allotments identical with those made in the first order, together with a full statement of the facts and grounds for his decision.

Section 205 (a) of the act provides in part that:

Allotments shall be made in such manner and in such amounts as to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of such quota or proration thereof, by taking into consideration the processings of sugar or liquid sugar from sugar beets or sugarcane to which proportionate shares, determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of section 302, pertained; the past marketings or importations of each such person; or the ability of such person to market or import that portion of such quota or proration thereof allotted to him. The Secretary may also, upon such hearing and notice as he may by regulations prescribe, revise or amend any such allotment upon the same basis as the initial allotment was made.

On April 26, 1938, the Secretary issued a notice of a public hearing to be held in Washington, D. C., on May 3, 1938, for the purpose, among others, of receiving evidence to enable him to revise or amend Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 in accordance with the provisions of section 205 (a) of the act. The hearing was held on May 3 as specified in the notice and was concluded on May 4. The following companies interested in marketing direct-consumption sugar in the continental United States during 1938 were represented at the hearing:

Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery,
Central Aguirre,
Central Guanica,
Central Igualdad,
Central Roig,
Camuy Sugar Co.

Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 states the basis for allotments therein made as follows:

"The first standard stated above for the Secretary to use in making allotments, namely, processings to which proportionate shares established under section 302 (b) of the act pertain, is inapplicable to the allotment of that portion of the quota which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar.

"The other two standards given in the act, namely, 'past marketings' and 'ability * * * to market', are applicable and should both be used in making individual allotments, in order to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the portion of the quota under discussion.

"In determining 'ability * * * to market', it is apparent that mill capacity alone cannot be taken as an accurate measure. That factor represents only a potential ability to produce sugar, dependent upon a number of other factors, such as the availability of raw sugar, the price of raw materials, transportation costs, and similar factors. An additional factor must be used in order to arrive at a true measure of ability to market. It is believed that the ratios of each processor's current marketings of sugar to the total of such marketings should be considered and given equal weight with the ratios of each processor's mill capacity to the total mill capacity for all processors. Since the hearing was held on January 14, 1938, it would be possible to take 1937 marketings as indicating the processor's current ability to market, but this method would be unfair to processors marketing direct-consumption sugar for the first time in 1938. In order, therefore, to be fair to both new and old processors, and in order to obtain as accurate a measure of present ability to market as possible, it is necessary to take marketings of direct-consumption sugar during the present calendar year. During the first three months of the current year, no allotment order was in effect and processors were not restricted in their shipments of direct-consumption sugar to the United States, and since there was reason to believe that allotments would be made, processors had an incentive to hasten shipments prior to the making of such allotments. Hence the official data of the Department showing actual entries against such quota during the period from January 1, 1938, to March 22, 1938 (the date of final preparation of Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 9), are believed to constitute a necessary factor in determining actual ability to market sugar. This factor, along with that of mill refining capacity, is therefore deemed to be a fair measure of the present ability to market sugar."

Since section 205 (a) of the act requires that the Secretary, in revising or amending an allotment order, use the same basis used in making the initial allotment, it is necessary in this Order to apply the same basic formula as was used in Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10.

The evidence presented at the hearings of January 14 and May 3 in regard to mill refining capacity in terms of short tons, refined value, may be summarized as follows:

Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery.—700 to 800 tons per day (pages 29, 48, 62, 65 and 324 of record of hearing held on May 3).

Central Aguirre.—8000 to 9000 tons per annum (page 125 of record of hearing held on January 14).

Central Guanica.—50,000 tons per annum (page 128 of record of hearing held on January 14).

Central Igualdad.—220 tons per day (pages 103, 194, and 199 of record of hearing held on May 3).[1]

Central Roig.—210 tons per day (page 273 of record of hearing held on May 3).[2]

No testimony was given either at the hearing of January 14 or of May 3 bearing on the mill refining capacity of Central Carmen and Central San Francisco. It is, therefore, necessary to take 1936[3] entries of direct-consumption sugar into the continental United States as the mill capacity for these companies. In 1936, Central Carmen brought into the continental United States 264 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar, or 247 short tons, refined value, and Central San Francisco brought in during the same year 2,590 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar, or 2,421 short tons, refined value. (Government Exhibit No. 3.)

The actual quantities of Puerto Rican direct-consumption sugar certified for entry into the continental United States between January 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938 (Government Exhibit No. 3), were as follows:

	Short tons, raw value
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	46,868
Central Aguirre	1,970
Central Carmen
Central Guanica
Central Igualdad	1,124
Central Roig	8,070
Central San Francisco	795
	58,825

In determining "past marketings" for processors which have shipped direct-consumption sugar to the continental United States, it is believed that the years 1935, 1936, and 1937 should be used, since they are years during which a quota system was in effect and, consequently, are believed to be fair and reasonable under a restrictive program such as that provided for under the present and prior sugar legislation. The marketing history for these years (Government Exhibit No. 3) is as follows:

	Puerto Rican direct-consumption, sugar entries (refined and turbinado) for consumption in the United States (in terms of short tons, raw value)
	1935	1936	1937
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	116,611	109,945	97,498
Central Aguirre	2,719	2,496	5,767
Central Carmen		264
Central Guanica	1,015
Central Igualdad	163	438	52
Central Roig		2,778	16,204
Central San Francisco	2,463	2,590	1,981
	122,971	118,511	121,502

[1] The record of the hearing held on January 14 indicated a maximum capacity of 225 tons per day, but the same witness who testified in regard to plant capacity at the first hearing testified at the hearing of May 3 (page 199 of record) that 200 to 225 tons per day is more nearly correct. In view of the fact that a test run has shown 220 tons per day (page 103 of record of hearing held on May 3), this figure is taken as the rated mill capacity instead of 212.5 tons per day which would be taken in the absence of testimony showing actual performance in excess of that figure.

[2] Although the record of the hearing on January 14 indicated a rated plant capacity of 200 tons per day (pp. 170 and 174 of record), the fact that the company has actually exceeded that figure indicates that the rated capacity should be something in excess of 200 tons per day. The testimony shows (page 273 of record of hearing held on May 3) that the company has actually produced an average of 210 tons of sugar per day over a period of several days. Hence 210 tons per day is taken as the rated plant capacity.

[3] Being the year in which Centrals Carmen and San Francisco brought in more direct-consumption sugar than in any other year of the period 1935–1937, inclusive. (Government Exhibit No. 3.)

It is deemed desirable to reserve 5,712 short tons of sugar to be set aside for persons who bring in raw sugar from Puerto Rico for direct-consumption purposes, which amount represents the average quantity of such sugar brought in during the years 1935–1937, inclusive. It is not practicable to allot this quantity of sugar to individual processors, inasmuch as it would have to be allotted to 34 raw sugar processors, thereby rendering it impossible to make an efficient allotment as required by the act. An allotment would require continental purchasers of raw sugar for direct consumption to deal with a large number of sellers in order to obtain their requirements. Such disruption of customary trade practices could not reasonably be said to be an efficient distribution of this kind of sugar as required by the act.

On the basis of the record of the hearings held on January 14, 1938, and May 3, 1938, I hereby find: [1]

1. That the Puerto Rican processors of direct-consumption sugar are equipped to produce 415,168 short tons[2] of sugar during the calendar year 1938.

2. That the present plant capacity of each Puerto Rican processor of direct-consumption sugar is as follows:

Processor:	Rated refining capacity per annum, 300-day basis
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	225,000
Central Aguirre	8,500
Central Carmen	247
Central Guanica	50,000
Central Igualdad	66,000
Central Roig	63,000
Central San Francisco	2,421
	415,168

3. That the quantities of direct-consumption sugar certified for entry into the continental United States from Puerto Rico between January 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938, were as follows:

Processor:	Short tons, raw value
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	46,866
Central Aguirre	1,970
Central Carmen
Central Guanica
Central Igualdad	1,124
Central Roig	8,070
Central San Francisco	795

4. That during the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, Puerto Rican processors brought direct-consumption sugar (refined and turbinado) into the continental United States for consumption therein in the following amounts:

	Puerto Rican direct-consumption sugar entries (refined and turbinado) for consumption in the United States (in terms of short tons, raw value)
	1935	1936	1937
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	116,611	109,945	97,498
Central Aguirre	2,719	2,496	5,767
Central Carmen		264
Central Guanica	1,015
Central Igualdad	163	438	52
Central Roig		2,778	16,204
Central San Francisco	2,463	2,590	1,981
	122,971	118,511	121,502

On the basis of the foregoing, I hereby determine and conclude that the allotment of that portion of the 1938 Puerto Rican sugar quota which may be filled by shipments of direct-consumption sugar is necessary in order to prevent disorderly marketing of sugar, and that in order to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of such sugar, as required by section 205 (a) of the act, allotments

[1] Since section 205 (a) of the act requires that allotment be made "to persons who market or import sugar", no allotment can be made to Camuy Sugar Company, inasmuch as that company is not engaged in the manufacture of direct-consumption sugar at the present time.

should be made by giving equal weight to (1) past marketings during the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, and (2) ability to market, measured by giving equal weight to present plant capacity and the quantities of direct-consumption sugar certified for entry into the continental United States between January 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938.

ORDER

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 205 (a) of the act, it is hereby ordered:

1. That the allotments contained in Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 shall be, and they are hereby, revised, and the said quantity of 126,033 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar is hereby allotted to the following processors in the amounts which appear opposite their respective names:

Name of processor:	Direct-consumption allotment (short tons, raw value)
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	93,975
Aguirre	3,443
Carmen	62
Guanica	3,791
Igualdad	5,465
Roig	11,837
San Francisco	1,748
	120,321
Unallotted reserve for marketings of raw sugar for direct consumption	5,712
Total	126,033

2. That the above-named processors are hereby prohibited from bringing into the continental United States, for consumption during the calendar year 1938, any direct-consumption sugar (except the above-mentioned amount of raw sugar used for direct consumption) from Puerto Rico in excess of the marketing allotments set forth in the next preceding paragraph.

3. That this order shall supersede Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10, issued by the Secretary on April 19, 1938.

[Service and Regulatory Announcements—Naval Stores No. 1]

REVISION OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE NAVAL STORES ACT OF MARCH 3, 1923

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 4 of the Naval Stores Act, approved March 3, 1923 (42 Stat. 1435; 7 U. S. C., secs. 91–99), entitled "An Act establishing standard grades of naval stores, preventing deception in transactions in naval stores, regulating traffic therein, and for other purposes," the following rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of the statute are hereby promulgated.

These regulations supersede those contained in U. S. Department of Agriculture Miscellaneous Circular 22, dated March 1, 1924, and all supplements and amendments thereto, and shall become effective June 1, 1938.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

May 14, 1938.

The term "naval stores" is a trade name used to describe a group of related agricultural raw materials, having more or less complex chemical composition, of which the more important members are spirits of turpentine and rosin. They are obtained from the pine tree principally, or from the wood thereof, by any of several different processes. About sixty percent of the world's supply is obtained from the longleaf yellow pines and slash pines growing in the South Atlantic and Gulf States. The Naval Stores Act of March 3, 1923, may be considered as having four primary purposes: (1) to regulate interstate traffic in turpentine and rosin and to prohibit fraud and deception in the sale of same; (2) to set up standards and standard grades for naval stores, in accordance with which all naval stores must be sold and designated; (3) to provide for the preparation of type standards for naval stores, principally rosin, and duplicates thereof, for use by the industry in the classification and grading of such articles; and (4) to authorize the analysis, classification, and grading of naval stores by the Department of Agriculture for and at the request of a party at interest therein, such as producer, dealer, or buyer. The accompanying regulations have been prepared to supply the trade and those interested in naval stores with information as to the scope, interpretation, and methods of carrying into effect the various provisions of the act.

(k) Authorizes the preparation of the United States standards or standard types for rosin, and duplicates thereof, in the Department of Agriculture, and the furnishing, when practicable, of such duplicates to interested persons requiring same, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary.

Regulation 4. Standards for Spirits of Turpentine

(a) Spirits of turpentine shall be deemed to be the light, colorless or but faintly colored volatile oil, having a characteristic odor and taste, which occurs naturally in and has been obtained from secretions (1) taken from living trees of the family Pinaceae or (2) existing in the wood of species thereof, and which consists principally of terpene hydrocarbons of the general empirical formula $C_{10}H_{16}$.

(b) Until other standards are established and promulgated by the Secretary the standards of identity for spirits of turpentine within the purview of the Naval Stores Act are as follows:

(1) Gum Spirits of Turpentine, the kind of spirits of turpentine obtained by distillation of the oleoresin (gum) from living trees, and commonly known prior to passage of the Act as gum spirits of turpentine, gum turpentine, spirits of turpentine, or oil of turpentine.

(2) Steam Distilled Wood Turpentine, the kind of spirits of turpentine obtained by steam distillation from the oleoresinous component of wood whether in the presence of the wood or after extraction from the wood, and commonly known prior to passage of the Act as steam distilled wood turpentine.

(3) Destructively Distilled Wood Turpentine, the kind of spirits of turpentine prepared from the distillate obtained in the destructive distillation (carbonization) of wood, and commonly known prior to passage of the Act as destructively distilled wood turpentine.

(4) Sulphate Wood Turpentine, the kind of spirits of turpentine prepared from the condensates recovered in the sulphate process of cooking wood pulp, and commonly known as sulphate wood turpentine.

Regulation 5. Standards for Classification and Grading of Rosin

(a) "Rosin" shall be the vitreous, properly strained, more or less clear and transparent or translucent, brittle mass, congealed from the molten condition, consisting chiefly of resin acids, with relatively small proportions of resin or other esters and of non-acid, non-crystalline resenes (except that rosin obtained as described in (2) hereinbelow may contain not more than a very small percentage of fatty acids or fatty substances which naturally occur in and have been extracted from the wood with the rosin),

(1) Which remains as gum rosin, the residue after the distillation of the volatile oil from the oleoresin (gum) obtained from living pine or other coniferous trees; or

(2) Which is recovered as wood resin (after the distillation of the volatile oil from the oleoresin within or removed from the wood of such trees) by chemical or physical means followed by necessary further refinement.

(b) Rosin may occur also in the form of a vitreous, more or less opaque and crystalline mass formed by crystallization of the resin acids in the product described in paragraph (a) hereof. Resin acids which have been separated or removed, by any process, from a mixture of resinous and other material are not "rosin" within the meaning of the Act.

(c) Until other standards are established and promulgated by the Secretary, the standards for rosin are (1) the standard types authorized by the Act; (2) the standards and types thereof established and promulgated by the Secretary as standards for rosin; and (3) the standard for "OPAQUE" rosin.

(d) In accordance with such standards and types of such standards, the various grades of rosin from highest to lowest shall be designated, unless and until changed, by the following letters respectively: X, WW, WG, N, M, K, I, H, G, F, E, D, B; also FF and OP; together with the designation "gum rosin" or "wood rosin", as the case may be.

(e) An article consisting of rosin and an excessive amount of visible extraneous foreign material, or an article which is of such appearance, so as not to permit its accurate classification and grading in accordance with the standards for rosin, shall not be classified, graded, marked, sold or offered for sale as rosin.

Regulation 6.—Establishing New or Modified Standards

(a) Whenever in the opinion of the Secretary a standard is necessary for any naval stores for which no standard is provided, or whenever, for reasons deemed by him sufficient, the interests of the trade require a modification of an existing standard, opportunities to be heard will be given those favoring or opposing the proposed standard or proposed modification of a standard. When the hearing is to be called for consideration of new standards, 3 months' notice in advance of the hearing will be given; when the hearing is to be called for consideration of the modification of an existing standard, 6 months' notice in advance of the hearing will be given.

(b) When a standard is established for any naval stores for which no standard had theretofore been provided, such standard shall become effective after 3 months from the date of the promulgation thereof; when an existing standard is modified, such modification shall become effective after 6 months from the date of the promulgation thereof.

Regulation 7. Loan and Care of Duplicates of United States Rosin Standards

(a) Duplicates of the United States rosin standards shall not be sold, but shall remain the property of the Department. They may be loaned by the Department to interested persons when the Chief of Administration determines it practicable to do so, and shall be surrendered promptly at his request by any person to whom the same may have been loaned.

(b) Duplicates of the United States rosin standards may be furnished without prior deposit of security, so far as the supply in the possession of the Department will permit:

(1) To any state or local official duly authorized and regularly appointed to inspect and grade rosin, and who has been approved by the Chief of Administration for receipt thereof, and to such trade organizations as shall in the opinion of the Chief of Administration require same; and

(2) To any bonafide naval stores dealer or distributor, approved by the Chief of Administration to act as a depository of such duplicates, who maintains a regular naval stores yard or yards, the facilities of which are available to and regularly used by the public for the purpose of having rosin inspected, classified, and graded; provided, that an annual rental fee of $4.00 shall be paid in advance, for each set of duplicates received under this subsection. Not more than two sets of duplicates shall be so furnished, without full security therefor, to any one such naval stores dealer or distributor.

(c) Duplicates of the United States rosin standards may be furnished to interested persons or corporations other than those specified in paragraph (b) hereof, on deposit with the Department of security in the sum of $100.00 in cash, or by certified check, post office or express money order payable to "U. S. Department of Agriculture."

(d) Any interested person desiring the loan of duplicates of the United States rosin standards shall submit a request, properly signed, on the form provided therefor by the Department, to be had on application. He shall therein submit such information as will show he is entitled to receive such duplicates; assure their safekeeping, care, proper use and prompt return on demand of the Chief of Administration; agree to reimburse the United States for the cost of repairing any damage to said duplicates or of replacing any or all of them, if for any reason they cannot be returned to the Department in like good order as received; provided, that in case security has been posted, he shall further authorize the Department to reimburse the United States for any such costs, not otherwise paid for, out of the security held for the loan of said duplicates.

(e) If any interested person to whom a set of duplicates has been issued under paragraph (b) hereof shall request or need another set of duplicates to replace such set and shall be unable to return such set, said person shall be required to deposit the security provided in paragraph (c) hereof prior to receiving such replacement duplicates. In case of recovery of the set previously provided or any part thereof, it shall be surrendered for inspection, repair, or replacement if necessary; and after the cost thereof has been determined and paid, such set will be returned to the interested person, whereupon the other set shall be surrendered and the security returned to the person posting same.

(f) In case any duplicates are damaged, or any or all are missing, the party to whom such duplicates have been loaned shall promptly advise the Administration in writing, stating what damage or loss was sustained and how the same occurred. The Department shall take prompt action to recover the duplicates or any missing parts thereof. When the necessary repairs are made or the missing parts supplied, the full set, if desired, may be returned to the party to whom it was originally furnished.

(g) The cost of making any necessary repairs to any duplicates of the rosin standards or of replacing any duplicates damaged beyond repair, or any missing duplicates, shall be determined by the Chief of Administration, and the party to whom loaned advised of such cost. Payment to cover the cost of such replacement shall be made prior to the return thereof.

(h) On the death of any person or dissolution or reorganization of any partnership, firm or corporation holding any set of duplicates of the United States rosin standards, the same shall be promptly surrendered to the Department by the holder thereof.

(i) The security received from persons to whom duplicates of the United States rosin standards have been loaned under paragraphs (c) or (d) hereof will be held for the Department in its special deposit account, and will be returned to the person from whom received, or his legal representative, on surrender of the duplicates secured thereby; provided, that before refund is made there shall be deducted the cost of any repairs or replacements.

[1] The administration of the Naval Stores Act was formerly assigned to the Bureau of Chemistry.

(j) All moneys received or withheld to cover the cost of repairs to or of replacing any missing parts of any set of duplicates or as rental of duplicates shall be paid into the United States Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

Regulation 8. Inspectors

(a) Inspectors may be assigned to such places as may be necessary for the enforcement of the Act and these regulations.

(b) Inspectors shall sample, examine, classify and grade naval stores at the request of an interested person in compliance with the Act and these regulations, at the direction of the Chief of Administration.

(c) Inspectors shall be under the authority of and responsible solely to the Department, and shall report the results of any examination, classification, or grading of naval stores made by them only to the Chief of Administration or to such persons as such Chief may direct.

Regulation 9. Samples

(a) Samples of spirits of turpentine and rosin within the scope of the Act shall be representative.

(b) Samples of rosin for grading shall be approximately cubical in shape and ⅞ inch thick through the direction in which they are viewed or graded. Samples may be taken by any of the following methods:

(1) By cutting or cleaving from a lump of the rosin removed by means of a "spike" from the solid mass in the barrel or drum, the top side of which lump shall come from not less than six inches below the surface of the rosin.

(2) By means of a tin mold of suitable design which has been placed inside the barrel or drum through an opening in the side, the top of which opening is eight (8) inches from the top of the container, and so that the sample will have come from a position not less than four inches below the surface of the rosin. The mold thus placed must be entirely within the barrel or drum and completely encased in the rosin. It may be removed from the barrel by any suitable device.

(3) By suspending in the barrel or drum of hot molten rosin a ⅞ inch square (inside) tubular mold, 1½ inches or more in length, made of clean thin tin plate, in such a manner that it will be in a horizontal position at least four inches below the top of the rosin in the container after it has thoroughly cooled. The sample contained in such mold is spiked from the barrel after cooling.

(c) For the purpose of determining whether Section 5 of the Act has been violated, samples shall be collected by an inspector and marked to identify same with the lot or packages from which taken.

Regulation 10. Analysis, Classification and Grading on Request

(a) Any naval stores or samples thereof will, if practicable, be examined, analyzed, classified, and/or graded upon request of any interested person, on payment of a fee, as hereinafter prescribed in Regulation 14.

(b) A request to examine, analyze, classify, or grade naval stores shall be made in writing to the Administration or to the nearest inspector. Such request shall state the number and kinds of packages of rosin, or the number and kinds of packages or number of gallons of turpentine to be so inspected, the name of the interested person for whose account such service is to be performed, his interest in the naval stores, and whether the request is to be considered for seasonal or for recurrent service at intervals. It shall be signed by such person or on his behalf by his properly authorized agent.

(c) A request to examine, analyze, classify, or grade naval stores may be withdrawn at any time before such service has been completed, subject to the payment of such fees and expenses as may be prescribed pursuant to Regulation 14.

(d) Tank cars containing spirits of turpentine of which examination, analysis or classification has been requested, will be sealed by the inspector with a seal prescribed by the Department after the sample has been taken therefrom. No certificate of analysis or classification furnished by the Department shall be deemed to be applicable to the contents of any car so sealed, after the seal has been broken or removed.

(e) Except in the case of spirits of turpentine in tank cars, as provided for in paragraph (d) hereof, the interested person requesting any examination, analysis, classification, or grading of any naval stores shall agree that the same will remain intact and undistributed until such examination, analysis, classification, or grading has been completed and the results thereof reported, and, in the case of rosin, the packages have been marked in accordance with the regulations; provided, however, that in case such naval stores do not remain intact and undisturbed until the issuance of the report thereon, such report shall not be in the form of a certificate.

(f) All samples taken by an inspector or submitted by an interested person shall become and remain the property of the Department and shall be disposed of as the Chief of Administration may determine.

Regulation 11. Certificates

(a) A certificate as provided by Section 4 of the Act shall be issued in duplicate on naval stores examined at the request of an interested person. The following are the kinds of certificates issued:

1. Turpentine Analys's and Classification Certificate.
2. Turpentine Field Classification Certificate.
3. Rosin Classification and Grade Certificate.
4. Loan and Sale Certificate for U. S. Graded Rosin.

(b) Each certificate shall contain the information required by the Act, and shall be numbered. The designation and form of certificate and the information supplied thereby shall be determined by the Secretary from the request and the nature of the service rendered, as set forth in paragraph (c) hereof or in Regulation 14.

(c) The owner of any rosin remaining in original packages which has been examined, inspected, graded, and marked by an inspector may, upon written request, obtain a Loan and Sale Certificate for U. S. Graded Rosin (hereinafter designated "L. S. Certificate") to cover a specified number of packages of such rosin as to kind and grade. The request for such certificate shall be made in accordance with Regulation 10, and show in addition the name of the producer, the point of origin of the rosin (if it has moved subsequent to original inspection), date of purchase or sale, proposed date of shipment, name of consignee and destination supported by proper documents or other evidence thereof, satisfactory to the Secretary. Unless the Secretary is satisfied that the rosin has been previously graded and marked by an inspector and the marks have not been changed, he shall not issue a certificate. Such certificate, numbered, will show the number of barrels of each grade covered thereby, as well as identification marks, and will show that it is based on original Rosin Classification and Grade Certificates previously issued.

(d) If any part of a lot of rosin, for which lot an L. S. Certificate is desired, has not been previously examined, inspected, graded, and marked by an inspector and covered by a Rosin Classification and Grade Certificate, it shall first be examined, inspected, graded, and marked by such inspector, and a Rosin Classification and Grade Certificate issued. The cost of such examination, inspection, grading, and marking will be in accordance with Regulation 14, and any expense incurred in connection with the handling, opening, spiking, marking, and coopering of the barrels shall be borne by the interested person in accordance with Regulation 13 (a).

(e) A certificate showing the results of any examination, analysis, classification, or grading shall be issued only on naval stores of which the samples have been taken by or under the personal direction and supervision of an inspector. The certificate shall be valid only for as long as the naval stores described thereby shall remain under seal or undisturbed in the containers, and while the identity and condition of the naval stores remain the same as at the time of issuance of the certificate.

(f) Certificates shall not be issued to cover naval stores, samples of which have not been taken in accordance with paragraph (e) hereof, or to cover any article which does not conform with the standards established under the Act. In such cases a written report, which in no case shall be construed as a certificate, will be issued.

Regulation 12. Methods of Analysis, Classification and Grading

(a) The methods of chemical analysis shall be those prescribed by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists when applicable; provided, however, that if no method of chemical analysis has been prescribed by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists or if for any reason any such methods are deemed not suitable or sufficient by the Secretary, any method of analysis or examination satisfactory to him may be employed.

(b) The grade of a sample of rosin, taken in accordance with Regulation 9, shall be determined by comparing same with the appropriate standard types. The grade shall be the grade of the standard type which the sample equals or excels in color.

(c) A package of rosin which, when sampled in accordance with Regulation 9, is found to contain two or more distinct grades of rosin, shall take the grade of the darkest rosin found therein. When sampled also from the bottom head this provision shall not apply if such bottom-head sample is not more than one grade lower than the grade of the sample taken in accordance with Regulation 9. If such bottom-head sample is more than one grade lower than the top-head sample, the grade assigned to the package shall be that of the darkest rosin found therein.

(d) Rosin graded by using so-called "charge samples" or "vat samples", namely those obtained by removing a portion of the rosin while in a hot liquid condition from a vat prior to placing in containers, or obtained from the containers before the rosin has become cold and solidified, is not deemed to have been graded in accordance with the provisions of the Act or these regulations. The sale in commerce of rosin that is found misgraded as the result of such method of sampling and grading shall be considered as constituting willful violation of Section 5 of the Act.

Regulation 13. Preparation, Sampling, and Marking Containers of Naval Stores

(a) An interested person making a request for an examination, analysis, classification, or grading of naval stores shall cause the same to be made available, remove the bungs or heads or otherwise open the containers for sampling, spike the rosin or extract the sampler devices from the barrels, rebung or otherwise close the containers, and mark the same.

(b) Except in the case of tank cars and packages intended to be emptied into a tank car or tank, the interested person making the request shall, under the direction and immediate supervision of the inspector, place upon each package a mark to show that it has been examined, classified and graded, together with such further marks as the Secretary may require. If, however, the article is not naval stores, within the meaning of the Act, or does not comply with any United States standard for naval stores, the package containing it shall not be marked.

(c) All expenses in connection with the sampling, examination, classification, or grading of naval stores as set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall be borne by the interested person making the request.

(d) In case any mark placed on a package of rosin by or under the direction of an inspector has become illegible, the inspector will make such examination before remarking as may be necessary to establish the proper grade or identity of the rosin. No fee will be charged for this service, but the cost of handling, opening, spiking, and recoopering such rosin will be at the expense of the interested person.

(e) Any mark placed upon any package of naval stores by or under the direction of an inspector to show the classification and/or grade or quantity thereof shall not be obliterated, covered up, defaced or otherwise made illegible by any person other than by an inspector as defined in these regulations.

(f) Any package so packed as to conceal the fact that it consists in whole or in part of an article which is not naval stores within the meaning of the Act and these regulations, or any package deemed by an inspector to be unsuitable or unfit to be used as a container of naval stores in commerce, shall not be accepted for classification, grading or marking; provided, that any classification or grade marks on or any certificate issued covering any such package shall not relieve the interested person at whose request the article was inspected from responsibility under any provision of the Act or these regulations, or for delivering a proper article of naval stores in commerce.

Regulation 14. Cost of Analysis, Classification and Grading

(a) For the examination, sampling, analysis and classification of spirits of turpentine, or samples thereof, the interested person requesting such service shall pay a fee, depending on the nature of such service and where it is performed, in accordance with the following rates:

(1) For analysis and classification, viz, determination of such chemical and physical properties as may be necessary to ascertain purity, quality and/or compliance with designated specifications, the charge shall be at the rate of $7.00 for each sample so tested.

(2) For limited examination and classification, viz, determination of kind, and certain easily determined physical characteristics, where such examination and classification require laboratory tests but do not include all the tests described in (1) hereof, the charge shall be at the rate of $1.00 per sample so tested.

(3) For the examination and classification of spirits of turpentine in the field, viz, determination of kind, color, appearance, and quantity of such spirits of turpentine, the charge shall be at the rate of 5 cents per package examined; provided, that except where such turpentine is offered for examination and classification at regular or agreed-upon intervals, the minimum charge for examining and classifying any such lot of spirits of turpentine shall be $2.00; and provided further, that for such examination and classification of the contents of each tank car, the charge shall be $4.00.

(b) For the examination, classification and grading of rosin pursuant to these regulations the interested person requesting such service shall pay fees according to the following scale of charges; provided, however, that except where the rosin is offered for grading at regular or agreed-upon intervals throughout a producing season, the minimum charge for classifying and grading any lot of rosin shall be $5.00:

(1) For quantities of 800 or more round barrels or other packages of rosin offered for grading at any one place at any one time, the charge will be at the rate of 5 cents per round barrel or package, except as provided in paragraph (5) hereof.

(2) For quantities of from 500 to 799 round barrels or packages offered for grading at any one place at any one time, the charge will be at the rate of 6 cents per round barrel or other package, except as provided in paragraph (5) hereof; provided, however, that for any such quantity or lot covered by one or more certificates issued to one person the total charge shall not be in excess of $40.

(3) For quantities less than 500 round barrels or packages offered for grading the charge will be at the rate of 7 cents per round barrel or other package; provided, however, that for any such quantity or lot graded at any one place at any one time covered by one or more certificates issued to one person, the total charge shall not be in excess of $30.

(4) Fees less than the above may be established by the Secretary whenever the quantities offered or to be offered at any point shall be deemed by him to be sufficiently large to warrant same, and contractual relations shall have been entered into between the Secretary and the interested person or his agent.

(5) The charges of 5 and 6 cents per round barrel or other package established by paragraphs (1) and (2) hereinabove will apply whenever the grading may be handled as for a single lot, regardless of whether certificates are issued to more than one person; provided, however, that when certificates are issued to more than one person, the charge for grading any lot of less than 50 barrels covered by a separate certificate shall be at the rate of 7 cents per round barrel or package.

(c) For each L. S. certificate issued in accordance with Regulation 11 (c) the owner shall pay, in addition to an amount to cover any extra cost incurred by the Government in connection therewith as set forth in paragraph (f) hereof, a fee at the rate of 1 cent per round barrel or other package covered by such certificate; provided, that the minimum charge for any L. S. certificate will be $1.00.

(d) The fee for the analysis, classification, and/or grading of samples of rosin or of anything submitted as such shall be determined in advance in each instance. The person requesting such service shall be notified of such fee and his authority to proceed obtained before such analysis or other examination is made.

(e) No fee shall be charged for a new certificate issued in lieu of an outstanding certificate solely for the purpose of correcting clerical errors therein or for the purpose of substituting a new form of certificate for an outstanding certificate.

(f) Whenever in complying with any request for examination, sampling, analysis, classification, or grading of naval stores it shall be necessary, on account of the nature or urgency of the desired service, for an inspector to depart from a regular schedule or plan of travel, or make a special trip therefor of more than 2 hours duration, including time ordinarily required to proceed to and return from place where service is rendered; or if there be incurred in connection with any such trip extra travel and/or subsistence expenses, as authorized under Government travel regulations; and if, in any such case the service rendered, including time, travel, and subsistence expenses of the inspector, is not compensated by the amount to be collected as fees, as hereinbefore prescribed, then the interested person making the request will be charged such additional amount as, with the prescribed fees, will reimburse the United States for such inspector's time, travel, and subsistence expenses.

(g) Whenever a request for any service, as hereinbefore provided, shall be withdrawn, and there has been any work done, travel performed, or preparation made in connection therewith prior to receipt of such withdrawal, the interested person who requested such service and withdrawal shall pay an amount sufficient to compensate the United States for such work, travel, or preparation, in addition to any other expenses incurred, as provided for in paragraph (f) hereof.

(h) Any shipping expense in connection with any sample taken at the request of an interested person shall be borne by such person.

Regulation 15. Payment for Services

(a) The Administration shall deliver monthly to each interested person its claim for reimbursement on account of services rendered, in accordance with the prescribed fees and these regulations. Such claim shall be issued as soon as practicable after the last day of each month, provided that any such claim may, in the discretion of the Chief of Administration, be rendered at an earlier date.

(b) Payments on account of such claims shall be made by check, draft, post office or express money order made payable to "Treasurer of the United States."

(c) If any claim shall remain unpaid after 60 days from the date when same was rendered, it shall be considered delinquent, and the Chief of Administration may order the discontinuance of any further services, or may require from any delinquent person requesting any further service under the Act a deposit or payment in advance sufficient to cover the fees and expenses involved in the performance of such service.

(d) All moneys received under Regulations 7 (b) and (j) and 14 (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), or (h) will be covered into the United States Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

Regulation 16. Labels, Invoices, Advertising, and Shipping Documents

(a) All naval stores in commerce shall be graded and described in accordance with the Act and these regulations. Packages are not required to be marked, branded, or labeled to describe the nature, grade, classification, and quantity of the contents thereof, but if not so marked, branded or labeled the invoice or other document pertaining thereto shall describe the said naval stores in accordance with the appropriate standard or standards and these regulations; provided, that spirits of turpentine which complies with the requirements and specifications of the United States Pharmacopoea for "oil of turpentine" shall not be deemed to be in violation of the Act or these regulations when described as "spirits of turpentine," "oil of turpentine" or "gum turpentine."

(b) Naval stores other than in bulk in tank vehicles, when sold or shipped in commerce under any mark or label to indicate the quality or nature thereof, shall be marked, branded or labeled to show the true classification and grade of the article, in accordance with the standard of identity or grade therefor, and shall also show the true identity of the manufacturer or shipper thereof; provided, that where shipment is made for the purpose of having the same graded, the above requirement will be waived only with respect to the grade mark.

(c) The phrase "under or by reference to United States standards," as it appears in the Naval Stores Act, is interpreted as follows: (1) the word "under" means by the use of a label, brand, or mark on the package or anything attached to, connected with, or immediately accompanying the same; (2) the words "by reference to" mean by the use of an invoice, bill of sale, shipping paper, or other document specifically describing or referring to the particular naval stores in question.

(d) The grade of rosin as specified or referred to in any invoice or other document pertaining thereto, as well as the grade shown on the package, shall be the true grade of the rosin, and there shall be no variance between the grade mark on the package and the grade referred to in the invoice or other document pertaining to the same.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (h) hereof there shall not be used in commerce either the word "turpentine" or the word "rosin", singly or with any other word or words; or any compound, derivative, or imitation of either of these words; or any misleading word; or any word, combination of words, letter, or combination of letters mentioned in the Naval Stores Act, in any lawfully promulgated standard, or in these regulations, as being applicable to naval stores; in selling, offering for sale, advertising, or shipping any article, unless it is an article of naval stores that conforms with the United States standards.

(f) The sale in commerce of a mixture of two or more kinds of spirits of turpentine under any designation is prohibited.

(g) Except as provided in paragraph (n) hereof, the word "turpentine" shall not be used in commerce to describe in any manner a mixture consisting of spirits of turpentine with any other oil or solvent.

(h) Except as may be prohibited by paragraph (g) hereof, the use of the word "turpentine" or the word "rosin" is not prohibited when used to describe and to indicate truthfully: (1) the nature of an article made, prepared, or processed from spirits of turpentine or rosin, or oleoresin; or (2) the process by which the article was made or prepared.

(i) There shall not be used in the sale in commerce of naval stores or anything offered as such, any label, device, means or practice which is in any manner false, misleading, or deceitful.

(j) Spirits of turpentine packed, described, labeled or sold in a manner indicating that it is a medicinal product or is offered for medicinal use shall be of the standard of quality for such article as laid down in the current U. S. Pharmacopoeia, and shall be subject to the provisions of the Federal Food and Drugs Act, unless there shall appear on the label or principal part thereof a statement that it is not the medicinal article.

(k) The words "pine" or "pine tree" when used to designate the source of any spirits of turpentine shall be deemed to mean a living growing plant of the genus Pinus, family Pinaceae, unless the words "wood of" are used in connection therewith. The terms "oleoresin of the Southern pine" or "oleoresin from the Southern pine" shall be deemed to mean the gum or oleoresin exuded by such living, growing trees, the same being the source of gum spirits of turpentine.

(l) The word "gallon" when used on or impressed into any container of spirits of turpentine, or when used in invoices referring to spirits of turpentine in packages of 10 gallons or less capacity, shall be construed to mean and refer to the U. S. standard gallon of 231 cubic inches, regardless of any other definitive term used therewith; provided that this shall not apply to the meaning of the words "Imperial gallon." A gallon of turpentine, or any indicated multiple or fractional part thereof, shall be such quantity when measured at a temperature of not more than 75° F.

(m) An inspector examining any naval stores for the purpose of classifying and grading the same shall remove from the package any classification or grade mark thereon which does not properly describe the naval stores in accordance with his findings.

(n) A compound or mixture containing spirits of turpentine or rosin, or both, with other drugs, when sold for medicinal purposes, is not deemed to be subject to the provisions of the Naval Stores Act but is subject to the provisions of the Federal Food and Drugs Act.

Regulation 17. Hearings

(a) Whenever it appears that any of the provisions of the Naval Stores Act have been violated notice shall be given to the firm or person that appears to be responsible for the violation, and to such other person or persons as may be advisable, and a date shall be fixed on which such person or persons may appear and be accorded a hearing. Such hearing shall be held at the office of the Administration most convenient to the persons cited, or at the office of the Administration in Washington, District of Columbia, and only factual matters shall be considered. The person or persons notified may present evidence, either oral or written, in person or by attorney, to show cause why they should not be prosecuted for such apparent violation of the Act.

(b) After such hearing is held, if it appears that the Act has been willfully violated the Secretary shall report the facts for prosecution.

Regulation 18. Publication of Findings

(a) After any judgment has been rendered in any court of competent jurisdiction with respect to any proceeding arising under the Act, notice shall be given by publication. Such notice shall include the finding of the court and may include the analysis, classification, and grade of any article involved in such proceeding and such explanatory statements of fact as may be appropriate. If an appeal shall have been taken from the judgment of the court before such publication, that fact shall appear.

(b) The results of the analysis, classification, or grading made under this Act of any spirits of turpentine or anything offered as such may be published from time to time.

(c) Publications under this regulation may be in the form of a circular notice or bulletin.

VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION.

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

REIMBURSEMENT OR PAYMENT FOR EXPENSES OF UNAUTHORIZED MEDICAL SERVICES

R-6140. Adjudication in central office.—(A) Claims for reimbursement or payment of expenses of medical services obtained without prior authorization of the Veterans' Administration, as hereinafter comprehended, will be adjudicated in the medical and hospital service, central office.

(B) Chief medical officers of regional offices and facilities with regional office activities, upon receiving such claims, will be required to develop them, as hereinafter instructed (R. & P. R-6148), before forwarding them, with the beneficiary's file, to central office.

(C) Upon receipt by the medical director, claims so referred will be reviewed by the medical officers clothed with delegated authority therefor. Such of these claims as are recommended for reimbursement or payment by such officers in an amount of less than $500 will be submitted to the assistant administrator in charge of medical and domiciliary care, construction and supplies for approval, or if the amount is $500 or more such claims will be submitted to the Administrator for approval. Upon approval as herein provided, a voucher will be prepared in central office.

(D) Appeals.—Both types of such claims, as defined in R. & P. R-6141 will be subject to one review after an adverse decision, upon appeal to the Administrator. Appeals must be entered within one year from the date of notification to the claimant or his representative of the original adverse decision. No claim that had been finally denied prior to March 20, 1933, will be reopened or reconsidered. A claim will be deemed to have been finally denied when: (1) Original adjudication or appellate action was taken adversely, and proper appeal was not entered prior to March 20, 1933, or within one year from the date on which the claimant was notified of the adverse action, whichever is the later date; or (2) When the claim was finally denied on appeal prior to March 20, 1933 (Public No. 307, 74th Congress). (May 16, 1938.) (V. R. No. 6 Series.)

R–6141. Classes of claims comprehended.—Claims for reimbursement of or payment for medical treatment obtained without prior authorization from the Veterans' Administration (including the necessary travel incidental to the procurement of such treatment) may be submitted and will be considered under the following conditions:

(A) The claim must be for treatment of a service-connected disease or injury only; or for the adjunct relief of an associated nonservice-connected condition which, in the determination of the medical director, was aggravating the disability from the basic service-connected disorder.

(B) As to unauthorized treatment rendered prior to March 20, 1933, the claims will be limited to cases falling within the final proviso of section 202 (9), World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended, viz., (1) The treatment must have been rendered in a medical emergency; (2) Government facilities must have been not feasibly available; (3) Delay would have been hazardous. All of these three elements must have existed, and if any one was lacking reimbursement or payment will not be authorized. (4) Claim must have been filed with the Veterans' Administration prior to March 20, 1933, as required by Public No. 307, 74th Congress, Act of August 23, 1935.

(C) As to unauthorized treatment rendered subsequent to March 19, 1933, the entitlement criteria defined as (1), (2), (3) of subparagraph (B) hereof will apply, and in addition thereto it must be shown that the disability for which treatment was rendered was service-connected and of compensable or pensionable degree. (May 16, 1938.) (V. R. No. 6 Series.)

R–6142. Conditions controlling claims.—When the unauthorized treatment was rendered prior to June 7, 1924, no payment or reimbursement will be made for any period over which compensation had not been awarded for the service-connected disability. When the unauthorized treatment was rendered subsequent to June 7, 1924, payment or reimbursement, in accordance with the provisions of section 202 (9), World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, may be allowed regardless of the compensability of the beneficiary's service-connected disability, but in no case more than one year prior to the date of filing claim under section 210, World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended (Comptroller General's Decision A–20304, Nov. 2, 1927). (May 16, 1938.) (Public, No. 307, 74th Congress, V. R. No. 6 Series.)

R–6143. Definitions.—(A) The term "Beneficiary" as used in R. & P. R–6140 to 6148, inclusive, means:

(1) In claims for payment for or reimbursement of expenses incurred in procuring unauthorized treatment prior to March 20, 1933, any veteran of the World War, not dishonorably discharged, who after filing claim for disability compensation (application for which includes application for treatment) is determined by the Veterans' Administration to have had a service-connected disability entitling to treatment through the Veterans' Administration.

(2) As to claim for unauthorized treatment rendered subsequent to March 19, 1933,—any veteran who at the time of such treatment was suffering from a service connected disability of a compensable or pensionable degree.

(B) "Emergency", as used in R. & P. R.–6140 to 6148, inclusive, means treatment of a condition which, in sound medical judgment, will not permit of delay without endangering the claimant's health or life.

(C) "No facilities are or were then feasibly available", as used in R. & P. R–6140 to 6148, inclusive, means that an attempt to use such facilities beforehand would not have been reasonably sound, wise or practicable, or that treatment had been or would have been denied. In applying this definition, the distance from a Veterans' Administration facility; the location of the patient; the sex and color; the nature and degree of his disability; the available means of transportation; the season and weather conditions then prevailing; the type of medical personnel or equipment requisite; and the time the services were rendered, are elements to be given consideration.

(D) "Delay would be or would have been hazardous", as used in R. & P. R–6140 to 6148, inclusive, means the risk of possible disastrous consequences attendant upon an endeavor by the claimant to secure treatment through Governmental agencies, under any or all circumstances. (May 16, 1938.) (Public No. 307, 74th Congress, V. R. No. 6 Series.)

R–6144. Adjunct Treatment.—Reimbursement of or payment for adjunct treatment (see R. & P. R–6141 (A)) will be allowed only when such treatment was rendered in an emergency. For such adjunct treatment rendered prior to June 7, 1924, no payment or reimbursement will be made for any period over which compensation had not been awarded for the basic service-connected disease or injury. For adjunct treatment rendered subsequent to June 7, 1924, and where claim was filed prior to March 20, 1933, payment or reimbursement therefor may be allowed regardless of the compensability of the beneficiary's basic service-connected disease or injury, but in no case more than one year prior to the date of filing claim under section 210 of the World War Veterans Act, 1924, as amended (Public No. 307, 74th Congress). For adjunct treatment rendered subsequent to March 19, 1933, no payment or reimbursement will be made unless the basic service-connected disease or injury was, at the time of such treatment, causing disability of such degree as to entitle to disability compensation or pension. (May 16, 1938.) (V. R. No. 6 Series.)

R–6145. Statement to support claims.—(A) Nursing services.—To support a claim for unauthorized medical service when a nurse had been employed, a statement will be required from the attending physician showing necessity for such nurse, and whether she was a registered graduate or a so-called "practical nurse". When, for any good reason, it is not practicable to procure such statement, and in the judgment of the physician of the medical and hospital service reviewing the claim, the need for a nurse is sufficiently established, the latter may so certify. Payment for service of a "practical nurse" will be allowed only in the exceptional cases wherein a registered graduate nurse could not be engaged.

(B) Room and board.—Where claim is made for an amount in excess of $3 per diem for room and board, the excess will not be allowed unless there is submitted a statement from the attending physician or superintendent of the hospital concerned that the claimant's condition demanded the use of a private room, for which a fee not in excess of $5 may be allowed. However, this provision will not prohibit approval by the medical director of a fee exceeding $5, in exceptional and meritorious cases.

(C) Visits made outside of a city or town.—All visits made outside of a town or city limits should show the time consumed by the physician in actual travel as required by the fee table in effect at the time such services were rendered.

(D) Prescriptions.—When reimbursement is claimed for prescriptions, copies of the prescriptions must be supplied; or in lieu thereof, when it is impossible to obtain the prescriptions, an itemized statement from the druggist showing the kinds of medicines furnished, may be accepted. All bills for drugs and laboratory services must be fully itemized. No lump sum charges are allowable. (May 16, 1938.) (Public No. 307, 74th Congress, V. R. No. 6 Series.)

R–6146. Schedule of fees to be followed.—In the adjudication of claims for unauthorized medical treatment, the schedule of fees, Veterans' Administration, will govern as to allowance for items. If the schedule of fees in effect at the time the treatment was rendered did not provide a fee for the particular service, the schedule in effect at the time the claim is being considered will be applied. If the particular service is not covered by the schedule in effect, a fee not in excess of what is reasonable and customarily charged in the community concerned, may be allowed. (May 16, 1938.) (Public No. 307, 74th Congress, V. R. No. 6 Series.)

R–6147. Treatment not dependent upon preference of a patient.—No reimbursement or payment of unauthorized medical treatment will be made when procured by a claimant through private sources in preference to available Government facilities (Decisions Comptroller General, Jan. 31, 1924, A. D. 8111, Jan. 28, 1925, A–6594). No payment or reimbursement will be made for any unauthorized medical service (including incident necessary travel) under conditions other than specified in R. & P. R–6140–6148 inclusive. (May 16, 1938.) (Public No. 307, 74th Congress, V. R. No. 6 Series.)

R–6148. Cooperation of field stations.—(A) Guided by the controlling provisions of R. & P., R–6140–6147 inclusive, chief medical officers of regional offices and facilities with regional office activities will advise claimants whether they have or have not prima facie eligibility to reimbursement or payment of unauthorized medical expenses. If the claim is patently inadmissible (e. g., if made for treatment of a nonservice-connected condition, etc.) the claimant will be so advised and the claim will not be forwarded to central office. But if the basic facts indicate prima facie eligibility, the chief medical officer will instruct the claimant as to all the supporting exhibits; and, after these have been checked as satisfactory, they will be assembled and forwarded, with the Form 583, the case file, and recommendation for payment (with comment, if desired), to the medical director.

(B) Upon request therefor by a field station, central office will send sufficient copies of Form 583, Claim for Cost of Unauthorized Medical Treatment. This form will be executed by each creditor who has rendered service for which payment has not been received; or by each person who has paid, from his personal funds, the cost of the unauthorized medical treatment. The signature of the claimant must be attested by a notary public, or any other officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes, and the claim supported by completely itemized bills or statements of account. When a claim is presented by a creditor, it is further required that a statement be supplied, signed by the patient or his representative, certifying to the amounts due and unpaid. (May 16, 1938.) (Public No. 307, 74th Congress, V. R. No. 6 Series.)

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Office of Indian Affairs.

APPLICATION OF LAW AND ORDER REGULATIONS TO TRIBES ORGANIZED UNDER ACT OF JUNE 18, 1934

FEBRUARY 15, 1937.

The Honorable, The SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: Referring to the Law and Order Regulations which were approved by you under date of November 27, 1935, copy herewith, attention is invited to the second sentence of the third paragraph on page one, under the heading, "Application of Regulations," and which reads as follows: "Neither will these regulations apply to any tribe organized under the Act of June 18, 1934, except in so far as specific provisions thereof may be adopted and embodied in the constitution, by-laws, or ordinances of such an organized tribe."

As worded, the regulations now apply to Indian reservations (where Courts of Indian Offenses have been established) up to the time the tribe organizes, after which time they are not applicable to such organized tribe until law and order ordinances have been adopted by the tribe and have become effective. Therefore, at present, there is a hiatus between the time the tribal constitution is approved and the time when the tribal code becomes effective. Some of the tribes which have organized have not yet effectively adopted a Law and Order Code, but the Indian police and judges are attempting to enforce the Department code which is not, according to the code itself, applicable, and this might result in serious complications.

It is therefore recommended that said sentence two of paragraph three of the "Application of Regulations" be amended to read as follows:

These regulations shall continue to apply to tribes organized under the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. L. 984) until a Law and Order code has been adopted by the tribe in accordance with its constitution and by-laws and has become effective.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM ZIMMERMAN, Jr.,
Assistant Commissioner.

Approved and so ordered: February 20, 1937.

CHARLES WEST,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO CROW INDIAN TRIBE AND RESERVATION IN MONTANA

MAY 14, 1937.

MR. ROBERT YELLOWTAIL, Supt., Crow Agency

DEAR MR. YELLOWTAIL: Reference is made to a letter dated October 26 and to one of May 6, 1936 from Chief Special Officer L. C. Mueller, copies of which were furnished you, relative to proposed amendments to the Departmental law and order regulations of November 27, 1935, which were desired by the Crow Indians.

The desired changes were discussed in detail by representatives of the Indian Office with the Crow Indian delegation which was in Washington recently, and have been given very careful consideration. As the result of the conferences held with the Crow delegates, the following amendments to the above mentioned regulations are hereby approved for application to the Crow Indian tribe and reservation in Montana.

Chapter 1, Section 5, Page 3. In the first sentence after the word "Reservation" insert "except the Trial Judge". At the end of sentence change the period to a comma and add: "and such tribunal shall be known as the Crow Tribal Court of Appeals".

Only one judge is now employed at the Crow Reservation. This judge resides at the Crow Agency where court is held when necessary and as occasion requires, he also travels to distant points on the reservation for the purpose of holding court. The present plan is to select and have appointed three additional associate judges to be located as follows:

One at Pryor, Montana 75 miles from Crow Agency, one at Lodge Grass 22 miles from Crow Agency, one at St. Xavier 26 miles from Crow Agency. This will allow an appeal to be taken to three judges, none of whom will be the trial judge in the case under consideration.

Chapter 1, Section 6, Third paragraph. Juries. The first sentence is hereby amended to read as follows: "In any case, a jury shall be drawn from the list of eligible jurors by the judge." The last sentence on Page 3, Section 6, is hereby amended to read as follows: "If the jury is unable to reach an unanimous verdict, the verdict may be rendered by a two-thirds majority vote."

The object of the first amendment is to permit jurymen not resident in the vicinity of the tribe to serve where resident jurymen are likely to be prejudiced. The second amendment relative to the two-thirds rule for jury verdicts is desired by the Indians.

We are not approving the proposed amendment of Chapter 1, Section 6, fifth paragraph, which would raise the fee of a juror from 50 cents per day to $2.00 per day.

Chapter 1, Section 7, Page 4. We are not approving the proposed amendment to raise witness fees from 50 cents per day to $1.50 per day.

Chapter 1, Section 19, Page 7. Definition of Tribal Council. In accordance with the recommendation of the Crow delegation, this section is hereby amended to read as follows:

The term "Tribal Council" as used in these regulations shall be construed to refer to the Crow Tribal Council.

Chapter 2, Section 1, Page 8. Jurisdiction. The first sentence is hereby amended to read as follows: "The Courts of Indian Offenses shall have jurisdiction of all suits wherein the parties to the action are members of the tribe or tribes within their jurisdiction, . ."

The Tribal Council and the Crow delegation desire this change.

Chapter 2, Section 3, Page 9, Third Line. The word, "shall" is hereby changed to the word "may".

This amendment is approved in view of the feeling expressed by the Crow delegation that there is not sufficient latitude in awarding damages if the word "shall" is insisted upon.

Chapter 2, Section 5, Page 9. This section is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:

"No recovery may be had after five years from date of final judgment in any suit unless such judgment shall have been renewed before date of expiration".

Chapter 3, Section 2, Page 10. Strike out all of this section and insert in lieu thereof the following: "The Montana State law shall control all future marriages and divorces among members of the Crow Tribe."

Chapter 3, Section 3, Page 10. Strike out all of this section and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"No future adoptions among or by the Crow Indians shall be recognized except those made in accordance with the Act of March 3, 1931 (46 Stat. 1494)."

Chapter 3, Section 5, Page 11. Strike out all of this section and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"The Superintendent of the Crow Reservation shall have authority to protect, impound or convert into cash, for the benefit of the estate, any personal property which may be left by any decedent who is an enrolled member of the Crow Tribe, pending final determination of the heirs of said decedent by the Secretary of the Interior, and in accordance with existing law and regulations."

Chapter 3, Section 6, Pages 11 and 12. Strike out all of this section and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"The determination of the validity of wills shall be left to the Secretary of the Interior under applicable regulations."

Chapter 4, Section 2, Page 14. The first paragraph of this section is hereby amended to read as follows: "Where sentence has been imposed upon any Indian, the Court of Indian Offenses may in its discretion suspend the sentence imposed and allow the offender his freedom on probation, upon his signing a pledge of good conduct during the period of the sentence."

Chapter 4, Section 4, Page 14. This section is hereby amended by adding the following: "In the absence of either parent or guardian, the court shall appoint a suitable person to represent the delinquent child."

Chapter 5, Section 13, Page 18. The last sentence is hereby amended to read as follows: "For the commission of such offense while under the influence of liquor, the offender may be sentenced for the first offense to labor for a period not to exceed three months and for a second or subsequent offense for a period not to exceed six months and may be deprived of his right to operate any motor vehicle for a period of one year."

Chapter 5, Sections 22 and 23, Page 20. In connection with these sections the tribe and the delegation strongly recommended the insertion of an additional section to be known as No. 22a covering the offense of fornication. The following section is hereby inserted:

"Section 22a. Fornication. Any Indian who shall have sexual intercourse with another person, neither of such persons being married, shall be deemed guilty of fornication and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to labor for a period of not to exceed 25 days."

Chapter 5, Section 25, top of Page 21. This section is hereby amended by the addition of the following words to the last sentence: "or found to be afflicted with any communicable disease".

The purpose of this amendment is to permit the Court of Indian Offenses to compel medical treatment of any person afflicted with any communicable disease, whether or not he has actually communicated that disease to another.

Chapter 5, Section 26, Page 21. This section is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:

"The Court of Indian Offenses shall also have authority to order and compel the payment of all alimony lawfully awarded in any divorce proceeding by any State court having jurisdiction, and non-payment of such awards shall be accepted as conclusive evidence of failure to provide for dependent persons under this section; provided, however, that an appeal may be taken to the Tribal Court of Appeals whose decision shall be final."

Chapter 5, Page 23. The following section, to be numbered 37, is hereby added:

"No complaint shall be filed charging the commission of an offense, as defined under Chapter 5, unless such offense shall have been committed within one year prior to the date of the complaint."

We should like to take this opportunity to say that the amendments recommended by the Tribal Council and discussed with the Crow delegation give evidence of sincere and careful thought on the part of both the Tribal Council and the delegation.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN COLLIER, Commissioner.

Approved, June 2, 1937.

CHARLES WEST,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

LAW AND ORDER REGULATIONS

Application of Regulations

The following regulations relative to Courts of Indian Offenses shall apply to all Indian reservations on which such courts are maintained.

It is the purpose of these regulations to provide adequate machinery of law enforcement for those Indian tribes in which traditional agencies for the enforcement of tribal law and custom have broken down and for which no adequate substitute has been provided under Federal or State law.

No Court of Indian Offenses will be established on reservations where justice is effectively administered under State laws and by State law enforcement agencies. These regulations shall continue to apply to tribes organized under the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stats. L. 984) until a Law and Order code has been adopted by the tribe in accordance with its constitution and by-laws and has become effective. (Circular 3196.)

Chapter 1. Courts of Indian Offenses

SECTION 1. Jurisdiction.—A Court of Indian Offenses shall have jurisdiction over all offenses enumerated in Chapter 5, when committed by any Indian, within the reservation or reservations for which the Court is established.

With respect to any of the offenses enumerated in Chapter 5 over which Federal or State courts may have lawful jurisdiction, the jurisdiction of the Court of Indian Offenses shall be concurrent and not exclusive. It shall be the duty of the said Court of Indian Offenses to order delivery to the proper authorities of the State or Federal Government or of any other tribe or reservation, for prosecution, any offender, there to be dealt with according to law or regulations authorized by law, where such authorities consent to exercise jurisdiction lawfully vested in them over the said offender.

For the purpose of the enforcement of these regulations, an Indian shall be deemed to be any person of Indian descent who is a member of any recognized Indian tribe now under Federal jurisdiction, and a "reservation" shall be taken to include all territory within reservation boundaries, including fee patented lands, roads, waters, bridges, and lands used for agency purposes.

All Indians employed in the Indian Service shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court of Indian Offenses but any such employee appointed by the Secretary of the Interior shall not be subject to any sentence of such Court, unless such sentence shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 2. Appointment of Judges.—A Court of Indian Offenses established for any reservation or group of reservations, shall consist of one or more chief judges, whose duties shall be regular and permanent, and two or more associate judges, who may be called to service when occasion requires, and who shall be compensated on a per diem basis.

Each judge shall be appointed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, subject to confirmation by a two-thirds vote of the Tribal Council.

Each judge shall hold office for a period of four years, unless sooner removed for cause or by reason of the abolition of the said office, but shall be eligible for reappointment.

A person shall be eligible to serve as judge of a Court of Indian Offenses only if he (1) is a member of a tribe under the jurisdiction of the said court; and (2) has never been convicted of a felony, or, within one year then last past, of a misdemeanor.

No judge shall be qualified to act as such in any case wherein he has any direct interest or wherein any relative by marriage or blood, in the first or second degrees, is a party.

SEC. 3. Removal of Judges.—Any Judge of the Court of Indian Offenses may be suspended, dismissed or removed, by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, for cause, upon the recommendation of the Tribal Council.

SEC. 4. Court Procedure.—Sessions of the Court of Indian Offenses for the trial of cases shall be held by the Chief Judge, or, in case of his disability, by one of the associate judges selected for the occasion by all of the judges.

The time and place of court sessions, and all other details of judicial procedure not prescribed by these regulations, shall be laid down in Rules of Court approved by the Tribal Council and by the superintendent of the reservation.

It shall be the duty of the judges of each Court of Indian Offenses to make recommendations to the Tribal Council for the enactment or amendment of such Rules of Court in the interests of improved judicial procedure.

SEC. 5. Appellate Proceedings.—All the judges of the reservation shall sit together, at such times and at such places as they may find proper and necessary for the dispatch of business, to hear appeals from judgments made by any judge at the trial sessions. There shall be established by Rule of Court the limitations, if any, to be placed upon the right of appeal both as to the types of cases which may be appealed and as to the manner in which appeals may be granted, according to the needs of their jurisdiction. In the absence of such Rule of Court any party aggrieved by a judgment may appeal to the full court upon giving notice of such appeal at the time of judgment and upon giving proper assurance to the trial judge, through the posting of a bond or in any other manner, that he will satisfy the judgment if it is affirmed. In any case where a party has perfected his right to appeal as established herein or by Rule of Court, the judgment of the trial judge shall not be executed until after final disposition of the case by the full court. The full court may render judgment upon the case by majority vote.

SEC. 6. Juries.—In any case where, upon preliminary hearing by the court, a substantial question of fact is raised, the defendant may demand a jury trial.

A list of eligible jurors shall be prepared by the Tribal Council each year.

In any case, a jury shall consist of six residents of the vicinity in which the trial is held, selected from the list of eligible jurors by the judge. Any party to the case may challenge not more than three members of the jury panel so chosen.

The judge shall instruct the jury in the law governing the case and the jury shall bring a verdict for the complainant or the defendant. The judge shall render judgment in accordance with the verdict and existing law. If the jury is unable to reach a unanimous verdict, verdict may be rendered by a majority vote.

Each juror who serves upon a jury shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents a day for each day his services are required in court.

SEC. 7. Witnesses.—The several judges of the Courts of Indian Offenses shall have the power to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses either on their own motion or on the request of the Police Commissioner or Superintendent or any of the parties to the case, which subpoena shall bear the signature of the judge issuing it. Each witness answering such subpoena shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents a day for each day his services are required in court. Failure to obey such subpoena shall be deemed an offense as provided in Chapter 5, Sec. 36, of these regulations. Service of such subpoenas shall be by a regularly acting member of the Indian Police or by an Indian appointed by the Court for that purpose.

Witnesses who testify voluntarily shall be paid by the party calling them, if the court so directs, their actual traveling and living expenses incurred in the performance of their function.

SEC. 8. Professional Attorneys.—Professional attorneys shall not appear in any proceeding before the Court of Indian Offenses unless Rules of Court have been adopted as set forth in section 4 of this Chapter prescribing conditions governing their admission and practice before the Court.

SEC. 9. Clerks.—The Superintendent shall detail a clerk of court for each Court of Indian Offenses. The clerk of the Court of Indian Offenses shall render assistance to the Court, to the police force of the reservation and to individual members of the tribe in the drafting of complaints, subpoenas, warrants and commitments and any other documents incidental to the lawful functions of the Court. It shall be the further duty of said clerk to attend and to keep a written record of all proceedings of the court, to administer oaths to witnesses, to collect all fines paid and to pay out all fees authorized by these regulations, and to make an accounting thereof to the disbursing agent of the reservation and to the Tribal Council.

SEC. 10. Records.—Each Court of Indian Offenses shall be required to keep, for inspection by duly qualified officials, a record of all proceedings of the Court, which record shall reflect the title of the case, the names of the parties, the substance of the complaint, the names and addresses of all witnesses, the date of the hearing or trial, by whom conducted, the findings of the Court or jury, and the judgment, together with any other facts or circumstances deemed of importance to the case. A record of all proceedings shall be kept at the agency office, as required by United States Code, Title 25, sec. 200.

SEC. 11. Copies of Laws.—Each Court of Indian Offenses shall be provided with copies of all Federal and State laws and Indian Office regulations applicable to the conduct of Indians within the reservation.

Whenever the Court is in doubt as to the meaning of any law, treaty or regulation it may request the Superintendent to furnish an opinion on the point in question.

SEC. 12. Complaints.—No complaint filed in any Court of Indian Offenses shall be valid unless it shall bear the signature of the complainant or complaining witness, witnessed by a duly qualified Judge of the Court of Indian Offenses or by the Superintendent or by any other qualified employee of such reservation.

SEC. 13. Warrants to Apprehend.—Every Judge of a Court of Indian Offenses shall have the authority to issue Warrants to Apprehend, said warrants to issue in the discretion of the Court only after a written complaint shall have been filed, bearing the signature of the complaining witness. Service of such Warrants shall be made by a duly qualified member of the Indian Police or other police officer of the United States Indian Service. No Warrant to Apprehend shall be valid unless it shall bear the signature of a duly qualified Judge of the Court of Indian Offenses.

SEC. 14. Arrests.—No member of the Indian Police shall arrest any person for any offense defined by these regulations or by Federal law, except when such offense shall occur in the presence of the arresting officer or he shall have reasonable evidence that the person arrested has committed an offense or the officer shall have a warrant commanding him to apprehend such person.

SEC. 15. Search Warrants.—Every Judge of the Court of Indian Offenses of any Indian reservation shall have authority to issue warrants for search and seizure of the premises and property of any person under the jurisdiction of said Court. However, no warrant of Search and Seizure shall issue except upon a duly signed and written complaint based upon reliable information or belief and charging the commission of some offense against the tribe. No warrant for search and seizure shall be valid unless it contains the name or description of the person or property to be searched and describes the articles or property to be seized and bears the signature of a duly qualified Judge of the Court of Indian Offenses. Service of Warrants of Search and Seizure shall be made only by members of the Indian Police or police officers of the United States Indian Service.

No policeman shall search or seize any property without a warrant unless he shall know, or have reasonable cause to believe, that the person in possession of such property is engaged in the commission of an offense under these regulations. Unlawful search or seizure will be deemed trespass and punished in accordance with Chapter 5, Section 15 of these regulations.

SEC. 16. Commitments.—No Indian shall be detained, jailed or imprisoned under these regulations for a longer period than Thirty-Six (36) hours unless there be issued a commitment bearing the signature of a duly qualified Judge of the Court of Indian Offenses. There shall be issued, for each Indian held for trial, a Temporary Commitment and for each Indian held after sentence a Final Commitment on the forms prescribed in these regulations.

SEC. 17. Bail or Bond.—Every Indian charged with an offense before any Court of Indian Offenses may be admitted to bail. Bail shall be by two reliable members of any Indian tribe who shall appear before a Judge of the Court of Indian Offenses where complaint has been filed and there execute an agreement in compliance with the form provided therefor and made a part of these regulations. In no case shall the penalty specified in the agreement exceed twice the maximum penalty set by these regulations for violation of the offense with which the accused is charged.

SEC. 18. Definition of Signature.—The term "signature" as used in these regulations shall be defined as the written signature, official seal, or the witnessed thumb print or mark of any individual.

SEC. 19. Definition of Tribal Council.—The term "Tribal Council," as used in these regulations, shall be construed to refer to the council, business commitee or other organization recognized by the Department of the Interior as representing the tribe, or where no such body is recognized, to the adult members of the tribe in council assembled.

SEC. 20. Relations with the Court.—No field employee of the Indian Service shall obstruct, interfere with or control the functions of any Court of Indian Offenses, or influence such functions in any manner except as permitted by these regulations or in response to a request for advice or information from the Court.

Employees of the Indian Service, particularly those who are engaged in social service, health and educational work, shall assist the Court, upon its request, in the preparation and presentation of the facts in the case and in the proper treatment of individual offenders.

Chapter 2. Civil Actions

SECTION 1. Jurisdiction.—The Courts of Indian Offenses shall have jurisdiction of all suits wherein the defendant is a member of the tribe or tribes within their jurisdiction, and of all other suits between members and nonmembers which are brought before the Courts by stipulation of both parties. No judgment shall be given on any suit unless the defendant has actually received notice of such suit and ample opportunity to appear in court in his defense. Evidence of the receipt of the notice shall be kept as part of the record in the case. In all civil suits the complainant may be required to deposit with the clerk of the Court a fee or other security in a reasonable amount to cover costs and disbursements in the case.

SEC. 2. Law Applicable in Civil Actions.—In all civil cases the Court of Indian Offenses shall apply any laws of the United States that may be applicable, any authorized regulations of the Interior Department, and any ordinances or customs of the tribe, not prohibited by such Federal laws.

Where any doubt arises as to the customs and usages of the tribe the court may request the advice of counsellors familiar with these customs and usages.

Any matters that are not covered by the traditional customs and usages of the tribe, or by applicable Federal laws and regulations, shall be decided by the Court of Indian Offenses according to the laws of the State in which the matter in dispute may lie.

SEC. 3. Judgments in Civil Actions.—In all civil cases, judgment shall consist of an order of the Court awarding money damages to be paid to the injured party, or directing the surrender of certain property to the injured party, or the performance of some other act for the benefit of the injured party.

Where the injury was deliberately inflicted, the judgment shall impose an additional penalty upon the defendant, which additional penalty may run either in favor of the injured party or in favor of the tribe.

Where the injury was inflicted as the result of accident, or where both the complainant and the defendant were at fault, the judgment shall compensate the injured party for a reasonable part of the loss he has suffered.

SEC. 4. Costs in Civil Actions.—The Court may assess the accruing costs of the case against the party or parties against whom judgment is given. Such costs shall consist of the expenses of voluntary witnesses for which either party may be responsible under Section 7 of Chapter 1, and the fees of jurors in those cases where a jury trial is had, and any further incidental expenses connected with the procedure before the Court as the Court may direct.

SEC. 5. Payment of Judgments from Individual Indian Moneys.—Whenever the Court of Indian Offenses shall have ordered payment of money damages to an injured party and the losing party refuses to make such payment within the time set for payment by the Court, and when the losing party has sufficient funds to his credit at the agency office to pay all or part of such judgment, the Superintendent shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior the record of the case and the amount of the available funds. If the Secretary shall so direct, the disbursing agent shall pay over to the injured party the amount of the judgment, or such lesser amount as may be specified by the Secretary, from the account of the delinquent party.

A judgment shall be considered a lawful debt in all proceedings held by the Department of the Interior or by the Court of Indian Offenses to distribute decedents' estates.

Chapter 3. Domestic Relations

SECTION 1. Recording of Marriages and Divorces.—All Indian marriages and divorces, whether consummated in accordance with the State law or in accordance with tribal custom, shall be recorded within three months at the agency of the jurisdiction in which either or both of the parties reside.

SEC. 2. Tribal Custom Marriage and Divorce.—The Tribal Council shall have authority to determine whether Indian Custom Marriage and Indian Custom Divorce for members of the tribe shall be recognized in the future as lawful marriage and divorce upon the reservation, and if it shall be so recognized, to determine what shall constitute such marriage and divorce and whether action by the Court of Indian Offenses shall be required. When so determined in writing, one copy shall be filed with the Court of Indian Offenses, one copy with the Superintendent in charge of the reservation, and one copy with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Thereafter, Indians who desire to become married or divorced by the custom of the tribe shall conform to the custom of the tribe as determined. Indians who assume or claim a divorce by Indian custom shall not be entitled to remarry until they have complied with the determined custom of their tribe nor until they have recorded such divorce at the agency office.

Pending any determination by the Tribal Council on these matters, the validity of Indian custom marriage and divorce shall continue to be recognized as heretofore.

SEC. 3. Tribal Custom Adoption.—The Tribal Council shall likewise have authority to determine whether Indian Custom Adoption shall be permitted upon the reservation among members of the tribe, and if permitted, to determine what shall constitute such adoption and whether action by the Court of Indian Offenses shall be required. The determination of the Tribal Council shall be filed with the Court of Indian Offenses, with the Superintendent of the reservation and with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Thereafter all members of the tribe desiring to adopt any person shall conform to the procedure fixed by the Tribal Council.

SEC. 4. Determination of Paternity and Support.—The Courts of Indian Offenses shall have jurisdiction of all suits brought to determine the paternity of a child and to obtain a judgment for the support of the child. A judgment of the Court establishing the identity of the father of the child shall be conclusive of the fact in all subsequent determinations of inheritance by the Department of the Interior or by the Courts of Indian Offenses.

SEC. 5. Determination of Heirs.—When any member of the tribe dies leaving property other than an allotment or other trust property subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, any member claiming to be an heir of the decedent may bring a suit in the Court of Indian Offenses to have the Court determine the heirs of the decedent and to divide among the heirs such property of the decedent. No determination of heirs shall be made unless all the possible heirs known to the Court, to the Superintendent, and to the claimant have been notified of the suit and given full opportunity to come before the Court and defend their interests. Possible heirs who are not residents of the reservation under the jurisdiction of the Court must be notified by mail and a copy of the notice must be preserved in the record of the case.

In the determination of heirs the Court shall apply the custom of the tribe as to inheritance if such custom is proved. Otherwise the Court shall apply State law in deciding what relatives of the decedent are entitled to be his heirs.

Where the estate of the decedent includes any interest in restricted allotted lands or other property held in trust by the United States, over which the Examiner of Inheritance would have jurisdiction, the Court of Indian Offenses may distribute only such property as does not come under the jurisdiction of the Examiner of Inheritance, and the determination of heirs by the court may be reviewed, on appeal, and the judgment of the court modified or set aside by the said Examiner of Inheritance, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, if law and justice so require.

SEC. 6. Approval of Wills.—When any member of the tribe dies, leaving a will disposing only of property other than an allotment or other trust property subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, the Court of Indian Offenses shall, at the request of any member of the tribe named in the will or any other interested party, determine the validity of the will after giving notice and full opportunity to appear in court to all persons who might be heirs of the decedent, as under Section 5 of this Chapter. A will shall be deemed to be valid if the decedent had a sane mind and understood what he was doing when he made the will and was not subject to any undue influence of any kind from another person, and if the will was made in accordance with a proved tribal custom or made in writing and signed by the decedent in the presence of two witnesses who also sign the will. If the Court determines the will to be validly executed, it shall order the property described in the will to be given to the persons named in the will or to their heirs; but no distribution of property shall be made in violation of a proved tribal custom which restricts the privilege of tribal members to distribute property by will.

Chapter 4. Sentences

SECTION 1. Nature of Sentences.—Any Indian who has been convicted by the Court of Indian Offenses of violation of a provision of the Code of Indian Tribal Offenses shall be sentenced by the Court to work for the benefit of the tribe for any period found by the Court to be appropriate; but the period fixed shall not exceed the maximum period set for the offense in the Code, and shall begin to run from the day of the sentence. During the period of sentence the convicted Indian may be confined in the agency jail if so directed by the Court. The work shall be done under the supervision of the Superintendent or of an authorized agent or committee of the tribal council as the Court may provide.

Whenever any convicted Indian shall be unable or unwilling to work, the Court shall, in its discretion, sentence him to imprisonment for the period of the sentence or to pay a fine equal to $2 a day for the same period. Such fine shall be paid in cash, or in commodities or other personal property of the required value as may be directed by the Court. Upon the request of the convicted Indian, the disbursing agent may approve a disbursement voucher chargeable to the Indian's account to cover payment of the fine imposed by the Court.

In addition to any other sentence, the Court may require an offender who has inflicted injury upon the person or property of any individual to make restitution or to compensate the party injured, through the surrender of property, the payment of money damages, or the performance of any other act for the benefit of the injured party.

In determining the character and duration of the sentence which shall be imposed, the Court shall take into consideration the previous conduct of the defendant, the circumstances under which the offense was committed, and whether the offense was malicious or willful and whether the offender has attempted to make amends, and shall give due consideration to the extent of the defendant's resources and the needs of his dependents. The penalties listed in Chapter 5 of these regulations are maximum penalties to be inflicted only in extreme cases.

SEC. 2. Probation.—Where sentence has been imposed upon any Indian who has not previously been convicted of any offense, the Court of Indian Offenses may in its discretion suspend the sentence imposed and allow the offender his freedom on probation, upon his signing a pledge of good conduct during the period of the sentence upon the form provided therefor and made a part of these regulations.

Any Indian who shall violate his probation pledge shall be required to serve the original sentence plus an additional half of such sentence as penalty for the violation of his pledge.

SEC. 3. Parole.—Any Indian committed by a Court of Indian Offenses who shall have without misconduct served one half the sentence imposed by such Court shall be eligible to parole. Parole shall be granted only by a Judge of the Court of Indian Offenses where the prisoner was convicted and upon the signing of the form provided therefor and made a part of these regulations.

Any Indian who shall violate any of the provisions of such parole shall be punished by being required to serve the whole of the original sentence.

SEC. 4. Juvenile Delinquency.—Whenever any Indian who is under the age of 18 years is accused of committing one of the offenses enumerated in the Code of Indian Offenses, the judge may in his discretion hear and determine the case in private and in an informal manner, and, if the accused is found to be guilty, may in lieu of sentence place such delinquent for a designated period under the supervision of a responsible person selected by him or may take such other action as he may deem advisable in the circumstances.

SEC. 5. Deposit and Disposition of Fines.—All money fines imposed for the commission of an offense shall be in the nature of an assessment for the payment of designated court expenses. Such expenses shall include the payment of the fees provided for in these regulations to jurors and to witnesses answering a subpoena. The fines assessed shall be paid over by the Clerk of the Court to the disbursing agent of the reservation for deposit as a "special deposit, court funds" to the disbursing agent's official credit in the Treasury of the United States. The disbursing agent shall withdraw such funds, in accordance with existing regulations, upon the order of the Clerk of the Court signed by a judge of the Court, for the payment of specified fees to specified jurors or witnesses. The disbursing agent and the Clerk of the Court shall keep an accounting of all such deposits and withdrawals for the inspection of any person interested. Whenever such fund shall exceed the amount necessary with a reasonable reserve for the payment of the court expenses before mentioned, the Tribal Council shall designate, with the approval of the Superintendent, further expenses of the work of the Court which shall be paid by these funds, such as the writing of records, the costs of notices or the increase of fees, whether or not any such costs were previously paid from other sources.

Wherever a fine is paid in commodities, the commodities shall be turned over under the supervision of the Clerk of the Court to the custody of the Superintendent to be sold or, if the Tribal Council so directs, to be disposed of in other ways for the benefit of the tribe. The proceeds of any sale of such commodities shall be deposited by the disbursing agent in the special deposit for court funds and recorded upon the accounts.

ORDER REGULATING HANDLING IN INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS, OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE OF CANTALOUPES, HONEYBALL AND HONEYDEW MELONS GROWN IN IMPERIAL COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, AND YUMA COUNTY, ARIZONA

Whereas, it is provided in Public No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, approved June 3, 1937[1] (hereinafter called the act), as follows:

SEC. 8c. (1) The Secretary of Agriculture shall, subject to the provisions of this section, issue, and from time to time amend, orders applicable to processors, associations of producers, and others engaged in the handling of any agricultural commodity or product thereof specified in subsection (2) of this section. Such persons are referred to in this title as "handlers." Such orders shall regulate, in the manner hereinafter in this section provided, only such handling of such agricultural commodity, or product thereof, as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects, interstate or foreign commerce in such commodity or product thereof.

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture, having reason to believe that the issuance of an order would tend to establish and maintain such marketing conditions for cantaloupes, grown in Imperial County, California, and Yuma County, Arizona, as would establish prices to growers at a level that will give such cantaloupes a purchasing power with respect to articles that farmers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such cantaloupes in the base period, did, pursuant to the provisions of the act and regulations thereunder, on the fourteenth day of April, 1938, give notice of a hearing to be held in El Centro, California, on April 22, 1938, on a proposed order regulating the handling of cantaloupes grown in Imperial County, California, and Yuma County, Arizona, and did, upon said date and at said place, conduct a public hearing thereon, and did give opportunity to all interested parties to be heard concerning the said proposed order; and

Whereas, the Secretary has found and proclaimed that the purchasing power of cantaloupes, honeyball and honeydew melons grown in Imperial County, California, and Yuma County, Arizona, during the period August, 1909–July, 1914, cannot be satisfactorily determined from the available statistics of the Department of Agriculture, but that the purchasing power of such commodity can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period August, 1919–July, 1929, and the period August, 1919–July, 1929, is the base period to be used in connection with this order in determining the purchasing power of such commodity; and

Whereas, the Secretary further finds upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

(1) That at the time of the hearing the prices received by the growers of such cantaloupes, honeyball and honeydew melons were at a level that gave such melons a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy appreciably below the purchasing power of such melons during the base period;

(2) That, in the past, lack of regulation of shipments of cantaloupes, honeyball and honeydew melons produced in Imperial County, California, and Yuma County, Arizona, was an important factor contributing to unstable marketing conditions for said melons and consequently depressed prices to growers;

(3) That the regulation of shipments by sizes of the melons covered by this order, as prescribed herein, will serve to prevent fluctuations of prices to growers, particularly prices which are so low as to represent losses to growers, and thereby establish and maintain a more stable market for said melons, tending to restore prices to growers of said melons to a level that will have a purchasing power with respect to articles that farmers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of said melons in said base period;

(4) That this order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area and to the smallest regional marketing area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and that the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of such regional production and marketing areas would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act; and

(5) That this order and all the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to melons grown in the said area by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will establish prices to producers thereof at a level that will give such melons a purchasing power with respect to articles that such producers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such melons in the base period and by protecting the interest of the consumer by (a) approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and by (b) authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the level which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture further finds:

(1) That the pro rata contribution of handlers to the expenses of the administrative agency herein created, based upon the quantity of melons shipped, as provided in this order, is fair and equitable;

(2) That the marketing agreement regulating the handling of cantaloupes, honeyball and honeydew melons grown in Imperial County, California, and Yuma County, Arizona, executed by him on May 17, 1938, and upon which a public hearing was held on April 22, 1938, was signed by handlers who handled more than fifty percent of such commodity produced during the period August 1, 1936–July 31, 1937; and

(3) That this order regulates the handling of said melons in the same manner as the said marketing agreement does, and is made applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified in the aforesaid marketing agreement; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture finds and determines that the issuance of this order is favored by producers, who, during the marketing season of 1937, which the Secretary determines to be a representative period, produced for market at least two-thirds of the volume of such commodity produced for market within the production area specified in such order;

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the authority vested in him as aforesaid, that the handling of cantaloupes, honeyball and honeydew melons grown in Imperial County, California, and Yuma County, Arizona, in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or so as directly to burden, obstruct or affect interstate or foreign commerce in such melons, from and after the date herein specified shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of this order.

Imperial County or Yuma County shipping points, in which event and at that time, the Control Committee shall forthwith recommend to the Secretary regulation of the sizes of such melons as provided in section 1 of this article.

(a) In making recommendations for the regulation of shipments by sizes of honeydew melons, the Control Committee shall recommend the regulation of the following groups of sizes in the following order. (3) Other sizes as recommended by the Control Committee.

6. Cantaloupes, honeydews and the various varieties of honeyball melons shall be regulated separately as herein provided, upon the facts relating to each without reference to whether regulation is being had or the extent of regulation of the other types of melons.

7. Upon the recommendation of the Control Committee, the shipment of one size of cantaloupes, honeydews or the various varieties of honeyballs may be entirely eliminated or prohibited before any control is begun on any other size to be regulated.

8. The Control Committee shall determine and recommend to the Secretary the length of the regulation period for which each recommendation made by it is to apply, which period shall not be shorter than twenty-four (24) hours, or longer than seven (7) days and the Control Committee may recommend to the Secretary that the amount of such regulated sizes which may be shipped daily during any period shall not be greater than a stated maximum percentage of each handler's total daily shipments, and, if the period be longer than twenty-four (24) hours, may also recommend that the Secretary fix the range below the maximum percentage established by the Secretary within which the Control Committee may, from time to time, during said period fix the amount of regulated sizes of each handler's total daily shipment which may be shipped. In such case the determination of the Control Committee shall be subject to such modification or revision by the Secretary as he may deem proper.

9. In the event a recommendation is made to the Secretary, the Control Committee shall furnish to the Secretary the information and facts upon which such recommendation is made, including, but not being limited to, information with respect to the factors affecting the supply of and demand for sizes of cantaloupes, honeyballs by varieties, or honeydew melons; and the Control Committee shall furnish the Secretary such other additional information as may be requested.

SEC. 2. Regulation of shipments.—1. Based upon the recommendations and information submitted by the Control Committee pursuant to the provisions of section 1 of this article, or based upon other information, the Secretary, if he determines that such regulation of the flow of shipments of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons, in the current of interstate or foreign commerce during such regulation period will tend to effectuate the declared policies of the Act, may establish a regulation period, including the time of commencement and termination thereof, during which time a limitation is placed upon the total shipments of any size or sizes of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons, which may be shipped during any such period.

2. Such regulation of shipments by sizes of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons may be accomplished by (a) prohibiting the shipment of certain sizes during said period, or (b) by prohibiting the shipment of a part of any size. When the Secretary has determined to regulate shipments as provided in this article, he shall immediately notify the Control Committee of such determination; and the Control Committee shall immediately notify growers and handlers of such determination by giving notice in such manner as the Control Committee shall deem adequate under the circumstances.

3. No handler shall ship any cantaloupes, or honeyball or honeydew melons, in violation of the regulations of shipments established pursuant to the provisions of this order.

SEC. 3. Exemptions.—1. In the event of a regulation period established pursuant to this order, the Control Committee shall determine the percentage which the sizes of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons, permitted to be shipped bears to the total crop of such melons which could be shipped in the absence of regulation. The Control Committee shall announce forthwith this percentage and the procedure by which exemption certificates may be issued to growers or handlers pursuant to this section.

2. If any grower or handler shall present proof to the Control Committee that the regulation of shipments by sizes as aforesaid will allow him to ship during the specified period a percentage of his cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons less than the percentage found in accordance with paragraph 1 in this section, such Control Committee shall issue to him an exemption certificate allowing the shipment of such quantity of the limited sizes as will make the percentage of his crop that may be shipped equal to the percentage found in accordance with paragraph 1 of this section: Provided, however, The Secretary shall have the power to authorize, disapprove or cancel the issuance of exemption certificates, and the Secretary may otherwise modify any action of the Control Committee pursuant to the provisions of this section. Any decision made by the Secretary, pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be final and conclusive.

SEC. 4. Checking shipments.—1. The Control Committee shall provide a means for checking all shipments of cantaloupes, honeyball, or honeydew melons, in interstate or foreign commerce in order to establish compliance or lack of compliance with the regulation of sizes herein provided for. This checking may be performed in such manner and to such extent as shall be determined by the Control Committee: Provided, however, That whenever there appears to be indications of violations of the regulations issued by the Secretary on the part of any handler, the Control Committee shall obtain Federal-State or other shipping point or terminal market inspection certificates containing a record of the sizes of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons in each car, for such handler.

2. Each handler shall, by 12 o'clock noon of the day following any shipment of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons, in interstate or foreign commerce, during the life of this order furnish to the Control Committee, a true and correct manifest by sizes and crates of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons, of each carload if shipped by rail, or a true and correct report of the sizes of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons of each load if shipped by truck. Such copies of such manifests of rail shipments and the report of truck shipments shall be sent daily to the office of the Control Committee including a true and correct statement showing all cars loaded for shipment, specifying cash sale prices and listing all unsold and rolling cars.

ARTICLE IV—EXEMPTIONS

SECTION 1. Shipments for charity or for by-products.—Nothing contained in this order shall be construed to authorize a limitation of the right to ship cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons for canning, freezing, conversion into by-products, or for charitable or unemployment relief purposes.

SEC. 2. Export shipments.—Cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons exported to foreign countries, not including Canada and Mexico, shall not be subject to regulation, pursuant to the provisions of article III hereof.

ARTICLE V—ASSESSMENTS

SECTION 1. Expenses and assessments.—1. The Control Committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds may be necessary to carry out the functions of the Control Committee under this order. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying of assessments as hereinafter provided.

2. Each handler shall pay to the Control Committee upon demand such handler's pro rata share, as is approved by the Secretary, of the expenses which the Secretary finds will be necessarily incurred by the Control Committee in the carrying out of its duties hereunder. Each handler's pro rata share of such expenses, as aforesaid, shall be that proportion thereof which the total quantity of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons shipped by such handler, during the term of this order, in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, is of the total quantity of such cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons shipped by all handlers in the current of interstate or foreign commerce during the same time. Said assessment may be adjusted from time to time by the Control Committee with the approval of the Secretary in order to cover any later findings by the Secretary of estimated expenses or the actual expenses of the Control Committee during the term of this order. The assessment of each handler shall be due and payable at such time and in such installments, if any, as the Control Committee, with the approval of the Secretary, shall determine.

3. Every handler shall pay, in the manner and at the time provided in paragraph 2 of this section, $2.00 for each straight carload of cantaloupes, honeyball or honeydew melons, and $2.00 for each 20,000 pounds of such melons shipped in mixed cars or by truck, shipped by such handler during the term hereof; Provided, however, That if the Secretary shall find at any time during the term of this order, that the rate of assessment fixed by this paragraph will result in the collection of a sum greater or smaller than the expense that will necessarily be incurred by the Control Committee, he shall increase or decrease such rate of assessment for the balance of the term so that the funds received from the collection of such assessment will more nearly equal such expenses.

4. At the termination of this order the Control Committee shall credit each contributing handler with the excess of the amount paid by such handler above such handler's pro rata share of the expenses or debit such handler with the difference between its pro rata share and the amount paid by such handler. Any such debits shall become due and payable upon the demand of the Control Committee.

5. From funds acquired pursuant to this article, the Control Committee shall pay the salaries of its employees, if any, and pay the expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of the duties of the Control Committee.

ARTICLE VI—REPORTS

SECTION 1. Information to Secretary.—Each handler shall furnish, from time to time, upon request from the Secretary, such information as may be necessary to enable the Secretary to ascertain and determine the extent to which this order has been carried out and the purposes of this order have been effectuated, and, also, such other information as may be necessary to determine whether or not there has been abuse of the privilege of exemption from the Antitrust laws. Such information shall be furnished in accordance with such forms as may be prescribed by the Secretary.

SEC. 2. Reports.—1. Upon the request of the Control Committee each handler shall furnish to the Control Committee in such manner and at such times as it may prescribe such information as will enable it to perform its powers and duties under this order.

2. The Control Committee shall not reveal any information or reports to persons other than the Secretary. If any confidential employee discloses information or reports except as aforesaid, he shall be subject to immediate removal by the Secretary.

ARTICLE VII—LIABILITY TO COMMITTEE MEMBERS

SECTION 1. Liability.—No member of the Control Committee or any employee of the Control Committee shall be held responsible individually, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member or employees, except for acts of dishonesty. The liabilities of the handlers hereunder are several and not joint and no handler shall be liable for the default of any other handler.

ARTICLE VIII—SEPARABILITY

SECTION 1. Separability.—If any provision of this order is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this order and the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance or thing, shall not be affected thereby.

ARTICLE IX—DEROGATION

SECTION 1. Derogation.—Nothing contained in this order is or shall be construed to be in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (1) to exercise any powers granted by the Act or otherwise, or (2) in accordance with such powers to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

ARTICLE X—AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1. Proposals.—Amendments to this order may, from time to time, be proposed by any party subject hereto or by the Control Committee.

ARTICLE XI—DURATION OF IMMUNITIES

SECTION 1. Duration of immunities.—The benefits, privileges and immunities conferred by virtue of this order shall cease upon its termination except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this order, and benefits, privileges and immunities conferred by this order upon any party subject hereto shall cease, upon its termination, as to such party except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this order.

ARTICLE XII—AGENTS

SECTION 1. Agents.—The Secretary may by a designation in writing name any person, including any officer or employee of the Government, or any Bureau or Division in the Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this order.

ARTICLE XIII—EFFECTIVE TIME AND TERMINATION

SECTION 1. Effective time.—This order shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature attached hereto, and shall, unless terminated as hereinafter provided, continue in force until midnight of July 31, 1938.

SEC. 2. Termination.—1. The Secretary may at any time suspend this order or any provision thereof.

2. The Secretary may at any time terminate this order.

3. The Secretary shall terminate this order whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the growers of such cantaloupes, honeyball and honeydew melons, who, during the present season, have been engaged in the production of such cantaloupes, honeyball and honeydew melons, in the area covered by this order: Provided, however, That such majority have, during such period produced more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of such cantaloupes, honeyball and honeydew melons produced within the area.

4. This order shall terminate whenever the provisions of the Act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

SEC. 3. Proceedings after termination.—1. Upon the termination of this order, the members of the Control Committee then functioning shall continue as joint trustees for the purpose of liquidating this order, of all funds and property then in the possession or under the control of the Control Committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Said trustees (a) shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; (b) shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements or deliver all funds and property on hand, together with all books and records of the Control Committee and the joint trustees, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and (c) shall, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds and claims vested in the Control Committee or the joint trustees pursuant to this order; and (d) shall refund to each contributing handler the excess of the amount paid by such handler above his pro rata share of expenses, or debit each handler with the difference between his pro rata share and the amount paid by any handler, if such amount is less than his pro rata share. Any such debit shall become due and payable upon the demand of said trustees. Nothing stated herein shall be deemed to preclude the bringing of a suit for assessments levied by the Control Committee at any time prior to the termination of this order.

2. Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been delivered by the Control Committee or its members upon direction of the Secretary, as herein provided, shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to said funds, property, or claims as are hereinabove imposed upon the members of said Committee or upon said joint trustees.

In witness whereof, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby execute in duplicate and issue this order in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on the 17th day of May 1938, and declare this order to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., Pacific standard time, May 20, 1938.

1. No vessel shall exceed a speed of 10 miles per hour in Sandusky Harbor.

2. No vessel shall cross the edges of the channel without reducing its speed sufficiently to avoid displacement of said edges. Vessels crossing said channel shall keep out of the way of vessels navigating the channel.

3. No vessel shall while moored or at anchor, or by slow passage or otherwise while underway, unreasonably obstruct the free passage and progress of other vessels.

4. No vessel shall moor or anchor to any structure of the United States without the consent of the District Engineer, U. S. Army, in charge of the locality, or his authorized agent.

5. No vessel shall moor or anchor in or along any improved channel or basin in such manner as to interfere with improvement or maintenance operations therein. REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE USE, ADMINISTRATION AND NAVIGATION OF THE HARBOR AND UNITED STATES BREAKWATER IN THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER AT CAPE VINCENT, NEW YORK

THE LAW

Section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917, provides as follows:

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law the following regulations are prescribed to govern the use, administration and navigation of the harbor and United States breakwater in the St. Lawrence River at Cape Vincent, New York:

Administration

1. The term "harbor" when used in these regulations, applies to all that portion of the St. Lawrence River lying within the following boundaries: Beginning at a point on the harbor face of the breakwater at its easterly end and extending in a straight line along the harbor face of the main part of the breakwater and in extension thereof westerly approximately 2400 feet; thence at right angles to the above-described line southerly to the northeast corner of the "L" dock at the foot of Market Street, approximately 300 feet; thence easterly along the dock face and shore line to a point in a line at right angles to the breakwater at its easterly end; and thence along this last described right angle line to the point of beginning.

2. The navigation of said harbor and the use of said breakwater shall be under the direction of the District Engineer, Engineer Department at Large, in charge of the locality, or his authorized agent.

Use and Navigation

3. Vessels shall not exceed a speed of 8 miles per hour in the harbor.

4. Vessels shall observe the following rules in mooring to the breakwater: The first self-propelled vessel stopping at the harbor for shelter will proceed to the upstream end of the breakwater and moor along either side of it. All similar vessels entering later will place themselves in a compact position close to those preceding them. Passenger vessels will, in general, have preference as to location of moorage. Sailing craft will so locate themselves that they will not lie in the way of other vessels entering the harbor. All vessels of every description will place themselves so as not to interfere with any work of reconstruction or repair that may be in progress at the time.

5. The use of chains in making fast to the breakwater is prohibited. Lines must be attached to the snubbing posts only, and outboard anchors taken in.

6. Vessels with other craft in tow will, if practicable, at once moor them compactly along the breakwater, either taking in the tow lines or placing the slack in them upon the breakwater in such a manner as not to interfere with other vessels. If necessary to moor alongside of other vessels moored to the breakwater, the tow lines shall be taken in or disposed of in such a manner as not to interfere with the departure of vessels moored between them and the breakwater.

7. Vessels of every description mooring to the breakwater, must place suitable fenders between themselves and the breakwater to protect the timber walings on the breakwater from damage.

8. The unloading of freight of any class upon the breakwater is expressly prohibited, except in accordance with special permission from the said district engineer or his representative.

9. Each and every vessel made fast to the breakwater, or anchored in the harbor without a line made fast to the shore or shore dock, must have at least one experienced person upon it during the entire time said vessel is thus moored in the harbor.

10. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof and shall supersede the regulations for St. Lawrence River (Harbor), Cape Vincent, N. Y., prescribed April 16, 1929 (E. D. 2516 (Cape Vincent Harbor, N. Y.)—2/8).

Approved, May 6, 1938.

AMENDMENT OF ORDER TO PREVENT THE INTRODUCTION INTO THE UNITED STATES OF RINDERPEST AND FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

MAY 18, 1938.

Under authority conferred by law upon the Secretary of Agriculture by Section 306 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (46 Stat. 590–689), the order to prevent the introduction into the United States of rinderpest and foot-and-mouth disease (B. NOTICE

MAY 17, 1938.

TO W. W. CHRONISTER, O. B. CHRONISTER, KATHLEEN CHRONISTER, R. B. HENRY, J. G. HENRY, AND J. M. HENRY, DOING BUSINESS AS LITTLE ROCK STOCK YARDS COMMISSION COMPANY, NORTH LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

Whereas, Section 301 of Title III of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate and foreign commerce in livestock, livestock products, dairy products, poultry, poultry products, and eggs, and for other purposes", approved August 15, 1921, provides in part that, when used in said Act, the term "stockyard owner" means any person engaged in the business of conducting or operating a stockyard; and Section 302 of said Act provides as follows:

(a) When used in this title the term "stockyard" means any place, establishment, or facility commonly known as stockyards, conducted or operated for compensation or profit as a public market, consisting of pens, or other inclosures, and their appurtenances, in which live cattle, sheep, swine, horses, mules, or goats are received, held, or kept for sale or shipment in commerce. This title shall not apply to a stockyard of which the area normally available for handling livestock, exclusive of runs, alleys, or passage ways, is less than twenty thousand square feet.

(b) The Secretary shall from time to time ascertain, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, the stockyards which come within the foregoing definition, and shall give notice thereof to the stockyard owners concerned, and give public notice thereof by posting copies of such notice in the stockyard, and in such other manner as he may determine. After the giving of such notice to the stockyard owner and to the public, the stockyard shall remain subject to the provisions of this title until like notice is given by the Secretary that such stockyard no longer comes within the foregoing definition:

And, whereas the Little Rock Stock Yards Commission Company, at North Little Rock, Arkansas, was posted on the 5th day of March, 1937, as coming within the foregoing definition;

And, whereas after an inquiry it has been ascertained by me as Secretary of Agriculture of the United States that the Little Rock Stock Yards Commission Company is no longer operated as a public stockyard subject to the provisions of said Act:

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the Little Rock Stock Yards Commission Company, at North Little Rock, Arkansas, no longer comes within the foregoing definition and the provisions of Title III of said Act.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE MARKING OF WRECKS FOR THE PROTECTION OF NAVIGATION

By virtue of and pursuant to authority vested in me by section 10 of the Act of June 17, 1910 (36 Stat. 538) I hereby prescribe the following regulations governing the procedure in the marking of wrecked and sunken craft pursuant to Section 1 of the Act of August 16, 1937 (50 Stat., 666), entitled "An Act to provide more effectively for the marking of wrecked and sunken craft for the protection of navigation; to improve the efficiency of the Lighthouse Service, and for other purposes":

In the event that the owner of a wrecked or sunken craft, as defined in section 1 of the cited Act of August 16, 1937, shall fail to immediately mark the same, the Superintendent of Lighthouses of the district in which the wreck is located shall in his discretion proceed to have the wreck marked as the safety of navigation may require, notifying the owner of the wrecked craft or his representative of such action. Notice may be addressed to the owner at his usual or last known address or place of business. The cost of such marking will be charged to the owner of the wrecked craft, as provided in the law, and said charges shall continue until affirmative notice is received from the owner or his representative that the wreck is abandoned, unless abandonment is otherwise determined by the United States Engineers, pursuant to section 19 of the Act of March 3, 1899 (30 Stat., 1154). Notice of abandonment shall be addressed to the United States Engineer of the district in which the wreck is located, with a copy to the Superintendent of Lighthouses.

In case a wrecked or sunken craft is marked by the owner, the Superintendent of Lighthouses shall in his discretion determine if such marking is suitable for the purpose and conditions; and if he determines that it is not suitable, he shall proceed to have it suitably marked, at the expense of the owner, in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

Charges for services rendered by the Lighthouse Service in marking of wrecked or sunken craft for private owners shall be invoiced in accordance with the following schedules:

Gas and other supplies furnished, and labor performed in overhauling, repairing, cleaning, painting, etc., of apparatus, at cost to the Service.

Use of buoys and appendages at following rates of depreciation per annum:

Iron buoys (including lighting apparatus), 5% of invoice value.
Wooden buoys, 20% of invoice value.
Mooring chain, 20% of invoice value.
Sinkers, 10% of invoice value.
Swivels, 33⅓% of invoice value.
Key Shackles, 100% of invoice value.

If any equipment is lost or destroyed while being used to mark a wreck, the full invoiced cost, less depreciation, will be chargeable to the owner.

Services of lighthouse tenders per working day to be at 1/280 of the annual cost of operation and maintenance of the vessel as determined by cost records for the preceding fiscal year. For less than a full working day, charge per hour will be ⅛ of daily cost. Overhead of 20% to be added to bill computed as above.

Acting Commissioner of Lighthouses.

Office of Indian Affairs.

AMENDMENT OF RIGHT OF WAY REGULATIONS

APRIL 7, 1938.

The regulations of the Department of the Interior concerning rights of way over Indian lands, approved May 22, 1928, are hereby amended as follows:

Change Sections 30 to 39, inclusive, to read:

30. Applications for oil or gas pipe-line rights of way and pumping station or tank sites, should be made to the Secretary of the Interior under the Act of March 11, 1904, as amended by that of March 2, 1917 (33 Stat. L., 65; 39 Stat. L., 973; 25 U. S. C., 321).

31. The Superintendent is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to grant temporary permission for the construction of oil or gas pipe lines, provided the applicant has deposited with him twice the amount of the estimated damages and files a written agreement to comply promptly with the applicable laws and regulations. A copy of each such permit should be promptly forwarded to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, to be filed with the record in the case. Deposits made hereunder shall be carried as "Special Deposits" until the receipt of instructions as to disposal.

32. The size of the proposed pipe line must be shown in the application; on the map; and in the engineer's affidavit and the president's certificate (Forms 3 and 4). The application and map should also specify whether the pipe is welded, screw-joint, dresser, or other type of coupling.

33. Where additional right of way is desired for pumping stations or tank sites, application therefor should be made in like manner, accompanied by maps showing the right of way, with connecting line to the main pipe line. Application for such additional right of way may be either submitted separately or incorporated in that for the main line, and, in addition to the other papers specified by these regulations, it must be accompanied by a properly executed stipulation, embodying the following provisions:

(a) To lay all connecting pipes at a sufficient depth below the surface as not to interfere with the cultivation of the land. Upon abandonment of the premises to level all dikes, fireguards, and excavations and to remove all concrete masonry foundations, bases, and structural works so that the ground will be as nearly as practicable in the same condition as before its use for the pump station or tank site.

(b) The use of the surface for such purposes shall not interfere with the allottee's right to remove any oil or gas deposits, and the pump station or tank site grant shall always be subservient to an oil or gas lease on the land.

(c) The structures shall be erected in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and subject to inspection and approval by his representative after completion.

34. Damages shall be assessed in each case so as fully to compensate the Indians, and schedules submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for approval in accordance with Sections 71–84 hereof. When any subsequent damage is done by reason of the bursting of a pipe or tank or by the entry of the pipe-line or tank owner or any of his employees upon the land, they shall be assessed and paid in like manner. Prior to approval of the right of way, the applicant must submit a written agreement to pay any such latter damages within ten days after demand therefor, upon penalty of forfeiture of the grant.

35. All pipe lines shall be buried a sufficient depth under the surface as not to interfere with the cultivation of the land above, and at the risk of the company. Should it be desired at any time to lay additional lines of pipe in the same trench, or to replace the original line by larger or smaller pipe, permission therefor must be first obtained from the Secretary of the Interior and payment made of any damages sustained by the Indian owners, in the same manner as for the original line. Any right of way granted hereunder is subject to the right of the full use and enjoyment of the premises by the tribe, allottee, or occupant, except as otherwise provided by law or these regulations.

36. Any applicant obtaining a right of way for an oil or gas pipe line hereunder does so with the understanding that he waives all claims for damages of whatever nature to any of the pipes or lines arising from the cultivation of the surface in the usual manner.

37. Where a pipe or pipe line is laid under a traveled road or highway, its construction shall be in compliance with the applicable State laws; during the work at least one-half the width of the road must be kept open to travel; and, upon completion, the highway shall be restored to its original condition, any excavation to be refilled whenever, by settling or other causes, the necessity therefor may arise.

38. Whenever any such pipe crosses a ravine, canyon, or waterway, it may be laid either below the bed thereof or upon such a superstructure as will not interfere with the use of the surface.

39. Where any pipe line constructed hereunder is not subject to State taxation, the company shall pay to the Secretary of the Interior, for the use and benefit of the Indians, an annual tax, not exceeding $5.00 for each ten miles of line, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. But nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to exempt the owner of such a line from the payment of any tax lawfully imposed upon him by either State or municipal authority, nor to deny to any incorporated city or town into or through which the line may extend, the right to regulate the manner of construction.

Add three new sections—

39¼. In accordance with the Acts cited, lateral lines connecting with oil or gas wells on individual allotments may be constructed without securing authority from the Secretary of the Interior, when the consent of the Indian owners has been obtained and satisfactory evidence thereof filed with the Superintendent. Such lateral lines may be of any diameter or length, but must be limited to those used solely for the transportation of oil or gas from a single restricted allotment to another lateral or to a branch of the main line. The owner of the line may either independently undertake to obtain the consent of the Indian owners or negotiate therefor through the Superintendent, as preferred. The consent of the allottee for the construction of a lateral must be executed in triplicate, with a blue print copy of map showing the line attached; and should be specifically limited to twenty years. The original should be given to the company and the duplicate to the allottee, and the triplicate filed at the agency.

39½. The Acts cited in Section 30 limit oil and gas pipe line rights of way thereunder to a period of not to exceed twenty years, with the proviso that the Secretary of the Interior may grant an extension for a like term. If such an extension is desired for either a main line or a lateral, application therefor, accompanied by the necessary maps, etc., should be filed at the local agency at least sixty days before the original grant expires. The Superintendent will assess and collect adequate damages, which should not be less than 25¢ per rod, and forward a schedule thereof to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, with the application, the consent of the allottees, and his recommendation in the premises. The Superintendent should keep a record of expirations, in order to see that applications for desired extensions are submitted within the 60-day period.

39¾. The books and records of pipe-line operators shall be open to the inspection of the Secretary of the Interior, or his duly accredited representatives at all reasonable times, in order to obtain information which pertains in any way to oil produced or run from lands under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior.

Change Section 43 to read—

43. Applications covering power projects affecting allotted Indian lands should be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior and filed in the local land office under the Act of February 15, 1901 (31 Stat., 790; 43 U. S. C., 959), or that of March 4, 1911 (36 Stat., 1253; 43 U. S. C., 961), and handled administratively as in the case of telephone and telegraph lines (See Sections 41 and 42 hereof).

43¼. Those projects which affect tribal Indian lands should be handled in the same manner except where the power is generated by hydroplants, for which a separate application must be filed with the Federal Power Commission under the Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat., 1063; 16 U. S. C., 776), as amended by Sections 201 to 213, inclusive, of the Act of August 26, 1935 (49 Stat., 838–847; 16 U. S. C., 791–825), and regulations issued by the Commission pursuant thereto.

43½. The consent of any tribe organized under the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat., 984), is required by Section 10 (e) of the Federal Power Act of August 26, 1935 (49 Stat., 983; 16 U. S. C., 803), before a license can be issued covering water-power project on tribal lands.

Add a new section after Section 52 to be headed "Highways in Territory of Five Civilized Tribes"—

52½. The Acts cited below authorize section-line highways of the prescribed widths in the territory of the Five Civilized Tribes, Oklahoma, as follows:

Nation	Width (rods)	Act	Reference
Creek	3	Sec. 10, June 30, 1902	32 Stat., 502.
Cherokee	2	Sec. 37, July 1, 1902	32 Stat., 722.
Choctaw, Chickasaw, Seminole	2	Sec. 24, Apr. 26, 1906	34 Stat., 145.

In such cases it is only necessary for the State or county to file with the Secretary of the Interior a map, drawn on tracing cloth, with two blue print copies, showing the location of the road. Wider section-line highways and those off the line, regardless of width, will be handled through the medium of easement deeds executed by the allottees or their heirs and approved by the Secretary of the Interior. Deeds of minors should be executed by the legal guardian in each case, and have attached thereto copies of the guardian's appointment and of the order of the court specifically authorizing him to execute the deed subject to approval by the Secretary of the Interior. Upon receipt of the approved deed, the Superintendent should have attached thereto before delivery a copy of the Court's order confirming the sale, and send a copy of the order to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Add a new section after Section 55 to be headed "Highways in Roadless and Wild Areas"—

55½. Whenever a public highway right of way is desired within any of the roadless or wild areas on Indian reservations established by the order of the Secretary of the Interior dated October 29, 1937, the application must contain a specific statement to this effect, with a full justification therefor; the accompanying map of definite location must clearly indicate the area involved; and the Superintendent's report must fully explain the necessity for the road, and whether or not he recommends approval of the application on the basis of the policy enunciated in the order cited. Where the proposed road will be on a reservation having such an area, but the road is not to be located therein, the superintendent's report must contain a specific statement to this effect.

Change Section 67 to read—

67. Where a right of way is desired for any purpose not covered herein, the superintendent should submit full details to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for instructions as to procedure.

Add a new section after Section 69, to read—

69½. As the holder of the legal title to allotted Indian lands held in trust, the United States must be made a party to all such condemnation suits and the action must be brought in the appropriate Federal District Court, the procedure, however, to follow the provisions of the State law on the subject, so far as applicable.

Change Section 79, to read—

79. At the time of making the appraisal, or upon its completion, the question of compensation and damages should be taken up with and thoroughly explained to, the individual Indians, and, if they are agreeable, their written acceptance of the awards made by the Superintendent, either by affixing their signatures to the schedule (Form 12) or by separate statements (Form 5–104b) should be procured. Should any Indian object to the amount and demand a greater payment, if such demand is considered reasonable by the Superintendent he should revise his appraisal accordingly; otherwise, the written statement of the Indian should be forwarded with the schedule (Form 12) and a full report of the Superintendent's views. Where tribal lands are involved, belonging to a tribe which is organized under the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat., 984; 25 U. S. C., 476), all right-of-way applications must be presented to the tribal council or other authorized representative body; and, in the case of unorganized tribes, all railroad rights of way and others of more than ordinary importance, should likewise be thus submitted to the council or representative body of the tribe. A record of the proceedings should be kept and a duly authenticated copy attached to the schedule.

Change Section 83 (a), to read—

83 (a). In the case of allotted lands, is a sale thereof pending, either to the tribe or to an individual? If so, give full details, with name of purchaser, status of transaction, etc.

Change Section 84, to read—

84. If a prospective sale of allotted lands develops, or if any other adverse rights or interests accrue on either allotted or tribal lands after the papers have been forwarded, and before approval of the application, the Superintendent should at once make a special report of the facts to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Change Section 91 to read—

The act of April 21, 1928, extends to the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico and their lands, under such rules, regulations, and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, the provisions of the Statutes of the United States governing rights of way through Indian lands, as follows:

DETERMINATION OF FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES FOR THE 1937 CROP OF FLORIDA SUGARCANE, PURSUANT TO THE SUGAR ACT OF 1937

Whereas Section 301 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937, approved September 1, 1937, provides, as one of the conditions for payment to producers of sugar beets and sugarcane, as follows:

(d) That the producer on the farm who is also, directly or indirectly, a processor of sugar beets or sugarcane, as may be determined by the Secretary, shall have paid, or contracted to pay under either purchase or toll agreements, for any sugar beets or sugarcane grown by other producers and processed by him at rates not less than those that may be determined by the Secretary to be fair and reasonable after investigation and due notice and opportunity for public hearing.

Whereas the Secretary of Agriculture, on December 4, 1937, held a public hearing in Clewiston, Florida, for the purpose of receiving evidence likely to be of assistance to him in determining fair and reasonable prices for the 1937 crop of Florida sugarcane:

Now, therefore, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, after investigation and consideration of the evidence obtained at the aforesaid hearing and all other information before me, do hereby determine, with respect to the requirements of Section 301 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937, fair and reasonable prices for the 1937 crop of Florida sugarcane to be paid by processors, who as producers, apply for payments under the said Act, to be not less than the prices set forth in the Standard Florida Sugarcane Purchase Contract with cooperative participation supplement now used by the United States Sugar Corporation: Provided, however, That, when 10 cc. of the crusher juice of any sugarcane are titrated against a N/10 solution of NaOH, using phenolphthalein as an indicator, and it requires more than 2.25 cc. of N/10 NaOH to neutralize the acidity in the crusher juice, a deduction may be made in settlement, based upon decreased boiling house efficiency, at a rate not in excess of 3.775 per centum of the payment herein provided for for each .25 cc. of acidity above 2.25 cc. (intervening fractions computed to the nearest multiple of .05 cc.).

MEMORANDUM No. 756

[ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND CONSERVATION AND UTILIZATION PROGRAM AUTHORIZED BY THE BANKHEAD-JONES FARM TENANT ACT]

By Memorandum No. 733, dated September 1, 1937, administration of the Land Conservation and Land Utilization Program authorized by Title III and related sections of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act was entrusted to the Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, subject to the supervision of the Secretary. In connection with the administration of that program the Chief or Acting Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, or any employee of the Department whom either of them may designate in writing, are hereby specifically authorized, on behalf of the United States in connection with projects approved by the Secretary, to perform the functions hereinafter outlined. The requirements of Department Regulations 1712 and 3312 which conflict with this authorization are hereby waived:

1. Exercise options to purchase, and execute easements, leases, licenses, and other forms of contracts for the acquisition of real property or any interest therein, subject to any reservations or exceptions which will not interfere with the use of the property for the purposes of the project, as approved.

2. Determine whether public buildings, within the meaning of section 355 of the Revised Statutes, will or will not be constructed upon individual tracts of land under contract of purchase.

3. Execute life leases to the grantors or occupants of lands acquired, provided their occupancy and use will not interfere with the purposes of the project.

4. Execute easements, leases, licenses, and other forms of contracts permitting the construction and maintenance of telephone lines, pipe lines, roads, irrigation and drainage ditches, etc., (but not those power lines licenses for which are required by law to be granted by the Federal Power Commission), across project areas when such construction will not materially interfere with the purposes of the project.

5. Execute leases, licenses, permits, agreements and other forms of contracts permitting the use of lands acquired, when consistent with the purposes of the project, for cropping, grazing, building occupancy, recreational and incidental purposes, provided they do not extend for more than ten years.

6. File in the name of the United States, in accordance with the law of the state involved, applications for water rights covering waters to be impounded, impeded, or diverted in their flow by construction work contemplated in connection with the development of a project.

7. Exercise all powers to revoke, terminate, or cancel contracts executed in accordance with the foregoing authority, which are exercisable either by the terms of the contracts themselves or by operation of law.

All forms for leases, licenses, easements, agreements, use permits, etc., shall be submitted to the Office of the Solicitor for approval.

There is hereby reserved to the Secretary, in connection with this program, all authority:

1. To sign correspondence or other documents definitely committing the Department regarding the disposition to be made of projects or important segments thereof.

2. To execute deeds or other documents involving the sale, exchange, or other disposition of the entire fee simple title to lands acquired.

3. To make dedications and grants of lands for public purposes.

4. To execute leases, cooperative and other agreements for the administration by federal, state or territorial agencies of lands acquired.

5. To execute leases, licenses, permits, agreements, and other forms of contracts, permitting the use of lands acquired when the rights granted extend for more than ten years, except as specifically indicated above.

6. To make rules and regulations necessary to prevent trespasses and otherwise regulate the use and occupancy of lands acquired, when the rules and regulations are to be enforced as provided in section 32 (f) of Title III of The Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act.

7. To compromise claims and obligations arising under, and adjust and modify the terms of leases, contracts, and agreements entered into as circumstances may require.

8. To execute abstract contracts.

Memorandum No. 733, dated September 1, 1937, also directed the Land Utilization Program theretofore administered by the Farm Security Administration to be transferred to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics for administration as rapidly as might be feasible, and, pending the completion of such transfer, all existing delegations of authority in connection with that program were affirmed. Hereafter, pending and after the completion of this transfer, the Chief or Acting Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, as the personal representative of the Secretary of Agriculture, may modify and change such delegations of authority to the extent necessary to coordinate the administration of that program with the program initiated under Title III of The Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act.

Lights

3. The lights provided for in section 3 of the act above are running lights for motor boats subject to the provisions of the act in lieu of the lights prescribed, respectively, by article 2 of the act approved June 7, 1897 (covering certain harbors, rivers, and inland waters of the United States), rule 3 of the act approved February 8, 1895 (covering the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters); and rules 3, 5, 6, and 7 of section 4233 of the Revised Statutes (covering western rivers). These running lights must be carried on all motor boats when underway on navigable waters of the United States not on the high seas in all weathers from sunset to sunrise. The penalty for failure to carry such lights is a fine not exceeding $100. Motor boats when on the high seas must exhibit the lights prescribed by the International Rules of 1890.

4. The lights provided for in section 3 are not in conflict with the anchor lights, and additional lights for pilot, towing, and fishing vessels, provided in the acts above cited.

Collectors of customs and others will observe that the penalty for violations of existing laws not in conflict with this act remain unchanged.

5. Motor boats of class 1 must carry the two-color combination light and the white stern light required by section 3 (a) of the act. The use of separate red and green side lights in lieu of the combination red and green light is prohibited.

The length of the light screens on motor boats of classes 2 and 3 is to be measured from the forward edge of the side light to the forward end of the light screen.

6. No penalty is incurred by motor boats for a failure to carry lights between the hours of sunrise and sunset.

7. If a motor boat, through temporary disablement of the machinery or lack of gasoline, or for any other reason, finds it necessary to proceed under sail, in whole or in part, the white lights should be extinguished and she should proceed with her colored lights only. This does not convert a motor boat into a sailboat, however, and all other motor boat equipment should be carried.

8. The aft light should be higher and so placed as to form a range with the forward light and should be clear of house, awnings, and other obstructions. It should be as near the stern as practicable.

9. The law does not specify the size of lights to be carried on motor boats of class 1. Such lights should be large enough however, to accomplish the purpose intended, and it is suggested that the illuminated portion of such lights or lenses should not be less than 3 inches in diameter.

Whistle, Fog Horn, and Bell

10. No size or style of whistle, fog horn, or bell (except the bell for class 3) is prescribed, provided it is available and sufficient for the use for which it is intended. The word "efficient" must be taken in its ordinary sense, considered with reference to the object intended by the provisions in which the word appears, namely, the production of certain signals.

11. A mouth whistle capable of producing a blast of two seconds or more in duration, which can be heard for at least one-half a mile, has been held to be in compliance with the law. An electric horn, or other sound-producing mechanical appliance, capable of producing a blast of two seconds or more in duration, which can be heard for at least one-half a mile, may be used in lieu of a whistle.

12. Fog horns can not take the place of whistles on motor boats of classes 2 and 3.

Life Preservers and Life-Saving Devices on Motor Boats and All Vessels Propelled by Machinery Other Than by Steam More Than 65 Feet in Length Not Carrying Passengers for Hire

13. Every motor boat and all vessels propelled by machinery other than by steam more than 65 feet in length not carrying passengers for hire must have life preservers or life belts, or buoyant cushions, or ring buoys, or other devices in sufficient numbers to provide one for each person on board. This includes members of the crew, children, and babies. No such life preserver, life belt, buoyant cushion, ring buoy, or other device is approved for more than one person each.

The Department authorizes life preservers, life belts, buoyant cushions, and ring buoys for motor boats and all vessels propelled by machinery other than by steam more than 65 feet in length not carrying passengers for hire under the following conditions: Each such device shall be capable of sustaining afloat for a continuous period of 24 hours an attached weight so arranged that whether the said weight is submerged or not there shall be a direct downward gravitational pull upon such device of at least 20 pounds. Each such device must either be aproved by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, or it must have attached a tag on which is stated the name and address of the manufacturer, the weight and contents of the device, and that it complies with the requirements of section 5 of the Act of June 9, 1910, for motor boats not carrying passengers for hire. Every such device must have at least two strong straps securely attached to it in such a manner that they will not break or be torn loose under ordinary conditions, of sufficient length and so arranged that they may be slipped over the arms of the wearer to the shoulders. This section shall not apply to seagoing vessels of 300 gross tons and over, propelled in whole or in part by internal-combustion engines.

No such life preservers, life belts, buoyant cushions, ring buoys, or other device stuffed or filled with granulated cork or other loose granulated material, and no pneumatic life preservers, life belts, buoyant cushions, ring buoys, or other device will be approved.

Planks, gratings, floorings, oars, corks on fish nets, empty kegs or casks, wooden boxes, boats in tow, etc., are not approved as substitutes for life preservers, life belts, buoyant cushions, or ring buoys, but wooden life floats made of light buoyant wood may be used on motor boats navigating not more than three miles offshore and not carrying passengers for hire. The dimensions of every such wooden life float shall be not less than 4 feet in length, 12 inches in width, and 1¾ inches in thickness, and the weight shall not exceed 25 pounds. The float may be made in one or two pieces. If made in two pieces, they shall be securely attached together with wooden dowels. No metal shall be used in the construction of the float. It shall be provided with two hand-holes, one at each side, midway in the length, which hand-holes shall be not less than 6 inches in length and 2 inches in width, with a margin of at least 1 inch at the edge of the float. Wooden life floats made of balsa wood shall not be less than 3 feet in length, 11½ inches in width, and 2 inches in thickness. The balsa wood used in the construction of such floats shall be of the same quality as required for balsa wood life preservers. Each two-piece float, in addition to the doweling, shall be securely glued and the dowels shall be four in number of ¾ inch diameter, made of straight-grained dry hardwood, driven through and entirely across the float through holes bored to slightly less diameter than the dowel. Life floats already installed on motor boats and constructed in accordance with previous regulations may continue to be used.

On Motor Boats Carrying Passengers for Hire

Motor boats carrying passengers for hire shall carry one life preserver of the sort prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors for every person carried, and the person in charge must be duly licensed.

Motor boats hired at launch liveries and operated by the liveryman or his employee are construed as carrying passengers for hire; but if the motor boat is operated by the hirer himself, it is not considered a carriage of passengers for hire even though he may take other persons on board, provided, of course, he does not receive compensation for carrying these other persons.

Fire Extinguishing Apparatus

14. Fire extinguishers of a type which have demonstrated their ability to "promptly and effectually extinguish burning gasoline" must be carried on all motor boats when being navigated. Extinguishers of the carbon dioxide, carbon tetrachloride, and foam types have demonstrated their capacity for promptly and effectually extinguishing burning gasoline. Extinguishers of any of these types, which are full and in working condition, and which are of sufficient size to be effective, may be considered as being in compliance with the law. Neither soda and acid type extinguishers, sand, nor salt and sand, have been found to be capable of promptly and effectually extinguishing burning gasoline.

Licensed Officers and Inspection

15. In lieu of the inspection of steam vessels now provided by sections 4417, 4418, and 4426, Revised Statutes, it is now required that, after due inspection or personal observation, the design of the engine, boiler, or other operating machinery of motor boats more than 40 feet in length and not more than 65 feet in length, propelled by machinery driven by steam, shall be approved by the local inspectors.

All steam vessels more than 65 feet in length are subject to inspection as heretofore.

Motor boats propelled otherwise than by steam of above 15 gross tons carrying freight or passengers for hire, but not engaged in fishing as a regular business, are subject to inspection whether under or over 65 feet in length.

The only officer required to be carried on motor boats within the contemplation of the act of June 9, 1910, is the licensed operator provided for in the act.

Documents and Name

16. All motor boats of 16 gross tons or over used exclusively for pleasure should be documented as yachts; all motor boats of 5 net tons or over engaged in trade must be documented—i. e., licensed by the Collectors of Customs. Vessels under 5 net tons are not registered, enrolled, or licensed in any case. The license of the vessel obtained from the Collector of Customs (designated a document) is additional to and must not be confounded with the license required for the operator of a motor boat.

All vessels, registered, enrolled, or licensed, except yachts, must have name and home port on stern and name on each bow. Documented yachts must have name and home port conspicuously placed on the hull. Tonnage measurement is necessary only in case of vessels required to be registered, enrolled, or licensed.

17. Motor boats are required to have on board two copies of the pilot rules to be observed by them, which will be furnished by collectors of customs and local inspectors, Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation, on request. Copies of this circular should be inserted therein.

[C. C. C. Wool Form 1 Instructions 1938]

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING THE MAKING OF LOANS BY COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION ON THE SECURITY OF WOOL OR MOHAIR REPRESENTED BY WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS—1938

Commodity Credit Corporation has authorized the making of loans and the purchase of eligible paper secured by the pledge of wool or mohair warehouse receipts. These instructions state the requirements of Commodity Credit Corporation with reference to making such loans and the purchase of such paper.

1. Definitions.—As used in these instructions, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms will be construed respectively to mean:

(Notes executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where valid in law, and all such notes must be submitted for direct loans in accordance with section 9 hereof.)

2. Forms.—The following forms are available for use in connection with loans made or eligible paper purchased by Commodity Credit Corporation:

3. Wool loan basis.—Following are the classifications and scoured or clean wool values of wool in Boston which form the basis for determining the amounts to be loaned against grease wool of comparable grades:

Appraisers for Commodity Credit Corporation will determine the shrink and classification and compute the loan value of the wool. As to wool stored at points other than Boston, appraisers for Commodity Credit Corporation, in computing the loan value of the wool, will also make appropriate allowance for rail transportation to Boston. For Texas clips other than 12 months', the appraiser will reduce the value in the classification by the customary trade differential. A deduction of 5 cents per clean pound will be made by appraisers for all fleece wool and for wool produced in central and southern California and 2 cents per clean pound for wool produced in northern California. A deduction of 20 cents per bag will be made by the appraisers for an appraisal charge on each loan secured by warehouse receipts representing original bag wool which can be readily sold in such original bags of 5,000 pounds or more and/or on grading wools, whether fleece or territory, of 25,000 pounds or more. An additional charge of 20 cents per bag will be deducted from each loan secured by lesser quantities of wool. On wool which is graded and piled in the warehouses, the appraiser will deduct, as the appraisal charge, 20 cents for each 400 pounds or fraction thereof.

3a. Mohair loan basis.—Following are the classifications and grease mohair values:

Classification—Point of storage:	Cents per pound
Kid—Texas and Boston	30
Adult—Texas and Boston	20
Kid—All other points	29
Adult—All other points	19

Appraisers for Commodity Credit Corporation will determine the classification and compute the loan value of the mohair. A deduction of 20 cents per bag will be made by appraisers as an appraisal charge, provided that for lots of less than 5,000 pounds 40 cents per bag will be deducted.

3b. Maturity and interest rate.—The loans will mature 10 months from date or May 31, 1939, whichever is earlier, and will bear 4 percent interest.

4. Cooperative association.—Any producer who is a member of a cooperative marketing association may negotiate loans through such an association. Cooperative marketing associations meeting the requirements of the Capper-Volstead Act may arrange to secure funds from Commodity Credit Corporation necessary to enable such associations to make loans or advances to their members or member associations.

5. Warehouses.—Commodity Credit Corporation will accept only negotiable insured warehouse receipts covering wool or mohair pledged as collateral to notes on 1938 C. C. C. Wool Forms A, B, or C issued by any public warehcuse approved by the Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the district in which such warehouse is located. Warehousemen are advised to communicate with the Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation concerning approval. Each approved warehouse must enter into an agreement with the Commodity Credit Corporation which may be obtained from the Loan Agency. This agreement will limit the warehouseman's lien and define his obligations to Commodity Credit Corporation. All wool and mohair pledged as security for a note must be in the same warehouse. A list of the approved warehouses and their locations will be available at any Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation listed in section 14 hereof.

6. Warehouse receipts.—Only negotiable, insured warehouse receipts dated on or prior to the date of the related note and properly assigned by an endorsement in blank so as to vest title in the holder, or issued to bearer, executed by warehousemen who are not owners of the wool or mohair, will be acceptable. The insurance furnished by the warehouseman must cover fire, lightning, and windstorm. Such receipts must set out in their written or printed terms a description by lot number, weight of the wool or mohair, and the number of bags represented thereby, or description of graded pile, and all other facts and statements required to be stated in the written or printed terms of a negotiable warehouse receipt under the provisions of section 2 of the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act.

7. Appraisers.—Commodity Credit Corporation will employ appraisers who will be available from time to time at the approved warehouses for the examination and appraisal of pledged wool or mohair. Producers or wool pools or cooperatives desiring to have their wool or mohair appraised should so advise the warehouseman, who will make the necessary arrangements with the appraisers when the warehouse receipts are issued. After examining the wool or mohair the appraiser will issue an appraisal certificate on 1938 C. C. C. Wool Form D, of which two copies will be attached to the warehouse receipts and delivered to the producer or the wool pool or cooperative or order. The original appraiser's certificate and warehouse receipts must accompany the related note.

8. Preparation of documents.—A producer or wool pool desiring a loan upon eligible wool or mohair may obtain the necessary forms from the Loan Agencies of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation listed in section 14 of these instructions. Such forms may also be obtained from Commodity Credit Corporation, Washington, D. C. The forms are identified, and no reprints or substitutes may be used.

All blanks in both the note and loan agreement must be filled in with ink, indelible pencil, or typewriter in the manner indicated therein, and no documents containing additions, alterations, or erasures will be accepted by Commodity Credit Corporation. Only the white copy of the note and loan agreement marked "original" is to be executed; the colored copy marked "duplicate" is to be retained by the producer.

9. Direct loans.—It is contemplated that producers will ordinarily arrange for loans through local banks or other lending agencies, which, in turn, may sell the eligible paper evidencing such loans to Commodity Credit Corporation. Arrangements, however, have been made for making direct loans to producers on or before October 31, 1938. In the case of direct loans the notes must be made payable to Commodity Credit Corporation and must be tendered to the Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the district in which the wool or mohair is stored, accompanied by a Producer's Letter of Transmittal (1938 C. C. C. Wool Form E), in duplicate, postmarked not later than midnight of October 31, 1938, if tendered by mail. Upon delivery of all necessary documents properly executed and upon their approval, payment will be made in accordance with the directions of the producer contained in said 1938 C. C. C. Wool Form E. When the Letter of Transmittal and documents are presented by the producer in person, the certificate printed at the bottom of the letter need not be executed, provided the producer can furnish evidence satisfactory to the Loan Agency as to his identity.

10. Wool pools.—Producers may join with other producers to form informal wool pools for the purpose of obtaining loans from Commodity Credit Corporation. In this connection assistance may be obtained from county extension agents or other governmental representatives. The representative of such informal pools must obtain authority from the producers for the pooling of the wool or mohair and the pledging thereof to Commodity Credit Corporation on a Producer's Authority to Pool, 1938 C. C. C. Wool Form G. Under this arrangement the representative will execute the note evidencing the advance and pledging the wool or mohair without further liability on the part of such representative to Commodity Credit Corporation, except in the case of fraud or misrepresentation. Banks or agricultural or livestock credit corporations may act as representatives of wool pools. Such notes may be made payable to Commodity Credit Corporation and submitted immediately with a Lending Agency's Letter of Transmittal (1938 C. C. C. Wool Form H) in which case no allowance for interest will be made by Commodity Credit Corporation. However, if the representative of the wool pool has executed a Contract to Purchase (1938 C. C. C. Wool Form H), allowance will be made by Commodity Credit Corporation for the interest from the date of the note.

11. Lending agencies.—Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase eligible paper as above defined only from lending agencies which have executed and delivered to the Loan Agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation serving the district in which the pledged wool or mohair is stored, a Contract to Purchase (1938 C. C. C. Wool Form H) obtainable only from Loan Agencies. Such eligible paper must be tendered to the proper Loan Agency for purchase prior to February 1, 1939. The purchase price for such eligible paper will be the face amount of the notes, plus interest thereon at the rate of two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum from the respective dates of such notes to the date of purchase. In this connection the representative of a wool pool or pools may carry under the terms of the Contract to Purchase, the notes which it has executed. Under the terms of the Contract to Purchase, lending agencies are required to report on 1938 C. C. C. Wool Form J all payments or collections on notes held by them, and to remit promptly to Commodity Credit Corporation, Washington, D. C., an amount equivalent to 1½ percent per annum interest on the principal amount collected from the respective dates of the notes to the date of payment. Notes on 1938 C. C. C. Wool Form A, B, or C may be endorsed without recourse by lending agencies tendering same.

Care should be exercised by the lending agency to determine the genuineness of the signatures to such notes and loan agreements, and that the warehouse receipts are genuine and represent merchantable wool or mohair in existence. No provision is made for any deduction from the loan proceeds as a charge for handling the loan documents. Lending agencies must complete the "Advice of Loan" slip appended to the loan agreement, detach and mail same to Commodity Credit Corporation, Washington, D. C., at the time such notes are executed. The Advice of Loan and also the Schedule of Repayments (1938 C. C. C. Wool Form J) must be filled in with ink, indelible pencil, or typewriter.

12. Liens.—All wool or mohair tendered to Commodity Credit Corporation as security to notes on 1938 C. C. C. Wool Form A must be free and clear of all liens except in favor of the lienholders listed in the space provided therefor in the Loan Agreement. The names of the holders of all existing liens on the pledged wool or mohair (but not warehousemen) must be listed in the space provided therefor in paragraph 2 of the loan agreement. A misrepresentation as to prior liens, or otherwise, will render the producer personally liable under the terms of the loan agreement (1938 C. C. C. Wool Form A) and subject to criminal prosecution under the provisions of section 16 (a) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, which section is printed at the end of the loan agreement. The waiver and consent to the pledge of the wool or mohair and the payment of the proceeds of the loan and the proceeds of the sale of the wool or mohair solely to the producer as contained in paragraph 2 of the loan agreement must be signed personally by all lienholders listed or by their agents, whose duly executed authority must be attached firmly; or, if corporations, by the designated officer thereof customarily authorized to execute such instruments, in which case the duly executed authority need not be attached. Notes in which the waiver and consent to pledge, as contained in paragraph 2 of the Loan Agreement, are not signed by all prior lienholders listed by the producer, will not be acceptable to Commodity Credit Corporation. The producer may direct in the Letter of Transmittal (1938 C. C. C. Wool Form E) that the proceeds check for a direct loan from Commodity Credit Corporation be made payable to him and/or such other person or concern as he may direct thereon.

All wool or mohair pledged to secure wool pool notes on 1938 C. C. C. Wool Form B must likewise be free and clear of all liens. The financial institution executing the note is required to state that each producer participating in the pool has represented and agreed that the wool or mohair delivered by him is free and clear of liens, and the bank must be satisfied as to the power of any lienholders listed by such producers to waive liens and consent to the pledge.

13. Insurance.—Holders of notes desiring insurance coverage in addition to the insurance coverage provided by warehousemen should obtain such coverage at their own expense. Commodity Credit Corporation will make no allowance for insurance in purchasing eligible paper.

14. Loan agencies of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.—The location of the Loan Agencies of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation previously referred to herein and the districts served by them are shown below:

If note was made payable to a payee other than Commodity Credit Corporation, the producer or representative of the wool pool should notify the payee named therein. Warehouse receipts representing wool or mohair held by Commodity Credit Corporation will be released by the Federal Reserve bank or branch thereof holding the receipts, upon the payment of the amount of the loan, the accrued interest, and proper charges. No partial releases will be permitted. [Docket No. A-74 O-74]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF HOPS GROWN IN THE STATES OF OREGON, CALIFORNIA, AND WASHINGTON

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling in interstate and foreign commerce, and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of hops grown in the States of Oregon, California, and Washington;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations, notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating such handling of hops grown in the States of Oregon, California, and Washington, in the Assembly Room, Court House, Santa Rosa, California, on June 10, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; in the Auditorium, Old Senior High School, Salem, Oregon, on June 13, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.; and in the Banquet Room, Donnelly Hotel, Yakima, Washington, on June 15, 1938, at 9:30 a. m.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling in interstate and foreign commerce, and such handling as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce, of hops grown in the States of Oregon, California, and Washington. Among other things, the proposed marketing agreement and order provide for: (a) the establishment of a Control Board, (b) the establishment of a Growers Allocation Committee, (c) the establishment of an Advisory Committee for each state included in the production area covered by the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order, (d) the regulation of any person, as a handler, who, as or through a principal, agent, broker, representative or otherwise, (1) ships hops from the State of Oregon, California, or Washington to any place outside that respective state, or (2) purchases, takes consignment of, accepts delivery of in connection with a purchase or sale by that respective person, or otherwise acquires, within any of said states, hops from a grower or any other person, or (3) uses hops, grown by himself, in making or manufacturing lupulin, or any malt beverage, or any other product, (e) expenses of administration, and other matters relating to the handling of hops grown in the States of Oregon, California, and Washington.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of hops in the aforesaid area, which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order may be procured from the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

(a) 5 times the rate of payment with respect to the wheat acreage allotment if a payment is computed for the farm under Section IV with respect to a wheat acreage allotment.

(b) 5 times the rate of payment with respect to general soil-depleting crops if the farm is a class A farm and no payment is computed for the farm under Section IV with respect to a wheat acreage allotment.

(4) The last paragraph of subsection A of Section VI is hereby amended to read as follows:

"In the event that corn, cotton, rice, wheat, tobacco, peanuts, potatoes, or general crops are not harvested in 1938 on the farm, or in the event the county committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, finds that due to crop failure the acreage of such crop(s) was reduced sufficiently to affect materially the division of payments or deductions, the net payment or net deduction, if any, with respect to the acreage allotment for such crop(s) shall be divided among the landlords, tenants, and sharecroppers in the same proportion that the county committee determines that such persons would have shared in the proceeds of such crop(s) if such crop(s) had been harvested on the farm in 1938 or if the acreage of such crop(s) had not been so reduced."

(5) Subsection E of Section XI is hereby amended to read as follows:

"E. Excess cotton acreage.—Any person who makes application for payment with respect to any farm located in a county in which cotton is planted in 1938 shall file with such application a statement that the applicant has not knowingly planted or caused to be planted during 1938 cotton on land in any form in which he has an interest in excess of the cotton acreage allotment established for the farm for 1938, and that cotton was not planted in excess of such allotment by his authority or with his consent.

"Any person who knowingly plants cotton on his farm in 1938 on acreage in excess of the cotton acreage allotment established for the farm for 1938 shall not be eligible for any payment under the provisions of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program. Any person having an interest in the cotton crop on a farm on which cotton is planted in 1938 on acreage in excess of the cotton acreage allotment for the farm for 1938 shall be presumed to have knowingly planted cotton on his farm on acreage in excess of such farm cotton acreage allotment if notice of the farm allotment is mailed to him prior to the completion of the planting (seeding) of cotton on the farm, unless the farmer establishes the fact that the excess acreage planted to cotton was due to his lack of knowledge of the number of acres in the tract(s) planted to cotton. Such notice, if mailed to the operator of the farm, shall be deemed to be notice to all persons sharing in the production of cotton on the farm in 1938."

(6) Item 4 of subsection A of Section XIII is hereby amended to read as follows:

1938 RANGE CONSERVATION PROGRAM BULLETIN

SUPPLEMENT NO. 3

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the 1938 Range Conservation Program Bulletin, as amended March 12, 1938, is hereby amended as follows:

(1) Section V, Eligibility for Payment, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"A. Application for range-building payment may be made only by ranch operators. Range-building payments will be made to (1) a sole ranch operator, or (2) each ranch operator of a group of two or more ranch operators, provided they all signify in the application for the range-building payment a per centum of the total payment to be made to each ranch operator. In case there are two or more ranch operators, the application must be made by all of them, except that in cases where any ranch operator refuses to sign the application for payment the county committee shall determine the percentage share of each ranch operator and payment of his percentage share will be made to each ranch operator applying for payment in accordance with such determination.

"B. Payment will be made only upon application submitted through the county office. The Secretary reserves the right (1) to withhold payment to any ranch operator who fails to file any form or furnish any information required with respect to any ranching unit in which such ranch operator is interested, and (2) to refuse to accept any application for payment if such application or any other form or information required is not submitted to the county office within the time fixed by the Regional Director. At least two weeks' notice to the public shall be given in advance of the expiration of a time limit for filing prescribed forms.

"C. Any person who makes application for payment with respect to any ranching unit located in a county in which cotton is planted in 1938 shall file with such application a statement that the applicant has not knowingly planted or caused to be planted during 1938 cotton on land in any farm in which he has an interest in excess of the cotton acreage allotment established for the farm for 1936 and that cotton was not planted in excess of such allotment by his authority or with his consent. Any person who knowingly plants cotton on his farm in 1938 on acreage in excess of the cotton acreage allotment established for the farm for 1938 shall not be eligible for any payment under the provisions of the 1938 Range Conservation Program. Any person having an interest in the cotton crop on a farm on which cotton is planted in 1938 on acreage in excess of the cotton acreage allotment for the farm for 1938 shall be presumed to have knowingly planted cotton on his farm on acreage in excess of such farm cotton acreage allotment if notice of his allotment is mailed to him prior to the completion of the planting (seeding) of cotton on the farm unless such person establishes the fact that the excess acreage planted to cotton was due to his lack of knowledge of the number of acres in the tract(s) planted to cotton. Such notice, if mailed to the operator of the farm, shall be deemed to be notice to all persons sharing in the production of cotton thereon in 1938."

(2) Section XI, Assignments, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Any person who may be entitled to a payment in connection with the 1938 Range Conservation Program may assign his interest in such payment as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1938. No such assignment will be recognized unless (1) the assignment is made in writing upon Form ACP-69 in accordance with instructions issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and is filed in the office of the county agricultural conservation association; (2) the ranch operator files with the assignment a statement that the assignment is made to pay or secure an indebtedness incurred in connection with financing the making of a crop in 1938 and not to pay or secure any preexisting indebtedness; and (3) the person to whom such assignment is made certifies that the payment is being assigned without discount for such purpose. For the purposes of this section the making of a crop shall be deemed to include the carrying out of range-building practices.

"Nothing contained in this Section XI shall be construed to give an assignee a right to any payment other than that to which the ranch operator is entitled, nor shall the Secretary or any disbursing agent be subject to any suit or liability if payment is made to the ranch operator without regard to the existence of any such assignment."

IN THE MATTER OF WASHINGTON GAS LIGHT COMPANY

AMENDED NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application (File No. 32-90) pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, having been duly filed with this Commission by Washington Gas Light Company, a subsidiary company of Washington and Suburban Companies, a registered holding company, for exemption from the provisions of section 6 (a) of said Act of—

(1) the issue and sale by it of 15,600 shares of $4.50 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock without par value, to a group of underwriters for resale to the public;

(2) the issue and delivery by it to certain holders of common stock without par value of warrants to subscribe to 2,497 shares of said 15,600 shares of preferred stock without par value;

(3) the issue and exchange from time to time of such number of shares of common stock, without par value, as may be required when and as the holders of said 15,600 shares of preferred stock may elect to exercise their conversion rights applicable thereto. Upon the basis of the initial conversion rate the number of shares of said common stock so issuable upon conversion would aggregate 46,800.

The sale to the underwriters will be subject to prior rights of holders of common stock to subscribe to their proportionate part of said 15,600 shares of preferred stock.

The funds derived from the sale are to be used to reimburse applicant's treasury for expenditures made in connection with additions and expansions of applicant's plants and distribution system made prior to December 31, 1937.

The Commission, by its order, issued June 22, 1937, upon the application of Washington Gas Light Company, (File No. 32-51) having exempted from the provisions of section 6 (a) the issuance and sale by Washington Gas Light Company of 20,000 shares of $4.50 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, and also as specified in Subdivision 4 of said order: "The issue and exchange by it from time to time of such number of shares, not exceeding 60,000, of common stock, without par value as may be required when and as holders of such preferred stock may elect to exercise the conversion rights applicable thereto" (italics added);

Washington Gas Light Company having filed a supplemental application requesting that the Commission amend Subdivision 4 of said order issued June 22, 1937, to read as follows: "The issue and exchange of such number of shares of common stock of said company as may, in accordance with the conversion rate at the time applicable to the $4.50 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, be required, for the purpose of delivering to the holders of said 20,000 shares of preferred stock, the number of shares of common stock to which such holders will be entitled, in accordance with the provisions of the resolution creating such stock, when and as they may elect to exercise their conversion rights applicable thereto (the number of shares of common stock initially to be reserved to be 60,000);"

It appearing to the Commission that these related matters should be heard and considered together;

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters be held on June 2, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the hearing-room clerk in Room 1102 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing, if in respect of any declaration, cause shall be shown why such declaration shall become effective.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to continue or postpone said hearing from time to time or to a date thereafter to be fixed by such presiding officer.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to such declarant or applicant and to any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before May 31, 1938.

It is stated that 99.983% of declarant's common stock is owned by West Penn Power Company, a subsidiary company of American Water Works and Electric Company, Incorporated, and that 0.017% of declarant's common stock is owned by the company last-named.

REVOCATION OF REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE DUMPING OF BALLAST IN HILLSBORO BAY, FLORIDA

1. On October 5, 1910, the Acting Secretary of War, designated a dumping ground for ballast in Hillsboro Bay, Florida, and prescribed rules and regulations relating thereto.

2. The District Engineer reports that all ballast is now discharged on shore and disposed of by trucks, that the aforementioned ballast dumping area is and has been used for a spoil area in dredging operations, and that it cannot now be used for the dumping of ballast. There is no longer any necessity for the regulations approved in 1910, and I recommend, therefore, that they be revoked.

MODIFICATION OF REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE USE, ADMINISTRATION AND NAVIGATION OF THE OHIO RIVER, MISSISSIPPI RIVER ABOVE CAIRO, ILLINOIS, AND THEIR TRIBUTARIES

The 11th, 13th, 22nd (part 2, first sentence), and 24th paragraphs of the regulations approved by the Secretary of War, January 4, 1933, to govern the use, administration and navigation of the Ohio River, the Mississippi River above Cairo, Illinois, and their tributaries, are modified to read as follows:

"11. Mooring at locks.—All vessels when in the locks shall be moored as directed by the lockmaster. Steamboats and other craft in general shall be moored with bow, stern and spring lines to the snubbing posts provided for that purpose, and in case of a towboat accompanying the tow during a lockage, a line attached to a capstan shall be used and kept taut, when directed by the lockmaster, to prevent the tow from running in the lock chamber. Tying to lock ladders is strictly prohibited. Mooring of unattended or nonpropelled vessels or small craft at the upper or lower channel approaches will not be permitted within 1,200 feet of the lock."

"13. Damage to walls.—The sides of all craft passing through any lock must be free from projections of any kind which might injure the lock walls. Steamboats must be provided with suitable fenders. One or more men as the lockmaster may direct, shall be kept at the head of every tow until it has cleared the lock and guide walls, and shall protect the walls by the use of fenders. The owners or operators of floating craft shall be held responsible for the cost of repairs of injuries to locks or other structures incurred in the handling of their craft, unless such injuries may be justly attributed to natural imposing elements or neglect on the part of lock forces in the performance of their duties."

"22. * * * (2) At movable dams when the dam has been lowered or partly lowered so that there is an unobstructed navigable pass through the dam, the navigation lights indicated below will be displayed during hours of darkness until lock walls and weir piers are awash." * * *

"24. Buoys at movable dams.—Whenever the river (guard) wall of the lock and any portion of the dam are awash, and until covered by a depth of water equal to the project depth, the limits of the navigable pass through the dam will be marked by buoys at the upstream and downstream ends of the river (guard) wall, and by a single buoy over the end, or ends, of the portion or portions of the dam adjacent to the navigable pass over which project depth is not available. A red nun-type buoy will be used for such structures located on the left-hand side (facing downstream) of the river and a black can-type buoy for such structures located on the right-hand side (facing downstream) of the river, buoys to be lighted if practicable.

Where powerhouses or other substantial structures projecting considerably above the level of the lock wall are located on the river (guard) wall a single red light located on top of one of these structures may be used instead of river wall buoys prescribed above until these structures are awash, after which they will be marked by a buoy of appropriate type and color (red nun or black can buoy) until covered by a depth of water equal to the project depth, buoys to be lighted if practicable."

Approved, May 17, 1938.

2. That the Secretary of the Commission be and hereby is directed to cause said docket to be opened on June 2, 1938, for the purpose of receiving appearances, determinations, proposals, transcripts of testimony, exhibits, briefs, findings of facts, rulings and orders of the Commission, and other matters relating to each hearing hereinafter held as a part of the aforesaid matter.

3. Notice is hereby given to all interested parties that the initial hearing in this matter shall be held before the Commission on the 9th day of June, 1938, at 10:00 a. m., in the Hearing Room of the Commission at Shirley-Savoy Hotel in Denver, Colorado, for the purpose of receiving evidence relating to the weighted average of the total costs per net ton of the tonnage of bituminous coal produced in the calendar year 1936, in each of Districts No. 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 22 and 23, and evidence relating to any change or changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors, exclusive of seasonal changes, substantially affecting costs, in each of said Districts which may have been established since January 1, 1936, to enable the Commission to determine the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for Minimum Price Areas 6 (Districts 16, 17 and 18), 7 (Districts 19 and 20), 9 (District 22), and 10 (District 23) as adjusted, within the meaning of Section 4, Part II, of the Act, at which time all interested persons will be afforded an opportunity to be heard.

4. The District Boards of said Districts have submitted to the Commission, pursuant to its Order No. 240, their determinations of the weighted average of the total costs of the total ascertainable tonnage produced in their respective districts in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, as follows:

District No.:	District Board's Determination

District No. 16	2,343,702	$2.65
District No. 17	4,891,733	2.80

District No. 22	2,905,389	1.60
District No. 23	1,904,085	3.27

Minimum price area	1936 tonnage	Minimum price area cost
Minimum Price Area 6	7,949,217	$2.79

Minimum Price Area 10	1,904,085	3.27

The Bureau of Research and Statistics has recommended to the Commission that the above costs be accepted as the best available evidence of the adjusted costs, subject to such further adjustments, as may be proved at the hearing to be necessary in order to take account of additional known factors which have been operative since January 1, 1938.

6. In order to afford interested persons an opportunity to check the accuracy of the aforesaid determinations and computations of the District Boards and of the Bureau of Research and Statistics of the Commission, there will be made available for inspection by those interested persons who have filed appearances in the said hearing as hereinafter provided, on and after June 2, 1938, at Shirley-Savoy Hotel, Denver, Colorado, (1) the determinations of the said District Boards above referred to, (2) composite exhibits prepared by the Bureau of Research and Statistics, forming the basis for its cost determinations, and (3) the verified cost reports of the individual producers within each of said districts upon which the cost data submitted to the District Boards by the Statistical Bureaus of the Commission are based, and upon which are based the said exhibits prepared by the Bureau of Research and Statistics of the Commission.

7. Any person desiring to be heard in this proceeding shall file with the Commission at the Central Savings Bank Building, Denver, Colorado, a written appearance setting forth his interest. If any such person desires to offer affirmative evidence at such hearing, or to cross-examine any witness as to the aforesaid cost data, it is requested in the interest of orderly procedure, that he file with the said office of the Commission, not later than the day preceding the date of said hearing, a concise written statement of the facts he expects to establish.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING NEGOTIATION AND EXECUTION OF ATTORNEY CONTRACTS WITH INDIAN TRIBES

TRIBES ORGANIZED UNDER THE INDIAN REORGANIZATION ACT

SECTION 1. Contracts with Organized Tribes.—Negotiation and execution of tribal attorney contracts with Indian tribes organized pursuant to the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984), shall be in accordance with the provisions of the approved constitutions or charters of the respective tribes. The selection of counsel by an organized tribe and the fixing of fees are subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 2. Admission to Practice.—Attorneys employed by tribes organized under the Indian Reorganization Act shall be required to be admitted to practice before the Interior Department and the Bureaus thereof, under the provisions of the Act of July 4, 1884 (23 Stat. 101). Copies of the regulations governing recognition of attorneys may be obtained from the Chief Clerk, Department of the Interior.

SEC. 3. Tentative Form of Contract.—A tribal council or representative body having authority to employ legal counsel in behalf of an organized tribe, may, if it desires, obtain a tentative form of contract from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Requests for forms should include a statement of the scope of the intended employment; that is, whether an attorney is desired for investigation and prosecution of tribal claims against the United States, or as general legal counsel in connection with the ordinary business of the tribe, or specific problems on which legal advice is desired, or specific matters requiring representation in court or before committees of Congress and the departments of the Government. The period for which an attorney is desired should be stated.

SEC. 4. Report of Superintendent.—Contracts executed by organized tribes should be transmitted to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs by the Superintendent, with a report based upon references and independent inquiry concerning the qualifications of the attorney, his ability to perform the services required by the contract, and the Superintendent's recommendation with reference to approval of the contract.

SEC. 5. Fees and Expenses.—Funds held in the Treasury of an organized tribe may be used by the tribe for payment of fees and expenses of an attorney. A contract providing for payment of fees and/or expenses should be accompanied by an appropriation act passed by the governing body of the tribe in accordance with the requirements of the tribal constitution or charter, appropriating sufficient tribal funds for payment of fees and/or expenses as provided by the contract. The amount of tribal funds held in the tribal treasury, not otherwise appropriated and available for payment of fees and expenses, should be stated.

SEC. 6. Funds in Federal Treasury.—Under rulings of the Comptroller General and Section 27 of the Act of May 18, 1916 (39 Stat. 158–159), tribal funds held in the United States Treasury may not be used for payment of attorney fees and expenses in the absence of express authorization by Congress.

TRIBES NOT ORGANIZED UNDER THE INDIAN REORGANIZATION ACT

SEC. 7. Statutes Governing.—The negotiation and execution of tribal attorney contracts with tribes not organized under the Indian Reorganization Act must be in strict accordance with the requirements of Sec. 2103 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (25 U. S. C. 81), which provides:

No agreement shall be made by any person with any tribe of Indians, or individual Indians not citizens of the United States, for the payment or delivery of any money or other thing of value, in present or in prospective, or for the granting or procuring any privilege to him, or any other person in consideration of services for said Indians relative to their lands, or to any claims growing out of, or in reference to, annuities, installments, or other moneys, claims, demands, or thing, under laws or treaties with the United States, or official acts of any officers thereof, or in any way connected with or due from the United States, unless such contract or agreement be executed and approved as follows:

First. Such agreement shall be in writing, and a duplicate of it delivered to each party.

Second. It shall be executed before a judge of a court of record, and bear the approval of the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs indorsed upon it.

Third. It shall contain the names of all parties in interest, their residence and occupations; and if made with a tribe, by their tribal authorities, the scope of authority and the reason for exercising that authority, shall be given specifically.

Fourth. It shall state the time when and place where made, the particular purpose for which made, the special thing or things to be done under it, and, if for the collection of money, the basis of the claim, the source from which it is to be collected, the disposition to be made of it when collected, the amount or rate per centum of the fee in all cases; and if any contingent matter or condition constitutes a part of the contract or agreement, it shall be specifically set forth.

Fifth. It shall have a fixed limited time to run, which shall be distinctly stated.

Sixth. The judge before whom such contract or agreement is executed shall certify officially the time when and place where such contract or agreement was executed, and that it was in his presence, and who are the interested parties thereto, as stated to him at the time; the parties present making the same; the source and extent of authority claimed at the time by the contracting parties to make the contract or agreement, and whether made in person or by agent or attorney or either party or parties.

SEC. 8. Selection of Counsel.—Except as hereinafter stated in Secs. 12 to 15, a tribal attorney and tribal delegates to execute a contract shall be selected by a general council or meeting of the tribe, to be called by the Superintendent of the particular reservation. The Superintendent, or some one representing him, shall be in attendance with a stenographer.

SEC. 9. Record of Council Proceedings.—Stenographic notes should be made of the proceedings of the council, transcribed, certified to by the Superintendent as correct, and a copy thereof should be sent to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs with the contract.

SEC. 10. Resolution Required.—The selection of counsel and of tribal delegates to execute a contract in behalf of the tribe shall be set forth in a resolution or resolutions which shall be attached to and made a part of the contract.

SEC. 11. Authentication of Resolution.—The resolution shall be signed by the presiding officer of the general council, attested by the Secretary of the general council, and certified by the Superintendent.

SEC. 12. Negotiation by Tribal Business Committee.—A tribal business committee, advisory board, or other similar representative body having standing authority to act for and in behalf of the tribe in matters of importance, may, when it finds that there is a substantial need and demand for retention of tribal counsel, negotiate with an attorney or attorneys.

SEC. 13. Limitation of Authority.—The tribal business committee or other representative body, when proceeding under section 12 hereof, should carefully investigate, with the assistance of the Superintendent if desired, the qualifications of available attorneys, bearing in mind the purpose for which counsel is desired and shall carry on its negotiations with attorneys subject to the distinct understanding that final action on the selection and employment of counsel shall be had in a general council or meeting of the tribe, subject to approval by the Department as required by law.

SEC. 14. Employment by Tribal Business Committees.—In case the tribal business committee or board has specific authority from the tribe to employ tribal attorneys and to execute a contract for that purpose, the tribal business committee or board may negotiate with attorneys and enter into a contract subject to departmental approval as provided by law.

SEC. 15. Vote by Secret Ballot.—Those tribes accustomed to act on important tribal matters by secret ballot, or by vote in district meetings, or in some other manner, may apply through their proper officers to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for permission to consider and act upon employment of tribal counsel in the manner preferred by the tribe rather than by a general council or meeting.

SEC. 16. Notice From Tribe.—Notice of intention to negotiate with attorneys should be sent to the Superintendent by the proper tribal officers, accompanied by a full statement concerning the need for retaining counsel, showing in detail the purposes for which an attorney is needed, the scope of his intended employment, and a reference to the tribal funds, if any, which the tribe believes should be made available for payment of counsel fees and expenses. The notice and statement should be transmitted to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs by the Superintendent with the latter's report and recommendations.

SEC. 17. Notice from Attorneys.—Attorneys desiring to execute contracts with Indian tribes shall be required to notify the Commissioner of Indian Affairs in advance of all negotiations.

SEC. 18. Tentative Form of Contract.—A tentative form of contract may be obtained from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. When the attorneys or tribe proposing to execute a contract desire to make substantial changes in the tentative form, the proposed changes should be submitted to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, for approval as to form, prior to execution of a contract.

SEC 19. Execution in Quintuplicate.—The contract should be executed in quintuplicate, and all copies should be transmitted by the Superintendent to the Commisisoner of Indian Affairs.

SEC. 20. Report of Superintendent.—The Superintendent should submit a report when transmitting the contract, setting forth the qualifications and general reputation of the attorney selected, based upon references and independent inquiry by the Superintendent, and the Superintendent's recommendation concerning approval of the contract.

SEC. 21. Copies of Approved Contracts.—Upon approval of a contract, one copy will be transmitted to the attorneys, one to the Superintendent of the Agency for the information of the Indians in interest, and the other three copies will be filed in the proper offices in Washington, D. C.

SEC. 22. Qualifications of Attorneys.—The person selected as attorney should be a reputable member of the bar, and fully competent to carry the case through the Court of Claims, and to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary.

SEC. 23. Admission to Practice.—The attorney shall also be required to be admitted to practice before the Interior Department and the Bureaus thereof under the provisions of the Act of July 4, 1884 (23 Stat., 101). Copies of the regulations governing recognition of attorneys may be obtained from the Chief Clerk, Department of the Interior.

SEC. 24. Fees and Expenses.—Under rulings of the Comptroller General and Section 27 of the Act of May 18, 1916 (39 Stat., 158–159), tribal funds held in the United States Treasury may not be used for payment of attorney fees and expenses, in the absence of express authorization by Congress. Unless congressional authority has been obtained for the use of tribal funds, the payment of attorney fees and expenses shall be contingent upon a recovery by the Indians in the matters or claims covered in the contract. In case congressional authority has been obtained for the use of tribal funds for attorney fees and expenses, the provisions of the contract concerning the payment of such fees and expenses should strictly conform to the provisions of the Act authorizing the use of the funds.

SEC. 25. Invalid Contracts.—It may be pointed out that Sec. 81, Title 25, of the United States Code provides further that all contracts made in violation of that section shall be null and void; Sec. 84, Title 25, provides that no assignment of any such contract shall be valid without the consent of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Secretary of the Interior; and Sec. 85, Title 25, declares that no contract with any individual Indian, relating to tribal property shall have any validity unless the consent of the United States has previously been given thereto.

[Circular 1237a]

REGULATIONS GOVERNING RIGHTS OF WAY FOR CANALS, DITCHES, RESERVOIRS, WATER PIPE LINES, TELEPHONES AND TELEGRAPH LINES, TRAMROADS, ROADS AND HIGHWAYS, OIL AND GAS PIPE LINES, ETC.

1. Application.—No special form is required, but it should be filed at the land office for the district in which the land is located, should state the act invoked and the primary purpose for which the project is to be used. If there is no local land office, the application should be filed with the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington, D. C.

2. Showing required of corporations.—Application by a private corporation must be accompanied by a copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, duly certified to by the proper State official of the State where the corporation was organized; also an uncertified copy.

A corporation other than a private corporation should file a copy of the law under which it was formed and due proof of organization under the same.

When the project is in a State other than that in which the corporation was incorporated, it must submit a certificate of the Secretary of State or other proper official of the State in which the project is located, showing compliance with the laws relating to foreign corporations.

3. Showing required of individuals or association of individuals.—Application by an individual under any of the acts, except the act of March 3, 1891, and the acts amendatory or supplemental thereto, must be accompanied by affidavit of citizenship if the applicant is native born, or if a naturalized citizen, by proof of naturalization. Application by an association must be accompanied by a certified copy of the articles of association, if any; if there be none, the fact must be stated over the signature of each member of the association. Each member must furnish evidence of citizenship where it would be required if he were applying individually.

4. Evidence which must accompany application.—Each application must be accompanied by the following data:

(a) A map prepared on tracing linen, in duplicate, showing the survey of the right-of-way or site properly located with respect to the public-land surveys so that said right-of-way or site may be accurately located on the ground by any competent engineer or land surveyor. The map should comply with the following requirements:

The scale should be 2,000 feet to the inch for canals, ditches, pipe lines, transmission lines, etc., and 1,000 feet to the inch for reservoirs, except where a larger scale is required to properly represent the details of the proposed developments, in which case the scales should be 1,000 feet to the inch and 500 feet to the inch, respectively.

Courses and distances of the center line of the right-of-way or traverse line of the reservoir should be given; the courses referred to the true meridian either by deflection from a line of known bearing or by independent observation, and the distances in feet and decimals thereof. Station numbers with plus distances at deflection points on the traverse line should be shown.

The initial and terminal points of the survey should be accurately connected by course and distance to the nearest corner of the public-land surveys, unless that corner is more than six miles distant, in which case the connection will be made to some prominent natural object or permanent monument, which can be readily recognized and recovered. The station number and plus distance to the point of intersection with a line of the public-land surveys should be ascertained and noted, together with the course and distance along the section line to the nearest existing corner, at a sufficient number of points throughout the township to permit accurate platting of the relative position of the right-of-way to the public-land survey.

All subdivisions of the public-land surveys within the limits of the survey should be shown in their entirety, based upon the official subsisting plats with the subdivision, section, township, and range clearly marked.

The width of the canal, ditch, or lateral at highwater line should be given and if not of uniform width, the location and amount of the change must be definitely shown. In the case of a pipe line, the diameter should be given. For reservoirs, the capacity in acre-feet, the area within the high-water line, the source of the water supply, and the location and height of the dam must be shown.

Each copy of the map should bear upon its face an affidavit of the engineer who makes the survey and the certificate of the applicant. See forms 1 and 2 on page ( ) which should be modified so as to be appropriate to the act invoked and the nature of the project.

(b) Evidence of water right, if the project involves the storage, diversion, or conveyance of water. Control and jurisdiction over the appropriation of water is vested in the State authorities. The applicant, therefore, must file evidence, obtained from the proper State official, that he has the right to appropriate the water to be stored, diverted, or conveyed.

5. Oregon and California Railroad and Coos Bay Wagon Road lands (Oregon).—All applications for rights of way for the construction and operation of any project over Oregon and California Railroad lands, title to which was revested in the United States by the act of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat. 218), and reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road lands, act of February 26, 1919 (40 Stat. 1179), must be accompanied by a stipulation executed by the applicant, agreeing to pay to the United States, by certified check drawn in favor of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, within 30 days from receipt of written notice to do so from the District Cadastral Engineer, such sum of money as may be determined by him to be fair compensation for the Government timber cut, removed or destroyed in the construction and operation of the project. Such applications should also contain an affirmative showing that favorable action thereon will not adversely affect or impair watershed protection, stream-flow regulation, and other conservation features enumerated in the act of August 28, 1937 (50 Stat. 874), amending the acts of June 9, 1916, and February 26, 1919, supra.

6. Proposed or existing national forest.—Whenever a right-of-way is through or in a national forest, or any area which the Secretary of Agriculture has recommended for inclusion within a national forest, the applicant must enter into such stipulations and execute such bond as the Forest Service may require for the protection of such existing or proposed national forest. No construction will be allowed in an existing or proposed national forest until an application for right-of-way has been regularly filed and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, or unless permission for such construction work has been specifically given.

7. National parks.—The act of March 3, 1921 (41 Stat. 1353), provides, inter alia:

"That hereafter no permit, license, lease, or authorization for dams, conduits, reservoirs, power houses, transmission lines, or other works for storage or carriage of water, or for the development, transmission or utilization of power within the limits as now constituted of any national park or national monument, shall be granted or made without specific authority of Congress, etc."

8. Action on application.—When an application is filed, the register will place on the papers and accompanying maps, the serial number, the name of the office, and the date of filing. Notations will be made on the local office records opposite each unpatented tract affected by the right-of-way or site, giving serial number, date of filing, and the name of the applicant. The register will certify on each map, over his written signature, that unpatented land is affected. If no unpatented land is affected, the register will return the map and duplicate to the applicant with notice of that fact.

(a) The General Land Office shall request the Geological Survey and the Bureau of Reclamation to make reports in connection with all right-of-way applications involving the diversion, storage, or conveyance of water and shall request the Geological Survey for reports in connection with all right-of-way applications under the oil and gas leasing act. Requests by the General Land Office for reports from all Bureaus or Departments shall be made in connection with all right-of-way applications affecting lands in withdrawals or reservations in which the Bureau or Department might be interested. Upon the approval of a map by the Secretary of the Interior, the duplicate copy will be sent to the register who will mark upon the township plats the line of the right-of-way or site as shown on the approved map. The register will also note the approval in ink on the tract books, opposite each legal subdivision affected, with a reference to the act mentioned on the map.

9. Proof of construction.—A period of five years from the date of the approval of a map is usually allowed for construction. Upon completion of construction, proof thereof should be filed in the local office, consisting of an affidavit of the person in charge of the construction or who has checked over the construction, and the certificate of the grantee. Forms 3 and 4 for the affidavit and certificate are shown on page ( ). The forms should be modified so as to be appropriate to the act and to the nature of the project. If, in constructing, there has been a substantial deviation from the location shown on the approved map, the party in interest must file a duly executed relinquishment of the unused portion of the right-of-way or site, accompanied by a map of amended location of the right-of-way or site of the project as actually constructed. The map of amended location must be prepared in accordance with regulation 4. The relinquishment may be prepared so as to become effective upon departmental approval of the map of amended location.

Upon expiration of the 5-year period allowed for construction, if there has been no construction, grants of rights-of-way or sites are subject to cancellation through court proceedings. A permit may be revoked by the Secretary for nonconstruction or abandonment.

RIGHTS OF WAY THROUGH PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR CANALS, DITCHES, AND RESERVOIRS

10. Statutory authority.—Section 18 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1095), as amended by the acts of March 4, 1917 (39 Stat. 1197), and May 28, 1926 (44 Stat. 668), 43 U. S. C. 946, authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to grant rights-of-way for irrigation and drainage purposes to the extent of the ground occupied by the water of any reservoirs and any canals and laterals and fifty feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof and such additional right-of-way as may be deemed necessary for the proper operation and maintenance of said reservoirs, canals, and laterals.

Section 19 of the act of March 3, 1891, 43 U. S. C. 947, provides for the filing of maps by applicants desiring to secure the benefits of said act; that upon the approval thereof by the Secretary of the Interior, the same shall be noted upon the records and thereafter all lands affected by such right-of-way shall be disposed of subject to such right-of-way.

Section 20 of the act of March 3, 1891, 43 U. S. C. 948, provides, that this act shall apply to all canals, ditches, or reservoirs heretofore or hereafter constructed, whether by corporations, individuals, or association of individuals, on the filing of the certificates and maps as therein provided; that if any section of the project is not completed within five years after location, the right-of-way granted shall be forfeited as to the uncompleted canal, ditch, or reservoir, to the extent that the same is not completed at the date of forfeiture.

Section 21 of the act of March 3, 1891, 43 U. S. C. 949, provides that nothing in this act shall authorize the occupancy of such right-of-way except for the purpose for which the grant is made, and then only so far as may be necessary for the construction, maintenance, and care of the project.

11. Statute construed.—The act of March 3, 1891, as amended, is applicable to rights-of-way for pipe lines, flumes, or other conduits, although they are not specifically mentioned in the act, if water is conveyed primarily for irrigation or drainage purposes.

Material on adjacent lands. The word "adjacent," as used in section 18 of the act, in connection with the right to take material for construction from the public lands, must be construed according to the conditions of each case (28 L. D. 439). The right extends only to construction, and no public timber or material may be taken or used for repair or improvements (14 L. D. 566). These decisions were rendered under the railroad right-of-way act and are applied to this act since the words are the same in both.

12. Use subsidiary to main purpose of irrigation.—Section 2 of the act of May 11, 1898 (30 Stat. 404), authorizes the use of rights-of-way granted under the act of March 3, 1891, for purposes subsidiary to the main purpose of irrigation.

13. Caretaker's building sites.—The act of March 1, 1921 (41 Stat. 1194), authorizes the Secretary of the Interior, except as to lands within national forests, to grant permits or easements for not to exceed five acres of ground adjoining the right-of-way at each of the locations, to be determined by the Secretary of the Interior, to be used for the erection thereon of dwellings or other buildings or corrals for the convenience of those engaged in the care and management of the works provided for by the act of March 3, 1891, as amended.

14. Showing required for additional right-of-way.—The act of May 28, 1926 (44 Stat. 668), amended section 18 of the act of March 3, 1891, so as to authorize, if needed, right-of-way additional to the 50 feet allowed by the section for operation and maintenance of reservoirs, etc. To obtain such additional right-of-way, explanatory showing must accompany the application. This should consist of an affidavit by the applicant's engineer or surveyor setting forth succinctly the extent of the additional right-of-way required and the necessity therefor. The additional right-of-way should also be shown graphically by lateral limit lines on the map filed in connection with the application. If additional right-of-way is wanted only for portions or sections of the reservoirs, canals, ditches, or laterals, the termini thereof should be fixed by engineer's survey stations in addition to the lateral limit lines.

15. Nature of grant.—Grants made under the act of March 3, 1891, are base fees with possibility of reverter to the Government in the event the grantee or successor ceases to use or retain the lands for the purposes for which they were granted. All persons settling on a tract of public land, to part of which right-of-way has attached for a canal, ditch, or reservoir, etc., take the land subject to such right-of-way, and at the total area of the subdivision entered, there being no authority to make deductions in such cases. If a settler has a valid claim to land, existing at the date of filing of the map of definite location, his right is superior, and he is entitled to such reasonable measure of damages for right-of-way as may be determined by agreement or by the courts, the question being one that does not fall within the jurisdiction of this Department.

16. Unsurveyed land.—Maps; filed under the said act, as amended, showing canals, ditches, reservoirs, etc., lying partly upon unsurveyed land can be approved if the application and accompanying maps conform to these regulations, but the approval will only relate to that portion of the right-of-way traversing the surveyed land.

(a) Maps showing canals, ditches, reservoirs, etc., lying wholly on unsurveyed lands may be received and placed on file in the General Land Office and the local land office of the district in which the land is located, for general informations. The date of filing will be noted thereon; but the maps will not be submitted to nor approved by the Secretary of the Interior as the act makes no provision for the approval of any but maps showing locations on surveyed lands. The filing of such maps will not dispense with the filing of maps after the survey of the lands and within the time specified in the act, and if the maps are regular in all respects, they will receive the Secretary's approval.

17. Segregated reservoir sites.—The act of February 26, 1897 (29 Stat. 599), permits the approval of applications under the act of March 3, 1891, for rights-of-way upon reservoir sites reserved under authority of the act of October 2, 1888 (25 Stat. 505, 526), and August 30, 1890 (26 Stat. 371, 391).

RIGHTS-OF-WAY OVER PUBLIC LANDS FOR RESERVOIRS FOR WATERING LIVESTOCK

18. Statutory authority.—By the act of January 13, 1897 (29 Stat. 484; 43 U. S. C. 952–953), it is provided that any person, livestock company, or transportation corporation engaged in breeding, grazing, driving, or transporting livestock may construct reservoirs upon unoccupied public lands of the United States, not mineral or otherwise reserved, for the purpose of furnishing water to such livestock, and shall have control of such reservoir, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and the lands upon which the same is constructed, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, so long as such reservoir is maintained and water kept therein for such purposes.

19. Declaratory statement.—Any person, livestock company, or transportation corporation engaged in breeding, grazing, driving, or transporting livestock, desiring to construct a reservoir under the authority of this act upon unappropriated public lands of the United States, not mineral or otherwise reserved except by Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, and amendments thereto, and Executive Order No. 6964 of February 5, 1935, as amended, or within a grazing district established under the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), may file a petition, in duplicate, for the classification of the land involved, together with a declaratory statement, in the district land office for the district in which the land is located in accordance with the instructions contained in Circular No. 1353, approved June 29, 1937.

20. Application by corporation.—When the applicant is a corporation there shall be filed a copy of its articles of incorporation and proofs of its organization, as required in regulations 2 and 4 (b) of these regulations. If these papers are filed with the first declaratory statement made by the company, a reference thereto by its number will be sufficient in any subsequent application by the company.

The declaratory statement must be made under oath and should be drawn in accordance with Form 7 (page), and must contain the following:

(a) The post office address of the applicant; the name of the county in which the reservoir is to be or has been constructed; the description by the smallest legal subdivisions

(40-acre tracts or lots) of the land sought to be reserved which under no circumstances must exceed 160 acres; certificate that the land is not occupied or otherwise claimed; certificate that to the best of the applicant's knowledge and belief the land is not mineral or otherwise reserved; statement of the business of the applicant, which statement shall include full and minute information concerning the extent to which he is engaged in breeding, grazing, driving, or transporting livestock, the number and kinds of such stock, the place where they are being bred or grazed, whether within an enclosure or upon unenclosed lands, and also the points from which and to which they are being driven or transported; description of the land owned or claimed by the applicant in the vicinity of the proposed reservoir and statement of its amount; certificate that no part of the land sought to be reserved is or will be fenced, that all the land will be kept open to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind; and that the lands so sought to be reserved are not, by reason of their proximity to other lands reserved for reservoirs, excluded from reservation by the regulations and rulings of the Land Department.

(b) The location of the reservoir described by the smallest legal subdivision (40-acre tracts or lots), its area in acres, its capacity in gallons, the source from which water is to be obtained for such reservoir, whether there are any streams or springs within two miles of the land sought to be reserved; and, if so, where.

(c) The numbers, locations, and areas of all other reservoir sites filed upon by the applicant, especially designating those in the county in which the proposed reservoir is located.

21. Action by the Land Department on declaratory statements and size, location, and number of reservoir sites.—When such declaratory statement is filed, the date of filing will be noted thereon over the signature of the officer receiving it, and the statements will be numbered according to order of June 1, 1908. The register will make the usual notations on the records, in pencil, under the designation of "Reservoir Declaratory Statement, No. —," adding the date of the act. For the filing of such reservoir declaratory statement, the local officers will be authorized to charge the usual fee. (Section 2238, U. S. Rev. Stat.). The local officers will forward the declaratory statement with the regular monthly returns, with abstracts, in the usual manner. In acting upon these statements the following general rules will be applied:

(a) No reservation will be made for a reservoir of less than 250,000 gallons capacity, and for a reservoir of less than 500,000 gallons capacity, not more than 40 acres can be reserved. For a reservoir of 1,000,000 gallons capacity, not more than 80 acres can be reserved. For a reservoir of 1,000,000 gallons and less than 1,500,000 gallons capacity, not more than 120 acres can be reserved. For a reservoir of 1,500,000 gallons capacity or more, 160 acres may be reserved. In the case where the water is furnished the livestock by artificial means, such as by windmill, pump, tanks, troughs, etc., the regulations requiring a minimum capacity of 250,000 gallons may be waived upon the claimant's submitting a satisfactory showing that by such artificial means he will be able to furnish sufficient water and provide proper troughs, etc., to properly acccommodate all cattle likely to water at the place in question.

(b) Not more than 160 acres shall be reserved for this purpose in any section.

(c) Not more than 160 acres shall be reserved for this purpose in one group of tracts adjoining or cornering upon each other.

(d) A distance of one-half mile must be left between any two groups of tracts which aggregate more than 160 acres.

(e) The local officers will reject any reservoir declaratory statement not in conformity with these rules.

(f) Lands so reserved shall not be fenced, but shall be kept open to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind. If lands so reserved are at any time fenced or otherwise enclosed, or if they are not kept open to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind, or if the reservoir applicant attempts to use them for any other purpose, or if the reservation is not obtained for the bona fide and exclusive purpose of constructing and maintaining a reservoir thereon according to law, the declaratory statement, upon any such matter being made to appear, will be canceled and all rights thereunder be declared at an end.

(g) Notwithstanding the action of the local officers in accepting any such declaratory statement, the Commissioner of the General Land Office will reject the same if upon considering the matters set forth therein it appears that the declaratory statement is not filed in good faith for the sole purpose of accomplishing what the law authorizes to be done.

22. Construction.—The reservoir must be completed and constructed within two years after the filing of the declaratory statement; otherwise the declaratory statement will be subject to cancellation.

23. Map of constructed reservoir.—After the construction and completion of the reservoir, the applicant shall have the same accurately surveyed and mapped in accordance with regulations 4 and 9, so far as they are applicable. The map, which is not to be prepared in duplicate, must be filed in the proper local office and must bear Forms 8 and 9 (page).

24. Action by register.—When the map and other papers have been filed in the local office, the date of filing will be noted thereon and the proper notations will be made on the local office records, as in the case of the declaratory statement. The register will then promptly forward the map and papers to the General Land Office.

25. Approval of constructed project.—The map and papers will be examined in the General Land Office to determine whether they comply with the law and the regulations, and whether the amount of land desired is warranted by the showing made in the application. If found satisfactory, they will be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior, and upon approval, the lands shown to be necessary for the proper use and enjoyment of the reservoir will be reserved from other disposition so long as the reservoir is maintained and water kept therein for the purposes named in the act. Upon the receipt of notice of such reservation from the General Land Office, the register will make the proper notations on his records and report the making thereof promptly to the General Land Office.

26. Annual proof of maintenance.—In order that this reservation shall be continued, it is necessary that the reservoir "shall be kept in repair and water kept therein." For this reason the owner of the reservoir will be required, during the month of January of each year, to file in the local office an affidavit to the effect that the reservoir has been kept in repair and water kept therein during the preceding year, and that all the provisions of the act have been complied with. Form 10 (page) will be used for this affidavit. Upon failure to file such affidavit, steps will be taken looking to the revocation of the reservation of the lands.

27. Reservoir on unsurveyed land.—In any case where the proposed reservoir is to be located upon unsurveyed public land, the declaratory statement may be filed, the land being therein described by metes and bounds and, as well, by the description which it is believed it will bear when officially surveyed. Proof of construction must be submitted at the end of the same period of time and in the same manner as is prescribed and required in cases where the lands have been previously surveyed. Such proof should embrace the field notes and a plat of survey such as is required in cases of reservoirs on surveyed lands, with such modifications as are necessary (regulation 23).

(a) Any reservation made pursuant to this statute secures only a license to use and occupy the reserved land with and for a reservoir, and this license may endure permanently or may be of transient duration. No estate in the land is granted. For this reason it is administratively undesirable that private surveys made pursuant to the statute and these regulations shall be preserved and established by subsequent public-land surveys and approved plats thereof. When, therefore, the public-land surveys have been extended over land covered by a reservoir declaratory statement affecting unsurveyed lands, the declarant shall adjust his survey to the lines of the official survey, showing the location of the reservoir with respect to said lines by means of properly established tie lines. Any subsequent reservation which may be ordered will be of those subdivisions thus shown to be occupied by or necessary for the proper use of the reservoir.

(b) An annual affidavit of maintenance must be submitted the same as though the reservoir had been constructed on surveyed lands. Nothing in these regulations contained shall preclude the General Land Office or the Department from requiring additional information in any case where that information is deemed proper or necessary.

FENCING OF STOCKWATERING RESERVOIRS

28. Statutory authority.—The act of Congress approved March 3, 1923 (42 Stat. 1437), amends section 1 of the act of January 13, 1897 (29 Stat. 484), so as to authorize the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, under such rules, regulations, and conditions as he may prescribe, upon application by such person, company, or corporation, to grant permission to fence such reservoirs constructed under the act of January 13, 1897, in order to protect livestock, to conserve water, and to preserve its quality and conditions.

This act applies only to stock-watering reservoirs which have been or may hereafter be constructed and due proof of construction filed in the General Land Office.

29. Application for permission to fence reservoir.—Any person, company, or corporation, desiring to secure the benefits of this act should file in the local land office an application, under oath, duly corroborated by at least two disinterested witnesses, setting forth such facts as would show that it is necessary to fence such reservoir in order to protect the livestock, to conserve water, and to preserve its quality and conditions. There should be filed with such application, and as a part thereof, a plat showing the land embraced in the reservoir as near as may be, the location of the proposed fence with respect to such reservoir, together with all gates or other openings, and roadways leading to the same. In no instance will an application be considered unless said plat shows the location of at least two gates. Said gates shall be so constructed and maintained that they may be, at all times, readily opened and closed by any person desiring to water animals of any kind and such gates shall be so placed as to be readily accessible from the road or roads nearest the reservoir, which roads shall be the ones usually traveled and, where there are no such roads whereby to govern the location of such gates, they shall be so situated as to make the reservoir readily available from the adjacent public or other range; and that there shall be posted on the gates, and elsewhere if necessary, a notice stating that the reservoir is for stockwatering purposes, located on public lands, and that the same is opened to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind.

30. Action on application.—Upon the filing of such an application, it should be considered by the local office as an additional paper in the case and transmitted to the General Land Office by special letter under the serial number of the reservoir declaratory statement for such action as may be deemed proper.

RIGHTS-OF-WAY THROUGH PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH LINES, PIPE LINES, CANALS, DITCHES, WATER PLANTS, ETC.

31. Statutory authority.—The act of February 15, 1901 (31 Stat. 790; 43 U. S. C. 959), authorizes the Secretary of the Interior, under such regulations as he may fix, to permit the use of rights-of-way through public lands and certain reservations of the United States, for telephone and telegraph lines, pipe lines, canals, ditches, water plants, etc., to the extent of the ground occupied by such canals, ditches, or water plants, or other works permitted thereunder, and not to exceed fifty feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof, or not to exceed fifty feet on each side of the center line of such pipe lines, telephone and telegraph lines, by any citizen, association or corporation of the United States, where it is intended by such to exercise the use permitted under said act.

32. Applications which may be submitted.—Although the act of February 15, 1901, does not expressly repeal any provision of law relating to the granting of permission to use rights-of-way contained in the act of January 21, 1895, and section 1 of the act of May 11, 1898, yet in view of the general scope and purpose of the act, and of the fact that Congress has, with the exception above noted, embodied therein the main features of the former acts relative to the granting of a mere permission or license for such use, it is evident that, for the purposes of administration, the act of February 15, 1901, should control in so far as it pertains to the granting of permission to use rights-of-way for purposes therein specified. Accordingly, all applications for permission to use rights-of-way for the purposes specified in the act of February 15, 1901, must be submitted thereunder. Where, however, it is sought to acquire a right-of-way for the main purpose of irrigation as contemplated by sections 18 to 21 of the act of March 3, 1891 (26 Stat. 1095), and section 2 of the act of May 11, 1898, supra, the application must be submitted in accordance with the regulations issued under said acts.

(a) An application may be filed under the act of February 15, 1901, for a stockwatering reservoir site. An application under the act for a "water plant" site or for a pipe line right-of-way may include an area for a well to supply the water, but if, because the lands affected are within a grazing district established under the grazing act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), or for any other reason, the granting of a permit for a stockwatering reservoir site, or for a water plant site or for a pipe line right-of-way, would adversely affect the interests of the Government, the applications therefor will not be allowed. If the lands affected are within a grazing district, an application for a stockwatering reservoir or water well site should be filed under section 4 of said act of June 28, 1934, with the Regional Grazier, if the applicant is qualified under the section, and if the reservoir or well is necessary to the care and management of the permitted livestock and primarily for that purpose. Regulations under the said section 4 are contained in a separate circular which will be sent by the Regional Grazier upon request.

33. No rights acquired prior to filing and approval of application.—Application under the act of February 15, 1901, for permission to use the desired right-of-way through the public lands and parks designated in the act must be filed and approved before any rights can be claimed thereunder.

34. Nature of permit.—It is to be specially noted that the act of February 15, 1901, does not make a grant in the nature of an easement but authorizes a mere permit in the nature of a license, which permit may be revoked by the Secretary, or his successor, at any time in his discretion. Further, it gives no right whatever, to take from public lands, reservations, or parks adjacent to the right-of-way, any materials, earth, or stone for construction or other purposes. The final disposal by the United States of any tract traversed by a right-of-way permitted under this act shall not be considered to be a revocation of such permission in whole or in part but such final disposal shall be deemed and taken to be subject to such right-of-way until such permission shall have been specifically revoked in accordance with the provisions of said act.

35. When application should be made to Department of Agriculture.—Section 1 of the act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628), vested jurisdiction in the Department of Agriculture to pass upon all applications under any law of the United States providing for the granting of a permission to occupy and use lands in a national forest, provided this occupation or use is temporary, and will in no wise affect the fee or cloud the title of the United States should the reserve be discontinued.

Therefore, when it is desired to obtain permission under the act of February 15, 1901, to use a right-of-way over public lands wholly within a national forest, an application should be prepared in accordance with the instructions issued by the Department of Agriculture, and should be filed with the officer in charge of such national forest.

In case the applicant desires rights and privileges upon public lands partly within and partly without a national forest, separate applications must be prepared, and the one affecting lands within the national forest filed with the forest officer and the other filed in the local land office.

36. Buildings to be platted on map in main drawing and in separate drawing.—When application is made for right-of-way for water plants, the location and extent of ground proposed to be occupied by buildings or other structures necessary to be used in connection therewith must be clearly designated on the map and described (forms 5 and 6, pages ( ) and ( )) by reference to course and distance from a corner of the public survey. In addition to being shown in connection with the main drawing, the buildings or other structures must be platted on the map in a separate drawing on a scale sufficiently large to show clearly their dimensions and relative positions. When two or more such proposed structures are to be located near each other, it will be sufficient to give the reference to a corner of the public survey for one of them, provided all the others are connected therewith by course and distance shown on the map. The applicant must also file an affidavit setting forth the dimensions and proposed use of each of the structures, and must show definitely that each one is necessary for a proper use of the right-of-way for the purposes contemplated in the act.

37. Unsurveyed lands.—Permission may be given under this act (February 15, 1901), for rights-of-way upon unsurveyed lands, maps to be prepared in accordance with the requirements of this circular.

38. National parks.—Whenever a right-of-way is through any of the national parks designated in the act, for purposes other than those excepted by the act of March 3, 1921, (regulation 7) the applicant must show to the satisfaction of the Department that the location and use of the right-of-way for the purposes contemplated will not interfere with the uses and purposes for which the park was originally dedicated, and will not result in damage or injury to the natural conditions of property or scenery existing therein. The applicant must also file such stipulations and bond as may be required by the Director of the National Park Service.

Whenever right-of-way within a park is desired for operations in connection with mining, quarrying, cutting timber, or manufacturing lumber, a satisfactory showing must be made of the applicant's right to engage in such operations within the park.

39. Indian reservations.—Applications for right-of-way, under the act of February 15, 1901, all of which is located upon land within an Indian reservation, and applications for right-of-way affecting lands within and without Indian reservations must be filed in the local land office for forwarding to the Commissioner of the General Land Office. Before such applications are transmitted to the Department, they will be submitted by the Commissioner of the General Land Office to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for such action and recommendation as that officer may deem proper in so far as the same pertains to such Indian reservation. Attention is directed to the provisions of section 3 of the act of March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1083), which authorizes the granting of permanent rights-of-way, in the nature of easements, for telegraph and telephone purposes only, through Indian reservations and other Indian lands, upon payment of proper compensation for the benefit of the Indians interested therein. The provisions of the act of March 3, 1901, and the nature and character of the rights authorized to be secured thereunder differ materially from the provisions of the act on which these regulations are based and the rights authorized to be conferred thereunder. Applicants desiring to secure permanent rights-of-way through Indian reservations or other Indian lands for telegraph and telephone purposes will, therefore, be required to submit their applications under the act of March 3, 1901, supra, in accordance with the then current regulations issued thereunder. (For existing regulations under said act, see Indian Office regulations approved May 22, 1928.)

RIGHTS-OF-WAY OVER PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH LINES

40. Statutory authority.—The act of March 4, 1911 (36 Stat. 1253; 43 U. S. C. 961), authorizes the head of the department having jurisdiction over the lands, under such regulations as may be fixed by him to permit the use of rights-of-way for a period not exceeding fifty years, over and across public lands and reservations of the United States, for telephone and telegraph lines to the extent of twenty feet on each side of the center line of such telephone and telegraph lines, by any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States, where it is intended by such to exercise the use permitted under said act.

41. Jurisdiction over land.—For the purposes of this statute, national parks, Indian reservations, and reservations for water power sites, irrigation, classification of lands, or other purposes, created under the withdrawal act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847), are considered to be under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior; military reservations under the jurisdiction of the War Department; and reservations created for the special occupancy, use, or control of other departments under the jurisdiction of such departments, respectively. The Attorney General on February 3, 1912, advised the Secretaries of the Interior and Agriculture that, for this purpose, national forests are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Agriculture (29 Op. 303).

42. Nature of permit.—This act, which authorizes the granting of easements for telephone and telegraph lines for stated periods not to exceed 50 years, follows, as closely as is possible in the accomplishment of its purposes, the language of the act of February 15, 1901 (31 Stat. 790), which authorizes mere revocable permits or licenses not only for such lines but for other purposes.

RIGHTS-OF-WAY THROUGH NATIONAL FORESTS FOR DAMS, RESERVOIRS, WATER PLANTS, DITCHES, FLUMES, PIPES, TUNNELS, AND CANALS FOR MUNICIPAL OR MINING PURPOSES

43. Statutory authority.—Section 4 of the act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628; 16 U. S. C. 524), grants rights-of-way through national forests to citizens and corporations of the United States, for the construction and maintenance of dams, reservoirs, water plants, pipes, tunnels, and canals, for municipal or mining purposes, during the period of the beneficial use, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and subject to the laws of the State or Territory in which said forests are respectively situated.

44. Commencement of construction.—No construction will be allowed in national forests until an application for right-of-way has been regularly filed in accordance with these regulations and has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, or unless permission has been specifically given.

45. Nature of grant.—Grants made under the act are base fees with possibility of reverter to the Government in the event the grantee or successor ceases to use or retain the lands for the purposes for which they were granted. No right, whatever, is given to take any material, earth, or stone for construction or other purposes, nor is any right given to use any land outside of what is actually necessary for the construction and maintenance of the works.

46. Water plant structures.—When application is made for right-of-way for water plants, regulation 36 should be followed, with appropriate changes in the prescribed forms.

47. Unsurveyed lands.—Maps showing reservoirs, canals, water plants, etc., wholly upon unsurveyed lands, will be received and acted upon in the manner prescribed for surveyed lands.

RIGHTS-OF-WAY OVER PUBLIC LANDS FOR TRAMROADS, TRAMWAYS, LOGGING AND OTHER ROADS

48. Statutory authority.—The act of January 21, 1895 (28 Stat. 635; 43 U. S. C. 956), authorizes the Secretary of the Interior under such regulations as may be fixed by him to permit the use of rights-of-way over the public lands of the United States, for tramroads to the extent of fifty feet on each side of the center line of the tramroad, by any citizen or association of citizens of the United States, engaged in the business of mining, or quarrying or of cutting timber and manufacturing lumber. The act does not authorize the use of rights-of-way within the limits of any park, national forest, military reservation or Indian reservation.

49. "Tramroads" defined.—This act has been superseded by other acts given in this circular, except as to tramroads. "Tramroads" is considered as including "tramways," narrow-gauge railroads, and wagon or motor-truck roads to be used in connection with mining, quarrying, logging, and the manufacturing of lumber.

50. Nature of permit.—Permission to use rights-of-way for tramroads over public lands, when granted, only confers a right in the nature of a license and is subject to all the conditions and limitations hereinbefore stated in regulation 34.

RIGHTS-OF-WAY OVER PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR HIGHWAYS AND ROAD-BUILDING MATERIAL SITES

51. Statutory authority.—Section 17 of the Federal Aid Highway Act of November 9, 1921 (42 Stat. 212; 23 U. S. C. 18), authorizes the transfer of public lands and reservations of the United States to the State highway departments on determination by the Secretary of Agriculture that such lands are necessary for the right-of-way for any highway or forest road or as a source of materials for the construction and maintenance of such roads and highways, and after his request for such transfer with a map showing the portions of such lands which it is desired to appropriate.

This statute provides that if within a period of four months after such filing the Secretary of the Interior shall not have certified to the Secretary of Agriculture that the proposed transfer of such lands is contrary to public interest or inconsistent with the object of the Government, or shall have agreed to the appropriation and transfer under conditions which he deems necessary for the protection of the Government's interest, then such land or materials may be appropriated and transferred to the State highway departments for such purposes. If and when the need for any such land or materials shall no longer exist, notice of that fact must be given by the State highway department to the Secretary of Agriculture, and such lands or materials will immediately revert to the control of the Department of the Interior.

52. Filing of application.—Where a highway is to be constructed or improved under the provisions of the act of November 9, 1921, and the amendment or supplements thereto, the State highway departments may take advantage of the provisions of section 17 of said act by filing application and maps with the register of the land office for the district in which the lands affected are situated, in the manner prescribed by regulations 1 and 4. Application for rights-of-way under section 17 of said act should be filed by the State highway department of the particular State and not by any political subdivision of the State. No application will be received by the register under said section 17 for right-of-way for highways or material sites affecting lands entirely within a national forest or an Indian reservation.

53. Action on application.—Upon receipt of an application in the local land office, filed under section 17, action thereon will be taken in accordance with regulation 8. If unpatented lands are affected, the register will forward the application and map, or set of maps, to the General Land Office and will return the duplicate map, or maps, to the State highway department which will forward them to the Bureau of Public Roads for submission to the Secretary of Agriculture for his determination that the lands are necessary for right-of-way for the highway or road-building material site purpose, as required by the act.

RIGHTS-OF-WAY FOR ROADS AND HIGHWAYS OVER PUBLIC LANDS

54. Statutory authority.—By section 2477, U. S. R. S., 43 U. S. C. 932, it is provided:

"The right of way for the construction of highways over public lands, not reserved for public uses, is hereby granted."

55. When grant becomes effective.—This grant becomes effective upon the construction or establishing of highways, in accordance with the State laws, over public lands not reserved for public uses. No application should be filed under the act, as no action on the part of the Federal Government is necessary.

RIGHTS-OF-WAY THROUGH PUBLIC LANDS AND RESERVATIONS FOR OIL AND NATURAL GAS PIPE LINES AND PUMPING PLANT SITES

56. Statutory authority.—Section 28 of the act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 437), as amended by the act of August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 674; 30 U. S. C. 185), authorizes the Secretary of the Interior to grant rights-of-way through the public lands, including the forest reserves of the United States, for pipe line purposes for the transportation of oil or natural gas to any applicant possessing the qualifications provided in section 1 of the act, to the extent of the ground occupied by the said pipe line and twenty feet on each side of the same under such regulations and conditions as to survey, location, application, and use as may be prescribed by him, and upon the express conditions, provisions, and limitations enumerated in said section 28.

Section 29 of said act provides, in part:

"That any permit, lease, occupation, or use permitted under this Act shall reserve to the Secretary of the Interior the right to permit upon such terms as he may determine to be just, for joint or several use, such easements or rights of way, including easements in tunnels upon, through, or in the lands leased, occupied, or used as may be necessary or appropriate to the working of the same, or of other lands containing the deposits described in this Act, and the treatment and shipment of the products thereof by or under authority of the Government, its lessees, or permittees, and for other public purposes."

57. Qualification of applicants.—Applications may be filed by citizens of the United States, or association of such persons, any corporation organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State or Territory, and municipalities.

58. Use of pipe line.—The applicant shall state in the application (preferably in the certificate written on the face of the map), the specific use, within the purview of the act, to which the pipe line is to be put, and any approval of the grant for the right-of-way shall be limited to such specific use, unless otherwise stated in the approval. No change in the use of the pipe line, other than that authorized by the approval, shall be allowed except with approval in writing first obtained from the Secretary of the Interior, and upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe as a prerequisite to the approval of the change of use.

59. Approval of right-of-way.—The approval of such rights-of-way grant shall be subject to the express conditions that the use of the pipe line for the transportation of oil, gas, or other similar natural products, shall be limited to such products produced in conformity with State and Federal laws, including laws prohibiting waste.

60. Pumping plant site.—By opinion of December 2, 1931 (36 Op. Atty. Gen. 480), the Attorney General held that under section 28 of the act there may be granted a site for a pumping station reasonably necessary to the operation of a pipe line on a right-of-way granted under the section.

61. Trespass.—Any occupancy or use of public lands, including reservations, parks, or national forests, without proper authority, constitutes a trespass.

Commissioner, General Land Office.

CONSTRUCTION OF MOTION-PICTURE BOOTHS

Resolved, That under authority of Sections 4405 and 4472, R. S., Rule V, all classes of the General Rules and Regulations, be and hereby are amended by the addition of the following new section:

BOOTHS

Apparatus for projecting motion pictures using inflammable (nitrocellulose) film or slow-burning (acetate cellulose) film shall be contained in a fire-resistive booth or inclosure. It shall be not less than 7 feet in height and of horizontal area not less than 30 square feet for each projector. It shall not be located nearer than 10 feet to the principal exits of the room.

(a) Construction of booth.—The framework shall be constructed of structural steel angles or T irons not less than 1½ inches by 1½ inches by ¼ inch, spaced not more than 2 feet apart, or 2 inches by ¼ inch, when spaced from 2 feet to 4 feet apart, and shall be suitably braced to withstand lateral strains. It shall be securely anchored to the deck. The ton and sides of the booth shall be covered on the inside of the steel frame with a metal sheet not thinner than No. 20 gauge, inside of which is placed asbestos millboard not less than ¼ inch thick, all properly secured to the framework. Transite asbestos boards or asbestos wood may be used without the sheet-metal covering, provided the distance between supports or the ½-inch thickness does not exceed 2 feet; for the ⅜-inch thickness, 3 feet; for the ½-inch thickness, 4 feet. The door shall be constructed similar to the booth, and shall be not less than 2 feet wide and 5 feet high, shall be self-closing, fit its frame tightly, and be provided with proper latches. The floor shall be covered with one thickness of ⅜-inch asbestos millboard or transite board.

All joints shall be made smoke proof.

(b) Openings in booth.—The booth shall be provided with a ventilating inlet on each of the three sides, each to be about 15 inches long and 3 inches high, covered on the outside with wire netting of mesh not greater than ⅛ inch, securely fastened to the wall. In the top of the booth shall be located an air-outlet opening of not less than 100 square inches for each projector connected by a fire-resistive flue to a safe distance above the top deck if the booth is located below deck. The flue shall be securely supported on the framework of the booth. This is designed to provide for an air current through the booth, when operating, of 30 or more cubic feet per minute. If in the given location this is not accomplished, artificial ventilation, as by means of a fan within the booth, shall be introduced.

Two openings shall be provided at the front of the booth, one for the machine and the other for observation by the operator, the maximum area of each opening not to exceed 70 square inches. These openings as well as the air inlets near the bottom of the booth shall be provided with gravity doors made of iron or steel not less than 3/16 inch in thickness, of size to overlap the openings by at least 2 inches, and arranged to slide without binding in properly constructed grooves, the joint between door and wall to be smoke-tight when doors are closed; said doors to be held open normally by the use of a fine combustible cord fastened to a fusible link located above the projector which melts at a temperature of 71° C. (160° F.), the whole being so arranged that the doors will close automatically upon severing of the cord or the fusing of the link. Provision shall also be made for closing said doors by hand from the outside of the booth.

(c) General requirements.—All films on board shall at all times be kept within the operating booths, except as otherwise herein provided. They shall be contained in individual metal boxes, except for the film in the machine and the film immediately before it is placed in or immediately after removal from the machine. Where not over five 5-pound reels are present in the booth they may be placed on incombustible shelves, suitably secured against displacement by the motions of the boat. Where more than 5 reels but not more than 10 reels are present, they shall be kept in closed shelves or cabinets similar in construction to that of the walls of the booth. Where more than ten 5-pound reels are present, they are to be stored in an insulated firm cabinet, the cabinet to be constructed per appended specifications.

All rewinding and repair of film shall be conducted within the projecting booth, unless a place with equal safeguards is provided.

When in use the door of the booth shall be closed and when not in use it shall be locked.

The projecting machine is to be suitably secured against displacement by the motions of the boat. All electric wiring and connections shall conform with accepted standards for the given purpose (National Electric Safety Code or National Electric Code). No smoking, matches, or lights other than properly guarded electric lights shall be permitted within the booth.

CABINETS

(a) The size of a cabinet for the temporary storage of films on board shall not exceed 10 cubic feet, and shall not be used for storage at one time of more than forty 5-pound reels. The reels shall be contained within suitable metal containers and be held on racks in such manner as not to be displaced by the motions of the boat.

(b) The cabinet shall be constructed of incombustible materials throughout and shall be tightly enclosed. It may be of sheet iron of not less than No. 18 U. S. gage, stiffened with angle irons, double walled, with not less than 2 inches of space between walls, filled with incombustible insulating material, or equivalent construction. The door shall be constructed equivalent to the walls of the cabinet, shall be self-closing, fit closely, and be kept closed and locked at all times except when films are being removed from or placed in the cabinet. If the cabinet is located within the booth, the door of the cabinet shall open outward through the wall of the booth, with tight joints between the booth wall and the cabinet or door. The cabinet shall otherwise be kept in a hold for the storage of hazardous materials. The cabinet shall be secured to the deck by fastenings attached to the outer angle irons.

FIRE EXTINGUISHER REQUIRED

At least one fire extinguisher of a kind approved by the Board of Supervising Inspectors shall be placed near every such booth and be accessible at all times.

The other spray nozzle and adapter may be used in connection with the regular fire hose and fire line equipment from the deck, provided that sufficient hose is available to reach any part of the boiler or engine room space; Provided further, That on cargo and passenger vessels propelled by electric motors, spray nozzles are not required in the main motor room or in the machinery space when the major portion of auxiliaries are electrically driven. Spray nozzles are not required in the machinery space on cargo and passenger vessels propelled by internal combustion engines when a major portion of the auxiliaries are electrically driven.

(b) In boiler and machinery spaces of new cargo and new passenger vessels of 1600 gross tons and over, there shall be fitted in each such compartment not less than two spray nozzle hydrants to which shall be attached sufficient length of hose so that any part of the boiler or machinery space may be reached. An approved spray nozzle shall be attached to each hose line.

4. (a) On all steam propelled vessels having one boiler room there shall be provided one fire extinguisher of the foam type of at least 40 gallons rated capacity or one carbon dioxide (CO_2) extinguisher of at least 100 pounds. If the vessel has more than one boiler room, an extinguisher of the above type shall be provided in each boiler room.

(b) On all steam propelled vessels of 1,000 gross tons and under, foam type fire extinguishers of at least 20 gallons rated capacity or carbon dioxide (CO_2) extinguishers of at least 50 pounds may be used in lieu of the capacities required in (a) above.

(c) Extinguishers fitted in compliance with (a) and (b) above shall be equipped with suitable hose and nozzles on reels or other practicable means easy of access, and of sufficient length to reach any part of the boiler room and spaces containing oil-fuel pumping units.

5. (a) Steam propelled passenger vessels burning oil for fuel shall be fitted with an approved fixed carbon dioxide or foam type system for extinguishing fire in the bilges of each fire room. If engine and boiler rooms are not entirely separate, or if fuel oil can drain from the boiler room bilge into the engine room, the combined engine and boiler rooms shall be considered one compartment. The system shall be capable of being operated from a convenient and accessible point outside of space protected.

(b) Passenger vessels propelled by internal combustion engines shall be fitted with an approved fixed carbon dioxide system, for extinguishing fire in the machinery space. The system shall be capable of being operated from a convenient and accessible point outside of space protected.

6. All vessels propelled by internal-combustion engines shall be equipped with the following foam type or carbon dioxide fire extinguishers in the machinery spaces:

(a) One approved 12-gallon foam type extinguisher or one approved 35-pound carbon dioxide extinguisher.

(b) One approved 2½-gallon foam type, or one approved 15-pound carbon dioxide extinguisher for each 1,000 BHP of the main engines, or fraction thereof.

(c) The total number of 2½-gallon foam type or 15-pound carbon dioxide extinguishers carried in compliance with (b) above, shall not be less than two, and need not exceed six.

(d) When a donkey boiler fitted to burn oil as fuel is located in the machinery space, there shall be substituted for the 12-gallon foam or 35-pound carbon dioxide unit required by (a) above, one approved 40-gallon foam or one approved 100-pound carbon dioxide unit.

7. (a) On all passenger vessels there shall be provided in the machinery spaces, which contain electric propelling motors and generators of the open type, at least one 15-pound carbon dioxide extinguisher for each such electric propelling motor and generator unit.

(b) On all passenger vessels, small compartments containing auxiliary internal combustion engines, such as emergency generators, etc., shall, in addition to any other extinguishers required, be provided with one approved 15-pound carbon dioxide or 2½-gallon foam extinguisher for each such compartment. This extinguisher shall be located outside of and adjacent to the entrance of the compartment.

8. Carbon dioxide system requirements.—(a) When a carbon dioxide (CO_2) smothering system is fitted in the boiler room, the quantity of carbon dioxide carried shall be sufficient to give a gas saturation of 25 percent of the gross volume of the largest boiler room from tank top to top of the boilers. Top of the boilers is to be considered as the top of the shell of a Scotch or leg type of boiler, and the top of the casing or drum, whichever is the higher, on water-tube boilers. The quantity of carbon dioxide required may be determined approximately by the following formula:

$$W=\frac{L\times B\times D}{36}$$

Where W=the weight of CO_2 required in pounds.
L=the length of the boiler room in feet.
B=the breadth of the boiler room in feet.
D=the distance in feet from tank top or flat forming lower boundary to top of boilers.

(b) When a carbon dioxide (CO_2) smothering system is fitted in the machinery space of vessels propelled by internal combustion engines, the quantity of carbon dioxide required may be determined approximately by the following formula:

$$W=\frac{L\times B\times D}{22}$$

Where W=the weight of CO_2 required in pounds.
L=the length of machinery space in feet.
B=breadth of the machinery space in feet.
D=distance in feet from tank top or flat forming lower boundary to the underside of deck forming the hatch opening.

(c) The whole charge of gas shall be capable of being released simultaneously by operating one valve and control. All cylinders shall be completely discharged in not more than two minutes. The arrangement of the piping shall be such as to give a general and fairly uniform distribution over the entire area protected. An alarm which shall operate automatically with the operation of the system shall be provided to give a warning in the space when the carbon dioxide is about to be released. Provision shall be made to prevent the admission of air into the lower parts of the boiler or engine room while the system is in operation.

9. Foam smothering system requirements.—(a) When a foam type system is fitted, its capacity shall be such as to rapidly discharge over the entire area of the bilge (tank top) of the largest boiler room a volume of foam six inches deep. The arrangement of piping shall be such as to give a uniform distribution over the entire area protected. The system shall be completely discharged in not more than three minutes.

(b) The foregoing system may be of a type employing either two-solution tanks or one or more generators using an approved dry chemical mixture. All containers and valves by which they are operated shall be easily accessible and so placed that they will not readily be cut off from use by an outbreak of fire.

(Act of June 28, 1934) as amended.

(C) Rating schedules to be used in evaluation of disability.—In any case where the service connected disability of a deceased person who served in the World War was not rated at the time of death in the degree required to confer entitlement under Public No. 484, 73d Congress (Act of June 28, 1934) as amended, and proof of the required degree of disability is filed subsequent to the date of death, the degree of disability will be evaluated in accordance with the schedule of disability ratings in effect at the time of death, or the Schedule of Disability Ratings, 1925, and extensions thereto, or the Schedule for Rating Disabilities, 1933, second edition, whichever provides the higher rating for the disease or injury evaluated. In such cases, the burden of proof shall be upon the claimant to show that the required degree of disability existed at the date of death. (May 13, 1938.)

* * * * * *

(G) Misconduct.—Death resulting from misconduct of the person who served is a ground for denial of compensation under the provisions of Public No. 484, 73d Congress, but not under Public No. 844, 74th Congress and Public Nos. 304 and 514, 75th Congress. (See R. & P. R-2576 (B). (May 13, 1938.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Bureau of Narcotics.

[Regulations No. 2]

IMPORTATION, EXPORTATION, AND TRANSSHIPMENT OF OPIUM OR COCA LEAVES OR ANY COMPOUND, MANUFACTURE, SALT, DERIVATIVE, OR PREPARATION THEREOF

NARCOTIC REGULATIONS MADE BY THE COMMISSIONER OF NARCOTICS WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY [1]

Effective Date, June 1, 1938

CHAPTER I. IMPORTS

Act of May 26, 1922, as amended

SEC. 2(b). That it is unlawful to import or bring any narcotic drug into the United States or any territory under its control or jurisdiction; except that such amounts of crude opium and coca leaves as the Commissioner of Narcotics finds to be necessary to provide for medical and legitimate uses only may be imported and brought into the United States or such territory under such regulations as the Commissioner of Narcotics shall prescribe, but no crude opium may be imported or brought in for the purpose of manufacturing heroin. All narcotic drugs imported under such regulations shall be subject to the duties which are now or may hereafter be imposed upon such drugs when imported.

SEC. 5. That no smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking shall be admitted into the United States or into any territory under its control or jurisdiction for transportation to another country, or be transferred or transshipped from one vessel to another vessel within any waters of the United States for immediate exportation or for any other purpose; and, except with the approval of the Commissioner of Narcotics, no other narcotic drug may be so admitted, transferred, or transshipped.

ARTICLE 1. Importation.—Crude opium and coca leaves may only be imported under formal permit issued by the Commissioner of Narcotics (hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner) pursuant to a duly executed application therefor, and after a determination by said Commissioner that the quantity of crude opium or coca leaves requested in the application is necessary to provide for, and will be applied to, medical and legitimate uses only. An exception to so much of this rule as requires a formal permit may be made in the case of an emergency which, in the judgment of the Commissioner, so affects the welfare of all or a large proportion of the population as to justify such extraordinary action. No permit shall be granted for the importation of opium to be manufactured into heroin, its salts, derivatives, or preparations. No importation by mail shall be permitted.

ART. 2. Who may import.—In exercising the powers and discharging the duties conferred and imposed upon him by the act with respect to the importation of crude opium and coca leaves, the Commissioner shall take such action as in his opinion will effectuate the intent and purpose of the act; and pursuant to this policy, in determining whether any applicant shall be permitted to import such crude opium and coca leaves, the Commissioner shall consider the character and standing of the applicant, his production facilities and trade connections, whether there is reasonable probability that he will apply all crude opium and coca leaves imported and narcotic drugs manufactured by him to medical and legitimate purposes, whether he may serve the public interests by lowering costs or improving quality of narcotic drugs by the use of improved methods, or any other factors which the Commissioner deems appropriate to consider in carrying out the policy mentioned. In the case of new applicants the Commissioner shall also consider whether the allotments to them of shares in the amount of crude opium and coca leaves determined by him to be necessary for medical and legitimate uses would probably have the effect of so reducing or rendering uncertain the supply of crude opium and coca leaves available from year to year to manufacturers already engaged in the manufacture of narcotic drugs as to endanger the efficient administration of the Narcotic Drugs Import and Export Act.

ART. 3. Application for permission to import.—Application for permission to import crude opium or coca leaves shall be made under oath on a form provided by the Treasury Department and forwarded to the Commissioner of Narcotics, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. The application shall show, in the spaces provided thereon, the name of the crude material desired to be imported (i. e., crude opium or coca leaves), the number of bales or cases of such crude material, the maximum total pounds of such material, the total tentative allotment to the importer of such crude material for the current calendar year, the total number of pounds of said allotment for which permits have previously been issued, and the total quantity of crude material actually imported during the current year to date. Information under the three subheads last mentioned need only be shown with respect to the particular crude drug for which application for permission to import is being made. The application shall also show the following: The name and address of the consignor, if known at the time application is submitted, but if unknown at that time, the fact should be indicated and the name and address afterwards furnished to the Commissioner as soon as ascertained by the importer; the foreign port of exportation (i. e., the place where the article will begin its journey of exportation to the United States); the port of entry into the United States; the latest date said shipment will leave said foreign port; and the stock on hand of the kind of crude drug desired to be imported under the respective subheads provided. If the application is executed and forwarded before the 15th day of a given month the stock on hand may be shown as of the last day of the penultimate preceding month, but if the application is executed and forwarded on or after the 15th day of a given month the stock on hand must be shown as of the last day of the month immediately preceding.

ART. 4. Alternative foreign ports.—If desired, alternative foreign ports of exportation may be indicated upon the application, thus, (1) Belgrade, (2) Istanbul. If a formal permit is issued pursuant to such an application it will bear the names of the two ports in the order given in the application, but will be construed as authority for the shipment to be made from the first port only, provided that if, prior to the certification of an invoice for a shipment under the permit from the first port mentioned, the importer wishes to have the permit applied to a shipment from the second port mentioned instead, and notifies the Commissioner in writing to that effect, an arrangement will be made looking toward the application of the permit to a shipment from such second port, thereby revoking authority to make any shipment under the permit from the first port mentioned. The arrangement for change of authorization to the second port of export will be made by cable, if requested, at the expense of the importer. If the arrangement for such change is not completed prior to the time the invoice for a shipment under the permit from the first port of export mentioned thereon is certified by the United States consul, the original authorization for the shipment from the first port will not be changed.

ART. 5. Import permit.—The import permit shall be prepared in sextuplet upon a form which has been approved by the Commissioner, but such permit shall not be valid unless signed by the Commissioner.

ART. 6. Preparation of import permit.—Import permits shall be serially numbered, the six copies of a given permit all to bear the serial number of that permit. Each copy of the permit shall have printed or stamped thereon the disposition to be made thereof. Each permit shall bear a notation to the effect that the Commissioner is satisfied that the consignment proposed to be imported is required for legitimate purposes. Each permit shall also be dated and shall certify that the importer named thereon is thereby permitted under the provisions of the Narcotic Drugs Import and Export Act, as amended, to import, through the port named, one shipment of not to exceed the specified quantity of crude opium or coca leaves, as the case may be, shipment to be made from a stated port before a specified date. All copies of import permits shall bear the signature of the Commissioner, and facsimiles of signatures shall not be used. All permits issued shall be entered in a register kept by the Commissioner for that purpose. No permit shall be altered or changed by any person after being signed by the Commissioner, and any change or alteration upon the face of any permit, after it shall have been signed by the Commissioner, shall render it void and of no effect. Permits are not transferable.

ART. 7. Effect of permit.—A permit duly signed and issued shall be authority to import, by the importer named thereon, one shipment only of not to exceed the maximum quantity of crude opium or coca leaves, as the case may be, specified on the permit, from a specified foreign port of export (see Articles 3 and 4), said shipment to be made on or before the date indicated for that purpose upon the permit. This date may, in the discretion of the Commissioner correspond with the date given on the application on the line labeled "Latest date shipment will leave above foreign port," but such date shall not be later than four months from the date permit is issued unless, for good cause shown, the Commissioner allows a longer period within which to make the shipment and so specifies on the permit. The maximum quantity of crude opium or coca leaves shall be stated on the permit in terms of pounds.

ART. 8. Shipments in greater or less amount than that authorized.—If the shipment made under the permit is greater than the maximum amount authorized to be imported under the permit as determined at the weighing by the customs officer, such difference shall be seized and forfeited to the Government.

If the shipment made under the permit is less than the maximum amount authorized to be imported under the permit as determined at the weighing by the customs officer, such difference, when ascertained by the Commissioner shall be recredited to the tentative allotment against which the quantity covered by the permit was charged, and the balance of any such tentative allotment with any such recredits will remain available to the importer to whom made (unless previously revoked in whole or in part) for importations pursuant to such permit or permits as are requested and issued during the remainder of the calendar year to which the allotment is applicable. No permit shall be issued for importation of a quantity of crude opium or coca leaves as a charge against the tentative allotment for a given calendar year, after the close of such calendar year, unless, for good cause shown, the Commissioner decides to make an exception in a proper case.

ART. 9. Cancelation of permit.—A permit may be canceled, after being issued, at the request of the importer, provided the necessary steps looking toward cancelation are accomplished prior to the certification by the United States consul of the invoice for a shipment under the permit from a designated foreign port of exportation, but after such certification the permit shall not be canceled at the request of the importer, irrespective of the date such request was made, unless it can be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the shipment was lost en route. In the event that a permit is lost, the Commissioner may upon the production by the importer of satisfactory proof, by affidavit or otherwise, issue a duplicate permit. Nothing herein contained shall effect the right, hereby reserved by the Commissioner, to cancel a permit at any time for proper cause.

ART. 10. Disposition of copies of permit.—If it is decided to approve an application for permission to import crude opium or coca leaves, an import permit shall be prepared in sextuplet, each copy of which shall be signed by the Commissioner. The six copies of each permit are designated respectively as original, (green), duplicate, (blue), triplicate, (pink), quadruplicate, (salmon), quintuplicate, (yellow), sextuple, (white). After being signed these copies shall be distributed and shall serve purposes as follows:

(a) The original copy, together with the quintuplicate copy, shall be transmitted to the importer, who will retain the quintuplicate copy on file as his record of authority for the importation, and he shall transmit the original copy of the permit to the foreign exporter. The foreign exporter will submit the original copy of the permit to the proper governmental authority in the exporting country (if required as a prerequisite to the issuance of an export authorization), and to the United States consul for the foreign port of exportation, and after certification of the invoice by the consul, this copy of the permit will accompany the shipment. Upon arrival of the imported merchandise the collector of customs at the port of entry will forward the original copy of the permit with the bill of lading to the appraiser for the port, who, after appraising the merchandise, will return the original copy of the permit to the Commissioner with a report on the reverse side of such original copy, showing the name of the port of importation, date prepared, net quantity and kind, and report of analysis of the merchandise entered.

(b) The duplicate copy shall be forwarded to the proper governmental authorities of the exporting country.

(c) The triplicate copy of the permit shall be forwarded to the United States consul for the foreign port of exportation in order that the consul may compare it with the original copy when presented by the foreign exporter. The triplicate copy is to be retained on file by the consul.

(d) The quadruplicate copy shall be forwarded to the collector of customs at the United States port of entry, which shall be the customs port of destination in the case of shipments transported under immediate transportation entries, in order that said collector may compare it with the original copy and the bill of lading upon arrival of the merchandise.

(e) The sextuple copy of the permit shall be retained on file in the office of the Commissioner.

If a discrepancy is noted between corresponding items upon different copies of a permit bearing the same serial number when compared by the United States consul or by the United States collector of customs, the officer shall refuse to certify the invoice or to permit entry of the importation, as the case may be, until the facts are communicated to the State Department or the Commissioner, respectively, and further instructions are received.

ART. 11. Sending original copy of import permit through State Department.—If desired by the importer, the original copy of the permit may, in lieu of being forwarded to the importer, be transmitted through the State Department to the United States consul at the foreign port of exportation together with the triplicate copy which said consul is required to retain on file. When this procedure is followed the importer shall, as soon as possible, ascertain the name of the exporter, located in or near said foreign port of exportation, that is authorized to make the shipment from said port under the permit, and shall communicate this name to the Commissioner with authorization to cause the consul to deliver such original copy to the exporter so designated. The consul will thereupon be authorized by the State Department by mail, or, if desired, by cable, at the expense of the importer, to deliver the original copy to the party so designated, and the consul shall be authorized to certify an invoice under the permit in the same manner as though the original copy had originally been presented to said consul by the foreign exporter for comparison with the triplicate copy as outlined in article 10. However, if the original copy remains in the consul's hands without cabled authorization for its delivery to a designated exporter to accompany a shipment under the permit after the date of expiration of the permit, such permit shall be deemed to have been canceled, and shall be so marked by the consul and returned, through the State Department, to the Commissioner, and no invoice shall be certified thereunder, nor shall any shipment thereunder be admitted to entry in the United States. The procedure outlined in this article is provided for the convenience of importers, and no responsibility for improperly transmitted cablegrams or for delivery of the original copy of the permit to an improper party, or other error arising out of such special arrangement can be accepted by the Commissioner, the State Department, or their representatives, but such arrangement shall be made at the risk and expense of the importer concerned.

ART. 12. Examination of shipment by customs officer.—Immediately upon the unlading of crude opium from the importing vessel, the customs officer shall carefully examine the cases or packages, note their condition, seal the packages, and if the port of importation as shown on the permit covering the shipment is the same as the port of first arrival, shall cause the cases or packages to be transported under customs guard and by bonded cartman to the appraiser's stores, where they shall be placed in a separate and specially protected inclosure. If the shipment is destined to a port of entry other than the port of first arrival, it shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement, by bonded carrier, to the port of entry to which destined after examination, notation of condition and sealing by the customs officer at the port of first arrival. Upon arrival of the shipment at the port of entry to which destined the customs officer shall observe the same procedure as to examination, notation of condition, and sealing as required at the port of first arrival, shall compare the original copy of the permit accompanying the shipping documents with the copy theretofore furnished to the collector of the port in the manner hereinbefore provided, and shall cause the shipment to be transported under customs guard and by bonded cartman to the appraiser's stores, where it shall be placed in a separate and specially protected inclosure.

ART. 13. Duties of appraiser.—The original copy of the permit, with the bill of lading for the shipment shall be forwarded to the appropriate appraiser, who shall take action thereon as provided in article 10a.

The appraiser shall cause such arrangements to be made as will insure the safe-keeping of the crude opium while in the appraiser's stores.

No delivery of crude opium to the importer from the appraiser's stores shall be permitted until the collector or his representative and the appraiser or his representative shall be satisfied and so note on the delivery permit, after personal examination, that the importer has taken all proper precautions for the safe transportation of the crude opium from the appraiser's stores to the importer's premises or to the premises of the common carrier if shipment is to be made.

Except as specially provided in these regulations, the procedure in the case of coca leaves shall be the same as in the case of other dutiable merchandise.

ART. 14. Purposes for which crude opium and coca leaves may be entered.—Except as otherwise specifically authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury and arranged by the Commissioner, crude opium may be entered only for consumption or for transportation in bond between the port of first arrival and the port of entry specified upon the import permit. No entry of either crude opium or coca leaves shall be permitted except upon an import permit duly issued by the Commissioner, and any quantity of crude opium or coca leaves imported or attempted to be imported not in accordance with such permit and these regulations shall be subject to forfeiture under the act.

Coca leaves may be entered either for consumption or warehouse or for transportation in bond between the port of first arrival and the port of entry specified on the permit covering the shipment.

ART. 15. Foreign trade zones.—No narcotic drug as defined in the act of May 26, 1922, as amended, shall be permitted to be introduced into a foreign trade zone, established under the act approved June 18, 1934, except that such quantities of narcotic drugs as are required for direct emergency medical needs within a zone may be admitted into said zone from customs territory of the United States subject to the requirements of the act of December 17, 1914, as amended, and regulations thereunder. Any narcotic drugs not admissible into a zone as herein provided, found within a zone shall be seized and disposed of according to law.

ART. 16. Statements rendered by importers.—Whenever required by the Commissioner, importers shall render to him not later than thirty days after receipt of the request therefor a statement under oath of the stocks of narcotic drugs on hand as of the date specified by the Commissioner in his request, and, if desired by the Commissioner, an estimate of the probable requirements for medical and legitimate uses of the importer for any subsequent period that may be designated by the Commissioner. In lieu of any special statement that may be considered necessary, the Commissioner may accept the figures given upon the monthly return or returns submitted by said importer under the act of December 17, 1914, as amended, and regulations thereunder.

CHAPTER II. EXPORTS

Act of May 26, 1922, as amended

SEC. 6 (a). That it shall be unlawful for any person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States Government to export or cause to be exported from the United States, or from territory under its control or jurisdiction, or from countries in which the United States exercises extraterritorial jurisdiction, any narcotic drug to any other country: Provided, That narcotic drugs (except smoking opium and opium prepared for smoking, the exportation of which is hereby absolutely prohibited) may be exported to a country only which has ratified and become a party to the convention and final protocol between the United States Government and other powers for the suppression of the abuses of opium and other drugs, commonly known as the International Opium Convention of 1912, and then only if (1) such country has instituted and maintains, in conformity with that convention, a system, which the Commissioner of Narcotics deems adequate, of permits or licenses for the control of imports of such narcotic drugs; (2) the narcotic drug is consigned to an authorized permittee; and (3) there is furnished to the Commissioner of Narcotics proof deemed adequate by him that the narcotic drug is to be applied exclusively to medical and legitimate uses within the country to which exported, that it will not be reexported from such country, and that there is an actual shortage of and a demand for the narcotic drug for medical and legitimate uses within such country.

* * * * * *

(c) The Commissioner of Narcotics shall make and publish all proper regulations to carry into effect the authority vested in him by this Act.

ART. 17. Exportation.—No person shall in any manner export from or take out of the United States, or cause to be exported or taken out of the United States any narcotic drug, nor shall any carrier receive for exportation, or export, or carry out of the United States any narcotic drug, unless and until a permit, in due form, to export the narcotic drug in each instance shall have been issued by the Commissioner.

ART. 18. Application for export permit.—A separate permit must be obtained for each consignment of narcotic drugs to be exported. Application for permission to export narcotic drugs shall be made under oath on an approved form provided by the Treasury Department for the purpose, and such application shall be transmitted to the Commissioner of Narcotics, Bureau of Narcotics, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. Each application shall show the date of execution, the exporter's internal-revenue registry number, and shall show in the space provided the name and detailed description of the narcotic drug or preparation desired to be exported, the net quantity thereof, the number and size of packages or containers, the name and quantity of the narcotic drug contained in any preparation being stated and the quantity of any solids being given in avoirdupois. The application shall contain a printed statement to the effect that the application is made for permission to export the narcotics listed therein, pursuant to the provisions of the Narcotic Drugs Import and Export Act, as amended, and the regulations thereunder. The application shall include the name, address, and business of the consignee, the foreign port of entry, the port of exportation, the approximate date of exportation, the name of the exporting carrier or vessel (if known, or if unknown it should be stated whether shipment will be made by express, freight, or otherwise, exports of narcotic drugs by mail being prohibited), the date and number, if any, of the supporting foreign import license or permit accompanying the application, and the authority by whom such foreign license or permit was issued. The application shall also contain an averment that the packages are marked according to the regulations, and to the best of affiant's knowledge and belief the narcotics therein are to be applied exclusively to medical and legitimate uses within the country to which exported, will not be reexported therefrom, and are needed therein because there is an actual shortage thereof and a demand therefor for medical and legitimate uses within such country. The application shall be signed by the exporter, or by his duly appointed agent whose title shall be given in the space provided therefor, and shall contain the address from which the drugs will be shipped for exportation.

ART. 19. Foreign import license or permit to be submitted.—There shall also be submitted any import license or permit (and a translation thereof if in a foreign language) or a certified copy of any such license or permit issued by competent authorities in the country of destination, or other documentary evidence deemed adequate by the Commissioner showing that the merchandise is consigned to an authorized permittee, that it is to be applied exclusively to medical and legitimate uses within the country of destination, that it will not be reexported from such country, and that there is an actual shortage of and a demand for the merchandise for medical and legitimate uses within such country. Verification by an American consular officer of signatures on foreign import licenses will be necessary if such licenses do not bear the seal of the officer signing them.

ART. 20. Additional information.—If after careful consideration of the application it is found that approval cannot be given, such fact and the reasons therefor will be communicated to the applicant by the Commissioner. If additional information is required, or other action is necessary to correct any mistake or irregularity in the application or accompanying documents, opportunity will be afforded the prospective exporter by the Commissioner to furnish such additional information or to correct such mistake or irregularity before the application is finally disapproved.

ART. 21. Disposition of copies of export permit.—If, from the facts presented in the application, the Commissioner finds it proper to permit the requested exportation, an export permit shall be prepared in sextuplet in the office of the Commissioner. Each of the six copies of the export permit shall be marked as to disposition and shall be distributed and serve purposes as follows:

(a) The original copy, together with the duplicate and triplicate copies, shall be transmitted to the exporter who will retain the triplicate copy on file as his record of authority for the exportation. The exporter shall present to the customs authorities, at the port of export, except when the shipment is to proceed from an interior port, and then at such interior port, at the time of shipment, the original and duplicate copies. The shipper's export declaration shall be presented to the customs authorities at the port of exportation from the United States. After customs endorsement of export in the space provided on the reverse side of the export permit, the collector of customs shall forward the endorsed original copy of the export permit with the shipment, and return the endorsed duplicate copy to the office of the Commissioner.

(b) The quadruplicate copy of the export permit shall be forwarded to the collector of customs at the port of export for comparison with the original and to be retained for the customs record.

(c) The quintuplicate copy of the export permit shall be sent to the officer in the country of destination who issued the import certificate, or other documentary evidence upon which the export permit is founded.

(d) The sextuple copy of the export permit shall be retained on file in the office of the Commissioner.

ART. 22. Shipment from interior port.—In the event the consignment shall proceed from an interior port, the collector of customs at the interior port, after endorsing the original and duplicate copies of the export permit, shall forward the original copy with the shipment and shall transmit the duplicate copy of the export permit to the collector of customs at the port of lading on the export vessel or conveyance, and the latter collector of customs, after endorsing the duplicate copy, shall transmit it to the office of the Commissioner.

ART. 23. Special conditions relative to export permits.—Each export permit shall be serially numbered, and shall be predicated upon a separate import certificate or other documentary evidence, and not more than one shipment shall be made thereon. All export permits shall be entered in a register kept for that purpose in the office of the Commissioner. Export permits are not transferable.

ART. 24. Expiration date.—An export permit shall not be valid after the date specified therein, which date shall conform to the expiration date specified in the supporting import certificate or other documentary evidence upon which the export permit is founded, but in no event shall the rate be subsequent to three months after the date the permit is issued. Any unused export permit shall be returned by the permittee to the office of the Commissioner for cancelation.

ART. 25. Who may export.—No export permit will be issued unless and until the applicant shall be duly registered or qualified as an exempt official in accordance with the act of December 17, 1914, as amended, and the regulations thereunder.

ART. 26. Exportation to countries which have exceeded estimate.—No export permit shall be issued for the exportation of any narcotic drug to any country when the Commissioner has information to show that the estimates submitted with respect to that country for the current period, under Article 5 of the Narcotics Limitation Convention of 1931 have been, or, considering the quantity proposed to be imported, will be exceeded. If it shall appear, through subsequent advice received from the Permanent Central Opium Board, that the estimates of the country of destination have been adjusted to permit further importation of the narcotic drug, an export permit may then be issued if otherwise permissible.

ART. 27. Records required of exporter.—The exporter shall keep a record of any serial numbers that might appear on packages of narcotic drugs in quantities of one ounce or more in such a manner as will identify the foreign consignee.

CHAPTER III. IN-TRANSIT SHIPMENTS

Act of May 26, 1922, as Amended

SEC. 5. That no smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking shall be admitted into the United States or into any territory under its control or jurisdiction for transportation to another country, or be transferred or transshipped from one vessel to another vessel within any waters of the United States for immediate exportation or for any other purpose; and, except with the approval of the Commissioner of Narcotics, no other narcotic drug may be so admitted, transferred, or transshipped.

ART. 28. In-transit shipments.—Each in-transit shipment under Section 5 of the act will be considered by the Commissioner on its individual merits, but in general the regulations governing exports will be applied so far as practicable.

Articles in transit manifested merely as drugs, medicines, or chemicals, without evidence to satisfy the collector of customs that they are nonnarcotic, shall be detained and subjected at the carrier's risk and expense to such examination as may be necessary to satisfy the collector whether they are of a narcotic character. With a view to avoiding such inconvenience, the carrier should not accept in-transit shipments of such articles unless accompanied by properly verified certificates of the shippers, specifying the items in the shipment and stating whether narcotic or not.

CHAPTER IV. SPECIAL COCA LEAVES

Act of June 14, 1930

SEC. 6. In addition to the amount of coca leaves which may be imported under section 2 (b) of the Narcotic Drugs Import and Export Act, the Commissioner of Narcotics is authorized to permit, in accordance with regulations issued by him, the importation of additional amounts of coca leaves: Provided, That after the entry thereof into the United States all cocaine, ecgonine, and all salts, derivatives, and preparations from which cocaine or ecgonine may be synthesized or made, contained in such additional amounts of coca leaves, shall be destroyed under the supervision of an authorized representative of the Commissioner of Narcotics. All coca leaves imported under this section shall be subject to the duties which are now or may hereafter be imposed upon such coca leaves when imported.

ART. 29. Importation of special coca leaves.—Additional amounts of coca leaves (hereinafter designated as special coca leaves) may be imported only under formal permit issued pursuant to Article 33, by persons authorized to import in accordance with these regulations. Applications for such authority shall be made in writing to the Commissioner and shall include an estimate of the quantity of leaves required by the applicant for the calendar year to which the application relates.

ART. 30. Information required of prospective importer.—The Commissioner shall take such action on any application as in his opinion will effectuate the intent and purpose of the foregoing section of the act of June 14, 1930, and of these regulations. No authority to import will be granted unless and until the applicant shall have furnished proof satisfactory to the Commissioner:

(a) that, if an individual, he, or if a partnership, each member thereof, or if an association or corporation, the manager, each officer and director, and each member of any board of control, is of good character and standing;

(b) that the applicant is able, by means of a definite process and formula demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, to manfuacture an extract of coca leaves containing no cocaine, ecgonine, or any salt, derivative, or preparation from which cocaine or ecgonine may be synthesized or made;

(c) that the applicant has the financial standing and responsibility to undertake such manufacturing operation with reasonable likelihood of successful compliance with the intent and purpose of the foregoing section of the Act of June 14, 1930, and of these regulations; and

(d) of any other matter or thing which the Commissioner deems appropriate to consider.

ART. 31. Matters to be considered in granting permit.—The applicant shall also furnish proof satisfactory to the Commissioner that the estimated quantity of special coca leaves required by the applicant for the calendar year to which the application relates is reasonable under all the circumstances, taking into consideration, among other things, the applicant's trade connections, production facilities, and financial capacity to perform the indicated manufacturing operation with such estimated quantity of leaves.

The applicant shall agree to comply with the provisions of the foregoing section of the Act of June 14, 1930, and of these regulations, and the provisions of the Act of December 17, 1914, as amended, and to destroy, as hereinafter provided, under the supervision of an authorized representative of the Commissioner, all cocaine, ecgonine, and all salts, derivatives, and preparations from which cocaine or ecgonine may be synthesized or made, contained in and/or produced directly or indirectly from special coca leaves.

The Commissioner, in the determination of his action with respect to any application, may accept the proof furnished in connection with an application relating to a prior year, and may take into consideration any other matter or thing known to him or discovered by investigation which he may deem appropriate to consider in effectuating the intent and purpose of the Act of June 14, 1930, and of these regulations. In no event will authority to import be granted unless the Commissioner is satisfied that the application is made in good faith and not for the purpose of evading the law.

ART. 32. Approval or disapproval of application.—The Commissioner shall advise the applicant of his approval or disapproval of the application, and, in the event of approval, of the tentative maximum quantity of special coca leaves allowed the applicant for importation covering the requirements (as determined by the Commissioner) of the applicant for the calendar year to which the application relates. Such tentative maximum allowance may be increased or decreased in the discretion of the Commissioner, either on his own motion or on application supported by proof satisfactory to the Commissioner of the necessity therefor. No permit or permits will be issued allowing the applicant, in supplying such requirements, to import, as a charge against such tentative maximum allowance, a total quantity of special coca leaves in excess of such allowance, except as such allowance shall be increased or decreased in accordance with this article.

ART. 33. Application for permit to import.—A separate permit must be obtained for each shipment of special coca leaves imported by the applicant. Application for such permit or permits shall be made by the applicant on an approved form under oath. Such application shall show, in spaces provided thereon, the quantity in pounds of special coca leaves desired to be imported in the shipment and the number of bales or containers thereof; the tentative maximum quantity of special coca leaves allowed the applicant for the calendar year to which the application for permit relates, the total number of pounds of such tentative maximum quantity for which permits have previously been issued, and the total quantity of leaves actually imported thereunder; and the stock on hand of special coca leaves as such and the quantity of special coca leaves represented by finished stock or extract of coca leaves. The figures for stock on hand shall be given as of a date ascertained in the manner provided for in Article 3. The application shall also show the name and address of the consignor, if known at the time the application is submitted; if unknown, the application shall so state, and the name and address shall be furnished to the Commissioner as soon as ascertained by the importer; the foreign port of exportation (i. e., the place where the article will begin its journey of exportation to the United States); the port of entry into the United States; and the latest date the shipment will leave the foreign port. The provisions of Article 4 are hereby made applicable to importations of special coca leaves.

ART. 34. Registration of importer.—No permit or permits will be issued unless and until the applicant shall be duly registered in accordance with the Act of December 17, 1914, as amended, and regulations thereunder, and shall have paid the special tax, have rendered the returns and reports, and have kept the records now or hereafter required by such Act and regulations.

ART. 35. Allotment for calendar year not importable in succeeding year.—No application for a permit or permits to import received by the Commissioner after the expiration of the calendar year to which any authorized maximum allowance relates will be approved as a charge against such allowance.

ART. 36. Issuance of permits.—Permits to import shall be issued in the form, and importations thereunder shall be made in the manner, provided by these regulations. Article 8 of these regulations shall govern the procedure in the case of any shipment of a less or greater quantity of special coca leaves than the quantity authorized by the permit covering such shipment, and Article 9 of these regulations shall govern the procedure with respect to the cancelation, at the request of the importer, of permits to import special coca leaves.

ART. 37. Withdrawal from customs custody.—Special coca leaves, upon withdrawal from customs custody, shall be removed to the place of manufacture and safely stored in a storeroom adequately protected against theft and against entry by any persons other than the importing manufacturer and his duly authorized agents and employees, or the Commissioner and his duly authorized representative (hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner's representative). No special coca leaves shall be withdrawn or removed from said place of storage except in the presence of the Commissioner's representative. The importer shall identify each bale or other unit package of special coca leaves after its importation by attaching thereto a label or tag bearing the number of the permit authorizing the importation, the date withdrawn from customs custody, the inscription "Special Coca Leaves," and an individual serial number. Such bales or packages shall be kept apart from any bales or packages not containing special coca leaves. No special coca leaves shall be used for any purpose other than the purpose authorized by the Act of June 14, 1930 and these regulations.

ART. 38. Manufacturing operation.—The manufacturer shall notify the Commissioner, at least ten days in advance, of the commencement of the manufacturing operation with respect to special coca leaves, which operation shall thereafter be conducted to completion entirely separately and independently of any operation not involving special coca leaves. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed to prohibit the manufacture from coca leaves, other than special coca leaves, of any extract permitted by law. The manufacturing operation involving special coca leaves shall be as continuous, and completed as expeditiously, as possible, and shall be under the observation of the Commissioner's representative.

Immediately prior to the introduction into the manufacturing process of any given quantity of special coca leaves, the manufacturer or his agent duly authorized for the purpose shall, when requested by the Commissioner or his representative, furnish therefrom to the Commissioner's representative such a sample (selected in the presence of the representative) as the latter may require, together with a memorandum dated and signed by the manufacturer or his said agent showing the quantity of special coca leaves from which such sample was taken and the number, and identifying marks (see Article 37), of the original bales or unit packages of such leaves. The Commissioner's representative shall forward the sample and the memorandum to the Commissioner, or to such chemical laboratory as the Commissioner may designate. A similar sample shall be taken at the same time by the manufacturer or his agent for the purpose of analysis.

ART. 39. Residue.—At that point in the manufacturing process where the initial extract of special coca leaves undergoes a primary separation into two products, one containing principally flavoring extract and the other principally cocaine, ecgonine, and their salts and derivatives, the manufacturer or his duly authorized agent shall, in the presence of the Commissioner's representative, segregate the latter product, remove its content of recoverable alcohol, and ascertain the weight of the residue, and shall sign and deliver to the representative a dated memorandum showing such weight, the quantity of special coca leaves represented by such residue, and the number, and identifying marks, of the original bales or unit packages of such leaves. The Commissioner's representative shall forward such memorandum to the Commissioner or to such chemical laboratory as the Commissioner may designate, together with a sample of such residue, and the manufacturer shall take a similar sample for the purpose of analysis. The residue, after the taking of such samples, shall be immediately destroyed by the manufacturer, by incineration, in the presence of the Commissioner's representative. The same procedure shall be followed, in so far as the weighing, taking of samples, and forwarding of memoranda are concerned, with respect to the other product of the aforementioned primary separation; the residue, however, after the taking of samples, shall be continued in process. The representative may also take and forward samples of recovered alcohol.

ART. 40. Samples.—At any other stage in the process where substances containing cocaine, ecgonine, or salts, derivatives, or preparations from which cocaine or ecgonine, may be synthesized or made, are separated from other substances, the procedure hereinabove set forth shall be followed, including the forwarding of samples and memoranda, relative thereto, the taking of similar samples for the purpose of analysis by the manufacturer, and the destruction, after the taking of such samples, of substances required to be destroyed. The manufacturer or his agent shall also furnish the Commissioner's representative a sample of finished extract as it is withdrawn from process supposedly free from cocaine, ecgonine, and salts, derivatives, and preparations from which cocaine or ecgonine may be synthesized or made, together with a memorandum dated and signed by the manufacturer or such agent showing the quantity of finished extract, the quantity of special coca leaves represented by such finished extract, and the number, and identifying marks, of the original bales or unit packages of such leaves. The memorandum relative to each quantity of finished extract withdrawn from process shall include a certificate by the manufacturer that the quantity of finished extract of special coca leaves so withdrawn does not contain any cocaine, ecgonine, or any salt, derivative, or preparation from which cocaine or ecgonine may be synthesized or made. The manufacturer or his agent shall also furnish the Commissioner's representative a sample of the spent or used special coca leaves from each factory run, and a memorandum dated and signed by the manufacturer or his agent showing the quantity of special coca leaves represented by such spent leaves, and the number, and identifying marks of the original bales or unit packages of such special coca leaves. The Commissioner's representative shall forward such samples and memoranda to the Commissioner or to such chemical laboratory as the Commissioner may designate. Similar samples of finished extract and of spent or used special coca leaves shall be taken by the manufacturer for the purpose of analysis. The spent leaves, after taking of such samples, shall be immediately destroyed by the manufacturer by incineration, in the presence of the Commissioner's representative.

The Commissioner's representative shall have authority, under the direction of the Commissioner, to select and forward to the Commissioner such other samples of special coca leaves and the products thereof as are deemed appropriate, whether or not such samples are otherwise required by these regulations.

ART. 41. Commissioner's representative to have access to factory.—The Commissioner's representative shall have access at all times to the factory, storage rooms, and laboratories where any operation, process, or analysis involving special coca leaves, their salts, derivatives, preparations, products, or extracts is taking place, or where any such special coca leaves, their salts, derivatives, preparations, products, or extracts are situated or found.

The Commissioner's representative shall be afforded a full measure of cooperation in the performance of his duties in order that the intent and purpose of the Act of June 14, 1930, may be accomplished. Failure on the part of any importing manufacturer or his agent or employee to afford such cooperation to the Commissioner's representative, or to permit the access authorized by the preceding paragraph to the factories, storage rooms, or laboratories of such manufacturer, shall be grounds for canceling, pursuant to Article 44, both the authority to import under these regulations and the permits granted thereunder.

ART. 42. Reports to Commissioner.—The manufacturer shall make such additional reports to the Commissioner, and shall furnish to him by written statement such analytical data relative to the alkaloidal content, at any stage in the process, of special coca leaves or any product therefrom and such further information regarding analytical methods, as the Commissioner may deem necessary.

ART. 43. Discontinuance of business.—In the event that any person, by reason of bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, or voluntary or involuntary abandonment or discontinuance (other than mere suspension) of the business of manufacturing an authorized extract of coca leaves, or by reason of any other cause or condition (for example, see Article 44 and the last paragraph of Article 41), is unable, in accordance with the Act of June 14, 1930, and of these regulations, to make use of any special coca leaves or of any of the products thereof the destruction of which is not otherwise provided for by these regulations, such special coca leaves and such products shall be seized by the Commissioner and destroyed by incineration, provided, however, that after seizure and before destruction the manufacturer shall be given notice of the proposed destruction and the reasons therefor, and a reasonable opportunity to appear and show cause why such destruction should not be accomplished.

ART. 44. Cancelation of permit.—The Commissioner may withdraw any authorization and may cancel any permit previously granted to any manufacturer, if such manufacturer, by reason of bad faith, carelessness, incompetency, the causes for seizure specified in Article 43, or any other cause, fails to comply with these regulations or by any act or omission fails to observe the intent or purpose of the Act of June 14, 1930, provided, however, that the manufacturer shall be given notice of the Commissioner's proposed action in that regard and the reasons therefor, and a reasonable opportunity to appear and show cause why such action should not be taken.

ART. 45. Compliance with act of December 17, 1914, as amended.—Nothing contained in these regulations shall be construed to exempt any manufacturer from compliance with the Act of December 17, 1914, as amended, and regulations thereunder.

ART. 46. Returns required.—Every manufacturer using special coca leaves imported into the United States pursuant to the Act of June 14, 1930, shall render a quarterly return on Form 167 and its supplements, and shall thereon account for all transactions involving such leaves or substances derived therefrom which contain cocaine or ecgonine, or any salts, derivatives, or preparations from which cocaine or ecgonine may be synthesized or made. This return shall be signed and sworn to by the manufacturer or his authorized agent, and rendered direct to the Commissioner of Narcotics on or before the 12th day of the month following the period for which the return is made. Such return shall include a report of all importations of special coca leaves on Form 169a, a report of all materials entered into the processes of manufacture on Form 169b, a report of the various substances produced therefrom on Forms 169c, 169d and 169e, a report of all such substances destroyed on Form 169f, and a summary of operations on Form 169g.

(1) The lot number
(2) The quantity of ground leaves entered into process, in terms of avoirdupois ounces and the quantity, in ounces and grains, of alkaloid contained therein as determined by analysis

CHAPTER V. GENERAL

ART. 52. Importation or exportation by mail prohibited.—Neither importation nor exportation of narcotic drugs shall be made by means of the regular mails or by parcel post.

ART. 53. Medical stores on vessels.—Collectors of customs may permit narcotic drugs in reasonable quantities and properly listed as medical stores of vessels to remain on such vessels if satisfied that such drugs are adequately safeguarded and used only for medical purposes. Smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking shall be seized, however, whenever and wherever found within the jurisdiction of the United States.

ART. 54. Drugs seized to be delivered to collector of customs.—All narcotic drugs seized under the Narcotic Drugs Import and Export Act, as amended, by any Federal officer, other than a customs officer, shall be immediately delivered into the custody of the collector of customs in whose district the seizure was made, with a full report of the circumstances of the seizure, provided that where the seizure is made by a narcotic inspector or agent in connection with an investigation which such inspector or agent considers may result in criminal prosecution under any Federal narcotic law, the drugs so seized shall not be delivered into the custody of the collector of customs, but custody of such drugs shall be retained by the appropriate narcotic officer until it is determined that same will not, or will no longer, be required as evidence, whereupon disposition thereof shall be made as provided by law.

ART. 55. Forwarding drugs to Drugs Disposal Committee.—All narcotic drugs which have been forfeited to the Government, and are no longer required for purposes of evidence, shall immediately be forwarded to the Commissioner of Narcotics, (Drugs Disposal Committee) for proper disposition.

The delivery of such narcotic drugs shall be ordered by the Commissioner of Narcotics, if in his opinion, there exists a medical or scientific need therefor. The order will be filled by the Drugs Disposal Committee which will obtain a receipt for narcotic drugs delivered.

ART. 57. Penalties.—Persons who fraudulently or knowingly import or bring into the United States or any territory under its control or jurisdiction, any narcotic drug, in violation of the act, or assist in so doing, or receive, conceal, buy, sell, or in any manner facilitate the transportation, concealment, or sale, of any such narcotic drug after being imported or brought in, knowing the same to have been imported in violation of the act, shall be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000 and imprisonment for not more than ten years.

Persons who export or cause to be exported any narcotic drug in violation of the act are liable to punishment, the maximum liability being to a fine in any sum not exceeding $5,000 nor less than $50, or imprisonment for any time not exceeding two years, or both.

However, attention is invited to the provisions of the Act of August 12, 1937 (U. S. C., Supp. III, title 21, sec. 200), which provides for additional punishment for second, third and subsequent offenders in certain cases.

ART. 58. Permits issued prior to effective date of regulations.—Permits to import or export narcotic drugs which shall have been issued by the Commissioner prior to the effective date of these regulations shall continue in force and effect under the laws and regulations in effect when such authorizations were issued, unless specifically revoked by the Commissioner.

ART. 59. Regulations subject to provisions of other pertinent laws and regulations.—These regulations shall be subject to the provisions of the customs, internal-revenue, and other pertinent laws of the United States and regulations promulgated thereunder.

WHITE-PINE BLISTER RUST QUARANTINE No. 63

REVISION OF REGULATIONS, EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1938

Introductory Note

Several important changes are made in the restrictions on the interstate movement of five-leaved pines and current and gooseberry plants in the following revision of the white-pine blister rust quarantine regulations. An embargo is placed on the interstate movement of five-leaved pines into two pine-growing regions, one in the West comprising the States of Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming, and part of California, and the other in the Southeast comprising the States of Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee. The interstate movement of such pines from States other than these 11 entire States and from 10 northern California counties into the regions described is prohibited. The new regulations are designed to protect these pine-growing areas in which the blister rust is not known to exist.

No other restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of five-leaved pines unless they are visibly infected with the rust.

The dipping and dormancy requirements for currant and gooseberry plants which formerly applied only to shipments originating in the infected States, now apply to all shipments consigned to the States and counties listed above, from any State or District other than the 11 entire States and from the 10 northern California counties.

The control-area permit requirement now applies to currant and gooseberry plants consigned to 23 States as listed in regulation 3 (b). The aim of this requirement is to strengthen the Federal-State control activities carried on in areas surrounding valuable stands of five-leaved pine in these States.

No modification is made in the embargo as to all interstate movement of European black currant plants and of the wild native western currant plants (Ribes bracteosum and R. petiolare) except as to unrestricted movement into and between 12 central States as heretofore.

Summary

NOTICE OF QUARANTINE NO. 63

(Approved August 27, 1926; effective October 1, 1926; supersedes Quarantine No. 26, as amended, and Quarantine No. 54, as extended)

I, C. F. Marvin, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, have determined that it is necessary to quarantine every State of the continental United States and the District of Columbia, in order to prevent the spread of the white-pine blister rust (Cronartium ribicola Fischer), a dangerous plant disease not heretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States.

Now, therefore, under authority conferred by the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315), as amended by the act of Congress approved March 4, 1917 (39 Stat. 1134, 1165), and having duly given the public hearing required thereby, I do quarantine every State in the continental United States and the District of Columbia, effective on and after October 1, 1926. Hereafter, under the authority of said act of August 20, 1912, amended as aforesaid, no five-leaved pines (Pinus) or currant and gooseberry plants (Ribes and Grossularia, including cultivated or wild or ornamental sorts) shall be moved or allowed to be moved from any such State or from the District of Columbia into or through any other State in the continental United States or the District of Columbia, except in manner or method or under conditions prescribed in the rules and regulations supplemental hereto and in amendments thereof: Provided, That the restrictions of this quarantine and the rules and regulations supplemental hereto may be limited to the areas in a quarantined State now or hereafter designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as infected when said State shall have provided for and enforced such control measures with respect to such designated areas as, in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall be deemed adequate to effect the control and prevent the spread of the white-pine blister rust: Provided further, That, for the enforcement of the restrictions under this quarantine on the interstate movement of five-leaved pines and currant and gooseberry plants, all interstate shipments of nursery stock or other plants shall be subject to inspection at place of shipment or destination or at any point en route, by duly authorized inspectors of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

(a) Five-leaved pines shall not be moved interstate into any of the States of Arizona, Colorado, Georgia, Kentucky, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, or Wyoming, nor into that part of California lying south of the south line of the counties of Humboldt, Trinity, Tehama, Butte, Plumas, and Lassen: Provided, That no restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of such pines from or between any of the 11 above-named entire States nor from the part of California described.

(b) Five-leaved pines or parts thereof, when visibly infected with the white-pine blister rust shall not be moved interstate into any State or District unless such pines are shipped in a preservative or are authorized and labeled in accordance with the provisions of regulation 7.

Regulation 3. Control of Movement of Currant and Gooseberry Plants

(a) Embargo on European black currant plants.—No European black currant plants (Ribes nigrum) and no currant plants of the wild native western species known as R. bracteosum and R. petiolare shall be moved interstate in the continental United States except into or within the area comprised in the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, and Texas.

Such permit will not be issued if the plants are to be shipped into or planted in areas in which five-leaved pines have been protected from white-pine blister rust or in which such protection is contemplated. The continuance of this requirement as to any State is conditioned on the State providing such legal or other control on the planting and movement therein of currant and gooseberry plants as in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture may be deemed adequate to control white-pine blister rust in the protected areas.

Such lime-sulphur dip shall be plainly visible on said plants and be easily detectable by odor, the judgment of the inspector to be final as to adequacy of the dip and as to the condition of the plants as to dormancy or defoliation: Provided, That no such dipping or dormancy restrictions are placed on the interstate movement of currant and gooseberry plants from or between any of the 11 above-named entire States, nor from the part of California described.

Regulation 4. Marking Requirements

(a) Every box, bale, or other container of plants for which permits are required by regulations 3 and 7 shall be plainly marked with the name and address of the consignor and of the consignee, and shall bear the permit securely attached to the outside thereof.

(b) The permit in the case of carload shipments by rail shall accompany the waybill, conductor's manifest, memorandum, or bill of lading pertaining to such shipment. In the case of shipment by road vehicle, the permit shall accompany the vehicle.

Every car, vehicle, box, bale, or other container moved interstate or offered to a common carrier for shipment interstate, which contains or which the inspector has probable cause to believe contains either infected articles or articles the movement of which is prohibited or restricted by these regulations, shall be subject to inspection by an inspector at any time or place.

Regulation 6. Cancelation of Permits

Permits issued under these regulations may be withdrawn or canceled and further permits refused, whenever in the judgment of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, the further use of such permits might result in the dissemination of the white-pine blister rust. After any such permit is withdrawn or has expired, the further use of any permit tags issued thereunder is prohibited.

Regulation 7. Shipments for Reforestation, Experimental, Educational, or Scientific Purposes

Plants subject to restriction in these regulations may be moved interstate for reforestation purposes on Federal lands, or for experimental, educational, or scientific purposes on such conditions and under such safeguards as may be prescribed by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. (b) Collectors may insert the code numbers of commodities and units of quantities if they find it convenient to do so while examining entries for compliance with the commodity classification required by Schedule A.

(c) Entries for imported raw wool must show the class of wool, whether carpet, clothing, combing, mohair, alpaca, etc.; the condition, greasy, washed, scoured, or pulled; and the quality or grade in English or American standards; 36's to 44's as coarse or low crossbred; 44's/46's to 56's as medium crossbred; 56's to 58's as fine crossbred; and 60's and over as fine.

SEC. 25. Reports of corrections.—Changes in classification and changes in quantities or values amounting to $100 made in liquidating entries or withdrawals must be reported to the Section of Customs Statistics at New York on customs Form 7401, correction report of import entry or withdrawal. In order to minimize correction reports, collectors may hold entries until after examination and weighing of the goods, making any changes on the statistical copies forwarded to the New York statistical office, if that practice will not result in great delay in transmitting statistical copies of entries.

SEC. 26. Immediate transportation entries returned by port of final destination.—(a) Imported merchandise entered for immediate transportation without appraisement, and merchandise imported through frontier ports in cars secured by customs seals, will be excluded from the return of imports at the port of first arrival, but will be returned as imported at the port where entered for immediate consumption or for warehouse.

(b) The entries of such goods, made at the port of first arrival and the port of final destination, are required to show the country where the articles were invoiced and the nationality and motive power of the vessel in which they were brought to the United States, or to Canada, or Mexico, if the goods reach the United States through those countries.

SEC. 27. Imports of crude ores or metals.—(a) Imported crude ores or metals entered into bonded smelting warehouses will be reported statistically as imported at the port where entered into the bonded smelting or refining warehouse, in accordance with the instructions of T. D. 39828. Quantities and values of the different metal contents will be obtained from the consular invoice or estimated from previous similar importations in accordance with T. D. 39828.

(b) Consular invoices of gold, silver, copper, lead, tin, and other metals in ore and base bullion are required by Department of State circular of August 22, 1925, to show separately the quantities and values of each of the metals contained therein.

SEC. 28. Coding and forwarding of export declarations.—Export declarations will be numbered, coded, and forwarded to the Sections of Customs Statistics at New York in accordance with the instructions in paragraphs 3, 4, and 8 of T. D. 37531, sections 19 (as amended by T. D. 47088) and 20 of T. D. 38410, and other special instructions.

SEC. 29. Shipments in transit through the United States.—(a) Export declarations, customs Form 7525, are not required for foreign merchandise shipped in transit through the United States from one foreign country to another. In lieu thereof "Statistical Export Declaration for In-Transit Goods," customs Form 7513, will be used as provided in article 906 (a) and (b).

(b) Any export declarations filed by shippers for in-transit goods in addition to customs Form 7513, under a misunderstanding of the regulations, should not be forwarded to the Section of Customs Statistics at New York. Collectors should make a careful check of the outward foreign vessel manifest and railroad car manifest for the purpose of detecting such duplication of declarations.

EXPORT PROCEDURE

SEC. 30. Manifests of vessels.—Shippers' declarations—Clearance.—(a) Before clearance shall be granted to any vessel bound to a foreign place or noncontiguous territory of the United States the master shall file a manifest on commerce form 1374 of all the cargo on board his vessel. There shall also be filed with the collector declarations of the owners, shippers, or consignors of the cargo shipped by them, specifying the kinds, quantities, values, and the places to which destined. These declarations will be made in duplicate on customs form 7525 in accordance with the instructions printed thereon, the original verified by oath before a customs officer, notary public, or other authorized person for shipments valued at over $100. Collectors will number the declarations serially as received.

(b) Where the cargo is to be transshipped in another customs district, including Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands of the United States, for transportation to a foreign country or noncontiguous territory of the United States, the shippers' export declarations (customs form 7525) should be filed only with the collector of customs at the port where the merchandise is last laden for its final destination.

(c) The manifest of a vessel bound to a foreign country or to or from contiguous territory of the United States must show the customhouse number of the export declaration for each consignment, also the particulars required by section 4199, Revised Statutes, namely, the destination of the vessel, the marks and numbers of the packages, and a description of the articles, contents, quantities, and values, provided that a notation on the manifest that values are as stated on shippers' declaration, copies of which are attached to such manifest, will be accepted. Any short shipment must be noted on the duplicate export declarations presented with the manifest.

SEC. 31. Clearance on incomplete manifest under bond.—Clearance may be granted on incomplete cargo manifest and before all shippers' declarations have been filed, upon application to the collector on customs form 7301, and the execution of the bond printed thereon. The condition of the bond is that a complete outward manifest be filed not later than the fourth business day after clearance of the vessel, together with all export declarations theretofore received. Delinquent declarations must be filed with the collector as soon as received and at the latest within six days after clearance, unless a further extension of time is granted by the collector in exceptional cases. If required by the collector, pro forma declarations on customs form 7303 must be filed enumerating shipments for which declarations are missing.

SEC. 32. Cargo of vessel laden in different customs districts, now returned.—When a vessel is laden in different customs districts with commodities to be exported to foreign countries, shippers' export declarations must be filed in the respective districts where laden. The collector will report as exports only the merchandise laden in his district.

SEC. 33. Declarations for exports by railways, ferryboats, and vehicles.—(a) Any person who delivers merchandise to any transportation company for exportation from the United States to a foreign country by rail, ferryboat, or vehicle must deliver to the collector of customs at the port through which the merchandise passes into foreign territory export declarations in duplicate on customs form 7525, showing the kinds, quantities, and values of all merchandise delivered by him or his agent to such carrier for exportation.

(b) The collector shall not permit any car or other vehicle laden with merchandise intended for exportation to any foreign country to depart from the United States until a declaration specifying the kinds, quantities, and values of the merchandise has been delivered to him by the shipper or his agent. Exportation may be permitted under bond to produce missing declarations within 15 days.

SEC. 34. In transit shipments, customs form 7525 not to be used for.—The foregoing article applies only to merchandise exported by land carriage or ferryboat to or through adjacent foreign territory for a market. Export declarations on customs form 7525 are not to be filed for shipments from one part of the United States to another part thereof across foreign territory, nor for merchandise passing through the United States in transit from one foreign country to another, or from one portion of a foreign country to another portion thereof, across the territory of the United States.

SEC. 35. In transit shipments through Canada diverted.—When grain or other commodities shipped from northern border or lake ports by vessel or railroad in transit through Canada to other United States ports are diverted for import into Canada or for export from a Canadian port to foreign countries and collectors at the port of shipment are informed to that effect, they will obtain export declarations on customs form 7525 from the original shippers and forward them to the Section of Customs Statistics at New York, in order that such diverted shipments may be included in the statistics of exports from the United States.

SEC. 36. Shipments from interior to seaboard.—Declarations for merchandise shipped from an interior point in the United States partly in transit through Canada or Mexico for export from a seaboard port of the United States are not required to be delivered to the collector of customs at the first border port, but the statistics of exports will be secured from shippers' declarations filed at the seaboard port of exportation.

SEC. 37. Reporting in transit shipments.—Foreign merchandise entered for shipment in transit through the United States, or for transshipment in ports of the United States, will not be reported as importations when received, nor will export declarations be required therefor when shipped out. Such merchandise will be reported to the Section of Customs Statistics at New York on customs form 7513, giving the aggregate quantity and value of each of the various classes of merchandise and the countries to which destined, as prescribed by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

SEC. 38. Car manifests.—(a) Upon arrival of merchandise for exportation at a border port the carrier must deliver to the collector of customs a car manifest, giving marks and numbers, the name of the shipper or consignor, description of the goods, and the destination thereof. This manifest may be the waybill, or a copy thereof or a copy of the manifest prepared for the foreign customs. The required shipper's export declarations in duplicate must be attached to the car manifest or waybill when delivered to the collector.

(b) Under the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1893, no railway car containing commodities for export will be permitted to leave the United States until the car manifest and shipper's export declarations have been delivered to the collector of customs; but if any declarations are missing, immediate exportation may be permitted upon the filing of pro forma declarations therefor and the execution of a bond on customs form 7303.

SEC. 39. Exportation by ferry or vehicle.—The shipper or his agent must deliver shipper's export declarations in duplicate to the customs officer covering all goods exported by ferry, wagon, or other vehicle. The customs officer will retain the original declaration and deliver the certified duplicate to the shipper, master, or driver as a permit for the exportation of the goods. The driver of a vehicle will deliver the certified duplicate to the customs officer when the goods are taken out of the country. The master of a ferry will deliver to the customs officer at the close of each day all duplicates received during that day, accompanied by a statement that such duplicate declarations cover all goods exported on such ferry during that day. If a declaration can not be produced, exportation may be permitted upon the filing of a pro forma declaration and bond on customs form 7303.

SEC. 40. Penalty.—The agent or other employee of any railway or transportation company who shall transport any merchandise into a foreign country before the delivery of a declaration, as required by law, except under bond as provided for, shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each offense.

SEC. 41. Report of violations of law.—Collectors of customs shall report without delay to the nearest United States attorney all violations of the provisions of the statistical laws.

SEC. 42. Shipments from the interior for export.—(a) For goods shipped on a through export bill of lading from an interior point to a foreign country or to a noncontiguous territory of the United States, the shipper must prepare and deliver to the carrier the export declaration in duplicate to accompany the waybill to the seaport or border port of exportation.

(b) For shipments from the interior on domestic bills of lading consigned to the seaboard for exportation, the export declaration may be delivered to the carrier as prescribed above or mailed to the consignee at the port of exportation.

SEC. 43. Divided shipments.—If a shipment is divided at the port of exit by accident or intention, part being exported in one vessel or car and part in another, the agent of the carrier will note the amount shipped on the duplicate declaration attached to the vessel or car manifest. A declaration and duplicate covering subsequent shipments must be prepared by the carrier's agent from records of the previous shipment and be presented to the collector when the remainder is shipped. The number of the original declaration must be noted on each of the copies and duplicates.

SEC. 44. Exportations from Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico via the United States.—Shipper's export declarations in duplicate must accompany merchandise shipped from Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico for transshipment and exportation from a port in the United States and be delivered by the shipping agent to the collector of customs at such port of exportation, with the name of the exporting vessel noted thereon.

SEC. 45. Trade between the United States and its noncontiguous territory.—The regulations in this chapter with respect to the collection of statistics of merchandise, gold, and silver exported from the United States to foreign countries by water and of clearances of vessels in such trade are extended to, and will govern, so far as applicable, in the collection of statistics of shipments between the United States and its contiguous territory and between the respective portions of said noncontiguous territory.

SEC. 46. Government supplies shipped abroad.—(a) No export declarations are required for shipments of furniture, stationery, and other office supplies to the United States Government offices or employees in foreign countries or noncontiguous territories for their exclusive use, or for shipments of military and naval supplies and equipment from quartermaster stores or supply depots for use of United States military or naval forces abroad, or for equipment shipped to United States lighthouses.

(b) Export declarations are required for construction material, machinery, supplies, or other merchandise shipped on commercial vessels to the Panama Canal, Panama Railroad, the Government of Puerto Rico or of the Philippine Islands, or the Manila Railroad Company, which are not regarded as branch offices of United States Government departments or bureaus.

SEC. 47. Personal effects.—No export declarations are required for personal effects or baggage of travelers carried on passenger trains to Canada or Mexico.

FOREIGN-TRADE ZONES BOARD.

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING THE PUBLICATION, POSTING, AND FILING OF SCHEDULES CONTAINING ALL THE RULES, REGULATIONS, RATES AND CHARGES FOR ALL SERVICES AND PRIVILEGES WITHIN FOREIGN-TRADE ZONES

1. Section 14 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 998–1003; 19 U. S. C., Sec. 81n) relating to Foreign-Trade Zones provides in part as follows:

> Each zone shall be operated as a public utility, and all rates and charges for all services or privileges within the zone shall be fair and reasonable, and the grantee shall afford to all who may apply for the use of the zone and its facilities and appurtenances uniform treatment under like conditions, subject to such treaties or commercial conventions as are now in force or may hereafter be made from time to time by the United States with foreign governments * * *.

and

Paragraphs 1000 and 1003 (b) of Article X of the Regulations promulgated by the Foreign-Trade Zones Board effective June 29, 1935, contain the following relative to schedules:

"The grantee shall, before beginning operation of a zone, submit to the Board for approval its own rules, regulations, and practices for the operation of the zone."

"Schedules containing all the rates and charges shall be published, posted, and filed with, and subject to the approval of the Board. Full instructions concerning the publication, posting, and filing of such schedules will be issued by the Board. One copy of each tariff required to be filed with any State regulatory body shall also be filed with the Board."

2. In accordance with the provisions of the Act and of the Regulations cited above, the Foreign-Trade Zones Board on February 7, 1938, adopted and issued the following instructions concerning the publication, posting, and filing of schedules containing all the rules, regulations, rates and charges for all services and privileges within foreign-trade zones. Additional instructions, and an elaboration or extension of those set forth herein, may be issued from time to time.

3. That there may be no misunderstanding the following definitions are to be followed in the preparation of the schedules:

Grantee:

The term "grantee" means a corporation to which the privilege of establishing, operating, and maintaining a foreign-trade zone has been granted, in accordance with the Act, Public 397, Seventy-third Congress, approved June 18, 1934.

Schedule:

The term "schedule" means a publication stating rates and charges of a foreign-trade zone, and all rules and regulations applying in connection therewith and to general operating procedure.

Publication:

Should be construed as the act of constructing, or compiling and publishing a schedule which will include all pertinent information in connection with the rates, charges, rules, and regulations applicable thereto within a foreign-trade zone, and also such other schedules as may be inaugurated from time to time.

Posting:

Should be construed as the act of posting all effective schedules within a foreign-trade zone, and the general offices of the grantee, in such a manner that they will be accessible to the public, and can be conveniently inspected. Requests may originate from the public for copies of effective schedules, and this also comes under the general heading of "posting" as such requests should be complied with to every reasonable degree.

Filing:

All schedules must be filed with the Foreign-Trade Zones Board and such other State or Federal regulating bodies as may subsequently exercise any jurisdiction in connection with the operation of foreign-trade zones. All original schedules so filed are, of course, considered as the effective schedules, unless otherwise cancelled or revised.

4. The obligation to compile and publish, post and file schedules naming rates, charges, rules and regulations, applying at foreign-trade zones is a direct responsibility of the grantee. The grantee should place such obligation and authority, through a Power of Attorney, with a member of its organization specifically designated to perform such work, thereby definitely fixing the responsibility for publishing, posting and filing schedules on behalf of the grantee.

The granting of such authority to a specifically designated person would ratify and confirm the lawful action of such an agent of the grantee with respect to the responsibility imposed by law in connection with publishing, filing and posting of schedules. In other words, the granting of such a Power of Attorney to a designated person would serve the following purposes insofar as the grantee is concerned:

(a) Would give the person so designated the authority to publish, post and file schedules, and all revisions thereto on behalf of the grantee.

(b) Avoid duplication of this responsibility and possible conflict with respect to the material contained in schedules, by placing with one person the authority to carry out the provisions of the Act with relation to publishing, posting and filing schedules.

(c) Would also place the responsibility for the unification and dissemination of information contained within schedules to the interested public, and the many other incidental details with regard to this important subject, upon the person granted the power of attorney.

The granting of such authority to a specifically designated person could be limited in the following respects:

(a) By defining the period of time such Power of Attorney is to run.

(b) By stating the exact nature of responsibility for which the Power of Attorney is issued, for instance "to publish, post and file schedules, and all incidental duties in relation thereto."

From the above it will be seen that one of the main objectives to be accomplished thereby would be to limit the responsibility on behalf of the grantee to one person, a specifically designated authority, to handle all matters in relation to the publication, posting and filing of schedules. Future developments of foreign-trade zones will undoubtedly reveal the numbers and kinds of schedules and revisions necessary to the conduct of such organizations.

5. In order that all original schedules and revisions embracing matters pertaining to foreign-trade zones, such as rates, charges, rules and regulations, and any additional schedules and revisions that may be subsequently issued, will be constructed as uniformly as possible, the following is prescribed:

(a) All schedules shall be compiled and published in loose leaf form, both the original schedule and subsequent revised pages conforming to a size of approximately 8 inches wide by 11 inches long.

(b) Schedules and revised pages shall be plainly printed, mimeographed or reproduced by other similar durable process on paper of good quality.

(c) The loose leaf pages of the schedule shall be printed upon one side only, and each page consecutively numbered, beginning with "original page No. 1." etc., etc.

(d) A margin of not less than one (1) inch shall surround the schedule page, especially at the binding edge.

(e) No alteration in writing or erasure shall be made in any part of the schedule.

(f) A hard cardboard front and back cover shall be used in binding schedules, and allowance made for conveniently fastening and unfastening the schedule to permit insertion of revised pages from time to time.

(g) The front cover and back cover of schedules may be in any color which may be determined upon, but the pages within the schedule shall be white, at least commencing with original page number one up to and including the last page, and all revisions thereof.

6. All schedules should be constructed as simply as possible, but accuracy and comprehensiveness should not be sacrificed. The Board, therefore, instructs that the following general outline of the schedule be followed as closely as possible:

The title page shall generally bear such items as:

(1) The name of the grantee or operator.
(2) The schedule number.
(3) Descriptive statement of the contents named within schedule.
(4) Locaton of zone.
(5) The date the schedule is issued and effective date.
(6) The name of the person by whom the schedule is issued.

This information may be given on the cover of the schedule as well as on the page constituting original page 1 of the schedule.

(b) Administrative Organization Page:

On this page, which will form original page 2, shall be listed the public officials and managing officers connected directly with the operation of the zone.

(c) Checking Sheet for Schedule:

This standard method of noting corrections and additions to the schedule shall be used and followed by the grantee. The checking sheet shall carry an explanation for its use to all who are in possession of the original schedule.

(d) Table of Contents:

The table of contents shall follow the general outline as given in this section and shall include all major references by pages.

(e) Explanation of Abbreviations and Symbols:

A complete list of abbreviations and symbols used in the schedule shall be explained.

(f) Definitions:

There shall be given definitions of all terms used in this schedule relating to rules, regulations, rates and charges, also of any terms relating to the physical construction of this schedule. Where the Foreign-Trade Zones Board has supplied definitions for terms to be used herein, those definitions shall be used.

(g) Rules and Regulations:

Special care should be taken in the compilation of rules and regulations that they may be complete and self-explanatory with respect to their general application. It is suggested that rules and regulations of general application be segregated from those of specific or special application. It is also suggested that rules and regulations be grouped in their application, that is, concerning carriers, concerning cargo, concerning persons, concerning rates and charges, etc.

(h) Prohibited Merchandise:

There shall be listed all merchandise which has been excluded from the privileges of the zone for any reason.

(i) Rates and Charges:

(1) Applying to Carriers: Herein shall be listed all charges applicable to carriers, their owners or agents, in the following manner: Vessels: towage, dockage, loading and discharging, running lines, fumigation, etc. Rail cars: switching charge, demurrage, etc. Motor trucks: property privilege, loading and unloading, etc.

(2) Applying to Cargo: All rates and charges collectible by the grantee against cargo shall be listed in separate tariffs for each service. Thus tariffs for wharfage, handling, demurrage, storage, extra services, manipulation, loading and unloading, high piling, rental of equipment, minimum charges, etc., shall each show the application of the tariff, space and labor rates, commodity and description necessary to apply the particular tariff, modifications of the tariff, and such other information necessary for the determination of rates and charges for a particular service.

7. Duplication should be avoided. A commodity once named within the schedule with all rates, charges, rules and regulations applying in connection therewith, will be considered as the effective tariff in force until subsequently revised in the form provided by means of revised pages.

The Foreign-Trade Zones Board shall be furnished with the original and seven copies of all schedules.

Changes or additions in the form of revised pages shall be submitted to the Foreign-Trade Zones Board within three days after such changes have been made.

All supplementary information concerning the quotation of rates and charges for commodities not within the schedule shall be furnished the Foreign-Trade Zones Board within ten days after such quotations are made. This is in addition to the construction of the schedule and should not be confused therewith.

All items carried in the schedule shall be numbered in consecutive sequence.

Acting Secretary of Commerce,
Acting Chairman, Foreign-Trade Zones Board.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Docket No. 13]

PETITION OF MALLORY COAL COMPANY, ET AL. FOR VACATION OF RULING BY THE COMMISSION DATED MARCH 30, 1938, AND REVOCATION OF ITS CONSTRUCTION THEREIN OF SECTION 10 (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

[Docket No. 14]

ROCHESTER AND PITTSBURGH COAL COMPANY AND EXCEPTION TO RULING OF COMMISSION DATED MARCH 30, 1938

ORDER

At a Session of the National Bituminous Coal Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of June 1938.

The above entitled matters, being consolidated for the purposes of hearing, came on to be heard before the Commission on the 25th and 26th days of May, 1938. The petitions similarly prayed that the Ruling of the Commission, dated March 30, 1938, be rescinded and the construction of Section 10 (a) of the Act therein made, be revoked. This Ruling declared that the Commission would, upon the hearing for the determination of the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in the several districts for the calendar year 1936, cause the cost reports of the individual producers of bituminous coal, obtained pursuant to the provisions of Section 10 (a) of the Act and Order No. 15 of the Commission, to be made available for introduction in evidence. The construction of Section 10 (a) of the Act adopted by the Commission, of which petitioners complain, is that said Section permits the introduction in evidence of the said individual cost returns at a hearing before the Commission.

The Associated Industries of New York, Inc., Association of American Railroads, American Short Line Railroad Association, and the Indiana Gas & Chemical Corporation, severally sought leave to intervene. These petitions to intervene were denied. The cities of New York, Cleveland, Chicago, Boston, and Richmond, and producers Imperial Coal Corporation, Heisley Coal Company, Monroe Coal Company, Ebensburg Coal Company, Alleghany River Mining Company, Ringgold Coal Company, Reid Coal Company, and the Berwind-White Coal Company, likewise filed petitions to intervene, which were granted.

Evidence being adduced by the petitioners and by the Bureau of Statistics and Research of the Commission, and the Commission being fully advised in the premises, finds that the Ruling complained of should not be rescinded, nor the construction therein made, be revoked, and that the petitions in each of said Dockets Nos. 13, and 14 should be dismissed, for the reasons stated in the opinion of the Commission in this cause filed herewith,

Now, therefore, It is ordered:

1. That the petition of the Mallory Coal Company, et al., filed in Docket No. 13, and the petition of the Rochester and Pittsburgh Coal Company, filed in Docket No. 14, be and the same are hereby denied and dismissed.

2. That the Secretary of the Commission be and he is hereby directed to cause the individual cost returns of the producers, as above described, to be made available for inspection by interested parties in the final hearing in the establishment of minimum prices and marketing rules and regulations, so that the same will be available for introduction in evidence if and when required.

3. That the Secretary be and he is hereby directed to mail a copy of this order to each of the above named petitioners, and to all parties who filed petitions to intervene.

By the Commission.
Dated this 1st day of June, 1938.

[General Docket No. 15]

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MINIMUM PRICES AND MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS

SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING IN RE DETERMINATION OF WEIGHTED AVERAGE OF THE TOTAL COSTS OF THE TONNAGE PRODUCED WITHIN MINIMUM PRICE AREAS 6, 7, 9 AND 10

Whereas, the Commission, on the 26th day of May, 1938, issued its supplemental order and notice of a hearing to be held on the 13th day of June, 1938, at 10 o'clock A. M., in the Hearing Room of the Commission at the Shirley-Savoy Hotel, Denver, Colorado, in the matter of the determination of the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage produced within Minimum Price Areas 6, 7, 9 and 10, and

Whereas, the original notice, dated May 25, 1938 and said supplemental notice and order provided that the verified cost reports of the individual producers within each of the aforesaid Price Areas, obtained by the Commission pursuant to Section 10 (a) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and Order No. 15 of the Commission and upon which are based the cost data submitted to the District Boards by the Statistical Bureaus of the Commission and the composite exhibits prepared by the Bureau of Research and Statistics of the Commission, would be made available for inspection by interested parties on and after June 6, 1938, at the Shirley-Savoy Hotel, Denver, Colorado, and

Whereas, certain producers within the said western Price Areas, whose individual cost returns are included in those intended to be made available for inspection, have filed petitions with the Commission challenging the right of the Commission to so disclose their said cost returns, and

Whereas, certain producers within several eastern Price Areas had previously filed similar petitions with the Commission, raising identical issues, which petitions the Commission entertained and dismissed after hearing, and

Whereas, said eastern petitioners, if aggrieved by the order of dismissal, are afforded by virtue of Section 6 of the Act the opportunity to seek judicial review of the Commission's action, and

Whereas, it is deemed inadvisable to disclose the cost data of the western as well as the eastern producers at this time,

Now, therefore, pursuant to Act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs:

1. That paragraph numbered 1 of said original Notice of and Order for Hearing, dated May 25, 1938, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"1. That the above entitled proceeding entitled 'In the Matter of the Establishment of Minimum Prices and Marketing Rules and Regulations,' General Docket No. 15, is hereby instituted for the purpose of conducting investigations and informatory hearings relating to the determinations of the weighted averages of the total costs of the tonnage produced in the several districts and of the several minimum price areas and the proposal of minimum prices and marketing rules and regulations."

That the said original paragraph numbered 1 be and the same is hereby rescinded.

2. That paragraph numbered 2 of said original Notice of and Order for Hearing, dated May 25, 1938, be and the same is hereby rescinded.

3. That the verified cost reports of the individual producers within each of the said Price Areas upon which the cost data submitted to the District Boards by the Statistical Bureaus of the Commission are based, and upon which are based the said exhibits prepared by the Bureau of Research and Statistics of the Commission, as referred to in the fourth paragraph of the original notice of and order for hearing dated May 25, 1938, and in the second paragraph of the supplemental notice of and order for hearing in the said matter, dated May 26, 1938, shall not be made available for inspection by interested parties until the final hearing in the matter of the establishment of minimum prices and marketing rules and regulations.

4. That paragraph numbered 6 of the Commission's notice of and order for hearing in re determination of weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage produced within Minimum Price Areas 6, 7, 9 and 10, dated May 25, 1938, be and the same is hereby rescinded.

5. That paragraph numbered 7 of said original notice of and order for hearing, dated May 25, 1938, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"7. Any person desiring to offer affirmative evidence at such hearing shall, not later than the day preceding the date of said hearing, file with the Commission at its offices in the Central Savings Bank Building, Denver, Colorado, a written appearance setting forth therein the nature of his interest and a concise written statement of the facts which he wishes to present. Such cross-examination as the Commission in its discretion deems proper will be permitted."

That the said original paragraph numbered 7 be and the same is hereby rescinded.

6. That this second supplemental notice of and order for hearing is supplemental to the notice of and order for hearing in re determination of the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage produced within Minimum Price Areas 6, 7, 9 and 10, dated May 25, 1938, as amended and supplemented by supplemental notice of and order for hearing dated May 26, 1938, and said original notice and order, as amended and supplemented, shall remain in full force and effect except as herein modified.

7. That the Secretary be and he is hereby directed to cause a copy of this second supplemental notice of and order for hearing to be published forthwith in the FEDERAL REGISTER and in two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in each of the Districts within the aforesaid Price Areas, and shall cause copies thereof to be mailed to each code member, the Consumers' Counsel and to the Secretary of each District Board, and to be made available for inspection by interested parties at each of the Statistical Bureaus of the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 11]

DECISION AND ORDER OF SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE ALLOTTING THE DIRECT-CONSUMPTION PORTION OF THE 1938 SUGAR QUOTA FOR PUERTO RICO

General Sugar Quota Regulations, Series 5, No. 1, issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on December 20, 1937, pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), provide that the 1938 Puerto Rican sugar quota for shipment to the continental United States may be filled by shipments of direct-consumption sugar not in excess of 126,033 short tons, raw value.

Under the provisions of section 205 (a) of the act, the Secretary is required to allot a quota whenever he finds that the allotment is necessary (1) to assure an orderly and adequate flow of sugar or liquid sugar in the channels of interstate commerce, (2) to prevent the disorderly marketing of sugar or liquid sugar, (3) to maintain a continuous and stable supply of sugar or liquid sugar, or (4) to afford all interested persons an equitable opportunity to market sugar or liquid sugar within the quota for any area. Section 205 (a) also provides that such allotment shall be made after such hearing and upon such notice as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe. On December 31, 1937, the Secretary, pursuant to General Sugar Regulations, Series 2, No. 2, issued a notice of a public hearing to be held in Washington, D. C., on January 14, 1938, for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable him to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the Puerto Rican sugar quota among interested persons and such other evidence as might be pertinent to the exercise of the powers vested in the Secretary under section 205 (a) of the act.

Section 205 (a) of the act requires a preliminary finding of the Secretary as a condition precedent to the calling of a hearing. The Notice of Hearing and Designation of Presiding Officers issued by the Secretary on December 31, 1937, provided in part as follows:

"Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1937 (Public, No. 414, 75th Congress) and on the basis of the information now before me, I, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby find that the allotment of the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for shipment to the continental United States (including the portion which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar, pursuant to section 207 (b) of said act) and the 1938 sugar quota for Puerto Rico for local consumption, established pursuant to section 202 and 203, respectively, of the said act is necessary to prevent disorderly marketing and importation of such sugar * * *."

The preliminary finding was based upon information which the Secretary had to the effect that Puerto Rico processors were in a position to manufacture and make available for market a potential supply of approximately 400,000 short tons of direct-consumption sugar during the calendar year 1938.

The hearing was held at Washington, D. C., on the date specified in the notice. The evidence presented at the hearing indicated that the preliminary finding of the Secretary should be confirmed. Such evidence indicated a plant capacity of 401,500 short tons for all processors in Puerto Rico. The total amount of such sugar which may be shipped to continental United States under the act is limited to 126,033 short tons. Under these conditions, it was deemed probable that, without allotment of the direct-consumption portion of the quota, more raw sugar would be processed into direct-consumption sugar than could be shipped to the continental United States during any calendar year. This, it was concluded, would result in disorderly marketing of sugar.

On March 30, 1938, the Secretary issued Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 9, allotting that portion of the 1938 Puerto Rico sugar quota for shipment to the continental United States which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar. On April 19, 1938, the Secretary issued Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10, which superseded the order of March 30, 1938, and which contains allotments identical with those made in the first order, together with a full statement of the facts and grounds for his decision.

Section 205 (a) of the act provides in part that:

Allotments shall be made in such manner and in such amounts as to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of such quota or proration thereof, by taking into consideration the processings of sugar or liquid sugar from sugar beets or sugarcane to which proportionate shares, determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection (b) of section 302, pertained; the past marketings or importations of each such person; or the ability of such person to market or import that portion of such quota or proration thereof allotted to him. The Secretary may also, upon such hearing and notice as he may by regulations prescribe, revise or amend any such allotment upon the same basis as the initial allotment was made.

On April 26, 1938, the Secretary issued a notice of a public hearing to be held in Washington, D. C., on May 3, 1938, for the purpose, among others, of receiving evidence to enable him to revise or amend Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 in accordance with the provisions of section 205 (a) of the act. The hearing was held on May 3 as specified in the notice and was concluded on May 4. The following companies interested in marketing direct-consumption sugar in the continental United States during 1938 were represented at the hearing:

Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery,
Central Aguirre,
Central Guanica,
Central Igualdad,
Central Roig,
Camuy Sugar Co.

Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 states the basis for allotments therein made as follows:

"The first standard stated above for the Secretary to use in making allotments, namely, processings to which proportionate shares established under section 302 (b) of the act pertain, is inapplicable to the allotment of that portion of the quota which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar.

"The other two standards given in the act, namely, 'past marketings' and 'ability * * * to market,' are applicable and should both be used in making individual allotments, in order to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of the portion of the quota under discussion.

"In determining 'ability * * * to market', it is apparent that mill capacity alone cannot be taken as an accurate measure. That factor represents only a potential ability to produce sugar, dependent upon a number of other factors, such as the availability of raw sugar, the price of raw materials, transportation costs, and similar factors. An additional factor must be used in order to arrive at a true measure of ability to market. It is believed that the ratios of each processor's current marketings of sugar to the total of such marketings should be considered and given equal weight with the ratios of each processor's mill capacity to the total mill capacity for all processors. Since the hearing was held on January 14, 1938, it would be possible to take 1937 marketings as indicating the processor's current ability to market, but this method would be unfair to processors marketing direct-consumption sugar for the first time in 1938. In order, therefore, to be fair to both new and old processors, and in order to obtain as accurate a measure of present ability to market as possible, it is necessary to take marketings of direct-consumption sugar during the present calendar year. During the first three months of the current year, no allotment order was in effect and processors were not restricted in their shipments of direct-consumption sugar to the United States, and since there was reason to believe that allotments would be made, processors had an incentive to hasten shipments prior to the making of such allotments. [The Notice of Hearing and Designation of Presiding Officers issued by the Secretary on December 31, 1937, contained a finding to the effect that allotment of the direct-consumption sugar was necessary, and processors were thereby put on notice that allotments for 1938 would likely be made.] Hence the official data of the Department showing actual entries against such quota during the period from January 1, 1938, to March 22, 1938 (the date of final preparation of Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 9), are believed to constitute a necessary factor in determining actual ability to market sugar. This factor, along with that of mill refining capacity, is therefore deemed to be a fair measure of the present ability to market sugar."

Since section 205 (a) of the act requires that the Secretary, in revising or amending an allotment order, use the same basis used in making the initial allotment, it is necessary in this Order to apply the same basic formula as was used in Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10.

The evidence presented at the hearings of January 14 and May 3 in regard to mill refining capacity in terms of short tons, refined value, may be summarized as follows:

Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery: 700 to 800 tons per day (pages 29, 48, 62, 65, and 324 of record of hearing held on January 14).

Central Aguirre: 8000 to 9000 tons per annum (page 125 of record of hearing held on January 14).

Central Guanica: 50,000 tons per annum (page 128 of record of hearing held on January 14).

Central Igualdad: 220 tons per day (pages 103, 194, and 199 of record of hearing held on May 3).[1]

Central Roig: 210 tons per day (page 273 of record of hearing held on May 3).[2]

No testimony was given either at the hearing of January 14 or of May 3 bearing on the mill refining capacity of Central Carmen and Central San Francisco. It is, therefore, necessary to take 1936[3] entries of direct-consumption sugar into the continental United States as the mill capacity for these companies. In 1936, Central Carmen brought into the continental United States 264 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar, or 247 short tons, refined value, and Central San Francisco brought in during the same year 2,590 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar, or 2,421 short tons, refined value. (Government Exhibit No. 3.)

The actual quantities of Puerto Rican direct-consumption sugar certified for entry into the continental United States between January 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938 (Government Exhibit No. 3), were as follows:

	Short tons, raw value
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	46,866
Central Aguirre	1,970
Central Carmen	------
Central Guanica	------
Central Igualdad	1,124
Central Roig	8,070
Central San Francisco	795
	58,825

In determining "past marketings" for processors which have shipped direct-consumption sugar to the continental United States, it is believed that the years 1935, 1936, and 1937 should be used, since they are years during which a quota system was in effect and, consequently, are believed to be fair and reasonable under a restrictive program such as that provided for under the present and prior sugar legislation. The marketing history[4] for these years (Government Exhibit No. 3) is as follows:

	Puerto Rican direct-consumption sugar entries (refined and turbinado) for consumption in the U. S. (in terms of short tons, raw value)
	1935	1936	1937
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	116,611	109,945	97,498
Central Aguirre	2,719	2,496	5,767
Central Carmen		264
Central Guanica	1,015
Central Igualdad	163	438	52
Central Roig		2,778	16,204
Central San Francisco	2,463	2,590	1,981
	122,971	118,511	121,502

It is deemed desirable to reserve 5,712 short tons of sugar to be set aside for persons who bring in raw sugar from

[1] The record of the hearing held on January 14 indicated a maximum capacity of 225 tons per day, but the same witness who testified in regard to plant capacity at the first hearing testified at the hearing of May 3 (page 199 of record) that 200 to 225 tons per day is more nearly correct. In view of the fact that a test run has shown 220 tons per day (page 103 of record of hearing held on May 3), this figure is taken as the rated mill capacity instead of 212.5 tons per day which would be taken in the absence of testimony showing actual performance in excess of that figure.

[2] Although the record of the hearing on January 14 indicated a rated plant capacity of 200 tons per day (pp. 170 and 174 of record), the fact that the company has actually exceeded that figure indicates that the rated capacity should be something in excess of 200 tons per day. The testimony shows (page 273 of record of hearing held on May 3) that the company has actually produced an average of 210 tons of sugar per day over a period of several days. Hence 210 tons per day is taken as the rated plant capacity.

[3] Being the year in which Centrals Carmen and San Francisco brought in more direct-consumption sugar than in any other year of the period 1935–1937, inclusive. (Government Exhibit No. 3.)

[4] Sugar from outside the continental United States cannot be "marketed" within the meaning of the act until after release from customs custody.

Puerto Rico for direct-consumption purposes, which amount represents the average quantity of such sugar brought in during the years 1935–1937, inclusive. It is not practicable to allot this quantity of sugar to individual processors, inasmuch as it would have to be allotted to 34 raw sugar processors, thereby rendering it impossible to make an efficient allotment as required by the act. An allotment would require continental purchasers of raw sugar for direct consumption to deal with a large number of sellers in order to obtain their requirements. Such disruption of customary trade practices could not reasonably be said to be an efficient distribution of this kind of sugar as required by the act.

On the basis of the record of the hearings held on January 14, 1938, and May 3, 1938, I hereby find:[1]

1. That the Puerto Rican processors of direct-consumption sugar are equipped to produce 415,168 short tons, refined value,[2] of sugar during the calendar year 1938.

2. That the present plant capacity of each Puerto Rican processor of direct-consumption sugar is as follows:

Processor:	Rated refining capacity per annum, 300-day basis
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	225,000
Central Aguirre	8,500
Central Carmen	247
Central Guanica	50,000
Central Igualdad	66,000
Central Roig	63,000
Central San Francisco	2,421
	415,168

3. That the quantities of direct-consumption sugar certified for entry into the continental United States from Puerto Rico between January 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938, were as follows:

Processor:	Short tons raw value
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	46,866
Central Aguirre	1,970
Central Carmen	------
Central Guanica	------
Central Igualdad	1,124
Central Roig	8,070
Central San Francisco	795

4. That during the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, Puerto Rican processors brought direct-consumption sugar (refined and turbinado) into the continental United States for consumption therein in the following amounts:

	Puerto Rican direct-consumption sugar entries (refined and turbinado) for consumption in the U. S. (in terms of short tons, raw value)
	1935	1936	1937
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	116,611	109,945	97,498
Central Aguirre	2,719	2,496	5,767
Central Carmen		264
Central Guanica	1,015
Central Igualdad	163	438	52
Central Roig		2,778	16,204
Central San Francisco	2,463	2,590	1,981
	122,971	118,511	121,502

On the basis of the foregoing and after consideration of the briefs submitted by interested persons following the hearings of January 14 and May 3, 1938, and the objections and arguments filed in opposition to the proposed order[3] revising the allotments made in Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10, issued April 19, 1938, I hereby determine and conclude that the allotment of that portion of the 1938 Puerto Rican sugar quota which may be filled by shipments of direct-consumption sugar is necessary in order to prevent disorderly marketing of sugar, and that in order to make a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of such sugar, as required by section 205 (a) of the act, allotments should be made by giving equal weight to (1) past marketings during the years 1935, 1936, and 1937, and (2) ability to market, measured by giving equal weight to present plant capacity and the quantities of direct-consumption sugar certified for entry into the continental United States between Janutry 1, 1938, and March 22, 1938.

ORDER

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 205 (a) of the act, it is hereby ordered:

1. That the allotments contained in Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10 shall be, and they are hereby, revised, and the said quantity of 126,033 short tons, raw value, of direct-consumption sugar is hereby allotted to the following processors in the amounts which appear opposite their respective names:

Name of processor:	Direct-consumption allotment (short tons, raw value)
Porto Rico American Sugar Refinery	93,975
Aguirre	3,443
Carmen	62
Guanica	3,791
Igualdad	5,465
Roig	11,837
San Francisco	1,748
	120,321
Unallotted reserve for marketings of raw sugar for direct consumption	5,712
	126,033

2. That the above-named processors are hereby prohibited from bringing into the continental United States, for consumption during the calendar year 1938, any direct-consumption sugar (except the above-mentioned amount of raw sugar for direct consumption) from Puerto Rico in excess of the marketing allotments set forth in the next preceding paragraph.

3. That this order shall supersede Puerto Rico Sugar Order No. 10, issued by the Secretary on April 19, 1938.

In testimony whereof, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 1st day of June 1938.

[SEAL]

H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

[F. R. Doc. 38–1552; Filed, June 1, 1938; 4:21 p. m.]

[1] Since section 205 (a) of the act requires that allotment be made "to persons who market or import sugar", no allotment can be made to Camuy Sugar Company, inasmuch as that company is not engaged in the manufacture of direct-consumption sugar at the present time.

[2] 300 working days per year.

[3] Following the hearing of May 3, the Secretary, on May 14, 1938, issued a proposed order which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 17, 1938. Interested persons were given until May 24, 1938, in which to file objections to the proposed order. Objections were filed by Central San Francisco, Central Roig, and Central Igualdad. Since all interested persons were given ten days in which to file written objections to the proposed order, petitions for oral argument are hereby denied.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

IN THE MATTER OF RATES OF PAY FOR GOVERNMENT COMMUNICATIONS BY TELEGRAPH

The Commission, en banc, at a meeting held May 24, 1938, adopted the following order:

8. That every domestic carrier required under the terms of any permit signed, or license granted, by the President of the United States to transmit messages for the Government of the United States or any of its possessions, free of charge, shall file schedules in accordance with paragraph 7 above, and with the terms of such permit or license.

9. That in every case where during the period stated any schedule containing charges applicable to commercial messages shall be changed, or the charges made by the foreign carriers or administrations shall be changed, the schedule containing the charges applicable to Government messages shall be correspondingly changed, effective on the same date, provided, however, that this provision shall not apply where, under the terms of the permit or license, a domestic carrier is required to transmit Government messages free of charge, nor with respect to charges to and from the Philippine Islands and the Canal Zone the specific amounts of which are fixed and stated in the second ordering paragraph above.
